Bail Regulation 2021

under the
Bail Act 2013

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Bail Act 2013.

MARK SPEAKMAN, MP
Attorney General, and Minister for Prevention of Domestic and Sexual Violence

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to repeal and remake, with minor amendments, the provisions of the Bail Regulation 2014, which would otherwise be repealed on 1 September 2021 by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, section 10(2).

This Regulation makes provision for the following matters—

- (a) the information to be given to an accused person after bail is granted, refused or revoked,
- (b) the form and way in which reasons for a bail decision are to be recorded,
- (c) the information that must be given to a person who is in police custody after having been charged with an offence,
- (d) the facilities that are to be provided by police to an accused person in custody who is not released on bail,
- (e) special notice requirements for bail decisions for domestic violence offences,
- (f) the procedure for making and hearing bail applications,
- (g) requirements relating to bail conditions,
- (h) forfeiture of security under the Act, including the information required to be included in forfeiture notices,
- (i) other records to be made, notices to be given and forms to be used under the Act.

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters set out in the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, Schedule 3, namely matters of a machinery nature.

Bail Regulation 2021

under the

Bail Act 2013

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Bail Regulation 2021.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on the day on which it is published on the NSW legislation website.

Note— This Regulation repeals and replaces the Bail Regulation 2014, which would otherwise be repealed on 1 September 2021 by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, section 10(2).

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation—

approved means approved by the Attorney General for the purposes of the provision in which the expression occurs.

bail decision, in relation to a domestic violence offence, includes the following—

- (a) a bail decision about an application for an apprehended domestic violence order, if the defendant is, by the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007, section 83, taken to be an accused person charged with an offence,
- (b) a bail decision about an appeal against an apprehended domestic violence order, if the defendant is, by the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007, section 85, taken to be an accused person who is in custody.

domestic violence offence has the same meaning as in the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007.

general manager of a correctional centre means the general manager or other officer for the time being in charge of, or having the control or management of, the correctional centre.

personal violence offence—see section 15.

registrar of a court includes the following—

- (a) a registrar of the Supreme Court,
- (b) the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal,
- (c) the Registrar of the Land and Environment Court,
- (d) a registrar of the District Court,
- (e) a registrar of the Local Court,
- (f) a Children's Registrar, or other Registrar of the Children's Court, under the Children's Court Act 1987.

sexual assault offence—see section 15.

the Act means the Bail Act 2013.

Note— The Act and the Interpretation Act 1987 contain definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Regulation.

- (2) To avoid doubt, a reference in this Regulation to a bail authority includes a reference to an appropriate officer acting as, or on behalf of, a bail authority under the Act, section 95.

Part 2 Making and variation of bail decisions

Division 1 General

4 Notice of hearing—the Act, s 33(2)(a)

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 33(2)(a), a notice of the court in which a person is required to appear, and of the time, date and place of that appearance—
 - (a) may be included in a copy of the bail acknowledgment given to the person or in a notice setting out the terms of the bail acknowledgment, and
 - (b) if included, must be in the approved form.
- (2) The notice may—
 - (a) be given personally, or
 - (b) be sent by post, or
 - (c) be given or sent in another way that the court before which the person is to appear may determine.
- (3) If proceedings in which an accused person granted bail is required to appear are adjourned, a notice in an approved form must be given to the person specifying—
 - (a) the court in which the person is next required to appear, and
 - (b) the time, date and place of the appearance.

5 Information about review or variation of decision to be given to accused person—the Act, ss 33(4)(d) and 34(1)(b)

For the purposes of the Act, sections 33(4)(d) and 34(1)(b), the information to be included in a bail acknowledgment or given to the accused person is as follows—

- (a) an explanation of the meaning of “bail decision”,
- (b) information specifying the courts or persons that may make bail decisions, including the circumstances in which a decision of the Supreme Court may be varied by another court or person,
- (c) information specifying the bail applications that may be made and the persons who may make a bail application,
- (d) information about the special powers of courts and authorised justices to review bail conditions under the Act, section 55 if a person granted bail remains in custody because a bail condition has not been complied with,
- (e) information about the special powers of authorised justices to vary reporting conditions, residence conditions, association conditions and curfew conditions under the Act, section 52,
- (f) details of the way in which an accused person may make a bail application,
- (g) information to the effect that a court to which a bail application is made may confirm or vary the decision or give a new decision.

6 Notice required if accused person granted bail remains in custody

The notice required by the Act, section 42 if an accused person granted bail remains in custody must be given in the approved form.

7 Particulars of orders in bail decisions

- (1) If an accused person is, as a consequence of a bail decision, committed to a correctional centre—

- (a) by warrant—the court or person issuing the warrant must cause the required particulars to be endorsed on the form of warrant, or
 - (b) otherwise than by warrant—the court must cause the required particulars to be notified to the general manager of the correctional centre to which the accused person is committed.
- (2) If an accused person is held in custody as a consequence of a bail decision and, as a consequence of a further bail decision, bail is granted, refused or dispensed with for the offence concerned, the court must cause the required particulars to be notified to the general manager of the correctional centre at which the accused person is in custody.
- (3) The required particulars are particulars of an order in the bail decision relating to—
- (a) the grant, refusal or dispensation of bail for the offence concerned, and
 - (b) conditions imposed on the grant of bail, if any, and
 - (c) for the purpose of a bail condition that imposes a security requirement—a decision as to the nature and sufficiency of security that is acceptable security, and
 - (d) for the purpose of a bail condition that requires entry into a bail security agreement—a decision as to the person or persons, or the class or description of persons, who are acceptable persons, and the number of acceptable persons required, to enter into a bail security agreement, and
 - (e) for the purposes of a bail condition that requires a character acknowledgment—a decision as to the person or persons, or the class or description of persons, who are acceptable, and the number of acceptable persons required, to provide a character acknowledgment.

8 Notification of bail acknowledgment and compliance with bail conditions

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an accused person is in custody as a consequence of a bail decision, and
 - (b) the person subsequently gives a bail acknowledgment, and
 - (c) all bail conditions are complied with so that the person may be released from custody in relation to the offence.
- (2) The bail authority that accepts the bail acknowledgment from the accused person must immediately notify the general manager of the correctional centre at which the accused person is detained that—
- (a) the accused person has signed the bail acknowledgment, and
 - (b) bail conditions have been complied with.

9 Exercise of certain functions by court staff and police officers

- (1) The following persons are prescribed as appropriate officers under the Act, section 95(2)(f) in relation to the bail acknowledgment functions of a bail authority—
- (a) if the bail decision is made by a court or authorised justice—an officer of the Department of Communities and Justice who is—
 - (i) employed in a court registry, or
 - (ii) authorised by the Attorney General for the purposes of this section,
 - (b) if the bail decision is made by a police officer with power to grant bail—a police officer.
- (2) The following functions are the bail acknowledgment functions of a bail authority—

- (a) the function of giving an accused person a bail acknowledgment or another notice required to be given by the bail authority,
 - (b) the function of accepting a signed bail acknowledgment from the accused person.
- (3) This section does not permit a police officer who does not have power to grant bail to exercise a function of deciding whether a person or security is acceptable under the Act, section 26(4) or 27(3).
- (4) Accordingly, if a decision referred to in subsection (3) has to be made by the police officer to whom a bail acknowledgment is given, the function of accepting the signed bail acknowledgment, and making the decision, must be exercised by a police officer with power to grant bail.

Division 2 Special provisions for police bail

10 Bail eligibility information—the Act, s 44

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 44, the bail eligibility information required to be given to a person in police custody charged with an offence must include the following—
- (a) an explanation that the accused person is entitled to be granted bail for the offence, or released without bail, unless—
 - (i) a show cause requirement applies, or
 - (ii) an exceptional circumstances requirement applies, or
 - (iii) there is an unacceptable risk,
 - (b) if a show cause requirement applies to the offence or offences with which the person has been charged—information to the effect that there is a requirement for the accused person to show cause as to why detention is not justified,
 - (c) if an exceptional circumstances requirement applies to the offence or offences with which the person has been charged—information to the effect that there is a requirement that bail for the accused person must be refused unless it is established exceptional circumstances exist that justify a decision to grant bail or dispense with bail,
 - (d) a list of the 4 types of “unacceptable risk” under the Act,
 - (e) an explanation of the bail decisions that can be made if there are no unacceptable risks,
 - (f) an explanation of the bail decisions that can be made if the offence is an offence for which there is a right to release.

Note— The Act, section 22A(2) provides that if a person is charged with an offence that is both subject to that section and a show cause offence, the requirement that the accused person establish exceptional circumstances exist that justify a decision to grant bail or dispense with bail applies instead of the requirement that the accused person show cause detention is not justified.

- (2) The information must be given in an approved form.
- (3) In this section, exceptional circumstances requirement means the requirement under the Act, section 22A that a bail authority must refuse bail for an offence referred to in the section unless it is established exceptional circumstances exist.

11 Records verifying bail eligibility information was given—the Act, s 44(2)

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 44(2), the prescribed form in which a record must be kept verifying a person in police custody charged with an offence has been given the bail eligibility information is a form that contains the following information—

- (a) the name of the police officer who gave the person charged with the offence the bail eligibility information,
 - (b) the police station or hospital at which the bail eligibility information was given,
 - (c) the name of the person charged with the offence,
 - (d) a description of the offence with which the person is charged,
 - (e) the date on which the bail eligibility information was given.
- (2) The record may be made and kept in electronic form.

12 Record of reasons for decision

- (1) A police officer who makes a bail decision must ensure the record of reasons for the decision is made in the approved form and endorsed in the approved way.
- (2) The police officer must ensure the endorsed form, or a copy of the form, is immediately sent to the court before which the accused person is required to appear.
- (3) If a bail decision is made in relation to more than one offence, the reasons for the refusal of bail may be recorded on one form.

13 Facilities to be provided by police if accused person not released

- (1) The facilities required by the Act, section 46(2) to be made available to an accused person in police custody who is refused bail or not released on bail by a police officer are as follows—
 - (a) facilities for an accused person to wash, shower or bathe,
 - (b) facilities for an accused person to change clothing.
- (2) Nothing in this section requires a police officer to provide clothing for an accused person unless—
 - (a) the clothing is brought to the police station at which the person is in custody, whether by a member of the accused person's family or by some other person, and
 - (b) the person who brings the clothing consents to the clothing being searched.

Division 3 Special provisions for sexual assault and personal violence offences

14 Bail authority to notify informant of bail decision for domestic violence offence

- (1) A bail authority that grants or refuses bail for a domestic violence offence must immediately give notice of the bail decision to the informant, unless the informant is a police officer.
- (2) The notice may be given personally or by post.
- (3) The notice must contain the information referred to in section 5.
- (4) A notice given of a decision to grant bail must specify the bail conditions.
- (5) In this section—
informant includes a protected person within the meaning of the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007.

15 Police to give notice of bail decisions for sexual assault and personal violence offences

- (1) As soon as practicable after a bail decision is made in relation to a sexual assault offence or a personal violence offence, the informant for the offence, if a police officer, must take appropriate steps to ensure notice of the bail decision is given—
 - (a) to the alleged victim of the offence, or
 - (b) if it is alleged the victim died as a result of the offence—to a close relative of the alleged victim of the offence.
- (2) The notice may be given personally or by post.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects the duty of a bail authority to notify a bail decision to an informant under section 14.
- (4) In this section—

domestic relationship has the same meaning as in the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007.

personal violence offence has the same meaning as in the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007, but includes an offence under the Crimes Act 1900, section 61 or an offence of attempting to commit an offence under the section, only if the accused person has a domestic relationship with the alleged victim of the offence.

sexual assault offence means—

 - (a) an offence under the Crimes Act 1900, Part 3, Division 10, other than section 79 or 80, and
 - (b) providing the attempt to commit an offence involves an assault on a person—an offence, whether under section 344A or otherwise, of attempting to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a).

victim, in relation to an offence under the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007, section 14 of contravening a prohibition or restriction specified in an order, means the person for whose protection the order was made.
- (5) In the definition of sexual assault offence in subsection (4), a reference to an offence under the Crimes Act 1900, Part 3, Division 10 is taken to extend to a repealed offence that was contained in the Division if a bail decision relates to the offence.

Part 3 Bail applications

Division 1 Release applications

16 Making of release application

- (1) An accused person must make a release application in the following way—
 - (a) if the person is at that time appearing before the court—orally,
 - (b) if the person is not appearing before the court—in writing in the approved form.
- (2) A written release application may be signed by—
 - (a) the accused person, or
 - (b) on the accused person's behalf by the accused person's lawyer, spouse, de facto partner, parent or guardian.
- (3) A court or authorised justice may make a decision on a release application even if the accused person has not complied with the provisions of subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) An accused person may, in one application, make a release application to a court or authorised justice in relation to more than one offence.
- (5) If an accused person who makes a release application is in custody at a correctional centre, the general manager of the correctional centre must forward the application, without undue delay, to the registrar of the court to which the application is made.
- (6) A prosecutor is not required to give notice to an accused person of a decision to oppose a release application.

Division 2 Detention applications

17 Making of detention application

- (1) Where practicable, a prosecutor must make a detention application in writing and in the approved form.
- (2) A court or authorised justice must not decline to hear a detention application only on the basis the detention application is not made in writing.
- (3) A court or authorised justice may make a decision on a detention application even if the application does not comply with this section.
- (4) A prosecutor may, in one detention application, make a detention application in relation to more than one offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the same person.

18 Notice of detention application

- (1) On receipt of a detention application, a court or authorised justice must give notice of the time and place of hearing to—
 - (a) the applicant, and
 - (b) the accused person.
- (2) The notice is not required to be given to a person if the court or authorised justice is satisfied written notice has already been given to the accused person by a police officer.
- (3) If the accused person does not appear at the hearing, the court or authorised justice, on proof of notice having been given to the person, may proceed to hear and determine the application.

- (4) A court or authorised justice may dispense with the giving of notice if satisfied—
 - (a) the accused person is evading service or cannot be contacted, or
 - (b) the interests of justice so demand.

19 Withdrawal by Crown of detention application—the Act, s 40(2)(b)

For the purposes of the Act, section 40(2)(b), a notice that the Crown does not intend to proceed with a detention application may be filed with the Local Court.

Division 3 Variation applications

20 Making of variation application

- (1) An interested person must make a variation application in writing and in the approved form.
- (2) An accused person may make a variation application orally if the person is before the court.
- (3) A court or authorised justice may make a decision on a variation application even if the application does not comply with subsection (1).
- (4) An interested person may, in one variation application, make a variation application in relation to more than one offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the same person.
- (5) If an accused person who makes a variation application is in custody at a correctional centre, the general manager of the correctional centre must forward the variation application, without undue delay, to the registrar of the court to which the application is made.
- (6) In this section—
interested person has the same meaning as in the Act, section 51.

21 Notice of variation application

- (1) On receipt of a variation application, a court or authorised justice must give notice of the time and place of hearing to—
 - (a) the applicant, and
 - (b) the accused person, if not the applicant, and
 - (c) the prosecutor, if not the applicant.
- (2) The notice is not required to be given to a person if the court or authorised justice is satisfied the notice has already been given to the person by a police officer.
- (3) If the accused person does not appear at the hearing, the court or authorised justice, on proof of notice having been given to the person, may proceed to hear and determine the application.
- (4) A court or authorised justice may dispense with the giving of notice if it is satisfied—
 - (a) the accused person is evading service or cannot be contacted, or
 - (b) the interests of justice so demand.
- (5) The Supreme Court must give notice to a person who makes a variation application of a decision to refuse to entertain the application.
- (6) In this section—
prosecutor has the same meaning as in the Act, section 51.

Part 4 Bail conditions

Division 1 Security requirements

22 Evidence of identity and residential address to be provided

- (1) A bail authority may refuse to make a decision that a person is an acceptable person, or that security is acceptable security, for the purposes of a security requirement until the bail authority is satisfied, on the evidence that appears to the authority to be sufficient, as to the identity and residential address of the person who proposes to enter into the relevant bail security agreement or deposit the relevant security.
- (2) Nothing in this section limits the powers of a bail authority in relation to the making of a decision as to whether a person is an acceptable person or security is acceptable security as referred to in the Act, section 26.

23 Verification proposed bail guarantor is acceptable person

A bail authority must not enter into a bail security agreement with a person unless the bail authority is satisfied—

- (a) a decision has been made as to which person, or class or description of persons, is an acceptable person to enter into the bail security agreement, and
- (b) the person—
 - (i) is an acceptable person referred to in the decision, or
 - (ii) belongs to a class or description of acceptable persons referred to in the decision.

24 Deposit of security

A bail authority must not accept the deposit of security for the purposes of compliance with a security requirement of a bail condition unless the bail authority is satisfied—

- (a) a decision has been made as to what security is acceptable security for the purposes of the security requirement, and
- (b) the security is acceptable security under the decision.

25 Acceptance of distant sureties

A person who cannot reasonably attend, because of distance or for another reason, before the bail authority to which the bail acknowledgment was given for the purposes of entering into a bail security agreement or depositing security required to comply with a security requirement may—

- (a) enter into an agreement with another bail authority, or
- (b) deposit a security or amount of money with another bail authority.

26 Dealing with money or security—the Act, s 82(2)

For the purposes of the Act, section 82(2), if money or security is deposited under a security requirement of a bail condition otherwise than at a court, the bail authority that accepts the money or security must, as soon as practicable, lodge with the registrar of a court—

- (a) the money or security, and
- (b) the relevant bail acknowledgment, and
- (c) the relevant bail security agreement.

Division 2 Character acknowledgments

27 Content and form of character acknowledgment

- (1) A character acknowledgment required by a bail condition must contain the following details—
 - (a) the period during which the person making the acknowledgment has been acquainted with the accused person,
 - (b) the nature of the person's acquaintance with the accused person.
- (2) A character acknowledgment must be in the approved form.

28 Acceptable person to provide evidence of identity and residential address

- (1) A bail authority may refuse to make a decision that a person is an acceptable person for the purposes of a bail condition that requires a character acknowledgment until the bail authority is satisfied, on evidence that appears to the authority to be sufficient, as to the person's identity and residential address.
- (2) Nothing in this section limits the powers of a bail authority in relation to the making of a decision as to whether a person is an acceptable person as referred to in the Act, section 27.

29 Verification as acceptable person

A bail authority must not accept a character acknowledgment from a person unless the bail authority is satisfied—

- (a) a decision has been made as to which person, or class or description of persons, is an acceptable person for the character acknowledgment, and
- (b) the person—
 - (i) is an acceptable person referred to in the decision, or
 - (ii) belongs to a class or description of acceptable persons referred to in the decision.

30 Acceptance of distant character acknowledgments

A person who cannot reasonably attend, because of distance or for another reason, before the bail authority to which the bail acknowledgment was given for the purposes of giving a character acknowledgment may make an acknowledgment to another bail authority.

Division 3 Accommodation requirements

31 Information about action taken to secure accommodation for accused person

- (1) The information the court may direct an officer of a Division of the Government Service to provide under the Act, section 28(5) may be lodged in writing or can be provided orally in court.
- (2) The information must identify the address at which the accused person will reside while on bail, if the address has been determined.

Part 5 General provisions about security requirements

Division 1 General

32 Application for discharge of liability

An application under the Act, section 83 for discharge of liability under a bail security agreement must be in an approved form.

33 Form of arrest warrant

A warrant issued under the Act, section 83(3)(a) must be in an approved form.

34 Revocation of bail if security no longer intact—the Act, s 85(4)(a)

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, section 85(4)(a), a written notice of the court's intention to revoke a person's bail on the ground that the person's current bail security is no longer intact, must contain the following information—
 - (a) the date on which the person was granted bail, and the offence or offences to which the bail relates,
 - (b) the reason for which the court considers the current bail security is no longer intact,
 - (c) information to the effect that the court proposes to revoke the person's bail unless the person—
 - (i) demonstrates to the court the current bail security is still intact, or
 - (ii) arranges for the deposit of replacement or supplementary security, whether by the person who deposited the current bail security or by some other person,
 - (d) the date on which the court proposes to revoke the person's bail if neither of the things referred to in paragraph (c) is done, and the procedure to be followed if the person wishes to do either of the things referred to in the paragraph.
- (2) The written notice must be accompanied by a copy of the relevant bail security agreement.

Division 2 Forfeiture of security

35 Appropriate State authorities in relation to forfeiture orders

- (1) For the purposes of the Act, Schedule 2, clause 1(1), definition of appropriate State authority, the following persons and bodies are declared to be appropriate State authorities for the forfeiture orders specified—
 - (a) the Commissioner of Police—for a forfeiture order relating to bail money under a bail security agreement for—
 - (i) an offence being prosecuted by a police officer, or
 - (ii) an offence being prosecuted by another person in the Local Court, otherwise than on behalf of a public authority or the Director of Public Prosecutions,
 - (b) the public authority concerned—for a forfeiture order relating to bail money under a bail security agreement for an offence being prosecuted by or on behalf of a public authority,
 - (c) the Director of Public Prosecutions—for a forfeiture order relating to bail money under a bail security agreement for—
 - (i) an offence being prosecuted by or on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions, or

- (ii) an offence being prosecuted by another person, other than a police officer and otherwise than on behalf of a public authority, in a court other than the Local Court.
- (2) In this section, public authority means the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or a statutory body representing the Crown, and includes a council or county council within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993.

36 Forfeiture notice given to persons affected by forfeiture order

- (1) The information the Act, Schedule 2, clause 4 requires to be contained in a forfeiture notice is the following—
 - (a) the terms of the relevant forfeiture order and the date on which it was made,
 - (b) information to the effect that a person affected by the order may object to the confirmation of the forfeiture order,
 - (c) the date on which the forfeiture order will be confirmed if no objection is made,
 - (d) the procedure to be followed if the person wishes to object to the confirmation of the forfeiture order.
- (2) The written notice must be accompanied by a copy of the relevant bail security agreement.

37 Giving of notice of objection to confirmation of forfeiture order

- (1) The way in which the Local Court must give the notice of an objection required by the Act, Schedule 2, clause 5 to the appropriate State authority is by written notice sent to the authority.
- (2) The written notice must—
