

New South Wales

Electronic Transactions (ECM Courts) Amendment (Personal Injury Commission) Order 2021

under the

Electronic Transactions Act 2000

I, the Attorney General, and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence, make the following Order under Schedule 1, clause 3 of the Electronic Transactions Act 2000.

Dated 24 February 2021.

MARK SPEAKMAN, MP
Attorney General, and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence

Explanatory note

The objects of this Order are to—

- (a) authorise the use of Comcase and Single Dispute Management System for certain purposes in connection with proceedings in the Personal Injury Commission, and
- (b) make amendments to reflect the transfer of the functions of the Workers Compensation Commission to the Personal Injury Commission.

This Order is made under Schedule 1, clause 3 of the Electronic Transactions Act 2000.

Electronic Transactions (ECM Courts) Amendment (Personal Injury Commission) Order 2021

under the

Electronic Transactions Act 2000

1 Name of Order

This Order is the Electronic Transactions (ECM Courts) Amendment (Personal Injury Commission) Order 2021.

2 Commencement

This Order commences on the establishment day within the meaning of the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Electronic Transactions (ECM Courts) Order 2005

[1] Clause 3 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in clause 3(1)—

SDMS means the electronic case management system named Single Dispute Management System that has been established under Schedule 1, clause 2 of the Act.

[2] Clause 9

Insert after clause 8—

9 Authority to use SDMS

Pursuant to Schedule 1, clause 3 of the Act, SDMS is authorised to be used by any court specified in Schedule 6, Column 1 for any purpose specified in Column 2 of that Schedule in relation to that court.

[3] Schedule 2 Authority to use Comcase

Omit the table. Insert instead—

Column 1	Column 2
Court	Purpose
Personal Injury Commission	Use in proceedings, but only so as— (a) to enable documents to be created, filed, issued, used and served in electronic form, and (b) to enable parties to the proceedings to communicate in electronic form with other parties to the proceedings and with the Commission, and (c) to enable information concerning the progress of the proceedings to be provided in electronic form to parties to the proceedings and to members of the public generally.

[4] Schedule 6

Insert after Schedule 5—

Schedule 6 Authority to use SDMS

clause 9

Column 1	Column 2
Court	Purpose
Personal Injury Commission	Use in proceedings, but only so as— (a) to enable documents to be created, filed, issued, used and served in electronic form, and (b) to enable parties to the proceedings to communicate in electronic form with other parties to the proceedings and with the Commission, and (c) to enable information concerning the progress of the proceedings to be provided in electronic form to parties to the proceedings and to members of the public generally.
