

New South Wales

Commencement Proclamation

under the

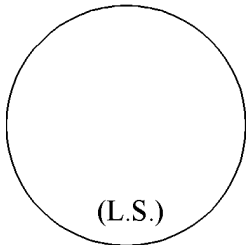

Child Protection (Working with Children) Amendment Act 2022 No 34

ANDREW SCOTT BELL, Administrator

I, the Honourable Chief Justice Andrew Scott Bell, Administrator of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 2(a) of the Child Protection (Working with Children) Amendment Act 2022, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 1 September 2022 as the day on which that Act, Schedule 1[9] and [10], to the extent it inserts section 36D of the Child Protection (Working With Children) Act 2012, commence.

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 24th day of August 2022.

By His Honour's Command,

NATASHA MACLAREN-JONES, MLC

Minister for Families and Communities

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Explanatory note

The object of this Proclamation is to commence provisions amending the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 which—

- (a) authorise the Children's Guardian to exchange information with a body in another State or Territory that conducts child-related work screening, and
- (b) require the Children's Guardian to record on the National Reference System database information about a person—
 - (i) barred from holding a working with children check clearance, or
 - (ii) disqualified from holding a working with children check clearance, or
 - (iii) refused a working with children check clearance, or
 - (iv) whose working with children check clearance is cancelled.
