11 Residential care worker recommencing work within 12 months

- (1) This section applies to a person if—
 - (a) a residential care provider intends to engage the person as a residential care worker, and
 - (b) the person was engaged as a residential care worker by the residential care provider within the previous 12 months.
- (2) Before offering to engage the person, the residential care provider—
 - (a) must undertake a check to verify the person's relevant details, and
 - (b) may undertake the following checks—
 - (i) a nationwide criminal record check,
 - (ii) a check of the residential care workers register to determine if the person is a relevant individual for another residential care provider,
 - (iii) if the residential care workers register indicates the person is a relevant individual for another residential care provider—a check of the relevant individual with the other residential care provider.
- (3) The residential care provider must, as soon as practicable after engaging the person, record the following information on the residential care workers register—
 - (a) the type and date of each check undertaken under this section,
 - (b) the date the person recommenced work as a residential care worker with the provider.

12 Recording reportable allegations on residential care workers register—the Act, s 85(2)(a)

- (1) This section applies to a residential care worker engaged by a residential care provider.
- (2) The residential care provider must make a recording on the residential care workers register within 7 business days after becoming aware of a reportable allegation having been made about the residential care worker.
- (3) The recording must specify—
 - (a) that the allegation was made, and
 - (b) the date the provider became aware of the allegation.
- (4) The residential care provider must make a recording on the residential care workers register within 14 business days after—
 - (a) completing an investigation into a reportable allegation about the residential care worker, or
 - (b) becoming aware of the completion of an investigation into a reportable allegation about the residential care worker.
- (5) The recording must specify—
 - (a) the outcome of the investigation, and
 - (b) the date the investigation was completed.

13 Updating information on register—the Act, s 85(2)(b) and (c)

- (1) A residential care provider must update information on the residential care workers register about a relevant person as soon as practicable after becoming aware the information is incorrect or incomplete.
- (2) The residential care provider must, as soon as practicable after updating the register, notify the relevant person that the information has been updated.
- (3) A residential care provider must give a relevant person written notice of the reasons for not updating the residential care workers register if—
 - (a) the relevant person makes a written request to the provider to update the information, and
 - (b) the provider decides to not update the register because the information is not incomplete or incorrect.
- (4) If a residential care provider is incapable of updating information on the residential care workers register as required by this section, the Children's Guardian may—
 - (a) update the information on the register on the provider's behalf, and
 - (b) notify both the person to whom the information relates and the provider that the information on the register was updated.
- (5) This section applies in addition to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, section 15.
- (6) In this section—

relevant person, for a residential care provider, means a person whose information the residential care provider is required to have access to under the Act, section 86(2).

Part 3 Carers register—the Act, s 85(2)

Division 1 Information kept on carers register

15 Information to be recorded on carers register

Schedule 2 sets out the information a designated agency must record on the carers register.

16 Information on carers register must be accurate

- (1) A designated agency must update information on the carers register about a relevant person as soon as practicable after becoming aware the information is incorrect or incomplete.
- (2) The designated agency must, as soon as practicable after updating the register, notify the relevant person that the information has been updated.
- (3) A designated agency must give a relevant person written notice of the reasons for not updating the carers register if—
 - (a) the relevant person makes a written request to the agency to update the information, and
 - (b) the agency decides to not update the register because the information is not incorrect or incomplete.
- (4) If a designated agency is incapable of updating information on the register as required by this section, the Children's Guardian may—
 - (a) update the information on the register on the agency's behalf, and
 - (b) notify both the person to whom the information relates and the agency that the information was updated.
- (5) This section applies in addition to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, section 15.
- (6) In this section—

relevant person, for a designated agency, means the following—

 - (a) a carer (a relevant authorised carer) authorised by the designated agency to provide statutory out-of-home care or supported out-of-home care in a private capacity,
 - (b) a person who was formerly a relevant authorised carer,
 - (c) a person who has applied to be a relevant authorised carer,
 - (d) a person, other than a child in out-of-home care, who resides for more than 21 days on the same property as a relevant authorised carer.

Division 2 Access to carers register

17 General access to carers register

The Children's Guardian may give access to information held on the carers register to the following—

- (a) a designated agency, but only to the extent the information relates to a relevant person for the designated agency within the meaning of section 16,
- (b) an accredited adoption service provider, but only to the extent the information relates to—
 - (i) a person whose suitability to be an adoptive parent is being, or has been, assessed by the accredited adoption service provider, or
 - (ii) a person, other than a child in out-of-home care, who resides for more than 21 days on the same property as a person referred to in subparagraph (i),
- (c) the parent of a child whose information is recorded on the register, but only to the extent the information relates to the child.

18 Access to information about original decision or record

- (1) The Children's Guardian must ensure information held by the Children's Guardian about a decision (the original decision) is not made available to a person if—
 - (a) the original decision was—
 - (i) to refuse to grant an authorisation as an authorised carer, or
 - (ii) to cancel an authorisation as an authorised carer, or
 - (iii) to suspend an authorisation as an authorised carer, and
 - (b) the original decision has been overturned by—
 - (i) a designated agency, or
 - (ii) a court, or
 - (iii) a tribunal.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must ensure a historical version of a record held by the Children's Guardian is not made available to a person if the record has been subsequently changed by a designated agency and is a record of—
 - (a) the agency's refusal to grant an authorisation as an authorised carer based on an agency specific policy about carer eligibility or suitability, or
 - (b) the agency's concerns about the suitability of a person to care for, or reside on the same property as, a child following—
 - (i) the person withdrawing an application for an authorisation as an authorised carer, or
 - (ii) the person surrendering an authorisation as an authorised carer, or
 - (iii) cancellation of the person's authorisation as an authorised carer, or
 - (c) concerns the agency had arising from an investigation into a reportable allegation.
- (3) The Children's Guardian may make an original decision or a historical version of a record available to the following—
 - (a) a designated agency if the designated agency made the original decision or historical version of the record,
 - (b) the Children's Guardian,
 - (c) the Minister,
 - (d) the Ombudsman,

- (e) the Secretary.

Part 4 Out-of-home care

Division 1 Accreditation

19 Application for accreditation—the Act, Sch 3A, s 4(2)(c)

- (1) An application for accreditation as a designated agency must include a policy (a behaviour support policy) that—
 - (a) sets out behaviour support practices, including the giving of support and counselling, to be applied by authorised carers in the care, management and discipline of children under the supervisory responsibility of the applicant, and
 - (b) describes procedures for the use of physical restraint, including consent processes and reporting on the use of restraint, and
 - (c) recognises that the following are prohibited—
 - (i) physical coercion or physical punishment,
 - (ii) punishment in the form of immobilisation,
 - (iii) force-feeding or the deprivation of food,
 - (iv) punishment intended to humiliate or frighten a child.
- (2) An application for accreditation as a designated agency must also include—
 - (a) a psychotropic drugs policy that sets out the steps the applicant will take on becoming aware that a psychotropic drug has been prescribed to a child in statutory out-of-home care, and
 - (b) a statement setting out the applicant's views on the administration of psychotropic drugs to children.
- (3) In this section—

psychotropic drug means medication—

 - (a) issued under a prescription of a medical practitioner, and
 - (b) that can affect cognition, perception, thinking, mood, behaviour or level of arousal by acting on the central nervous system.

20 Notice of decision to grant or refuse accreditation—the Act, Sch 3A, s 6(5)

Written notice of a decision to grant or refuse accreditation as a designated agency must include the following—

- (a) the reasons for the decision,
- (b) the date the decision takes effect,
- (c) conditions imposed on the accreditation by the Children's Guardian,
- (d) if accreditation is granted on the basis the applicant substantially satisfies the accreditation criteria—
 - (i) the criteria not satisfied, and
 - (ii) the reasons the criteria were not considered to be satisfied, and
 - (iii) that the criteria must be satisfied within 12 months after the accreditation is granted,
- (e) how the applicant may apply for a review of the decision.

21 Extension of period of accreditation—the Act, Sch 3A, s 11(4)

- (1) The Children's Guardian may extend the period of accreditation of a designated agency if satisfied—
 - (a) proposed legislative or other changes to the administration of out-of-home care, including to accreditation criteria, make the extension appropriate, or
 - (b) events beyond the control of the agency, including a natural disaster or a public health emergency, make it unreasonable to require the agency to renew the accreditation.
- (2) The extension—
 - (a) must be given by written notice, and
 - (b) is for the period set out in the notice.

22 Conditions of accreditation

For the Act, Schedule 3A, section 12(1)(a), the conditions in Schedule 3 are prescribed.

Division 2 Transfer of accreditation—the Act, Sch 3A, s 21(e)

23 Transfers to which Division applies

This Division applies to a transfer of accreditation under the Act, Schedule 3A, section 16 from a former agency to a new agency.

24 Information to be provided

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by written notice, require a former agency or new agency to provide information to the Children's Guardian if the Children's Guardian—
 - (a) is deciding whether to transfer accreditation, and
 - (b) reasonably requires the information to make the decision.
- (2) The information must be provided in the way, and by the date, specified in the notice.

25 Matters to be considered

- (1) The Children's Guardian must consider the following when deciding whether to transfer accreditation—
 - (a) whether suitable arrangements have been made to ensure continuity of care for children in out-of-home care provided by or arranged by the former agency,
 - (b) whether the transfer will prejudice legal proceedings or proposed legal proceedings to which the former agency is, or is likely to become, a party.
- (2) The Children's Guardian must refuse to transfer accreditation if the Children's Guardian is of the opinion the transfer will not promote the best interests of children in out-of-home care.
- (3) The Children's Guardian may refuse to transfer accreditation if the former agency has failed to comply with a condition of accreditation.
- (4) The Children's Guardian must consult the Department before deciding whether to transfer accreditation.

26 Notice of transfer

- (1) The Children's Guardian must give the former agency and the new agency written notice of the Children's Guardian's decision about the transfer of accreditation.
- (2) The notice must set out the following—
 - (a) the decision,
 - (b) the reasons for the decision,
 - (c) if the transfer is approved—
 - (i) the date the transfer takes effect, and
 - (ii) the conditions applying to the transfer.

27 Effect of transfer

- (1) On the transfer taking effect—
 - (a) the former agency ceases to be accredited as a designated agency, and
 - (b) the new agency is accredited as a designated agency, and
 - (c) the new agency is accredited for the remainder of the period of the transferred accreditation, and
 - (d) a condition of the accreditation imposed by the Children's Guardian and in force immediately before the transfer continues to apply unless varied or revoked by the Children's Guardian, and
 - (e) the new agency is taken to have adopted the former agency's policies, procedures and practice about the provision of out-of-home care, as in force immediately before the transfer, and
 - (f) an authorised carer, authorised by the former agency, whose authorisation was in force immediately before the transfer is taken to be authorised by the new agency.
- (2) Anything concerning the provision of out-of-home care done by the former agency is taken to have been done by the new agency.

28 Disclosure of information

Unless prohibited under an Act, the Children's Guardian may disclose to a new agency information in the possession of the Children's Guardian regarding the former agency.

Division 3 Miscellaneous—the Act, s 184(1)

29 Designated agency ceasing to provide or arrange out-of-home care

- (1) A designated agency must give the Children's Guardian written notice if the agency ceases to—
 - (a) provide out-of-home care, or
 - (b) arrange out-of-home care.
- (2) The notice must be given within 10 business days after the agency ceases to provide or arrange out-of-home care.

30 Information about designated agencies to be publicly available

- (1) The Children's Guardian must ensure the following information about a designated agency is made publicly available on the Office of the Children's Guardian's website—

- (a) the agency's corporate and business names and ABN,
 - (b) whether the agency is provisionally accredited or fully accredited,
 - (c) the conditions imposed on the agency's accreditation by the Children's Guardian,
 - (d) the street and postal addresses of the agency's principal office,
 - (e) the agency's general telephone number and email address,
 - (f) the full name of the agency's principal officer.
- (2) The information—
- (a) must be made available as soon as practicable after the agency is accredited, and
 - (b) must be kept up to date.

Part 5 Regulation of specialised substitute residential care—the Act, s 8ZD

Division 1 Information

31 Child in specialised substitute residential care

- (1) A designated agency must give written notice to the Children's Guardian if the designated agency—
- (a) provides or supervises specialised substitute residential care for a child, and
 - (b) becomes aware the child has been—
 - (i) in unsupervised care for more than a total of 90 days in a period of 12 months, or
 - (ii) in specialised substitute residential care, whether provided by the agency or another organisation, for more than a total of 180 days in a period of 12 months.
- (2) The notice must be given as soon as practicable.
- (3) In this section—
- unsupervised care means specialised substitute residential care that is not provided or supervised by a designated agency.

32 Case plans

A designated agency that prepares or reviews a case plan for a child in specialised substitute residential care must—

- (a) within 5 business days after preparing or reviewing the plan, give the Children's Guardian written notice of—
 - (i) the preparation or review of the plan, and
 - (ii) the date on which the preparation or review of the plan was completed, and
- (b) if the plan does not meet the child's needs—notify the Children's Guardian as soon as practicable after becoming aware the plan does not meet the child's needs, and
- (c) keep the plan or review until the child is 18 years of age.

Note— See the State Records Act 1998 in relation to other record keeping obligations.

33 Record of entities that may provide or supervise specialised substitute residential care

- (1) The Children's Guardian may keep a record of the following—
 - (a) the names of entities providing or supervising specialised substitute residential care,
 - (b) the information about an entity providing or supervising specialised substitute residential care the Children's Guardian considers appropriate for inclusion in the record.
- (2) The record may be published on the Office of the Children's Guardian's website.

Division 2 Specialised substitute residential care register—the Act, s 85(2)

34 Restricted access to register

The specialised substitute residential care register must only be made available to the following—

- (a) a designated agency providing, or supervising, specialised substitute residential care for a child,
- (b) an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child, if—
 - (i) the entity was immediately before 1 September 2022 a registered agency under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012, or
 - (ii) the entity has completed a self-assessment under Schedule 4, section 6,
- (c) the Minister,
- (d) a person who is employed by or in the Department,
- (e) the Ombudsman,
- (f) the Privacy Commissioner,
- (g) an Official Community Visitor,
- (h) the Commissioner of Police or another police officer holding the rank of inspector or above in the NSW Police Force, but only for the purpose of the investigation of a missing person or a possible criminal offence,
- (i) the State Coroner or a Deputy State Coroner, but only in connection with a death or suspected death the Coroner or Deputy Coroner is investigating.

35 Entity providing specialised substitute residential care

- (1) An entity must, within 5 business days after a child commences specialised substitute residential care with the entity, enter on the specialised substitute residential care register—
 - (a) the following information about the child, unless the information is already on the register—
 - (i) the child's full name and other names the child is or has been known by,
 - (ii) the child's gender,
 - (iii) the child's date and place of birth,

- (iv) whether the child is an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander person,
 - (v) whether the child has a significant disability, and
 - (b) the name of the entity, and
 - (c) the date the specialised substitute residential care commenced, and
 - (d) if a case plan has been prepared for the child—the date the plan was prepared and each review date for the plan.
- (2) The entity must, within 5 business days after the child finishes the specialised substitute residential care with the entity, enter on the specialised substitute residential care register the date the specialised substitute residential care ceased to be provided by the entity.
- (3) If the entity does not have access to the specialised substitute residential care register under section 34(b), the reference in subsection (1) to 5 business days after a child commences specialised substitute residential care with the entity is taken to be a reference to the later of the following—
- (a) 5 business days after a child commences specialised substitute residential care with the entity,
 - (b) 5 business days after the entity has access to the specialised substitute residential care register.
- (4) In this section—
- significant disability means a disability that—
- (a) is attributable to 1 or more intellectual, psychiatric, sensory or physical impairments, and
 - (b) is permanent or likely to be permanent, and
 - (c) results in—
 - (i) significantly reduced capacity in 1 or more major life activities, including communication, learning, mobility, decision-making or self-care, and
 - (ii) the need for support, whether or not of an ongoing nature.

36 Designated agency supervising specialised substitute residential care

A designated agency must, within 5 business days after a child commences specialised substitute residential care supervised by the designated agency, enter on the specialised substitute residential care register—

- (a) the child's full name and other names the child is or has been known by, and
- (b) the name of the entity providing the specialised substitute residential care, and
- (c) the designated agency's name, and
- (d) the date the supervision commenced.

37 Children and parents may request details on register

- (1) A person may apply to the Children's Guardian for a copy of the information recorded on the specialised substitute residential care register about the person.
- (2) If the person is a child, the application may be made by a parent of the child.

- (3) The Children's Guardian must give the information to the applicant as soon as practicable after the application is made.

38 Children and parents may request correction of register

- (1) A person may apply to the Children's Guardian to update the specialised substitute residential care register to correct information about the person that is incorrect or incomplete.
- (2) If the person is a child, the application may be made by a parent of the child.
- (3) The Children's Guardian must update the register if the Children's Guardian is satisfied the information is incorrect or incomplete.
- (4) The Children's Guardian must give the applicant written notice of the reasons for not updating the register if the Children's Guardian decides the information is not incorrect or incomplete.

Division 3 Miscellaneous

39 Code of practice

For the Act, section 8DA(1), the code of practice in Schedule 4 is prescribed for entities providing specialised substitute residential care.

40 Supervision meetings

A designated agency supervising the provision of specialised substitute residential care by an entity must arrange supervision meetings with the entity at least once in each calendar month.

Part 6 Adoption

Division 1 Accreditation of adoption service providers

41 Notice of decision to grant or refuse accreditation—the Act, Sch 3B, s 6(5)

Written notice of a decision to grant or refuse accreditation must include the following—

- (a) the reasons for the decision,
- (b) the date the decision takes effect,
- (c) conditions imposed on the accreditation by the Children's Guardian,
- (d) if accreditation is granted on the basis the applicant substantially satisfies the accreditation criteria—
- (i) the criteria not satisfied, and
- (ii) the reasons the criteria were not considered to be satisfied, and
- (iii) that the criteria must be satisfied within 12 months after the accreditation is granted,
- (e) how the applicant may apply for a review of the decision.

42 Extension of period of accreditation—the Act, Sch 3B, s 11(4)

- (1) The Children's Guardian may extend the period of accreditation of an accredited adoption service provider if satisfied—
- (a) proposed legislative or other changes to the administration of adoption services, including to accreditation criteria, make the extension appropriate, or

- (b) events beyond the control of the provider, including a natural disaster or a public health emergency, make it unreasonable to require the provider to renew the accreditation.
- (2) The extension—
 - (a) must be given by written notice, and
 - (b) is for the period set out in the notice.

43 Conditions of accreditation

For the Act, Schedule 3B, section 12(1)(a), the conditions in Schedule 5 are prescribed.

Division 2 Transfer of accreditation—the Act, Sch 3B, s 22(e)

44 Transfers to which Division applies

This Division applies to a transfer of accreditation under the Act, Schedule 3B, section 17 from a former organisation to a new organisation.

45 Information to be provided

- (1) The Children's Guardian may, by written notice, require a former organisation or new organisation to provide information to the Children's Guardian if the Children's Guardian—
 - (a) is deciding whether to transfer accreditation, and
 - (b) reasonably requires the information to make the decision.
- (2) The information must be provided in the way, and by the date, specified in the notice.

46 Matters to be considered

- (1) The Children's Guardian must consider the following when deciding whether to transfer accreditation—
 - (a) whether suitable arrangements have been made to ensure continuity of adoption services provided by the former organisation,
 - (b) whether the transfer will prejudice legal proceedings or proposed legal proceedings to which the former organisation is, or is likely to become, a party.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may refuse to transfer accreditation if the former organisation has failed to comply with a condition of accreditation.
- (3) The Children's Guardian must, before deciding whether to transfer accreditation, consult with—
 - (a) the Department, and
 - (b) if the new organisation will provide intercountry adoption services—the Commonwealth Central Authority within the meaning of the Family Law (Hague Convention on Intercountry Adoption) Regulations 1998 of the Commonwealth.

47 Notice of transfer

- (1) The Children's Guardian must give the former organisation and the new organisation written notice of the Children's Guardian's decision about the transfer of accreditation.
- (2) The notice must set out the following—

- (a) the decision,
- (b) the reasons for the decision,
- (c) if the transfer is approved—
 - (i) the date the transfer takes effect, and
 - (ii) the conditions applying to the transfer.

48 Effect of transfer

- (1) On the transfer taking effect—
 - (a) the former organisation ceases to be accredited as an adoption service provider, and
 - (b) the new organisation is accredited as an adoption service provider, and
 - (c) the new organisation is accredited for the remainder of the period of the transferred accreditation, and
 - (d) a condition of the accreditation imposed by the Children's Guardian and in force immediately before the transfer continues to apply unless varied or revoked by the Children's Guardian, and
 - (e) the new organisation is taken to have adopted the former organisation's policies, procedures and practice about the provision of adoption services, as in force immediately before the transfer.
- (2) Anything concerning the provision of adoption services done by the former organisation is taken to have been done by the new organisation.

49 Disclosure of information

Unless prohibited under an Act, the Children's Guardian may disclose to a new organisation information in the possession of the Children's Guardian regarding the former organisation.

Division 3 Miscellaneous

50 Accredited adoption service provider ceasing to provide adoption services—the Act, s 184(1)

- (1) An accredited adoption service provider must give the Children's Guardian written notice if the provider ceases to provide adoption services.
- (2) The notice must be given within 10 business days after the provider ceases to provide adoption services.
- (3) As soon as practicable after the provider ceases to provide adoption services, the provider must ensure records kept by the provider under the Act, this Regulation or the Adoption Act 2000 are given to the Secretary.

51 Information about accredited adoption service providers to be publicly available—the Act, s 184(1)

- (1) The Children's Guardian must ensure the following information about an accredited adoption service provider is made publicly available on the Office of the Children's Guardian's website—
 - (a) the provider's corporate and business names and ABN,
 - (b) whether the provider is provisionally accredited or fully accredited,
 - (c) the adoption services the provider is accredited to provide,
 - (d) the conditions imposed on the provider's accreditation by the Children's Guardian,

- (e) the duration of the provider's accreditation,
 - (f) the street and postal addresses of the provider's principal office,
 - (g) the provider's general telephone number and email address,
 - (h) the full name of the provider's principal officer.
- (2) The information—
- (a) must be made available as soon as practicable after the provider is accredited, and
 - (b) must be kept up to date.

- (a) Aboriginal children and families and Torres Strait Islander children and families,
- (b) children and families from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

(6) Diversity and inclusion

In decision-making, service planning and service delivery for specialised substitute residential care, the entity must take account of the following—

- (a) the needs of children with a disability and the needs of families of children with a disability,
- (b) the gender identity and sexuality of children in care,
- (c) the gender identity and sexuality of the parents of a child in care.

Part 2 Compliance

5 Compliance with relevant legislation

An entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure all staff of the entity are aware of and comply with the relevant legislation.

6 Self-assessment of compliance with Child Safe Standards

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must complete a self-assessment of the entity's compliance with the Child Safe Standards.

- (2) The self-assessment must be—
 - (a) completed in the form approved by the Children's Guardian, and
 - (b) given to the Children's Guardian—
 - (i) if the entity was, immediately before 1 September 2022, a registered entity under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012—on or before 1 March 2023, or
 - (ii) otherwise—within 14 days after the entity first provides specialised substitute residential care for a child.

Part 3 Systems, policies and procedures

7 Statements about child safety

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure the entity has the following documents—
 - (a) a publicly available statement of the entity's commitment to child safety,
 - (b) a document informing staff of the entity of the entity's commitment to child safety and their obligation to contribute to creating a child safe organisation.
- (2) The principal officer must be able to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Children's Guardian, the steps the entity has taken to ensure the documents—
 - (a) have been read and understood by all staff, and
 - (b) are applied by all staff in their work, and
 - (c) are accessible to, and can be understood by, the children for whom the entity provides specialised substitute residential care and their families.
- (3) The principal officer must, if required by the Children's Guardian, provide the Children's Guardian with the documents.

8 Code of conduct

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure the entity has a code of conduct setting out the standards of behaviour expected of staff interacting with children for whom the entity provides specialised substitute residential care.
- (2) The code of conduct must require staff to report—
 - (a) instances of another staff member having—
 - (i) engaged in reportable conduct, or
 - (ii) been involved in a reportable incident for the purposes of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 of the Commonwealth, section 73Z, and
 - (b) allegations or concerns that another staff member has—
 - (i) engaged in reportable conduct, or
 - (ii) been involved in a reportable incident for the purposes of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 of the Commonwealth, section 73Z, and
 - (c) other concerns about the safety, wellbeing or welfare of a child receiving services from the entity.

- (3) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must—
- (a) ensure all staff of the entity—
 - (i) read and understand the code of conduct, and
 - (ii) sign a statement that they have read, understood and will comply with the code of conduct, and
 - (b) enforce the code of conduct, and
 - (c) take action to address breaches, or suspected breaches, of the code of conduct.

9 Risk management

The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure the entity has, and implements, a risk management plan focusing on preventing, identifying and lowering risks to children for whom the entity provides specialised substitute residential care.

10 Intake, assessment and service planning

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure the entity has procedures setting out the actions to be taken—
- (a) before a child is provided with specialised substitute residential care, and
 - (b) while the child is being provided with the care.
- (2) The entity's procedures must address how the entity will—
- (a) obtain information about a child, and
 - (b) assess a child's needs, and
 - (c) plan the delivery of services to children.

11 Complaint handling

The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure the entity has a complaint handling policy to respond to complaints made by—

- (a) children for whom the entity provides specialised substitute residential care, and
- (b) the parents of children for whom the entity provides specialised substitute residential care.

Part 4 Intake and assessment

Division 1 Information and planning

12 Information gathering

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure the entity obtains the following information about the child—
- (a) information recorded on the specialised substitute residential care register, including—
 - (i) the number of days the child has spent in care over the previous 12 months, and

- (ii) the designated agency currently providing or supervising care for the child, and
 - (iii) a case plan for the child,
 - (b) relevant information from a designated agency—
 - (i) currently providing or supervising care for the child, or
 - (ii) that has recorded on the specialised substitute residential care register the development of a case plan for the child,
 - (c) relevant information held by other organisations or people who are or have been involved in supporting the safety, welfare and wellbeing of the child,
 - (d) relevant information about—
 - (i) the formal and informal supports in place for the child and the child's family, and
 - (ii) the child's living and socialisation skills and daily routine, and

 - (iii) emotional, behavioural, cognitive and developmental needs, and
 - (iv) nutrition and dietary needs, and
 - (v) cultural, language and communication needs,
 - (f) information about the needs of the parents of the child,
 - (g) emergency contact details for the parents of the child and other relevant family members.
- (2) The entity must obtain the information before the specialised substitute residential care is provided for the child.
- (3) However, if the entity does not have access to the specialised substitute residential care register, the information required by subsection (1)(a) and (b) may be obtained within 5 business days after the entity gains access to the register.

13 Information to be given

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure that, before the entity provides the care, the child and the parents of the child are given information about the following—
- (a) the services the entity can arrange and provide,
 - (b) the cost of each service,
 - (c) the provider of each service,
 - (d) the role in decision-making about the ongoing care and support of the child of the following—
 - (i) the entity,
 - (ii) other service providers,
 - (iii) the child,
 - (iv) the parents of the child,
 - (e) the information that will be recorded on the specialised substitute residential care register,

- (f) that the child and the parents of the child may receive information on the specialised substitute residential care register about the child and request that errors in the information are corrected,
 - (g) complaint handling processes, both internal and external.
- (2) Information must be provided in a way and using language that is readily understood by the child and the parents of the child.

14 Sharing of information

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure that, before the entity provides the care, the child and the parents of the child are informed that relevant information about the child may be shared with other agencies.
- (2) The principal officer—
- (a) must ask the parents of the child to sign an acknowledgment that they have been informed about the sharing of information with other agencies, and
 - (b) may ask the child to sign the acknowledgment.
- (3) In this section—
- relevant information* about a child means information relevant to the child's safety, welfare or wellbeing, including information that will be entered on the specialised substitute residential care register.

15 Intake meetings

The principal officer on an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must, if practicable, schedule meetings for intake and assessment at places and times convenient for the child and the parents of the child.

16 Service planning

- (1) This section applies to the following information about a child in specialised substitute residential care—
- (a) information obtained from the entity's intake process,
 - (b) information obtained from the entity's regular planning and review of the services provided for the child.
- (2) The principal officer of the entity providing the care must use the information to ensure the entity meets the child's ongoing care needs, including the following—
- (a) health, medical, mobility and behavioural needs,
 - (b) communication and personal care needs,
 - (c) maintenance of relationships with family and significant others,
 - (d) cultural, spiritual and religious needs,
 - (e) participation in educational, vocational, social and leisure activities.

Division 2 Placement

17 Placement matching

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure that when considering the provision of care to a child the entity considers the following—
 - (a) whether the care is appropriate for the needs of the child and the child's family,
 - (b) the child's culture, age, disability, language, religion, gender and sexuality,
 - (c) the individual needs and preferences of the child,
 - (d) the benefits of placing the child with peers of a similar age and developmental stage and who have similar interests,
 - (e) the current supports available to the child,
 - (f) additional supports required to meet the child's needs.
- (2) The principal officer must ensure the child is not placed in centre-based care with another person unless an assessment has been undertaken of the following—
 - (a) risks posed to the child by other persons in the centre-based care,
 - (b) risks posed by the child to other persons in the centre-based care.
- (3) The principal officer must request that the parents of the child make alternative care arrangements if of the opinion that the care is not appropriate for the needs of the child and the child's family.

18 Age specific placement requirements

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care must ensure that when considering the provision of care for a child who is less than 7 years of age the following principles are considered—
 - (a) family care with a focus on individualised care must be the preferred option,
 - (b) centre-based care must not be used unless the child has complex health needs that can only be met by centre-based care.
- (2) The principal officer must ensure that a child who is less than 16 years of age must not be placed in centre-based care with an adult unless the principal officer—
 - (a) has conducted a risk assessment and is satisfied—
 - (i) the placement is appropriate for the child's needs and circumstances, and
 - (ii) the adult presents no risk to the child because the medical support needed by the adult is high, and
 - (iii) there is no other suitable option for the child, and
 - (b) has obtained the written consent of the parent or guardian of the child before the care is provided.
- (3) The principal officer must ensure that a child who is 16 or 17 years of age is not placed with adults or other children in centre-based care unless the principal officer—
 - (a) is satisfied the care is suitable for the individual needs of the child, and

- (b) has conducted a risk assessment, and
 - (c) has obtained the written consent of the parent or guardian of the child before the care is provided.
- (4) The principal officer must regularly review the care of a child in centre-based care with adults to ensure the care remains suitable.
- (5) In this section—
complex health need means a medical condition or a disability requiring specialist medical, nursing or other health care treatments that are not able to be effectively delivered in a home-like environment.

19 Placement to be confirmed in writing

The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must give written notice to the parents of the child confirming the provision of the care within 5 business days after provision of the care begins.

Part 5 Supervision and case planning

20 Supervision

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child who has been in specialised substitute residential care for a total of 90 days or more in a 12-month period must—
- (a) ensure the care is supervised by a designated agency, and
 - (b) consult the parents of the child about the supervision and give the parents the name and contact details of the designated agency providing the supervision.
- (2) The principal officer must notify the designated agency if the provision of the care no longer requires supervision.
- (3) The principal officer must report a breach by a designated agency of this Regulation, section 40 to the Children's Guardian.

21 Case planning

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure a case plan—
- (a) addresses the following—
 - (i) the child's health, medical, mobility, behavioural and personal care needs,
 - (ii) maintenance of relationships with the child's family and significant others,
 - (iii) the child's cultural, spiritual and religious needs,
 - (iv) participation by the child in educational, vocational, social and leisure activities,
 - (v) risks associated with the child's care and appropriate management strategies,
 - (vi) age-related considerations, including developmental needs and the child's transition to adulthood,
 - (vii) long-term care planning, including arrangements for the child to transition out of specialised substitute residential care, and

- (b) is reviewed—
 - (i) when the child's ongoing care and support needs or care arrangements change, and
 - (ii) at least once every 12 months.
- (2) If a child receives specialised substitute residential care from more than 1 care provider, the case plan must be prepared by—
 - (a) the care provider that provides the majority of the care, or
 - (b) if no care provider provides the majority of the care—the designated agency supervising the care.

Part 6 Staff recruitment and training

22 Recruitment

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure the entity engages staff with appropriate skills and qualifications for the roles the staff are engaged to fill.
- (2) The principal officer must ensure the entity has systems in place to ensure the entity undertakes appropriate pre-employment checks for all staff.
- (3) The pre-employment checks must include the following—
 - (a) checks required under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 and the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Worker Checks) Act 2018,
 - (b) professional reference checks with previous or current employers,
 - (c) verification of qualifications.

23 Training

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure the entity provides—
 - (a) child safety awareness training to staff and volunteers, including training in identifying and reporting risks of significant harm to children, and
 - (b) regular supervision of, and support to, staff caring for children in specialised substitute residential care.
- (2) Child safety awareness training must be completed before the staff member or volunteer commences providing care to a child in specialised substitute residential care.

Part 7 Miscellaneous

24 Record keeping

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure the entity keeps the following records—
 - (a) information obtained in the intake, assessment and service planning processes,
 - (b) details of the services the entity has agreed to provide to the child and the child's parents,
 - (c) consents given by the parents of the child,

- (d) the responsibilities of the parties involved in providing or supporting the provision of specialised substitute residential care to the child,
 - (e) the child's case plan and each review of the plan,
 - (f) records about the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children in the specialised substitute residential care provider's care.
- (2) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care to a child must give the parents of the child a copy of the records kept under subsection (1)(b)–(d).
 - (3) Records must be made available for inspection by the Children's Guardian on the request of the Children's Guardian.

Note— See the State Records Act 1998 in relation to other record keeping obligations.

25 Child leaving specialised substitute residential care

- (1) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure that at the end of the care the child is released to the care of a parent of the child or a person authorised by a parent of the child.
- (2) If the parent of the child refuses to resume the care of the child, the principal officer must—
 - (a) report the matter to the Child Protection Helpline, and
 - (b) arrange short-term care or an alternative emergency placement for the child.
- (3) The short-term care or alternative emergency placement must, if practicable, be arranged in collaboration with the parents of the child.
- (4) The principal officer must ensure the specialised substitute residential care register is updated with information about the end of the provision of the specialised substitute residential care for the child within 5 business days.

26 Reporting

- (1) A person who is required to make a report under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, section 27 and who, in the person's work, has reasonable grounds to suspect a child is at risk of significant harm must make a report to the Child Protection Helpline.
- (2) The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must—
 - (a) ensure the staff of the entity understand their mandatory reporting obligations, and
 - (b) notify the Children's Guardian of all reportable allegations and convictions against a person engaged by the entity whether arising from the person's work or otherwise,
 - (c) report allegations of reportable incidents involving children who are NDIS participants to the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission.
- (3) In this section—

NDIS participant means a person who is a participant in the National Disability Insurance Scheme established under the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 of the Commonwealth.

NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission means the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission established under the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 of the Commonwealth, section 181A.

27 Behaviour support

The principal officer of an entity providing specialised substitute residential care for a child must ensure behaviour support for children in specialised substitute residential care is delivered consistently with obligations imposed by relevant legislation.

- (e) the nature of the work the child is employed to undertake,
- (f) if employment of the child requires consent under a law—the consent,
- (g) the date, time and place of work for each occasion the child is employed,
- (h) the employer's authority reference number applying on each occasion the child is employed,
- (i) the name, address and telephone number of the child's supervisor for each occasion the child is employed.

6 Incident register

- (1) An incident register must be kept in the form approved by the Children's Guardian.
- (2) The following incidents must be recorded on the incident register, for each child employed by the employer—
 - (a) an accident involving the child,
 - (b) an injury to the child,
 - (c) an incident subject to a complaint made by the child, the child's parent or the parent's nominee,
Examples— complaints relating to the contract of employment, including not being paid for services, and more serious complaints, including allegations of physical abuse or sexual misconduct occurring during the child's employment
 - (d) an incident involving a breach of this Code of Practice, other than this section.
- (3) The record of an incident must include the following—
 - (a) the name of the child,

- (b) the time, date and location of the incident,
 - (c) the action taken in response to the incident.
- (4) The record of an incident must be made and given to the Children's Guardian within 72 hours of the employer becoming aware of the incident.

Division 3 Insurance and risk management

7 Notification to Children's Guardian

- (1) A child must not be employed unless the prospective employer has, at least 7 days before the child is employed, given the Children's Guardian written notice, in the form approved by the Children's Guardian, of the following—
- (a) the employer's intention to employ the child,
 - (b) the address or location of the proposed place of work,
 - (c) the period in which the child will be employed,
 - (d) risks associated with the employment of the child, to the extent the risk can reasonably be identified by the employer, including—
 - (i) a risk associated with the proposed place of work, and
 - (ii) a risk associated with the child's proposed role or employment schedule,
 - (e) the strategies the employer proposes to adopt to minimise identified risks,
 - (f) modifications to this Code of Practice sought by the employer.
- (2) The Children's Guardian may accept a notice under subsection (1) less than 7 days before the child is employed in a particular case or class of cases.

8 Insurance

- (1) A child must be covered by a policy of personal accident insurance with benefits for injuries no less than the benefits payable for the same injuries under—
- (a) the Workers Compensation Act 1987, or
 - (b) the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.
- (2) This section does not apply to a child covered under—
- (a) the Workers Compensation Act 1987, or
 - (b) the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.

Division 4 General welfare

9 Punishment prohibited

A child must not be subjected to physical punishment, social isolation, immobilisation or other behaviour likely to humiliate or frighten the child.

10 Contact with parents

A child must at all times be able to make contact with a parent, or a parent's nominee, and the employer must facilitate the making of contact whenever—

- (a) the child requests contact, or

- (b) it is otherwise in the interests of the child.

11 Schooling requirements

A child of compulsory school-age under the Education Act 1990 must not be employed in the child's usual hours of school attendance unless—

- (a) the employment is for a period in which the child is not required to attend school under an approval given by—
- (i) the principal of the school the child attends, or
 - (ii) the Secretary of the Department of Education, or
- (b) the child is enrolled at a school to undertake courses of study by distance education, or
- (c) the child is registered for home schooling under the Education Act 1990, Part 7, Division 2 and the employment is permitted by the conditions of registration.

12 Food and drink

- (1) A child must, at regular intervals, be provided with food that is varied, sufficient, nutritious and appropriate having regard to the age, taste and culture of the child.
- (2) Water and other nutritious drinks must be readily available to the child at all times during the child's employment.

13 Toilet facilities

A child must have access to clean and easily accessible toilet, hand-washing and hand-drying facilities at the place of work where the child is employed.

14 Recreation and rest facilities

- (1) A child must be given adequate recreation materials and rest facilities during breaks in work.
- (2) The recreation materials and rest facilities must be appropriate for a child of the child's age and level of maturity.

15 Dressing room facilities

A child must be given appropriate dressing room facilities to allow the child to dress and undress in private.

16 Protection from the elements

A child must be adequately clothed and otherwise protected from extremes of climate while the child is employed.

17 Notification of illness or injury

A parent of a child or a parent's nominee must be notified immediately if during the child's employment—

- (a) the child is injured or becomes ill, or
- (b) the child appears to the relevant employer to have become ill, or
- (c) the child reports feeling ill.

18 Industrial instruments or agreements

If there is an inconsistency between a provision of this Code of Practice and a provision of an industrial instrument or agreement applying to a child, the provision that is more beneficial to the child prevails.

Note— The Industrial Relations Act 1996, section 9B(2) provides that a reference in an Act or instrument to an industrial instrument or agreement, however described, includes a reference to a relevant federal industrial instrument or agreement.

19 Work directions

- (1) Before a child is cast in a role or situation, the employer must—
 - (a) fully inform the child and a parent of the child of the nature of the role or situation, and
 - (b) take into account comments made by the child or the parent.
- (2) A child must not be cast in a role or situation that is inappropriate for the child, having regard to the child's age, maturity, emotional or psychological development and sensitivity.
- (3) A child must not—
 - (a) be exposed to scenes likely to cause distress to the child, or
 - (b) be allowed to become distressed for the purpose of obtaining a more realistic depiction of a particular emotion or reaction.
- (4) A child must not be employed in a situation in which—
 - (a) the genitals or anus of the child or another person is exposed, or
 - (b) the buttocks or breasts of the child are exposed, or
 - (c) the buttocks of another person are exposed, or
 - (d) the breasts of another person are exposed, except for the purpose of breastfeeding an infant.

Division 5 Supervision and travel

21 Nursing or midwifery supervision

A child less than 3 years of age must not be employed unless—

- (a) a registered nurse or a midwife who is neither the child's employer nor a parent of the child is present to supervise the child's employment at all times, and
- (b) the nurse or midwife advises the child's employer—
 - (i) the child is suitable to be employed, and
 - (ii) the environment in which the child will work, including the lighting and temperature, will not cause distress or harm to the child, and
- (c) the employer follows the advice of the nurse or midwife in all matters relating to the care of the child, including the use of make-up.

22 Babies less than 12 weeks of age

- (1) A baby must not be employed unless the employer's authority expressly authorises the employment of a baby.
- (2) The registered nurse or midwife advising the employer under section 21 must not advise the employer a baby is suitable for employment unless the nurse or midwife is satisfied of the following—
 - (a) the baby was delivered full term and in good health,
 - (b) the baby's birth weight was at least 3kg,
 - (c) the baby has not had postnatal problems,
 - (d) the baby is feeding successfully,
 - (e) the baby's weight gain from birth has been satisfactory.
- (3) A baby must not be exposed to direct lighting during the baby's employment.
- (4) Make-up must not be applied to a baby during the baby's employment unless the make-up is non-irritating and uncontaminated.
- (5) A baby must not be handled by more than 4 people, including the baby's parents and the nurse or midwife required by section 21, during a single period of employment.
- (6) A person who has a respiratory or skin infection must not be allowed to come into contact with a baby during the baby's employment.

- (7) In this section—
baby means an infant less than 12 weeks of age.

23 Travel

- (1) A child must be accompanied by a parent of the child or a parent's nominee when travelling between—
- (a) the child's home and the child's place of work, or
 - (b) between places of work.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a child who is at least 13 years of age if—
- (a) the distance travelled is less than 10km, and
 - (b) the travel is by public transport, and
 - (c) the travel will be completed in daylight hours.
- (3) A child's journey home must commence within 30 minutes after the child finishes work unless the child is accompanied by a parent of the child or a parent's nominee.
- (4) If the child's work requires the child to spend 1 or more nights away from the child's home, the child and the child's parent, or a parent's nominee, must be provided with appropriate accommodation.

Part 2 Hours of work

24 Definition

In this Part—
work includes preparatory activities.

25 Calculation
