(1) Rule 123

Omit the rule. Insert instead—

123 Anti-discrimination and harassment

- (1) A barrister must not in the course of, or in connection with, legal practice or their profession, engage in conduct which constitutes:
 - (a) discrimination,
 - (b) sexual harassment, or
 - (c) bullying.
- (2) For the purposes of subrule (1), conduct in connection with a barrister's profession includes, but is not limited to:
 - (a) conduct at social functions connected with the bar or the legal profession, and
 - (b) interactions with a person with whom the barrister has, or has had, a professional relationship.

(2) Rule 125

Omit the matter relating to workplace bullying. Insert in alphabetical order—

bullying means unreasonable behaviour that could reasonably be expected to intimidate, degrade, humiliate, isolate, alienate or cause serious offence to a person.
