JOHN GRAHAM, MLC

Explanatory note

The object of this regulation is to amend the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration (Judicial and Other Office Holders) Regulation 2024 to provide that it is a declared policy that the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal, when making certain determinations about remuneration, must have regard to the fiscal position and outlook of the Government, and the likely effect of making the determination on the position and outlook.

The regulation also—

- (a) renames the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration (Judicial and Other Office Holders) Regulation 2024 to account for its expanded application to certain other executive office holders and senior executives, and
- (b) repeals the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration (Executive Office Holders and Senior Executives) Regulation 2023 after its only remaining operative provision expires, and
- (c) repeals redundant and spent provisions, and
- (d) continues the application of the declared policy of equal remuneration for persons, regardless of gender, for doing work of equal or comparable value.
