

POLICE REGULATION (REINSTATEMENT) BILL 1989

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

---

The objects of this Bill are to revoke the dismissal of Mr. Philip Neville Arantz as a member of the Police Force and to reinstate him from the time of his dismissal to the commencement of the proposed legislation.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the proposed Act to commence by proclamation.

Clause 3 identifies the person to whom the proposed Act applies.

Clause 4 reinstates Mr. Arantz as a member of the Police Force from the time of his dismissal (effective 7 December 1971) to the commencement of the proposed clause. For this purpose, his dismissal is revoked as from that date, and he is treated as having retired at the commencement of the proposed clause. The clause also requires his record sheet to be altered by expunging notations of charges against him and his suspension and dismissal.

Clause 5 provides that nothing in the proposed Act affects compensation already paid to Mr. Arantz, that compensation being regarded as full compensation for his suspension, dismissal and associated matters. The clause also provides that he is not entitled to remuneration, pension etc. in connection with the period of his reinstatement.

Clause 6 revokes clause 2 of the deed of release executed by Mr. Arantz (which prevented the making of complaints, statements, comments and disclosures by him).
