26 Cancellation of licence

- (1) The Director-General must cancel a licence if an adverse security determination is made by the Commissioner about the licensee.
Note. Section 27 of the Crimes (Criminal Organisations Control) Act 2012 provides for the automatic revocation of a licence if an interim control order made with respect to a licensee is confirmed under that Act.
- (2) The Director-General may cancel a licence:
 - (a) if the Director-General is satisfied that the licensee has:
 - (i) supplied information which was (to the licensee's knowledge) false or misleading in a material particular in, or in connection with, the application for the licence, or

- (ii) contravened any provision of this Act or the regulations (whether or not the licensee has been convicted of an offence for the contravention), or
 - (iii) contravened a condition of the licence, or
 - (b) in such other circumstances as may be prescribed by the regulations.
 - (3) Except in the case of a licence that is cancelled because of an adverse security determination made by the Commissioner about the licensee, the Director-General may not cancel a licence without first:
 - (a) suspending the licence, and
 - (b) considering any reasons provided by the licensee under section 25 as to why the licence should not be cancelled.
 - (4) The Director-General may cancel a licence by serving the licensee with a written notice stating that the licence is cancelled and (subject to section 20) the reasons for cancelling it.
 - (5) The cancellation of a licence by such a notice takes effect when the notice is served or on a later date specified in the notice.
 - (6) The Director-General may, by serving a further written notice on the licensee, revoke a notice cancelling a licence before the notice takes effect.
 - (7) A licensee must return a licence that has been cancelled to the Director-General in the period specified by the Director-General in the notice cancelling the licence if the licence has not previously been returned.
- Maximum penalty (subsection (7)): 20 penalty units.

Division 6 Review of licensing decisions

27 Right to seek review from Administrative Decisions Tribunal

- (1) A person (other than a controlled member of a declared organisation) may apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of the following decisions:
 - (a) the refusal or failure by the Director-General to grant a licence to the person (other than by operation of section 17 (5)),
 - (b) a condition imposed by the Director-General on a licence granted to the person,
 - (c) the suspension or cancellation of a licence granted to the person.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, an application for the grant of a licence is taken to have been refused if the licence is not granted within 60 days after the application is made in accordance with this Act.

Note. Under the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997, if the Tribunal has reviewed a “reviewable decision” (such as a decision referred to in subsection (1)), a party to the proceedings may appeal to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal. An appeal on a question of law may then lie to the Supreme Court.

- (3) If an application for a licence was refused or a licence was suspended or cancelled by the Director-General on the ground of an adverse security determination made by the Commissioner about the applicant for review:

- (a) the Commissioner (as well as the Director-General) is to be a party to any proceedings in the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of the decision of the Director-General, and
- (b) the Tribunal is to be provided with a copy of the report of the Commissioner’s determination, and
- (c) the Tribunal is not prevented from determining whether the Director-General made the correct and preferable decision regarding the application or the licence concerned merely because of the determination of the Commissioner.

- (4) In determining an application for a review of any decision to refuse to grant a licence or to suspend or cancel a licence that was made on the ground of an adverse security determination made by the Commissioner about the applicant for review, the Administrative Decisions Tribunal:

- (a) is to ensure that it does not, in the reasons for its decision or otherwise, disclose the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information referred to in section 19 (3) without the approval of the Commissioner, and
- (b) in order to prevent the disclosure of any such report or other criminal information, is to receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of the public, the applicant for review, the applicant’s representative and any other interested party, unless the Commissioner approves otherwise.

Note. Section 20 of this Act provides that the Director-General and Commissioner are not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give any reasons in connection with the refusal to grant a licence or the suspension or cancellation of a licence on the ground of an adverse security determination made by the Commissioner if the giving of those reasons would disclose the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information referred to in section 19 (3). Accordingly, Part 2 of Chapter 5 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 does not apply to any decision to refuse to grant a licence based on such information to the extent that it would require disclosure of the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information.

 - (b) there have been, or there are likely to be, serious criminal offences committed at or in connection with the premises.
- (2) An application may be made under this section regardless of whether an interim closure order is (or has been) in force with respect to the premises.

- (3) A penalty notice under this section is declared to be a penalty notice for the purposes of the Fines Act 1996.
