94 Record of School Achievement

(1) Records of School Achievement are to be granted by the Board to students:

(a) who:

- (i) have attended a government school, or
- (ii) have attended a registered non-government school to which a current certificate of accreditation for presentation of candidates for the Record of School Achievement applies, or
- (iii) have attended a school outside New South Wales recognised by the Board, and

- (b) who have participated, to the Board's satisfaction, in courses of study which have been determined under this Act as appropriate to be undertaken by candidates for the Record of School Achievement, and
 - (c) who have been accepted by the Board as having satisfactorily completed those courses of study, and
 - (d) who have, to the Board's satisfaction, undertaken the requisite examinations or other forms of assessment, and
 - (e) who have complied with any requirements prescribed by the regulations or any requirements imposed by the Minister or the Board, and
 - (f) who have completed Year 10.
- (2) The requisite examinations or other assessments may be conducted on a school-basis, but are to be moderated on a State-wide basis in the learning areas and in the manner determined by the Board.
 - (3) The Board may refuse to grant a Record of School Achievement to a student whose attendance or application at school has been of such an unsatisfactory character that the granting of a Record of School Achievement would not, in the opinion of the Board, be justified.
 - (4) Records of School Achievement are to be granted in the manner determined by the Board.

98 Recording student results and activities and provision of transcript of study

- (1) The Board is to keep a record of a student's results in courses of study undertaken in Years 10, 11 and 12 for a recognised certificate at a government school or an accredited non-government school. The record may include any other information relating to the student's activities while at school as the Board thinks appropriate.
- (2) The Board may provide a transcript of study that sets out a student's record:
 - (a) to the student, or
 - (b) to the school attended by the student, or
 - (c) to any other person or body authorised by the regulations.
- (3) The Board is required to provide a transcript of study to any of the following students if requested by the student:
 - (a) a student who completes Year 10 (whether or not the student leaves school),
 - (b) a student who undertakes courses of study in Year 11 or 12 for the minimum period determined by the Board (but only when the student leaves school).
- (4) Transcripts of study are to be provided in the manner determined by the Board.
- (5) A record is to be kept and a transcript of study provided under this section whether or not the student is also granted a recognised certificate.
- (6) The Board may provide special records of achievement to students with intellectual disabilities who undertake formal courses of study even though the courses are not undertaken for a recognised certificate.

[19] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 2 (1):

Education Amendment (Record of School Achievement) Act 2012

[20] Schedule 3

Insert at the end of the Schedule with appropriate Part and clause numbers:

Part Provisions consequent on enactment of Education Amendment (Record of School Achievement) Act 2012

Application of amendments to students in Year 11 or Year 12

The amendments made by the Education Amendment (Record of School Achievement) Act 2012 do not apply in relation to Year 11 or Year 12 students in 2012 or Year 12 students in 2013.

Continuation of accreditation of non-government schools

The amendments made to Division 1 of Part 8 of this Act by the Education Amendment (Record of School Achievement) Act 2012 do not affect any accreditation in force immediately before the commencement of those amendments. Any such accreditation for the purposes of presenting candidates for the School Certificate is taken to be an accreditation for the purposes of presenting candidates for the Record of School Achievement.

Continuation of curriculum for School Certificate candidates

The amendment made to section 11 of this Act by the Education Amendment (Record of School Achievement) Act 2012 does not affect the curriculum during Year 7 to Year 10 for students who are candidates for the School Certificate that is in force immediately before the commencement of that amendment. Any such curriculum is (until duly changed) the curriculum during Year 7 to Year 10 for students who are candidates for the Record of School Achievement.
