

New South Wales

Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Amendment (National Domestic Violence Orders Recognition) Bill 2016

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to give effect to the New South Wales component of a national recognition scheme for domestic violence orders.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act by proclamation.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 No 80

Schedule 1 [9] inserts proposed Part 13B into the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 (the principal Act) to give effect to the New South Wales component of a national recognition scheme for domestic violence orders. The proposed Part incorporates model provisions that were approved by the Council of Australian Governments on 11 December 2015.

Division 1 of proposed Part 13B deals with preliminary matters and contains proposed sections 98R–98X.

Proposed section 98R sets out the object of the proposed Part which is to establish, in conjunction with corresponding laws, a national recognition scheme for domestic violence orders (DVOs).

Proposed section 98S sets out definitions for the purposes of the proposed Part.

Proposed sections 98T–98V define local DVO, interstate DVO and registered foreign order. A local DVO is an apprehended domestic violence order or an interim apprehended domestic violence order made under the principal Act. An interstate DVO is a domestic violence order (or an order that addresses a domestic violence concern) made under various pieces of legislation of other States and Territories. A registered foreign order means a foreign order (which at this stage only includes New Zealand DVOs) that is registered under Part 13 and was made to prevent a person acting in a manner specified in section 16 of the principal Act, or that was made under provisions similar to Part 13 in legislation of other States and Territories.

South Australia and Western Australia do not have a distinct category of domestic violence orders. Therefore to distinguish domestic violence orders from other orders for the protection of persons in those States, the definition of interstate DVO (when referring to orders from those States) is limited to orders that address domestic violence concerns. Proposed section 98W sets out when an order will be taken to address a domestic violence concern.

Proposed section 98X provides that a registered foreign order is taken to be made in the jurisdiction in which it is registered and is taken to have been made when it is so registered. If the registration of the order is varied or revoked, then the order is varied or revoked.

Division 2 of proposed Part 13B deals with the national recognition of DVOs and contains proposed sections 98Y–98ZK.

Proposed section 98Y sets out that recognised DVO means a local DVO, an interstate DVO made in a participating jurisdiction (being New South Wales or another jurisdiction that has enacted provisions that correspond with proposed Part 13B (a corresponding law)) or a foreign order that is a registered foreign order in any participating jurisdiction. Schedule 1 [7] removes an existing power for an interstate DVO to be registered in New South Wales as this is now no longer necessary because of proposed Part 13B.

Proposed sections 98Z and 98ZA set out the circumstances in which a variation to, or revocation of, a recognised DVO is recognised in New South Wales. In the case of a local DVO, the variation or revocation is recognised if it is done in accordance with the principal Act or it is done by a court in a participating jurisdiction under a corresponding law. In the case of an interstate DVO or foreign order the variation or revocation is recognised if it is done in the issuing jurisdiction under the law of that jurisdiction or it is done in a participating jurisdiction under a corresponding law. A variation to a DVO that is recognised in New South Wales is a recognised variation.

Proposed section 98ZB provides that a recognised DVO that is newer than an earlier comparable recognised DVO supersedes the earlier recognised DVO. A DVO is comparable if it is made against the same defendant and it is made for the protection of one or more of the same protected persons.

Proposed section 98ZC provides that proposed Part 13B does not prevent the making of a local DVO even if a recognised DVO is in force that applies to the same defendant. However, a person cannot make a provisional order against a defendant under Part 7 of the principal Act if the person is aware that a recognised DVO is in force against the defendant and that recognised DVO applies to the same protected person and was made by a court. Schedule 1 [1] and [2] make consequential amendments.

Proposed section 98ZD provides that both a recognised DVO and a recognised variation to a recognised DVO, is enforceable in New South Wales. Schedule 1 [8] makes a consequential amendment.

Proposed section 98ZE sets out the circumstances in which a defendant is taken to be properly notified about the making of a local DVO or an interstate DVO, or about the variation of a recognised DVO.

Proposed section 98ZF provides that a non-local DVO (being an interstate DVO or a foreign DVO) that is a recognised DVO and (under proposed section 98ZD) is enforceable in New South Wales may be enforced as if it were a local DVO and as if the defendant had been properly notified in New South Wales about the making of the DVO. It also provides for the circumstances in which a variation may be enforced in New South Wales.

Proposed section 98ZG provides that a recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO has the same effect in New South Wales as a local DVO.

Proposed section 98ZH provides that any law of New South Wales that limits a person's ability to hold an authorisation (such as a licence or permit) because the person is subject to a local DVO extends in the same way to a person who is subject to a recognised non-local DVO.

Proposed sections 98ZI and 98ZJ provide that if a person is disqualified from holding an authorisation to possess a firearm or a prohibited weapon in another jurisdiction because of a recognised non-local DVO, the person is also disqualified from holding a licence or permit to possess the firearm under the Firearms Act 1996 or from holding a permit to possess the weapon under the Weapons Prohibition Act 1998.

Proposed section 98ZK provides that non-local DVO, to the extent that it requires the payment of money, cannot be enforced in New South Wales and that the recognition of a DVO in New South Wales does not permit a New South Wales court to award costs in respect of proceedings occurring in another jurisdiction.

Division 3 of proposed Part 13B deals with the variation and revocation of recognised non-local DVOs and contains proposed sections 98ZL–98ZO.

Proposed section 98ZL sets out a definition of court for the purposes of the proposed Division, which is defined to mean a New South Wales court that can make an apprehended domestic violence order or an interim apprehended domestic violence order under the principal Act.

Proposed section 98ZM sets out when a court can vary or revoke a recognised non-local DVO.

Proposed section 98ZN sets out the circumstances in which an application can be made to a court for the variation or revocation of a recognised non-local DVO.

Proposed section 98ZO provides a court with a discretion to hear or decline to hear an application for the variation or revocation of a recognised non-local DVO. However, a court must refuse to hear the application if made by the defendant during any period in which the defendant is not entitled to apply for the variation or revocation of the DVO in the jurisdiction in which the DVO was issued.

Division 4 of proposed Part 13B deals with the exchange of information and contains proposed sections 98ZP–98ZS.

Proposed section 98ZP permits a New South Wales issuing authority (being a court or other person with power to make, vary or revoke a DVO) to obtain and use information from an issuing authority of another jurisdiction, or from a New South Wales or interstate law enforcement agency.

Proposed section 98ZQ requires a New South Wales issuing authority that makes, varies or revokes a DVO to provide, on request, information about the DVO to a court in a participating jurisdiction for the purposes of a corresponding law or to a New South Wales or interstate law enforcement agency for the purposes of its law enforcement functions.

Proposed section 98ZR permits a New South Wales law enforcement agency (being the NSW Police Force) to obtain information about a DVO from an issuing authority (in New South Wales or another jurisdiction) or interstate law enforcement agency and to use the information for the purposes of its law enforcement functions.

Proposed section 98ZS requires a New South Wales law enforcement agency to provide, on request, information about a DVO to an interstate law enforcement agency for the purpose of exercising its law enforcement functions.

Division 5 of proposed Part 13B deals with miscellaneous matters and contains proposed section 98ZT.

Proposed section 98ZT permits certificates to be issued stating that the making of, or variation to, a DVO has been properly notified in New South Wales or another jurisdiction. The certificate is admissible in evidence in proceedings.

Division 6 of proposed Part 13B sets out transitional provisions and contains proposed sections 98ZU–98ZZE.

Proposed section 98ZU inserts a definition of commencement date for the purposes of the proposed Division. The commencement date is the day on which proposed Part 13B commences.

Proposed section 98ZV provides that proposed Part 13B does not affect the enforceability in New South Wales of a local DVO made before the commencement date or of any interstate DVO or foreign order registered under Part 13 of the principal Act in New South Wales before the commencement date except as otherwise provided under the proposed Part.

Proposed sections 98ZW and 98ZX provide that Division 2 (National recognition of DVOs) of proposed Part 13B will apply to all local DVOs and foreign orders made in New South Wales on or after the commencement date and to all DVOs made in other participating jurisdictions that are recognised DVOs under that jurisdiction's corresponding law.

Proposed section 98ZY provides that recognised DVO includes any DVO that has been declared by the registrar of a court in New South Wales or in a participating jurisdiction to be a recognised DVO. Proposed section 98ZZ states that the DVO is still recognised even if the relevant declaration was made before the commencement date.

Proposed section 98ZZA sets out a definition of registrar for the purposes of proposed sections 98ZZB–98ZZD, being a registrar of a court in New South Wales that can make local DVOs.

Proposed section 98ZZB permits a registrar to declare that a DVO made in any jurisdiction is a recognised DVO in New South Wales.

Proposed section 98ZZC provides that an application for a declaration may be made by any person who would be able to make an application for variation of the DVO if the DVO were a recognised DVO.

Proposed section 98ZZD permits a court (that has the power to make a DVO in New South Wales) to exercise the functions of a registrar under proposed sections 98ZZB–98ZZD.

Proposed section 98ZZE provides for the principal Act to continue to apply to interstate DVOs that are currently registered under Part 13 as if proposed Part 13B had not commenced. An interstate DVO ceases to be registered under that Part (and proposed Part 13B applies to the order) if the order becomes a recognised DVO in New South Wales.

Schedule 1 [3]–[6] extend protections in Part 9 of the principal Act to proceedings under proposed Part 13B. Those protections relate to the giving of evidence by children, preventing the disclosure of the residential address of protected persons and preventing the publication of names. Those provisions are extended to proceedings for the variation or revocation of a recognised non-local DVO and proceedings for a declaration that a DVO is a recognised DVO.

(c) extend or reduce the period in which the DVO remains in force.	26
98T Local DVO	27
(1) A local DVO means an apprehended domestic violence order or an interim apprehended domestic violence order made under this Act.	28
(2) A registered foreign order is not a local DVO.	29
98U Interstate DVO	30
(1) Each of the following orders is an interstate DVO :	31
(a) a domestic violence order under the Domestic Violence and Protection Orders Act 2008 of the Australian Capital Territory,	32
(b) a domestic violence order under the Domestic and Family Violence Act of the Northern Territory,	33
(c) a domestic violence order or police protection notice under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012 of Queensland,	34

(d)	an intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 of South Australia that addresses a domestic violence concern,	1 2 3
(e)	a family violence order (FVO), interim FVO or police family violence order (PFVO) under the Family Violence Act 2004 of Tasmania,	4 5
(f)	a family violence intervention order or a family violence safety notice under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 of Victoria,	6 7
(g)	the following orders under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 of Western Australia:	8 9
(i)	a violence restraining order that addresses a domestic violence concern,	10 11
(ii)	any violence restraining order made under section 11B of that Act,	12 13
(iii)	a police order,	14
(h)	any order, notice or other thing declared by the regulations to be an interstate DVO.	15 16
(2)	A registered foreign order is not an interstate DVO.	17
98V	Registered foreign order	18
	A registered foreign order means a foreign order that is:	19
(a)	a registered external protection order under Part 13 of this Act that has been made to prevent a person acting in a manner specified in section 16, or	20 21 22
(b)	a registered order under Part 12 of the Domestic Violence and Protection Orders Act 2008 of the Australian Capital Territory, or	23 24
(c)	a registered external order under the Domestic and Family Violence Act of the Northern Territory, or	25 26
(d)	a registered interstate order under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012 of Queensland, or	27 28
(e)	a foreign intervention order registered under Part 4 of the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 of South Australia, or	29 30
(f)	an external family violence order registered under section 27 of the Family Violence Act 2004 of Tasmania, or	31 32
(g)	a corresponding New Zealand order registered under Part 10 of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 of Victoria, or	33 34
(h)	a foreign restraining order registered under Part 7A of the Restraining Orders Act 1997 of Western Australia, or	35 36
(i)	any order declared by the regulations to be a registered foreign order.	37
98W	Domestic violence concerns—SA and WA orders	38
(1)	An intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 of South Australia addresses a domestic violence concern if the order is made because it is reasonable to suspect that the defendant will, without intervention, commit an act of domestic abuse (within the meaning of that Act).	39 40 41 42 43
(2)	A violence restraining order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 of Western Australia addresses a domestic violence concern if the order is made because the defendant has committed, or because it is feared the defendant will	44 45 46

	commit, an act of family and domestic violence (within the meaning of section 6 of that Act).	1 2
(3)	A general violence order is taken, for the purpose of this Part, to be an order that addresses a domestic violence concern if:	3 4
	(a) it is declared to be an order that addresses a domestic violence concern by the issuing authority that makes the order, or	5 6
	(b) a registrar of a court of the jurisdiction in which the order was made makes an order declaring the DVO to be a recognised DVO in that jurisdiction.	7 8 9
(4)	The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which an order made in a participating jurisdiction is taken, for the purpose of this Part, to be an order that addresses a domestic violence concern.	10 11 12
98X	Special provisions for foreign orders	13
(1)	For the purpose of this Part, a registered foreign order:	14
	(a) is taken to be made in the jurisdiction in which it is registered as a registered foreign order, and	15 16
	(b) is taken to be made when it becomes a registered foreign order in that jurisdiction.	17 18
(2)	A registered foreign order is varied or revoked, for the purpose of this Part, if its registration as a registered foreign order is varied or revoked.	19 20
(3)	A power conferred by this Part to vary or revoke a registered foreign order is a power to vary or revoke registration of the order as a registered foreign order.	21 22
Division 2	National recognition of DVOs	23
Subdivision 1	General principles	24
98Y	Recognition of DVOs	25
(1)	Each of the following DVOs is a recognised DVO in New South Wales:	26
	(a) a local DVO,	27
	(b) an interstate DVO made in a participating jurisdiction,	28
	(c) a foreign order that is a registered foreign order in any participating jurisdiction.	29 30
	Note. Recognition can also extend to DVOs made in jurisdictions that are not, or are not yet, participating jurisdictions. See Division 6.	31 32
(2)	A DVO becomes a recognised DVO when it is made.	33
	Note. A foreign order is taken to be made when it is registered as a registered foreign order.	34 35
(3)	A DVO is a recognised DVO, subject to this Part, for the period for which it remains in force in the jurisdiction in which it is made.	36 37
98Z	Variations to DVO	38
(1)	A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in New South Wales or another jurisdiction is a recognised variation in New South Wales in the circumstances provided for by this section.	39 40 41

(2)	A variation to a local DVO is a recognised variation in New South Wales if the variation is done:	1
(a)	in New South Wales by a court or any other person authorised to do so under this Act, or	3
(b)	in another participating jurisdiction by a court under a corresponding law.	5
(3)	A variation to an interstate DVO or foreign order is a recognised variation in New South Wales if the variation is done:	7
(a)	in the issuing jurisdiction by a court or any other person authorised to do so under the law of the issuing jurisdiction, or	9
		10
(b)	in any participating jurisdiction by a court under this Part or a corresponding law.	11
		12
	Note. The issuing jurisdiction for a foreign order is the jurisdiction in which the order is registered.	13
		14
(4)	A variation is recognised from the time that it is made.	15
98ZA	Revocation of recognised DVO	16
(1)	A DVO ceases to be a recognised DVO if the DVO is revoked in New South Wales or another jurisdiction and that revocation is recognised in New South Wales.	17
		19
(2)	A revocation of a local DVO is recognised in New South Wales if the revocation is done:	20
		21
(a)	in New South Wales by a court or any other person authorised to do so under this Act, or	22
		23
(b)	in another participating jurisdiction by a court under a corresponding law.	24
		25
(3)	A revocation of an interstate DVO or foreign order is recognised in New South Wales if the revocation is done:	26
		27
(a)	in the issuing jurisdiction by a court or any other person authorised to do so under the law of the issuing jurisdiction, or	28
		29
(b)	in any participating jurisdiction by a court under this Part or a corresponding law.	30
		31
(4)	The DVO ceases to be a recognised DVO from the time it is revoked.	32
98ZB	Recognised DVO prevails over earlier comparable DVOs	33
(1)	A recognised DVO that is enforceable against a defendant in New South Wales (a new DVO) supersedes:	34
		35
(a)	any comparable recognised DVO made earlier than the new DVO, and	36
(b)	any comparable local DVO made earlier than the new DVO (whether or not the local DVO is a recognised DVO).	37
		38
(2)	The earlier comparable DVO is superseded from the time the recognised DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant.	39
		40
(3)	A recognised DVO that is superseded ceases to be a recognised DVO.	41
(4)	A local DVO that is superseded is revoked.	42
(5)	A DVO is not superseded to the extent that it relates to a protected person who is not a protected person under the new DVO.	43
		44

(6)	Accordingly, a DVO continues to be a recognised DVO, and to have effect, to the extent that it relates to a person who is not a protected person under the new DVO.	1 2 3
(7)	A DVO made by a police officer does not supersede a comparable DVO made by a court (of any jurisdiction).	4 5
(8)	A DVO is comparable with another DVO if:	6
(a)	the DVOs are made against the same defendant, and	7
(b)	the DVOs are made for the protection of one or more of the same protected persons.	8 9
98ZC	Making of new orders	10
(1)	Nothing in this Part prevents a person from applying for, or an issuing authority from making, a local DVO even though there is a recognised DVO in force that applies to the same defendant.	11 12 13
(2)	However, a person is not to make a provisional order under Part 7 if the person is aware that there is already a recognised DVO that is enforceable against the defendant which:	14 15 16
(a)	applies to the same defendant and protected person, and	17
(b)	was made by a court of any jurisdiction.	18
	Subdivision 2 Enforcement of recognised DVOs	19
98ZD	Recognised DVOs and variations are enforceable against defendant	20
(1)	A recognised DVO, or a recognised variation to a recognised DVO, is enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales.	21 22
(2)	A recognised DVO that is a local DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales when the defendant is properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of New South Wales.	23 24 25
(3)	A recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO (other than a foreign order) becomes enforceable against a defendant in New South Wales when the defendant is properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.	26 27 28 29
(4)	A recognised DVO that is a foreign order becomes enforceable against a defendant in New South Wales from the time it becomes a recognised DVO.	30 31
(5)	A recognised variation to a recognised DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales when the defendant is properly notified of the variation under the law of the jurisdiction in which the variation is done.	32 33 34
98ZE	Properly notified—meaning	35
(1)	The making of a local DVO is properly notified under the law of New South Wales if:	36 37
(a)	the DVO is made by a court and the defendant is present in court when the DVO is made, or	38 39
(b)	the defendant is served in accordance with this Act with a copy of the DVO.	40 41
(2)	The making of an interstate DVO is properly notified under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is made in the circumstances provided for by the corresponding law of that jurisdiction.	42 43 44

(3)	A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in New South Wales is properly notified under the law of New South Wales if:	1
(a)	the variation is done by a court and the defendant is present in court when the DVO is varied, or	3
(b)	the defendant is served in accordance with this Act with a copy of the variation.	5
(4)	A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in another jurisdiction is properly notified under the law of that jurisdiction in the circumstances provided for by the corresponding law of that jurisdiction.	7
98ZF	Contravention of enforceable recognised DVO	10
(1)	A non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO and which is enforceable against a defendant in New South Wales may be enforced in New South Wales:	11
		12
(a)	as if it were a local DVO, and	13
(b)	as if the defendant had been properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of New South Wales.	14
		15
(2)	A recognised variation to a non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO and which is enforceable in New South Wales may be enforced in New South Wales as if it were a variation to a local DVO.	16
		17
		18
(3)	A recognised variation to a recognised DVO made in another jurisdiction that is enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales may be enforced as if the defendant had been properly notified of the variation under the law of New South Wales.	19
		20
		22
(4)	This section does not affect any law of New South Wales that requires a geographical nexus to exist between New South Wales and an offence for a person to be guilty of an offence under the law of New South Wales.	23
		24
		25
	Subdivision 3 Enforcement of non-local DVOs	26
98ZG	Non-local DVO to be treated as local DVO	27
(1)	A recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO has the same effect in New South Wales as a local DVO.	28
		29
(2)	A prohibition, restriction or condition imposed by a non-local DVO has the same meaning as it would have in the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made, but may be enforced in New South Wales as if it were a prohibition or restriction of a local DVO.	30
		31
		33
	Note. Section 14 of this Act creates an offence if a person contravenes a prohibition or restriction in an apprehended violence order. This means that a condition of a non-local DVO that is in the nature of a prohibition or restriction can be enforced in New South Wales. However, a condition of a non-local DVO that is not in the nature of a prohibition or restriction (for example, a condition that requires the defendant to attend an alcohol rehabilitation course) cannot be enforced.	34
		35
		36
		37
		38
		39
98ZH	Licences, permits and other authorisations	40
(1)	A law of New South Wales (a relevant law) that restricts the grant of an authorisation, or that authorises or requires an authorisation to be suspended or revoked, if a person is or has been subject to a local DVO extends to a person who is or has been subject to any non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO (as if the non-local DVO were a local DVO).	41
		42
		44
		45

(2)	For the purposes of a relevant law:	1
(a)	a non-local DVO that is a final DVO is to be treated in the same way as a local DVO that is a final DVO, and	2 3
(b)	a non-local DVO that is an interim DVO is to be treated in the same way as a local DVO that is an interim DVO.	4 5
(3)	In this section:	6
	authorisation includes a licence or permit.	7
	grant includes issue.	8
98ZJ	Recognition of disqualification to hold firearms licence	9
(1)	If a non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO disqualifies a person from holding a non-local firearms licence, or type of non-local firearms licence, the person is also disqualified from holding a local firearms licence or local firearms licence of the same type (as the case requires).	10 11 12 13
(2)	The Commissioner of Police must revoke any local firearms licence held by a person, or refuse to issue a local firearms licence to a person, if the person is so disqualified from holding the firearms licence by a recognised DVO.	14 15 16
(3)	A recognised DVO disqualifies a person from holding a non-local firearms licence or type of non-local firearms licence if the DVO expressly:	17 18
(a)	disqualifies the person from holding a non-local firearms licence or type of non-local firearms licence, or	19 20
(b)	revokes or requires the person to surrender a non-local firearms licence or type of non-local firearms licence held by the person.	21 22
(4)	In this section:	23
	local firearms licence means a licence, permit or other authorisation under the Firearms Act 1996 .	24 25
	non-local firearms licence means a licence, permit or other authorisation to possess a firearm (within the meaning of the Firearms Act 1996) issued under the law of another jurisdiction or country.	26 27 28
98ZJ	Recognition of disqualification to hold weapons permit	29
(1)	If a non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO disqualifies a person from holding a non-local weapons permit or type of non-local weapons permit, the person is also disqualified from holding a local weapons permit or local weapons permit of the same type (as the case requires).	30 31 32 33
(2)	The Commissioner of Police must revoke any local weapons permit held by a person, or refuse to issue a local weapons permit to a person, if the person is so disqualified from holding the weapons permit by a recognised DVO.	34 35 36
(3)	A recognised DVO disqualifies a person from holding a non-local weapons permit or type of non-local weapons permit if the DVO expressly:	37 38
(a)	disqualifies the person from holding a non-local weapons permit or type of non-local weapons permit, or	39 40
(b)	revokes or requires the person to surrender a non-local weapons permit or type of non-local weapons permit held by the person.	41 42
(4)	In this section:	43
	local weapons permit means a permit under the Weapons Prohibition Act 1998 .	44 45

	non-local weapons permit means a licence, permit or other authorisation to possess a prohibited weapon (within the meaning of the Weapons Prohibition Act 1998) issued under the law of another jurisdiction or country.	1 2 3
98ZK	Orders for costs	4
	(1) A non-local DVO, to the extent that it requires the payment of money, cannot be enforced in New South Wales.	5 6
	(2) The recognition of a DVO made in another jurisdiction does not confer power on a court or tribunal of New South Wales to award costs in respect of any proceedings relating to the DVO that occurred in another jurisdiction.	7 8 9
	(3) This section does not prevent a court or tribunal awarding costs in respect of any proceedings in New South Wales relating to the variation or revocation of a recognised DVO.	10 11 12
	Division 3 Variation and revocation of recognised non-local DVOs	13
98ZL	Definition	14
	In this Division:	15
	court means a court of New South Wales that has power to make local DVOs.	16
98ZM	Power of court to vary or revoke recognised non-local DVOs	17
	(1) A court may vary or revoke a recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO in accordance with this Division as if the DVO were a local DVO.	18 19
	(2) A court cannot vary or revoke a non-local DVO if it is a kind of DVO that cannot be varied or revoked by a court in the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.	20 21 22
	(3) A variation to or revocation of a recognised DVO that is done under this Division is not limited in its operation to New South Wales.	23 24
	(4) This Division does not apply to the variation or revocation of a foreign order that is registered as a registered foreign order in New South Wales.	25 26
	Note. Locally registered foreign orders (which in Part 13 are referred to as registered external protection orders) can be varied or revoked under section 98.	27 28
	(5) To avoid doubt, if a court varies a recognised DVO that was made in another jurisdiction, the other jurisdiction continues to be treated, for the purpose of this Part, as the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.	29 30 31
98ZN	Application for variation or revocation of recognised non-local DVO	32
	(1) An application for the variation or revocation of a recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO may be made to a court as if it were an application for variation or revocation of a local DVO by any person who would be able to make the application if the DVO were a local DVO.	33 34 35 36
	(2) An application:	37
	(a) is to be made to a court that would have power to hear the application if the DVO were a local DVO, and	38 39
	(b) is to be made in accordance with any requirements that would apply if the DVO were a local DVO, and	40 41
	(c) may be dealt with (subject to this Division) as if the DVO were a local DVO.	42 43

98ZO	Decision about hearing of application	1
(1)	A court that deals with an application for variation or revocation of a non-local DVO may decide to hear the application or decline to hear the application.	2 3
(2)	In making that decision, the court may consider the following matters (to the extent relevant):	4 5
(a)	the jurisdiction in which the defendant and the protected person or persons under the DVO generally reside or are employed,	6 7
(b)	any difficulty the respondent to the proceedings may have in attending the proceedings,	8 9
(c)	whether there is sufficient information available to the court in relation to the DVO and the basis on which it was made,	10 11
(d)	whether any proceedings are being taken in respect of an alleged contravention of the DVO and the jurisdiction in which those proceedings are being taken,	12 13 14
(e)	the practicality of the applicant (if not the defendant under the DVO) applying for and obtaining a local DVO against the defendant with similar prohibitions or restrictions,	15 16 17
(f)	the impact of the application on children who are protected persons under the DVO,	18 19
(g)	any other matters the court considers relevant.	20
(3)	Without limiting the court's power to decline to hear an application, the court may decline to hear the application if the court is satisfied that there has been no material change in the circumstances on which the making of the order was based and that the application is in the nature of an appeal against the order.	21 22 23 24
(4)	For the purpose of exercising its functions under this Division, a court may have regard to any information that the court considers relevant about the making or variation of a DVO that is provided by an issuing authority of any other jurisdiction.	25 26 27 28
	Note. Division 4 enables the court to obtain information about DVOs from other jurisdictions.	29 30
(5)	A court must refuse to hear an application for variation or revocation made by the defendant during any period in which, under the law of the issuing jurisdiction for the DVO, the defendant is not entitled to apply for the variation or revocation of the DVO in the issuing jurisdiction.	31 32 33 34
(6)	In this section, the respondent to an application for variation or revocation of a DVO means:	35 36
(a)	in the case of an application made by the defendant under the recognised DVO, the protected person or persons under the recognised DVO, and	37 38
(b)	in any other case, the defendant under the recognised DVO.	39
	Division 4
	Exchange of information	40
	Note. Section 25 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 provides that a public sector agency is not required to comply with a number of information protection principles (including those that restrict the use and disclosure of personal information) where non-compliance is permitted under an Act. The exchange of information in accordance with this Division is therefore not limited by those information protection principles.	41 42 43 44 45
98ZP	Issuing authorities may obtain DVO information	46
	An issuing authority of New South Wales may obtain information about a DVO from an issuing authority of another jurisdiction, or from a local or	47 48

	interstate law enforcement agency, and use that information for the purpose of exercising its functions under this Part.	1 2
98ZQ	Issuing authorities must provide DVO information	3
(1)	An issuing authority of New South Wales that makes, varies or revokes a DVO must provide to a court of any other participating jurisdiction any information about the DVO that the court reasonably requests for the purpose of exercising its functions under a corresponding law.	4 5 6 7
(2)	An issuing authority of New South Wales that makes, varies or revokes a DVO must provide to a local or interstate law enforcement agency any information about the DVO that the law enforcement agency reasonably requests for the purpose of exercising its law enforcement functions.	8 9 10 11
98ZR	Law enforcement agencies may obtain DVO information	12
	A local law enforcement agency may obtain information about a DVO from an issuing authority of New South Wales or another jurisdiction, or from an interstate law enforcement agency, and use that information for the purpose of exercising its law enforcement functions.	13 14 15 16
98ZS	Information to be provided to law enforcement agencies	17
	A local law enforcement agency must provide to an interstate law enforcement agency any information it holds about a DVO that the interstate law enforcement agency reasonably requests for the purpose of exercising its law enforcement functions.	18 19 20 21
Division 5	Miscellaneous	22
98ZT	Certificate evidence—notification	23
(1)	An authorised officer of New South Wales may issue a certificate in writing certifying any of the following matters:	24 25
(a)	that the making of a local DVO has been properly notified under the law of New South Wales,	26 27
(b)	that a variation to a DVO that was done in New South Wales has been properly notified under the law of New South Wales.	28 29
(2)	The certificate is admissible in evidence in any proceedings and is evidence of the matters certified.	30 31
(3)	A certificate in writing purporting to be signed by an authorised officer of another jurisdiction and certifying any of the following matters is admissible in evidence in any proceedings and is evidence of the matters certified:	32 33 34
(a)	that the making of a DVO in that jurisdiction has been properly notified under the law of that jurisdiction,	35 36
(b)	that a variation to a DVO that was done in that jurisdiction has been properly notified under the law of that jurisdiction.	37 38
(4)	In any document, the words “authorised officer” after a signature are evidence that the person whose signature it purports to be is in fact an authorised officer.	39 40
(5)	In this section: authorised officer of another jurisdiction means a person (whether or not designated as an authorised officer) who is authorised under the law of another jurisdiction to issue a certificate certifying that the making or variation of a DVO has been properly notified under the law of that jurisdiction.	41 42 43 44 45

authorised officer of New South Wales means:	1
(a) a registrar of a court of New South Wales, or	2
(b) a police officer in the NSW Police Force of or above the rank of sergeant.	3
Note. The meaning of authorised officer in this section is different from the meaning of that term in the rest of this Act or from the meaning that the term has in the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 .	4

	10
	11
Subdivision 1 Preliminary	12
98ZU Definition	13
In this Division, the commencement date means the date on which this Part commences.	14
	15
98ZV Enforcement of DVOs under other provisions	16
(1) This Part does not affect the enforceability in New South Wales, otherwise than under this Part, of any local DVO made before the commencement date, subject to subsection (3).	17
	19
(2) This Part does not affect the enforceability in New South Wales, otherwise than under this Part, of any interstate DVO or foreign order registered in New South Wales, before the commencement date, under Part 13, subject to subsection (3).	20
	21
	23
(3) However, a DVO made in New South Wales before the commencement date can be superseded under section 98ZB, on or after the commencement date, by a recognised DVO that is made later.	24
	25
	26
Subdivision 2 DVOs to which scheme applies	27
98ZW DVOs made in New South Wales	28
Division 2 applies to any local DVO or foreign order that is made in New South Wales on or after the commencement date.	29
	30
98ZX DVOs made in other jurisdictions	31
(1) Division 2 applies to any DVOs made in another participating jurisdiction that are recognised DVOs in that jurisdiction under the corresponding law for that jurisdiction.	32
	33
	34
(2) To avoid doubt, section 98Y extends to the following DVOs:	35
(a) any interstate DVO that was made in another participating jurisdiction before the commencement date that is a recognised DVO in that jurisdiction,	36
	37
	38
(b) any foreign order that became a registered foreign order in another participating jurisdiction before the commencement date that is a recognised DVO in that jurisdiction.	39
	40
	41
(3) Sections 98Z and 98ZA extend to any variation or revocation of a DVO referred to in subsection (2), that was done in a participating jurisdiction before the commencement date, as if the DVO were a recognised DVO.	42
	44

- (4) However, a non-local DVO, and any variation to a non-local DVO, does not become enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales, under this Part, until the commencement date (even if the making of the DVO, or variation, was properly notified before that date). 1

Subdivision 3 Extension of scheme to older DVOs 5

98ZY DVOs declared to be recognised DVOs 6

- (1) Each of the following DVOs is also taken to be a recognised DVO: 7
(a) any DVO that is declared by a registrar of a court of New South Wales to be a recognised DVO in New South Wales under Subdivision 4, 8
(b) any DVO that is declared by a registrar of a court of another participating jurisdiction to be a recognised DVO in that jurisdiction under a corresponding law. 10
11
12
(2) A recognised DVO referred to in subsection (1) becomes enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales, under this Part, when the declaration is made (despite section 98ZC). 13
14
15

98ZZ DVOs declared to be recognised in other jurisdictions before commencement date 16 17

- (1) To avoid doubt, section 98ZY extends to a DVO declared by a registrar of a court of another participating jurisdiction to be a recognised DVO before the commencement date. 18
20
(2) Sections 98Z and 98ZA extend to any variation or revocation of a DVO referred to in subsection (1), that was done in a participating jurisdiction before the commencement date, as if the DVO were a recognised DVO. 21
22
23
(3) However, the DVO, and any variation to the DVO, does not become enforceable against the defendant in New South Wales, under this Part, until the commencement date. 24
25
26

Subdivision 4 Power to declare DVO to be recognised 27

98ZZA Definition 28

In this Subdivision: 29
registrar means a registrar of a court of New South Wales that has power to make a local DVO. 30 31

98ZZB Power to declare DVO to be recognised 32

- (1) A registrar may, by order, declare any DVO made in any jurisdiction to be a recognised DVO in New South Wales. 33
34
(2) A declaration may be made in relation to any DVO made in any jurisdiction that is in force in the issuing jurisdiction and is not a recognised DVO in New South Wales. 35
36
37
(3) The jurisdiction in which the DVO was made does not have to be a participating jurisdiction. 38
39
(4) A registrar must make a declaration under this section if an application for the declaration is made in accordance with this Subdivision, unless the registrar decides to refuse to make the declaration in the interests of justice. 40
41
42
(5) Without limiting subsection (4), the registrar may refuse to make the declaration if the registrar is not satisfied that the defendant has been properly 43
44

	notified of the making of the DVO under the law of the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.	1
	Note. Under section 98ZY, the DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant when the declaration is made. Subsection (7) of this section specifies that notice of the declaration is not to be served on the defendant unless the person making the application consents to service.	3
(6)	However, a registrar cannot declare a general violence order to be a recognised DVO in New South Wales.	7
(7)	Notice of a declaration is not to be served on the defendant unless the person who makes the application consents to service.	9
		10
	Note. Under section 98X, a foreign order is taken to be made in any jurisdiction in which it is registered as a registered foreign order. Accordingly, this section extends to registered foreign orders.	11
		12
		13
98ZZC	Application for order	14
(1)	An application for a declaration that a DVO is a recognised DVO in New South Wales may be made by any person who would be able to make an application for variation of the DVO if the DVO were a recognised DVO.	15
		16
		17
(2)	The application must:	18
	(a) be made in a form approved by the registrar, and	19
	(b) be accompanied by any information or evidence the registrar requires.	20
	Note. It is only necessary to make an application in one participating jurisdiction. Under section 98ZY, once a declaration is made in any participating jurisdiction the DVO will be treated as a recognised DVO in all participating jurisdictions.	21
		22
		23
98ZZD	Functions of registrar may be exercised by court	24
	A court with power to make a local DVO may exercise any of the functions of a registrar of the court under this Subdivision.	25
		26
	Subdivision 5 Existing registered external DVOs	27
98ZZE	Registered interstate DVOs	28
(1)	The registration under Part 13 of any order made by a court of another State or Territory that was registered under that Part as an external protection order before the commencement date is not affected by the commencement of this Part and this Act continues to apply in respect of the order as if this Part had not commenced.	29
		30
		31
		32
		33
(2)	The order is not a local DVO for the purposes of this Part (despite section 97 (1) (a)).	34
		35

- (3) The order ceases to be registered under Part 13 if the order becomes a recognised DVO in New South Wales. In that case, this Part applies to the order in the same way as it applies to any other recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO. 1
- Note. Under this provision, an interstate order registered under Part 13 before the start of the national recognition scheme will continue to be enforceable in New South Wales as provided for by that Part. If the interstate order becomes a recognised DVO by operation of section 98ZX or by declaration under section 98ZZB, the order ceases to be registered under that Part and the order will then be enforceable in New South Wales and nationally under the national recognition scheme. 5
