

Act No. 155

BOTANY BAY NATIONAL PARK EXTENSION BILL 1987

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to include areas of land reserved as Bare Island Historic Site, Captain Cook's Landing Place Historic Site and La Perouse Monuments Historic Site in Botany Bay National Park.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act will commence on 18 January 1988.

Clause 3 provides that references in the proposed Act to the "Principal Act" are references to the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974.

Clause 4 states that expressions used in the proposed Act have the same meanings as in the Principal Act.

Clause 5 revokes the reservation of areas of land as Bare Island Historic Site, Captain Cook's Landing Place Historic Site and La Perouse Monuments Historic Site.

Clause 6 includes those areas of land in Botany Bay National Park.

Clause 7 provides that existing plans of management for the historic sites will continue to apply to the corresponding parts of the expanded Botany Bay National Park.

Schedule 1 describes the areas of land comprising the Bare Island Historic Site, Captain Cook's Landing Place Historic Site and La Perouse Monuments Historic Site.
