- (3) In deciding whether to make the order, the court must consider—
 - (a) the wishes and circumstances of the witness, and
 - (b) the availability of court and other facilities needed for a pre-recorded evidence hearing to take place.
- (4) At a pre-recorded evidence hearing, a witness is entitled to—
 - (a) give evidence in a way that the witness would otherwise be entitled to give evidence, and

- (6) In proceedings in which evidence given at a pre-recorded evidence hearing is viewed or heard, the court must warn the jury not to—

- (7) The Court may order that a transcript be supplied to the Court or jury (if any) of all or part of a recording made under this section if the Court considers a transcript would be likely to aid its or the jury's comprehension of the evidence.

357 Access to recorded evidence

- (1) An accused person and the person's Australian legal practitioner (if any) are not entitled to be given possession of the recording of evidence taken at a pre-recorded evidence hearing under this Division, or a copy of the recording, if the evidence was given by—

 - (b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice to give leave.
- (4) The court is to ensure that the witness is questioned by a party to the proceedings only in relation to matters relevant to the matters mentioned in subsection (3).

- (5) The court may decline to admit a record of the original evidence of the witness if, in the court's opinion, the accused would be unfairly disadvantaged by the admission of the record, having regard to the following—

- (8) The record of the original evidence of the witness tendered by the prosecution must be—
 - (a) the best available record, or be comprised of the best available records, of the original evidence of the witness, and
 - (b) properly authenticated.

evidence of the witness had been given orally before the court hearing the new trial proceedings in accordance with the usual rules and practice of the court.

- (10) Subsection (9) does not prevent any other exhibits tendered in the original proceedings from being tendered and admitted in the new trial proceedings in accordance with the usual rules and practice of the court hearing the new trial proceedings.

- (1) An accused person and the person's Australian legal practitioner (if any) are not entitled to be given possession of the recording of evidence, or a copy of the recording, if the evidence was given by—
