New South Wales

Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Bill 2018

Act No , 2018

An Act to amend the Crimes Act 1900 and other legislation to make further provision for sexual offences and for the protection of children from abuse.

I have examined this bill and find it to correspond in all respects with the bill as finally passed by both Houses.

Assistant Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Crimes Act 1900 No 40

[1] Section 43B

Insert after section 43A:

43B Failure to reduce or remove risk of child becoming victim of child abuse

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is an adult who carries out work for an organisation, whether as an employee, contractor, volunteer or otherwise (a position holder), and
 - (b) the organisation is the employer of an adult worker who engages in child-related work, and
 - (c) there is a serious risk that the adult worker will commit a child abuse offence against a child who is, or may come, under the care, supervision or authority of the organisation, and
 - (d) the position holder knows that the risk exists, and
 - (e) the position holder, by reason of the person's position, has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove that risk, and
 - (f) the position holder negligently fails to reduce or remove that risk.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) In proceedings for an offence under this section, it is not necessary to prove that a child abuse offence has been committed.

- (3) In this section:

adult means a person who is of or above the age of 18 years.

child means a person who is under the age of 18 years.

child abuse offence means:

- (a) murder or manslaughter of a child (including under section 22A), or
- (b) an offence under section 27, 29, 33, 35, 37, 38, 38A, 39, 41, 41A, 44, 45, 45A, 46, 59, 60E, 86 or 91J or Division 10, 10A, 10B or 15 of Part 3 where the alleged victim is a child, or
- (c) an offence under section 42, 43, 43A, 91G or 91H, or
- (d) an offence of attempting to commit an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(c).

child-related work (and engage in child-related work), employer and worker have the same meanings as in the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.

[5] Section 61H (3)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a person who incites another person to carry out sexual touching or a sexual act, as referred to in a provision of Subdivision 3, 4, 6, 7 or 11, is taken to commit an offence on the other person.

[6] Sections 61HA–61HE

Omit section 61HA. Insert instead:

61HA Meaning of “sexual intercourse”

For the purposes of this Division, sexual intercourse means:

- (a) sexual connection occasioned by the penetration to any extent of the genitalia (including a surgically constructed vagina) of a female person or the anus of any person by:
 - (i) any part of the body of another person, or
 - (ii) any object manipulated by another person,except where the penetration is carried out for proper medical purposes, or
- (b) sexual connection occasioned by the introduction of any part of the penis of a person into the mouth of another person, or
- (c) cunnilingus, or
- (d) the continuation of sexual intercourse as defined in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

61HB Meaning of “sexual touching”

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, sexual touching means a person touching another person:
 - (a) with any part of the body or with anything else, or
 - (b) through anything, including anything worn by the person doing the touching or by the person being touched,in circumstances where a reasonable person would consider the touching to be sexual.
- (2) The matters to be taken into account in deciding whether a reasonable person would consider touching to be sexual include:
 - (a) whether the area of the body touched or doing the touching is the person’s genital area or anal area or (in the case of a female person, or transgender or intersex person identifying as female) the person’s breasts, whether or not the breasts are sexually developed, or
 - (b) whether the person doing the touching does so for the purpose of obtaining sexual arousal or sexual gratification, or

- (c) whether any other aspect of the touching (including the circumstances in which it is done) makes it sexual.
- (3) Touching done for genuine medical or hygienic purposes is not sexual touching.

61HC Meaning of “sexual act”

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, sexual act means an act (other than sexual touching) carried out in circumstances where a reasonable person would consider the act to be sexual.
- (2) The matters to be taken into account in deciding whether a reasonable person would consider an act to be sexual include:
 - (a) whether the area of the body involved in the act is a person’s genital area or anal area or (in the case of a female person, or transgender or intersex person identifying as female) the person’s breasts, whether or not the breasts are sexually developed, or
 - (b) whether the person carrying out the act does so for the purpose of obtaining sexual arousal or sexual gratification, or
 - (c) whether any other aspect of the act (including the circumstances in which it is carried out) makes it sexual.
- (3) An act carried out for genuine medical or hygienic purposes is not a sexual act.

61HD Meaning of “cognitive impairment”

For the purposes of this Division, a person has a cognitive impairment if the person has:

- (a) an intellectual disability, or
- (b) a developmental disorder (including an autistic spectrum disorder), or
- (c) a neurological disorder, or
- (d) dementia, or
- (e) a severe mental illness, or
- (f) a brain injury, that results in the person requiring supervision or social habilitation in connection with daily life activities.

61HE Consent in relation to sexual offences

(1) Offences to which section applies

This section applies for the purposes of the offences, or attempts to commit the offences, under sections 61I, 61J, 61JA, 61KC, 61KD, 61KE and 61KF.

(2) Meaning of “consent”

A person consents to a sexual activity if the person freely and voluntarily agrees to the sexual activity.

(3) Knowledge about consent

A person who without the consent of the other person (the victim) engages in a sexual activity with or towards the victim, incites the victim to engage in a sexual activity or incites a third person to engage in a sexual activity with or towards the victim, knows that the victim does not consent to the sexual activity if:

- (a) the person knows that the victim does not consent to the sexual activity, or
 - (b) the person is reckless as to whether the victim consents to the sexual activity, or
 - (c) the person has no reasonable grounds for believing that the victim consents to the sexual activity.
- (4) For the purpose of making any such finding, the trier of fact must have regard to all the circumstances of the case:
- (a) including any steps taken by the person to ascertain whether the victim consents to the sexual activity, but
 - (b) not including any self-induced intoxication of the person.
- (5) Negation of consent
- A person does not consent to a sexual activity:
- (a) if the person does not have the capacity to consent to the sexual activity, including because of age or cognitive incapacity, or
 - (b) if the person does not have the opportunity to consent to the sexual activity because the person is unconscious or asleep, or
 - (c) if the person consents to the sexual activity because of threats of force or terror (whether the threats are against, or the terror is instilled in, that person or any other person), or
 - (d) if the person consents to the sexual activity because the person is unlawfully detained.
- (6) A person who consents to a sexual activity with or from another person under any of the following mistaken beliefs does not consent to the sexual activity:
- (a) a mistaken belief as to the identity of the other person,
 - (b) a mistaken belief that the other person is married to the person,
 - (c) a mistaken belief that the sexual activity is for health or hygienic purposes,
 - (d) any other mistaken belief about the nature of the activity induced by fraudulent means.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (3), the other person knows that the person does not consent to the sexual activity if the other person knows the person consents to the sexual activity under such a mistaken belief.
- (8) The grounds on which it may be established that a person does not consent to a sexual activity include:
- (a) if the person consents to the sexual activity while substantially intoxicated by alcohol or any drug, or
 - (b) if the person consents to the sexual activity because of intimidatory or coercive conduct, or other threat, that does not involve a threat of force, or
 - (c) if the person consents to the sexual activity because of the abuse of a position of authority or trust.
- (9) A person who does not offer actual physical resistance to a sexual activity is not, by reason only of that fact, to be regarded as consenting to the sexual activity.

- (10) This section does not limit the grounds on which it may be established that a person does not consent to a sexual activity.
- (11) In this section:
sexual activity means sexual intercourse, sexual touching or a sexual act.

[17] Section 66E Alternative verdicts

Insert after section 66E (5):

- (6) If on the trial of a person for an offence under section 66A, 66B, 66C or 66D the jury is not satisfied that the accused is guilty of the offence charged, but is satisfied that the accused is guilty of an offence under section 66DA or 66DB, it may find the accused not guilty of the offence charged but guilty of an offence under section 66DA or 66DB. The accused is liable to punishment accordingly.

[18] Section 66E

Renumber section 66E (1), (3), (4), (5) and (6) (as inserted by item [17]) as section 80AB (7), (8), (9), (10) and (11) respectively and move them into section 80AB (as renumbered by item [9]) and omit section 66E.

[19] Part 3, Division 10, Subdivision 8, heading

Insert before section 66EA:

Subdivision 8 Children—persistent sexual abuse

[20] Section 66EA

Omit the section. Insert instead:

66EA Persistent sexual abuse of a child

- (1) An adult who maintains an unlawful sexual relationship with a child is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for life.
- (2) An unlawful sexual relationship is a relationship in which an adult engages in 2 or more unlawful sexual acts with or towards a child over any period.
- (3) It is immaterial that any of those unlawful sexual acts occurred outside New South Wales, so long as at least one of the unlawful sexual acts occurred in New South Wales.
- (4) In proceedings for an offence under this section, the prosecution:
 - (a) is not required to allege the particulars of any unlawful sexual act that would be necessary if the act were charged as a separate offence, and
 - (b) is required to allege the particulars of the period of time over which the unlawful sexual relationship existed.
- (5) In order for the accused to be convicted of an offence under this section:
 - (a) the jury must be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the evidence establishes that an unlawful sexual relationship existed, and
 - (b) the jury is not required to be satisfied of the particulars of any unlawful sexual act that it would have to be satisfied of if the act were charged as a separate offence, and
 - (c) the members of the jury are not required to agree on which unlawful sexual acts constitute the unlawful sexual relationship.
- (6) In proceedings for an offence under this section, the judge must inform the jury of the requirements of subsection (5).
- (7) This section extends to a relationship that existed wholly or partly before the commencement of the relevant amendments, or the predecessor offence, if the acts engaged in by the accused were unlawful sexual acts during the period in which the relationship existed.
- (8) A court, when imposing a sentence for an offence under this section constituted by an unlawful sexual relationship that existed wholly or partly before the commencement of the relevant amendments, must take into account (but is not limited by) the maximum penalty for the unlawful sexual acts engaged in by the accused during the period in which the unlawful sexual relationship existed.
- (9) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of an unlawful sexual act in relation to a child cannot be convicted of an offence under this section in relation to the same child if the unlawful sexual act of which the person has been convicted or acquitted is one of the unlawful sexual acts that are alleged to constitute the unlawful sexual relationship.
- (10) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of an offence under this section for having an unlawful sexual relationship with a child cannot be convicted of an unlawful sexual act in relation to the same child if the occasion on which the unlawful sexual act is alleged to have occurred is during the period over which the unlawful sexual relationship was alleged to have existed. This subsection does not prevent an alternative verdict under subsection (13).

- (11) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of a predecessor offence in relation to a child cannot be convicted of an offence under this section of having an unlawful sexual relationship with the same child if the period of the alleged unlawful sexual relationship includes any part of the period during which the person was alleged to have committed the predecessor offence.
- (12) For the purposes of subsections (9)–(11), a person ceases to be regarded as having been convicted for an offence if the conviction is quashed or set aside.
- (13) If on the trial of a person charged with an offence under this section the jury is not satisfied that the offence is proven but is satisfied that the person has, in respect of any of the occasions relied on as evidence of the commission of the offence under this section, committed an unlawful sexual act, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of that unlawful sexual act. The person is liable to punishment accordingly.
- (14) Proceedings for an offence under this section may only be instituted by or with the approval of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (15) In this section:
adult means a person who is of or above the age of 18 years.
child means a person who is under the age of 16 years.
predecessor offence means this section before its substitution by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018.
relevant amendments means the substitution of this section by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018.
unlawful sexual act means any act that constitutes, or would constitute (if particulars of the time and place at which the act took place were sufficiently particularised), any of the following offences:
- (a) an offence under section 61I, 61J, 61JA, 61K, 61KC, 61KD, 61KE, 61KF, 66A, 66B, 66C, 66D, 66DA, 66DB, 66DC, 66DD, 66DE, 66DF, 66F or 80A,
 - (b) an offence under a provision of this Act set out in Column 1 of Schedule 1A,
 - (c) an offence of attempting to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a) or (b),
 - (d) an offence under a previous enactment that is substantially similar to an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(c),
 - (e) an offence under the law of a place outside New South Wales that would, if it had been committed in New South Wales, be an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(d).

[21] Part 3, Division 10, Subdivision 9, heading

Insert before section 66EB:

Subdivision 9 Children—procurement and grooming

[22] Section 66EB Procuring or grooming child under 16 for unlawful sexual activity

Insert “or with any financial or other material benefit” after “intoxicating substance” in section 66EB (3) (a).

[23] Section 66EC

Insert after section 66EB:

66EC Grooming a person for unlawful sexual activity with a child under the person's authority

(1) In this section:

adult person means a person who is of or above the age of 18 years.

child means a person who is under the age of 16 years.

unlawful sexual activity means an act that constitutes an offence under this Division or Division 10A, 15 or 15A (or, in the case of an act occurring outside this State, that would constitute such an offence if it occurred in this State).

(2) An adult person:

(a) who provides a person (other than a child) with any financial or other material benefit, and

(b) who does so with the intention of making it easier to procure a child who is under the authority of the person for unlawful sexual activity with the adult person or any other person, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

(a) in the case of a child who is under the age of 14 years—imprisonment for 6 years, or

(b) in any other case—imprisonment for 5 years.

(3) Proceedings for an offence under this section may only be instituted by or with the approval of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

[24] Part 3, Division 10, Subdivision 10, heading

Insert before section 66F:

Subdivision 10 Sexual offences—cognitive impairment

[25] Section 66F Sexual offences—cognitive impairment

Omit section 66F (4).

[26] Section 66F (5)–(8)

Omit the subsections. Insert instead:

(5) Consent not a defence for sexual intercourse

The consent of a person who has a cognitive impairment is not a defence to a charge for an offence under subsection (2) or (3) (or under section 344A in connection with such an offence).

(6) Consent not a defence for sexual touching or sexual act

The consent of a person who has a cognitive impairment is not a defence to a charge for an offence under section 61KC, 61KD, 61KE or 61KF (or under section 344A in connection with such an offence) if:

(a) the accused was responsible for the care of that person (whether generally or at the time of the conduct constituting the offence), or

(b) the accused engaged in the conduct constituting the offence with the intention of taking advantage of that person's cognitive impairment.

(7) Defences

It is a defence to a charge for an offence under subsection (2) or (3) (or under section 344A in connection with such an offence) or an offence referred to in subsection (6) in which the prosecution relies on the operation of that subsection:

- (a) if, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence:
 - (i) the accused did not know the person to whom the charge relates had a cognitive impairment, or
 - (ii) the accused was married to the person to whom the charge relates or was the de facto partner of that person, or
- (b) if the act constituting the offence was carried out for any proper medical or hygienic purpose.

(8) Approval of Attorney General for prosecution

A prosecution for any of the following offences may not be commenced without the approval of the Attorney General:

80AF Uncertainty about time when sexual offence against child occurred

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) it is uncertain as to when during a period conduct is alleged to have occurred, and
- (b) the victim of the alleged conduct was for the whole of that period a child, and

- (c) there was no time during that period that the alleged conduct, if proven, would not have constituted a sexual offence, and
 - (d) because of a change in the law or a change in the age of the child during that period, the alleged conduct, if proven, would have constituted more than one sexual offence during that period.
- (2) In such a case, a person may be prosecuted in respect of the conduct under whichever of those sexual offences has the lesser maximum penalty regardless of when during that period the conduct actually occurred, and in prosecuting that offence:
- (a) any requirement to establish that the offence charged was in force is satisfied if the prosecution can establish that the offence was in force at some time during that period, and
 - (b) any requirement to establish that the victim was of a particular age is satisfied if the prosecution can establish that the victim was of that age at some time during that period.
- (3) In this section:
- child means a person who is under the age of 16 years.
- sexual offence means the following offences regardless of when the offence occurred:
- (a) an offence under a provision of this Division or Division 10A, 10B, 15 or 15A,
 - (b) an offence under a provision of this Act set out in Column 1 of Schedule 1A,
 - (c) an offence (whether under section 344A or otherwise) of attempting to commit any offence referred to in paragraph (a) or (b),
 - (d) an offence under a previous enactment that is substantially similar to an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(c).

80AG Defence of similar age

- (1) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under section 66C (3), 66DB, 66DD, 73 or 73A if the alleged victim is of or above the age of 14 years and the age difference between the alleged victim and the accused person is no more than 2 years.
- (2) In any criminal proceedings in which the application of this section is raised, the prosecution has the onus of proving, beyond reasonable doubt, that the alleged victim was less than 14 years of age or that the difference in age between the alleged victim and the accused person is more than 2 years.

[47] Section 80G Incitement to commit sexual offence

Omit section 80G (5) (a) and (b). Insert instead:

- (a) an offence under section 61KC, 61KD, 61KE, 61KF, 66DA, 66DB, 66DC, 66DD, 66DE, 66DF or 73A that is constituted by inciting another person to sexual touching or a sexual act within the meaning of Division 10,
- (b) an offence under section 66EB, 66EC, 78B or 80 or an offence under section 344A of attempting to commit an offence under Division 10, 10A or 15.

[52] Section 91HAA

Insert after section 91H:

91HAA Exception

A person does not commit an offence under section 91H of possessing child abuse material if:

- (a) the possession of the material occurred when the accused person was under the age of 18 years, and
- (b) a reasonable person would consider the possession of the material by the accused person as acceptable having regard to each of the following (to the extent relevant):
- (i) the nature and content of the material,
 - (ii) the circumstances in which the material was produced and came into the possession of the accused person,
 - (iii) the age, intellectual capacity, vulnerability or other relevant circumstances of the child depicted in the material,
 - (iv) the age, intellectual capacity, vulnerability or other relevant circumstances of the accused person at the time the accused person first came into possession of the material and at the time that the accused person's possession of the material first came to the attention of a police officer,
 - (v) the relationship between the accused person and the child depicted in the material.

[53] Section 91HA Defences

Insert after section 91HA (8):

- (9) Person producing, disseminating or possessing depictions of himself or herself

It is a defence in proceedings for an offence against section 91H of possessing child abuse material if the only person depicted in the material is the accused person.

- (10) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence against section 91H of producing or disseminating child abuse material if:
 - (a) the production or dissemination of the material occurred when the accused person was under the age of 18 years, and
 - (b) the only person depicted in the material is the accused person.
- (11) Material that depicts a person other than the accused person is taken, for the purposes of this section, to depict only the accused person if the material would no longer be child abuse material were the depiction of the accused person to be removed.
- (12) The onus of proving under subsection (9) or (10) that material depicts the accused person and no other person lies with the accused person on the balance of probabilities.

- (6) In this section:

serious indictable offence does not include a child abuse offence (within the meaning of section 316A).

Note. Concealing a child abuse offence is an offence under section 316A. A section 316A offence can only be committed by an adult.

[58] Section 316A

Insert after section 316:

316A Concealing child abuse offence

- (1) An adult:

- (a) who knows, believes or reasonably ought to know that a child abuse offence has been committed against another person, and
- (b) who knows, believes or reasonably ought to know that he or she has information that might be of material assistance in securing the apprehension of the offender or the prosecution or conviction of the offender for that offence, and
- (c) who fails without reasonable excuse to bring that information to the attention of a member of the NSW Police Force as soon as it is practicable to do so,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person has a reasonable excuse for failing to bring information to the attention of a member of the NSW Police Force if:
- (a) the person believes on reasonable grounds that the information is already known to police, or
 - (b) the person has reported the information in accordance with the applicable requirements under Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 or believes on reasonable grounds that another person has done so, or
 - (c) the person has reported the information to the Ombudsman under Part 3A of the Ombudsman Act 1974 or believes on reasonable grounds that another person has done so, or
 - (d) the person has reasonable grounds to fear for the safety of the person or any other person (other than the offender) if the information were to be reported to police, or
 - (e) the information was obtained by the person when the person was under the age of 18 years, or
 - (f) the alleged victim was an adult at the time that the information was obtained by the person and the person believes on reasonable grounds that the alleged victim does not wish the information to be reported to police.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the grounds on which it may be established that a person has a reasonable excuse for failing to bring information to the attention of a member of the NSW Police Force.
- (4) A person who solicits, accepts or agrees to accept any benefit for the person or any other person in consideration for doing anything that would be an offence under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 5 years.
- (5) It is not an offence under subsection (4) merely to solicit, accept or agree to accept the making good of loss or injury caused by an offence or the making of reasonable compensation for that loss or injury.
- (6) A prosecution for an offence under subsection (1) is not to be commenced against a person without the approval of the Director of Public Prosecutions in respect of information obtained by an adult in the course of practising or following a profession, calling or vocation prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (7) The regulations may prescribe a profession, calling or vocation as referred to in subsection (6).
- (8) The reporting of information by a person in good faith under this section:
- (a) does not constitute unprofessional conduct or a breach of professional ethics on the part of the person, and
 - (b) does not make the person subject to any civil liability in respect of it (including liability for defamation).
- (9) In this section:
child means a person who is under the age of 18 years.
child abuse offence means:
- (a) murder or manslaughter of a child (including under section 22A), or

- (b) an offence under section 27, 29, 33, 35, 37, 38, 38A, 39, 41, 41A, 44, 45, 45A, 46, 59, 60E, 86 or 91J or Division 10, 10A, 10B or 15 of Part 3 where the alleged victim is a child, or
- (c) an offence under section 42, 43, 43A, 91G or 91H, or
- (d) an offence under a provision of this Act set out in Column 1 of Schedule 1A where the alleged victim was a child, or
- (e) an offence of attempting to commit an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(d), or
- (f) an offence under a previous enactment that is substantially similar to an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(e).

Part Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018

Indecent assault now sexual touching

A reference in any Act or law to indecent assault is taken to include a reference to sexual touching within the meaning of Division 10 of Part 3 of this Act.

Act of indecency now sexual touching and sexual act

A reference in any Act or law to an act of indecency is taken to include a reference to sexual touching and sexual act within the meaning of Division 10 of Part 3 of this Act.

Omitted provisions

Sections 61L–61P, as in force immediately before their repeal by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018, continue to apply to offences committed or alleged to have been committed before the repeal.

Former section 61Q

Section 61Q, as in force immediately before its renumbering and amendment by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018, continues to apply in respect of offences committed before that renumbering and amendment.

Cognitive impairment—consent not a defence for indecent assault or act of indecency

Section 66F (5)–(8), as in force immediately before their substitution by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018, continues to apply in respect of offences committed before that substitution.

Retrospective operation of repeal of section 78 limitation period

The repeal of section 78 by the Criminal Legislation (Amendment) Act 1992 is taken to have repealed that section retrospectively as if that section had never been enacted and consequently that section cannot be relied on to prevent any prosecution for an offence even if the offence occurred before that repeal.

Incitement to commit sexual offence

Section 80G (5), as in force immediately before its amendment by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018, continues to apply in respect of offences committed before that amendment.

Application of section 316A

Section 316A, as inserted by the Criminal Legislation Amendment (Child Sexual Abuse) Act 2018, applies in respect of information obtained on or after the commencement of that section, including if that information relates to a child abuse offence that occurred or may have occurred before the commencement of that section.

[6] Section 3C

Insert after section 3B:

3C Discretion to treat child offender as non-registrable

- (1) A court that sentences a person for a sexual offence committed by the person when the person was a child may make an order declaring that the person is not to be treated as a registrable person for the purposes of this Act in respect of that offence.
- (2) While the order remains in force, the person is not a registrable person under this Act because of that offence.
- (3) A court may make an order under this section only if:
 - (a) the victim of the offence was under the age of 18 years at the time that the offence was committed, and
 - (b) the person has not previously been convicted of any other Class 1 offence or Class 2 offence, and
 - (c) the court does not impose in respect of the offence:
 - (i) a sentence of full-time detention, or
 - (ii) a control order (unless the court also, by order, suspends the execution of the control order), and
 - (d) the court is satisfied that the person does not pose a risk to the lives or sexual safety of one or more children, or of children generally.
- (4) This section applies only if the sexual offence concerned is a registrable offence and does not limit section 3A (2) (c) as it applies to offences committed by children.

- (5) If an order is made under this section, the order is taken, for the purpose of any provisions that enable the Crown or a prosecutor to appeal against a sentence imposed on the person, to be a part of the person's sentence.
- (6) In this section:
control order means an order under section 33 (1) (g) of the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987.
full-time detention has the same meaning as in the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
sexual offence means the following offences regardless of when the offence occurred:
- (a) an offence under a provision of Division 10, 10A, 15 or 15A of Part 3 of the Crimes Act 1900 or under section 91J, 91K or 91L of that Act,
 - (b) an offence under a provision of that Act set out in Column 1 of Schedule 1A to that Act,
 - (c) an offence under section 233BAB of the Customs Act 1901 of the Commonwealth involving items of child pornography or child abuse material,
 - (d) an offence under Subdivision D of Division 474 of Part 10.6 of the Criminal Code of the Commonwealth,
 - (e) an offence of attempting to commit any offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(d),
 - (f) an offence under a previous enactment that is substantially similar to an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(e).
