

New South Wales

Road Transport (General) Bill 2004

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to implement in New South Wales a legislative scheme for the compliance and enforcement of mass, dimension and loading requirements for heavy vehicles based on model provisions (the national model provisions) approved by the Australian Transport Council for the purpose of achieving nationally consistent legislation, and
- (b) to repeal and re-enact the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 (the former Act) to include the national model provisions and consequentially re-organise the provisions of the former Act, and
- (c) to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

Outline of provisions

Chapter 1 Preliminary

Part 1.1 Introductory

Part 1.1 (clauses 1–9) contains definitions and other interpretative provisions. It defines key terms, including Authority (the Roads and Traffic Authority), road transport legislation (which includes the proposed Act, the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998, the Road Transport (Heavy Vehicles Registration Charges) Act 1995, the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997 and the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act 1988) and responsible person for a vehicle. A heavy vehicle is defined as a vehicle having a gross vehicle mass greater than 4.5 tonnes.

Part 1.1 also provides that the proposed Act binds the Crown and prohibits contracting out of the provisions of the proposed Act.

Part 1.2 Regulations

Part 1.2 (clauses 10–13) re-enacts the general regulation-making power contained in section 71 of the former Act and the power to exempt by regulation contained in section 72 of that Act. The power to make regulations with respect to matters referred to in section 9 of the Road Transport Reform (Vehicles and Traffic) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth that was formerly contained in section 264A of the Roads Act 1993, together with section 264B of that Act, is also re-enacted.

Chapter 2 Scope of Act

Part 2.1 Inter-relationship between road transport legislation and other law

Part 2.1 (clause 14) re-enacts Division 2 of Part 2 of the former Act, relating to the operation of the road transport legislation with other law.

Part 2.2 Alteration of scope of operation of road transport legislation

Part 2.2 (clauses 15–18) re-enacts sections 9–11 and 13 of the former Act, conferring power on the Minister to make orders declaring that the road transport legislation, or a specified provision or provisions of it, does not apply to a specified road or area of the State.

Chapter 3 Mass, dimension and load restraint requirements for vehicles

Chapter 3 enacts the provisions of the national model provisions containing sanctions relating to breaches of mass, dimension and load restraint requirements for heavy vehicles. In this State, the requirements and part of the enforcement scheme will extend to unladen heavy vehicles as well as laden heavy vehicles, and some provisions will be extended to vehicles not classified as being heavy vehicles but subject to those requirements in this State. Currently the mass, dimension and load restraint requirements, and compliance and enforcement provisions, are contained in the Roads Act 1993 and the Road Transport (Mass, Loading and Access) Regulation 1996.

Part 3.1 Preliminary

Part 3.1 (clauses 19–25) contains definitions and other interpretative provisions. Among the key terms defined are dimension requirement, load restraint requirement and mass requirement. In Chapter 3, responsible person has a wider meaning than in the remainder of the road transport legislation because it includes owners of vehicles, drivers and persons in charge of vehicles, in addition to registered operators of vehicles. The provisions also provide a guide as to how it is to be determined whether a breach of a mass, dimension or load restraint requirement involves an appreciable risk of harm to public safety, the environment, road infrastructure or public amenity.

Part 3.2 Mass, dimension, load restraint and other restrictions for vehicles

Part 3.2 (clauses 26–28) re-enacts sections 108, 109 and 112 of the Roads Act 1993. The Part permits the making of regulations imposing mass, dimension or load restraint restrictions on vehicles generally, the granting of excess weight permits exempting vehicles from such restrictions and the placing of vehicle mass restrictions on particular roads. The Part also makes it an offence for a person to drive a vehicle or cause a vehicle (other than a heavy vehicle or a heavy combination) to be driven in breach of the restrictions. Offences relating to heavy vehicles and heavy combinations are dealt with elsewhere in the Chapter and in regulations.

Part 3.3 Special provisions—mass, dimension and load restraint requirements for heavy vehicles

Part 3.3 establishes new offences for breaches of mass, dimension and load restraint requirements relating to heavy vehicles or heavy combinations. It extends liability for such breaches to drivers, operators, consigners, packers and owners, establishing a “chain of responsibility” throughout the transport process. Penalties for offences will vary according to the seriousness of the breach. For some offences, the common law defence of reasonable mistake of fact will not be available but a “reasonable steps” defence will be available.

Division 1 Preliminary

Division 1 (clause 29) applies Part 3.3 to heavy vehicles or heavy combinations, or both.

Division 2 Categorisation of breaches

Subdivision 1 Categories of breaches

Subdivision 1 (clauses 30–33) describes the categories of breaches of mass, dimension and load restraint requirements, being minor risk breaches, substantial risk breaches and severe risk breaches. The category of a breach of a mass or dimension requirement varies according to its relationship to the category limits set out in Subdivision 2. The category of a breach of a load restraint requirement varies according to whether or not it is imminent or has occurred and the risk of harm involved. The provisions have a wider application than the national model provisions, as they extend to breaches of dimension requirements that are applicable to unladen vehicles.

Subdivision 2 Lower limits (for substantial or severe risk breaches of mass or dimension requirements)

Subdivision 2 (clauses 34–38) sets out the limits for determining the category of a breach of a mass or dimension requirement. In the case of a mass requirement, this is to be determined by the amount by which the mass of a vehicle exceeds the relevant requirement. In the case of a dimension requirement, this is to be determined by the amount by which the height, width or breadth of a vehicle exceeds the relevant requirement.

Subdivision 3 Recategorisation of certain breaches

Subdivision 3 (clauses 39–41) provides for certain breaches to be categorised into more severe categories if the breach concerned is committed in certain specified circumstances, such as in hazardous conditions.

Subdivision 4 Miscellaneous

Subdivision 4 (clauses 42–44) enables regulations to be made varying the applicable limits for mass and dimension breaches, though not to lower the limits set by the proposed Act. The Subdivision also provides for the categorisation of a breach of a requirement that a load on a vehicle or combination must not project in a way that is dangerous to a person or property.

Division 3 Enforcement powers

Division 3 (clauses 45–52) contains additional enforcement powers of authorised officers in relation to breaches of mass, dimension and loading requirements. Other enforcement powers are contained in Part 4.2. The powers vary according to the nature of the breach and are enforced by way of offences of failing to comply with directions given. An additional power (presently contained in section 232 of the Roads Act 1993) is included to enable authorised officers to detain vehicles or combinations. Authorised officers:

- (a) if there is a minor risk breach—may authorise a driver to continue the journey (conditionally or unconditionally), but may also direct the driver to rectify breaches there and then or to move the vehicle or combination (within a limited distance) and not proceed until breaches are rectified, or
- (b) if there is a substantial risk breach—must direct the driver not to proceed until breaches are rectified, but (in particular circumstances or in accordance with particular instructions given by the Authority) may direct the driver to move the vehicle or combination to the nearest suitable location and not proceed until breaches are rectified, or
- (c) if there is a severe risk breach—must direct the driver not to proceed until breaches are rectified, but (in limited particular circumstances or in accordance with particular instructions given by the Authority) may direct the driver to move the vehicle or combination to the nearest suitable location and not proceed until breaches are rectified.

Division 4 Liability for breaches of mass, dimension or load restraint requirements

Division 4 (clauses 53–59) establishes the “chain of responsibility” for breaches of mass, dimension or load restraint requirements. It creates new offences that impose liability for such breaches on consignors of goods, packers of goods, loaders of goods and consignees of goods, in addition to operators and drivers of the relevant vehicles or combinations. Consignors and packers will also be guilty of offences if freight containers exceed the maximum gross weight marked on the container’s safety approval plate. For each offence, a “reasonable steps” defence will be generally available. Penalties for offences will vary according to whether it is a first or subsequent offence and according to the nature of the breach. Penalties for severe risk breaches will be 5 times higher than those for minor risk breaches.

Division 5 Sanctions

Division 5 (clauses 60 and 61) requires courts to take into account the specified consequences of breaches of mass, dimension and load restraint requirements when determining the kinds and level of sanctions to be imposed. It also provides for default categorisation of breaches.

Division 6 Container weight declarations

Division 6 (clauses 62–69) contains new requirements relating to declarations (container weight declarations) as to the weight of freight containers and their contents. It also imposes obligations on persons (responsible entities) who consign freight containers for transport by road (or others in their stead) to provide operators or drivers of vehicles or combinations with complying container weight declarations. Operators will have a duty to supply a declaration to the driver of the relevant vehicle or combination and drivers will have a duty to sight the declaration before commencing a journey.

Division 7 Recovery of losses resulting from non-provision of or inaccurate container weight declarations

Division 7 (clauses 70–74) provides a right to recover from a responsible entity certain losses incurred because a container weight declaration is not provided or is false or misleading. In the former case, losses arising from delays in delivery or transportation may be recovered. In the latter case, losses arising from penalties are also recoverable. A responsible entity may also recover amounts paid by it for losses resulting from an inaccurate container weight declaration from the person who provided the false or misleading information.

Division 8 Transport documentation

Division 8 (clause 75) creates offences imposing liability on consignors of goods, packers of goods, loaders of goods and receivers of goods where transport documentation is false or misleading in a material particular relating to the mass, dimension or load restraint of goods consigned wholly or partly for transport by road. It also creates offences imposing liability on responsible entities and operators of vehicles or combinations if a container weight declaration contains information that is false or misleading in a material particular. The reasonable steps defence will be available for the offences.

Division 9 Concessions

Division 9 (clauses 76–79) makes it an offence to contravene a condition of a mass, dimension or load restraint concession and prevents a person who contravenes it from having the benefit of it in the assessment of breaches by the person.

Part 3.4 Proceedings for offences for mass, loading and dimension requirements

Division 1 Liability of registered operators and owners

Division 1 (clauses 80–83) makes the registered operator, or the owner, of a vehicle or combination liable for an offence committed by an operator of the vehicle or combination under the applicable road laws (that is, Chapter 3, regulations made under the Chapter, Part 4.2 (relating to powers of authorised officers with respect to vehicles or combinations) and the Road Transport (Mass, Loading and Access) Regulation 1996. It also makes persons who aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of an offence under such a law, or who cause or permit a person to commit such an offence, guilty of the principal offence and makes it a separate offence to urge another person to commit such an offence.

Division 2 Defences

Division 2 (clauses 84–86) establishes the following defences for applicable road law offences:

- (a) that conduct resulting in an offence was carried out in response to circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency,
- (b) that the conduct was authorised or excused by law.

Division 3 Reasonable steps defence

Division 3 (clauses 87–90) sets out the reasonable steps defence for breaches by drivers, owners or operators of mass requirements and for other breaches of mass, dimension and load restraint requirements. Division 3 also provides that the defence of mistaken but reasonable belief (available for strict liability offences) will not be available for specified offences, being offences relating to breaches of requirements by consignors, packers, loaders, operators, drivers and responsible entities, and including false or misleading statements in transport documentation. The reasonable steps defence is available for those offences, except in the case of certain dimension and load restraint breaches by drivers or operators.

There are 3 reasonable steps defences:

- (a) in the case of mass breaches by drivers, owners or operators (including light vehicles and combinations)—it is a defence if the defendant did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known of the contravention and had taken all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention. A court may only be satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken if it is satisfied that the defendant took all reasonable steps to cause the mass of a load to be ascertained before the journey or the defendant did not have custody or control of the vehicle concerned,
- (b) in the case of other mass, dimension or load restraint breaches—it is a defence if the defendant did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known of the contravention and had taken all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention. A court may have regard to a number of factors in determining whether reasonable steps have been taken by the defendant,
- (c) in the case of mass breaches by drivers or operators of heavy vehicles or heavy combinations where a freight container is involved—the defendant may rely on the weight stated in the relevant container weight declaration, except where it is established that the person knew or ought reasonably have known that it was incorrect or there was a breach.

Division 4 Other special defences

Division 4 (clauses 91–95) sets out defences generally applicable to applicable road law offences. These include a defence for owners or operators where a vehicle or combination is being used without authority by an employee or agent or other person, a defence for a driver prosecuted for an offence involving deficiencies concerning a vehicle or combination and a defence where conduct occurs in compliance with a direction given by an authorised officer, an Australian Authority or delegate of such an authority. The Division also gives a driver, owner or operator of a light vehicle or combination the benefit of the reasonable steps defence for a mass breach.

Division 5 Fines

Division 5 (clause 96) sets out the circumstances for determining when an offence is a first offence or a second or subsequent offence for the purpose of determining the maximum applicable penalty for an offence.

Part 3.5 Additional sanctions for heavy vehicle offences

Division 1 Preliminary

Division 1 (clauses 97 and 98) applies the Part to heavy vehicles or heavy combinations and makes it clear that a court may impose one or more of the penalties under the Act if a person is found guilty of an applicable road law offence.

Division 2 Improvement notices

Division 2 (clauses 99–104) enables an authorised officer nominated as an approved officer to serve an improvement notice on a person if of the opinion that the person has contravened, is contravening or is likely to contravene an Australian applicable road law. An improvement notice is a notice requiring a contravention or likely contravention to be remedied. It will be an offence to contravene a notice without reasonable excuse. Notices may be amended or cancelled and a clearance certificate may be issued when a notice is complied with.

Division 3 Formal warnings

Division 3 (clauses 105 and 106) confers power on an authorised officer to issue a written formal warning to a person for a contravention of an applicable road law, instead of taking proceedings.

Division 4 Commercial benefits penalty orders

Division 4 (clause 107) enables a court to impose a commercial benefits penalty order on a person found guilty of an applicable road law offence. A commercial benefits penalty order is an order to pay a fine of up to 3 times the amount estimated to be the gross commercial benefit obtained, or that would have been obtained, from the commission of the offence.

Division 5 Registration sanctions

Division 5 (clause 108) enables a court to cancel or suspend the registration of a vehicle if an applicable road law offence was committed in relation to the vehicle (other than an offence involving a minor or substantial risk breach of a mass, dimension or load restraint requirement).

Division 6 Supervisory intervention orders

Division 6 (clauses 109 and 110) enables a court to impose a supervisory intervention order on a person found guilty of an applicable road law offence if the court considers the person to be a systematic or persistent offender against the Australian applicable road laws. An order may require the person to do specified things to improve compliance, to conduct monitoring and other practices, to report to the Authority and to appoint other persons to assist the person in compliance. It will be an offence to contravene an order.

Division 7 Prohibition orders

Division 7 (clauses 111 and 112) enables a court that finds a person guilty of an applicable road law offence to make a prohibition order if the court considers the person to be a systematic or persistent offender against the Australian applicable road laws. An order may prohibit a person, for a specified period, from having a specified role or responsibilities associated with road transport. It will be an offence to contravene an order.

Part 3.6 General

Part 3.6 (clauses 113–120) contains provisions relating to the recognition of administrative actions of authorities of other jurisdictions in connection with corresponding applicable road laws of those jurisdictions and orders made by courts of other jurisdictions. It also makes it an offence for an employer to dismiss or injure or act to the detriment of an employee or contractor because the employee or contractor has assisted in relation to, or given information or complained about, a breach of an applicable road law. The Part also makes it an offence for a responsible person to give false or misleading information to another responsible person, as well as containing other provisions relating to the provision of information by the Authority to other authorities. The Part re-enacts section 234 of the Roads Act 1993.

Chapter 4 Investigation powers relating to road transport legislation

Part 4.1 Authorised officers

Part 4.1 (clauses 121–129) provides for the appointment, identification and exercise of powers by authorised officers for the purposes of the road transport legislation. It also provides for the exercise of powers by authorised officers appointed under corresponding legislation.

Part 4.2 Investigation powers for certain laws

Division 1 Preliminary

Division 1 (clauses 130–134) applies the Part (which confers additional search and inspection powers on authorised officers as set out in the national model provisions) to applicable road laws, regulations relating to driver fatigue management and any other Acts or regulations prescribed by the regulations. The extension of the meaning of applicable road laws for the purposes of the Part is an extension of the operation of the national model provisions and the former Act. The Division also contains interpretation provisions.

Division 2 Directions to stop, move or leave vehicles or combinations

Division 2 (clauses 135–140) confers on authorised officers powers to direct the driver of a vehicle or combination to stop, not to move, or move or cause it to be moved to a suitable location, or to leave a vehicle or combination. The powers may be exercised for the purposes of or in connection with other powers under an applicable road law (as defined for the purposes of the Part) or where an officer believes on reasonable grounds that a vehicle or combination is causing serious harm or causing or likely to cause an obstruction to traffic. The powers apply to vehicles or combinations on public places or premises of the Authority or other premises that an officer may lawfully enter under Division 4.

Division 3 Power to move unattended or broken down vehicles or combinations

Division 3 (clauses 141–143) confers on authorised officers powers to move unattended vehicles or combinations or cause them to be moved. The powers may be exercised for the purposes of or in connection with other powers under an applicable road law (as defined for the purposes of the Part) or where an officer believes on reasonable grounds that a vehicle or combination is causing serious harm.

Division 4 Powers of inspection and search

Division 4 (clauses 144–149) confers on authorised officers powers to inspect and search vehicles or combinations on roads or public places or premises of the Authority and to inspect and search business premises of a responsible person, the garage address of a vehicle or combination, the base of a driver or drivers of a vehicle or combination or other premises. An inspection may be carried out for compliance purposes (that is, to find out whether an applicable road law (as defined for the purposes of the Part) or an approved road transport compliance scheme is being complied with or to investigate a breach or suspected breach of any such law or scheme. A search may be carried out if an officer believes on reasonable grounds that there may have been a breach of any such law or scheme or that the vehicle or combination may have been involved in an incident involving death or personal injury or damage to property. A search may also be carried out for evidence related to driver fatigue offences. A search warrant is required to search unattended premises or residential premises. An authorised officer may seize things that may provide evidence of an offence.

Division 5 Other directions

Division 5 (clauses 150–156) confers on authorised officers powers to direct responsible persons to produce records (including transport documentation) or devices containing records, to give their personal details, to provide information about a vehicle or combination or any load or equipment carried or intended to be carried on the vehicle or combination and to provide reasonable assistance to an authorised officer exercising an inspection or search power under Division 4. The reasonable assistance may include finding and gaining access to information and records, operating equipment and facilities and running an engine of a vehicle or combination. It will be an offence to contravene directions under the Division.

Division 6 Search warrants

Division 6 (clause 157) enables authorised officers to obtain search warrants for the purposes of searching premises for evidence of offences under applicable road laws.

Division 7 Other provisions regarding inspections and searches

Division 7 (clauses 158–160) contains additional provisions relating to inspections and searches, including provisions enabling authorised officers to use assistants and equipment to carry out inspections and searches and to operate equipment to access information.

Division 8 Other provisions regarding seizure

Division 8 (clauses 161 and 162) requires receipts to be given if things are seized under the Part and, where a record, device or thing cannot, or cannot readily, be seized, enables authorised officers to issue embargo notices. An embargo notice prohibits a thing from being moved, sold, leased, transferred, deleted or otherwise dealt with without the relevant officer's consent or the consent of the Authority or the Commissioner of Police.

Division 9 Miscellaneous

Division 9 (clauses 163–170) contains miscellaneous provisions, including a provision preventing a person who is not a police officer from using force against a person even if a provision authorises the use of reasonable force, a provision setting out requirements for obtaining the consent of a person for the purposes of the Part, a provision enabling the giving of directions under more than one provision, and a provision requiring an authorised officer to take reasonable steps to return a vehicle, combination or equipment to the condition it was in before being damaged by action taken under the Part. Division 9 also requires compliance with the Part despite the privilege against self-incrimination but prevents any statement, information or answer from being used against a natural person in criminal proceedings if the person concerned objected on the ground of self-incrimination or was not warned of the right to object on that ground. Division 9 also permits information obtained under the Part to be given to a public authority and makes it an offence to obstruct or hinder or impersonate an authorised officer.

Part 4.3 Identity powers

Part 4.3 (clauses 171–175) re-enacts the provisions of Division 2 of Part 3 of the former Act, being provisions empowering authorised officers to require the production of driver licences and names and addresses and the provision of information about drivers by responsible persons.

Chapter 5 Enforcement of road transport legislation

Part 5.1 Liability for offences

Part 5.1 (clauses 176–179) contains various provisions extending liability for offences. It makes it clear that proceedings may be taken against any or all persons who may be liable for an offence under the road transport legislation and applies the double jeopardy rule to such offences. The Part also makes directors and persons concerned in the management of corporations liable for offences committed by those corporations. Persons involved in the management of partnerships and unincorporated associations will also be liable for applicable road law offences committed by other persons concerned in the management of the partnerships or associations. An employer will also be liable for an applicable road law offence committed by an employee. A defence will be available for offences committed by body corporates, partners or association members where the defendant could not have influenced the conduct or took reasonable precautions or exercised due diligence. A defence will be available to an employer who had no knowledge of the offence and who took reasonable precautions or exercised due diligence. The Part also re-enacts the provisions of section 43 of the former Act, relating to responsibility of responsible persons for certain camera recorded offences or parking offences.

Part 5.2 Proceedings for offences

Part 5.2 (clauses 180–182) re-enacts section 47 of the former Act, relating to proceedings for offences and a 1-year limitation period for commencing proceedings for offences under the road transport legislation. It also provides for a 2-year limitation period for applicable road law offences (or a further 1-year period where evidence is obtained and the period would otherwise expire).

Proceedings for certain offences may be dealt with summarily by the Supreme Court, where the maximum penalty exceeds 500 penalty units (in the case of heavy vehicle offences) or 100 penalty units (in the case of other offences).

Part 5.3 Penalty notices

Part 5.3 (clauses 183–186) re-enacts Division 1 of Part 3 of the former Act, relating to penalty notices.

Part 5.4 Sanctions relating to licences

Division 1 Licence disqualification

Division 1 (clauses 187–189) re-enacts sections 24, 25 and 26 of the former Act, relating to courts' powers to disqualify persons convicted of certain offences from holding a driver licence, automatic disqualification for certain offences and the effect of disqualification. A severe risk breach of a mass, dimension or load restraint requirement is added to the offences on conviction for which a court may disqualify a person from holding a driver licence.

Division 2 Use of interlock devices as alternative to disqualification

Division 2 (clauses 190–197) re-enacts Subdivision 2 of Division 3 of Part 3 of the former Act, and Schedule 1A to the former Act, relating to the use of interlock devices as an alternative to disqualification from holding a licence.

Division 3 Habitual traffic offenders

Division 3 (clauses 198–203) re-enacts Division 4 of Part 3 of the former Act, relating to the declaration of persons convicted of certain offences as habitual traffic offenders and their consequential disqualification from holding a driver licence.

Division 4 Suspension of licences and visiting driver privileges

Division 4 (clauses 204–206) re-enacts Division 5 of Part 3 of the former Act, relating to the suspension of driver licences by the Commissioner of Police, immediate suspension by a police officer when certain offences are committed and suspension of certain driving privileges of visiting drivers.

Division 5 Downgrading of licences

Division 5 (clause 207) re-enacts Division 6 of Part 3 of the former Act, relating to the downgrading of licences by the Authority when driver licences are cancelled.

Part 5.5 Other sanctions

Division 1 Compensation orders

Division 1 (clauses 208–216) re-enacts sections 37 and 38 of the former Act, relating to compensation for losses of time or expenses incurred as a result of an offence under the road transport legislation. The Division also enacts provisions contained in the national model provisions that enable a court, on finding a person guilty of an applicable road law offence, to make a roads compensation order requiring compensation to be paid for damage to road infrastructure arising from the offence. Provisions relating to assessment of damage, the amount of compensation under a roads compensation order and recovery of the compensation are also included in the Division.

Division 2 Detention, impounding and forfeiture of vehicles

Division 2 (clauses 217–228) re-enacts Division 8 of Part 3 of the former Act, and Schedule 1 to the former Act, relating to the removal, impounding and forfeiture of vehicles used in connection with certain specified offences.

Part 5.6 Evidential provisions

Part 5.6 (clauses 229–238) provides for the use of evidentiary certificates in proceedings as prima facie evidence of certain specified matters under the road transport legislation. The Part also makes it unnecessary to prove the appointment of certain specified office holders, including the Chief Executive of the Authority and the Commissioner of Police. The Part contains other provisions relating to evidence of the state of mind of a body corporate or an employer, evidence of the mass rating of a vehicle or component, evidence regarding measuring devices and weighing by a weightbridge or weighing facility. It enables certain statements or allegations made by the prosecution in proceedings, such as statements that a specified vehicle was a heavy vehicle, to be prima facie evidence of the matter stated and gives evidentiary effect to matters contained in transport documentation.

Chapter 6 Miscellaneous

Part 6.1 General

Part 6.1 (clauses 239–248) re-enacts sections 44, 45, 48, 49 and 73–75 of the former Act. Part 6.2 Miscellaneous provisions concerning vehicles and roads

Division 1 Unauthorised use of vehicles

Division 1 (clauses 249 and 250) re-enacts Division 2 of Part 4 of the former Act, relating to using vehicles without the owner's consent and procuring the use of a vehicle through fraud or misrepresentation.

Division 2 Written off and wrecked motor vehicles

Division 2 (clauses 251–265) re-enacts Division 3 of Part 4 of the former Act, relating to registration and other requirements and obligations in relation to written off and wrecked motor vehicles.

Division 3 Police powers

Division 3 (clauses 266 and 267) re-enacts Division 1 of Part 4 of the former Act, relating to police powers to enter vehicle repairers' premises and to use tyre deflation devices in police pursuits.

Schedule 1 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 1 enacts savings, transitional and other provisions consequent on the commencement of the proposed Act and the repeal of the former Act. Among other things, it continues the effect of savings and transitional provisions having effect under the former Act.

Schedule 2 Repeals

Schedule 2 repeals the former Act and other Acts amending that Act.

Schedule 3 Amendment of other Acts

Schedule 3 amends other Acts as a consequence of the commencement of the proposed Act and the repeal of the former Act. It also contains additional amendments to the proposed Act that are to be made on the commencement of provisions of the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 and other amendments that reflect uncommenced amendments to the former Act contained in the Road Transport (General) Amendment (Licence Suspension) Act 2004.

- (1) This section applies to a breach of a dimension requirement to which section 35 (Lower limits—width breaches) or section 36 (Lower limits—width breaches: overall width of vehicle or combination) applies, where: 4
- (a) the breach is committed: 8
- (i) at night, or 9
- (ii) in hazardous weather conditions causing reduced visibility, or 10 11
- (iii) on a declared route or in a declared zone (within the meaning of Part 3.6), and 12 13
- (b) the breach would, because of lower limits applicable under section 35 or 36 and apart from this Subdivision, be a minor risk breach or a substantial risk breach. 14
15
16
- (2) A breach to which this section applies that would, apart from this section, be a minor risk breach is taken to be a substantial risk breach. 17
18
- (3) A breach to which this section applies that would, apart from this section, be a substantial risk breach is taken to be a severe risk breach. 19 20
- 40 Lower limits—overall length breaches: recategorisation of certain breaches involving rear projections (cf model provisions, s 77) 21
- (1) This section applies to a breach of a dimension requirement to which section 38 (Lower limits—overall length breaches) applies, where: 22 23
- (a) the rear of a load on a vehicle or combination fails to carry a required warning signal, and 24

27
28
- Note. The Road Transport (Mass, Loading and Access) Regulation 1996 provides that the rear of a load on a vehicle must carry a warning signal if the load projects more than 1.2 metres behind the vehicle or in other specified circumstances. 29 30
31
32
- (2) A breach to which this section applies that would, apart from this section, be a minor risk breach is taken to be a substantial risk breach. 33
34

Division 3	Enforcement powers	13
Note.	The enforcement powers provided by this Division vary according to the risk category involved. The principal features are as follows:	14
(a)	Minor risk breaches	16
	An authorised officer may authorise the driver to continue the journey (conditionally or unconditionally), but in particular circumstances the officer may direct the driver to rectify breaches then and there or to move the vehicle or combination to a suitable location (within a limited distance) and not proceed until breaches are rectified.	17
		18
		20
(b)	Substantial risk breaches	21
	An authorised officer must direct the driver not to proceed until breaches are rectified, but in particular circumstances (or acting under particular instructions) the officer may direct the driver to move the vehicle or combination to the nearest suitable location and not proceed until breaches are rectified.	22
		23
		25
(c)	Severe risk breaches	26
	An authorised officer must direct the driver not to proceed until breaches are rectified, but in limited particular circumstances (or acting under particular instructions) the officer may direct the driver to move the vehicle or combination to the nearest safe location and not proceed until breaches are rectified.	27
		28
		29
		30
	Directions may instead be given to the operator of the vehicle or combination, who is required to ensure that the direction is carried out.	31
		32
45	Minor risk breaches (cf model provisions, s 82)	33

(2)	Authorisation or direction	3
	The officer may:	4
(a)	if the officer does not give a direction under paragraph (b)—authorise the driver of the vehicle or combination to continue its journey under section 49 (Authorisation to continue journey where only minor risk breaches), or	5 6 7 8
(b)	if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that particular circumstances exist warranting the giving of a direction under this paragraph—direct the driver or operator of the vehicle or combination:	9 10 11 12
(i)	to rectify specified breaches of mass, dimension or load restraint requirements then and there, or	13 14
(ii)	if the officer also believes on reasonable grounds that the vehicle or combination should be moved to another location—to move it or cause it to be moved to a specified suitable location that is within the prescribed distance, and not to proceed from there until specified breaches of mass, dimension or load restraint requirements are rectified.	15 16 17 18 19 20
	Note. Section 49 enables the officer to permit the vehicle or combination to continue its journey (conditionally or unconditionally) if only minor risk breaches exist and no direction to rectify the breaches has been given or remains in force.	21 22 23
(3)	Particular circumstances	24
	Without limiting the above, particular circumstances warranting the giving of a direction exist where:	25 26
(a)	rectification is reasonable and can be carried out easily, or	27
(b)	rectification is necessary in the public interest to avoid potential risk of harm to public safety, the environment, road infrastructure or public amenity.	28 29 30
(4)	Conditions	31
	A direction may be given under this section unconditionally or subject to conditions imposed by the officer.	32 33

Division 3	Reasonable steps defence	1
87	Reasonable steps defence for mass requirements: drivers, operators and owners (cf Roads Act 1993, s 235)	2
(1)	If a provision of this Act, or a regulation made under this Act, states that a person has the benefit of the reasonable steps defence for an offence relating to a mass requirement, it is a defence to a prosecution for an offence alleged to have been committed by a person as the driver, owner or operator of a vehicle or combination if the defendant establishes that the defendant:	3 4 5 6 7 8
(a)	did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, of the contravention, and	9 10

(2)	If the relevant contravention resulted from the fact that the mass of the vehicle or part of the vehicle (together with the mass of any load on the vehicle or part of the vehicle) exceeded any limit prescribed by the regulations, then the court is not entitled to be satisfied that the defendant took all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention unless it is satisfied that the defendant took all reasonable steps to cause the mass of the load carried on the vehicle to be ascertained at the start of the journey during which the contravention occurred.	12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19
(3)	The court is not entitled to be satisfied that the defendant took all reasonable steps to cause the mass of a load to be ascertained unless it is satisfied that:	20 21 22
(a)	the load had been weighed, or	23
(b)	the defendant, or the driver of the vehicle, was in possession of sufficient and reliable evidence from which that weight was calculated.	24 25 26
(4)	Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply if the defendant satisfies the court that at all material times that the defendant did not, either personally or through any agent or employee, have custody or control of the vehicle concerned.	27 28 29 30
(5)	If the defendant is a corporation, then, in order to satisfy the court that the corporation did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known of the relevant contravention, the corporation must satisfy the court that:	31 32 33 34
(a)	no director of the corporation, and	35

(b) no person having management functions in the corporation in relation to activities in connection with which the contravention occurred, knew of the contravention or could reasonably be expected to have known of it.

(1) Application

This section does not apply to an offence relating to a mass requirement if the defendant is the driver, operator or owner of the vehicle concerned.

(2) Defence

If a provision of this Act, or a regulation made under this Act, states that a person has the benefit of the reasonable steps defence for an offence, it is a defence to a prosecution for an offence to which this section applies if the defendant establishes that:

(a) the defendant did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, of the contravention concerned, and

(b) either:

(i) the defendant had taken all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention, or

(ii) there were no steps that the defendant could reasonably be expected to have taken to prevent the contravention.

(3) Matters that court may have regard to

Without limiting the above, in determining whether things done or omitted to be done by the defendant constitute reasonable steps, a court may have regard to:

(a) the circumstances of the alleged offence, including (where relevant) the risk category to which the breach concerned belongs, and

(b) without limiting paragraph (a), the measures available and measures taken for any or all of the following:

(i) to accurately and safely weigh or measure the vehicle or combination or its load or to safely restrain the load in or on the vehicle or combination,

(ii) to provide and obtain sufficient and reliable evidence from which the weight or measurement of the vehicle or combination or its load might be calculated,

(iii)	to manage, reduce or eliminate a potential breach arising from the location of the vehicle or combination, or from the location of the load in or on the vehicle or combination, or from the location of goods in the load,	1 2 3 4
(iv)	to manage, reduce or eliminate a potential breach arising from weather and climatic conditions, or from potential weather and climatic conditions, affecting or potentially affecting the weight or measurement of the load,	5 6 7 8
(v)	to exercise supervision or control over others involved in activities leading to the breach, and	9 10
(c)	the measures available and measures taken for any or all of the following:	11 12
(i)	to include compliance assurance conditions in relevant commercial arrangements with other responsible persons,	13 14
(ii)	to provide information, instruction, training and supervision to employees to enable compliance with relevant laws,	15 16 17
(iii)	to maintain equipment and work systems to enable compliance with relevant laws,	18 19
(iv)	to address and remedy similar compliance problems that may have occurred in the past, and	20 21
(d)	whether the defendant had, either personally or through an agent or employee, custody or control of the vehicle or combination, or of its load, or of any of the goods included or to be included in the load, and	22 23 24 25
(e)	the personal expertise and experience that the defendant had or ought to have had or that an agent or employee of the defendant had or ought to have had.	26 27 28
89	Reasonable steps defence—reliance on container weight declaration (cf model provisions, s 90)	29 30
(1)	This section applies where the owner, operator or driver of a vehicle or combination is prosecuted for an offence involving a breach of a mass requirement and is seeking to establish the reasonable steps defence in relation to the offence.	31 32 33 34
(2)	To the extent that the weight of a freight container together with its contents is relevant to the offence, the defendant may rely on the weight stated in the relevant container weight declaration, unless it is established that the defendant knew or ought reasonably to have known that:	35 36 37 38 39
(a)	the stated weight was lower than the actual weight, or	40

(b)	the distributed weight of the container and its contents, together with:	1
	(i) the mass or location of any other load, or	2
	(ii) the mass of the vehicle or combination or any part of it, would cause one or more breaches of mass requirements.	3
90	Defence of mistaken and reasonable belief not available for specified offences	4
	In any proceedings for offences under the following provisions, it is no defence that the defendant had a mistaken but reasonable belief as to the facts that constituted the offence:	5
(a)	section 53 (Liability of consignor),	6
(b)	section 54 (Liability of packer),	7
(c)	section 55 (Liability of loader),	8
(d)	section 56 (Liability of operator),	9

(4) Calculation of disqualification periods in case of multiple offences	1
If 2 or more convictions of a person are made, whether or not at the same time, for crimes or offences arising out of a single incident involving the use of a motor vehicle or trailer, the following provisions apply:	2
(a) for the purpose of ascertaining which of subsections (2) and (3) should apply in relation to any such conviction:	6
(i) the other of those convictions are to be disregarded, and	8
(ii) subsection (2) or (3) (as the case may require) is, accordingly, to be the applicable subsection, and	9
	10
(b) the maximum period of automatic disqualification in respect of all those crimes or offences is to be:	11
	12
(i) if subsection (2) is applicable—3 years, or	13
(ii) if subsection (3) is applicable—5 years, and	14
(c) any minimum period of ordered disqualification is, in respect of those crimes or offences, to be disregarded to the extent that the total period of ordered and (where relevant) automatic disqualification would exceed:	15
	16
	17
	18
(i) where subsection (2) is applicable—12 months, or	19
(ii) where subsection (3) is applicable—2 years.	20
However, nothing in paragraph (c) prevents the court, if it thinks fit, from making any order it could have made if that paragraph had not been enacted.	21
	23
(5) Disqualification in addition to any other penalty	24
Any disqualification under this section is in addition to any penalty imposed for the offence.	25
	26

	31
	32
	33
	34
(2) A disqualification to hold an Australian driver licence held under a law in force in another State or internal Territory by a person who holds a driver licence issued in this State is, for the purposes of subsection (1),	35
	36

to be treated as if it were a disqualification to hold the driver licence issued in this State.	1 2
(3) A person who is so disqualified must:	3
(a) if present at the court (being a court in this State) and in possession of his or her driver licence—surrender the licence to the court immediately after being convicted, or	4 5 6
(b) if present at the court (being a court in this State) but not in possession of the licence or if not present at the court—surrender the licence to the Authority as soon as practicable after being convicted, or	7 8 9 10
(c) if the person is to be treated under subsection (2) as having been disqualified from holding a driver licence issued in this State—surrender the licence to the Authority as soon as practicable after being disqualified from holding the Australian driver licence referred to in that subsection.	11 12 13 14 15
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.	16
(4) Subject to the provisions of Division 2, a person who is disqualified from holding a driver licence cannot obtain another driver licence during the period of disqualification.	17 18 19
(5) If a driver licence is surrendered to the court, the licence is to be delivered to the Authority.	20 21
(6) Any period for which a stay of execution is in force under section 63 of the Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 is not to be taken into account when calculating the length of a period of disqualification under this Division.	22 23 24 25

195	When disqualification suspension order has effect (cf former Act, s 25F)	1
(1)	When order operates to suspend disqualification	2
	A disqualification suspension order operates to suspend a disqualification while the person in respect of whom the order was made participates in an interlock program.	3 4 5
(2)	Early termination of order	6
	A disqualification suspension order ceases to have effect before the expiry of the interlock participation period if the person ceases to participate in an interlock program.	7 8 9

	(b) the period of disqualification that had already been completed immediately before the disqualification suspension order operated to suspend the original disqualification.	17 18 19
(4)	Effect of suspension of interlock driver licence on order	20
	If the interlock driver licence of a person in respect of whom a disqualification suspension order is made is suspended during the interlock participation period:	21 22 23
	(a) the order does not cease to have effect only because the driver licence is suspended, and	24 25
	(b) the period of suspension is to be added to the interlock participation period applicable to the person for the purposes of determining when the interlock participation period expires.	26 27 28

Division 3 Habitual traffic offenders	19
198 Relevant offences (cf former Act, s 27)	20

(i) a major offence,	23
(ii) a prescribed speeding offence,	24
(iii) an offence under section 25 (3) of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 ,	25
(iv) an offence under section 25A (1), (2) or (3) of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 , or	26
(b) an offence committed after the commencement of this Division of which a person has been convicted by a court in another State or Territory that would be an offence of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) if it had been committed in this State, or	27
(c) a relevant offence within the meaning of section 10EA of the Traffic Act 1909 as in force immediately before its repeal.	28
	29
	30
	31
	32
	33
	34
	35
	36
(2) A relevant offence includes an offence of the kind referred to in subsection (1) (a) in respect of which the charge is found proven, or a	37
	38

person is found guilty, (but without proceeding to a conviction) under section 10 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 , or section 556A of the Crimes Act 1900 , if the offence would, if it were a relevant offence, give rise to the declaration of the person under this Division as an habitual traffic offender. In that case, a reference in this Division to the conviction of the person for a relevant offence includes a reference to the making of an order with respect to the person.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7
199 Declaration of persons as habitual traffic offenders (cf former Act, s 28)	8
A person is, by this section, declared to be an habitual traffic offender if:	9
(a) a court in this State convicts the person of a relevant offence, and	10
(b) the person has, in the period of 5 years before the conviction, also been convicted of at least 2 other relevant offences committed on different occasions.	11 12 13
200 Warning to be given to persons liable to be declared habitual traffic offenders (cf former Act, s 29)	14
(1) The Authority is required to give written warnings to the holders of driver licences who are liable to be declared to be habitual traffic offenders if they are convicted of another relevant offence.	15 16 17
(2) The declaration of an habitual traffic offender is not invalid merely because of a failure to give the warning, but any such failure may be taken into account by a court when determining whether a declaration should be quashed.	18 19 20 21
201 Period of disqualification of habitual traffic offender (cf former Act, s 30)	22
(1) If a person is declared by section 199 to be an habitual traffic offender, the person is disqualified by the declaration (and without any specific order of a court) for a period of 5 years from holding a driver licence, except as provided by this Division.	23 24 25 26
(2) If the court that convicts the person of the offence giving rise to the declaration thinks fit, the court may order a longer period of disqualification (including disqualification for life).	27 28 29
(3) If the court that convicts the person of the offence giving rise to the declaration determines that a 5-year disqualification is a disproportionate and unjust consequence having regard to the total driving record of the person and the special circumstances of the case, the court may order a shorter period of disqualification (but not shorter than 2 years).	30 31 32 33 34 35
(4) If a court orders a shorter or longer period of disqualification, the court must state its reasons for doing so.	36 37

(5)	A declaration of an habitual traffic offender ceases to be in force when the period of disqualification imposed by the declaration is completed.	1 2
(6)	The period of any disqualification under this Division does not commence until all other disqualifications, and all other periods of licence cancellation or suspension, imposed on the person by or under this or any other Act have been completed.	3 4 5 6
(7)	Further declarations have effect under this Division even though they occur while an existing declaration is in force, and the consequent periods of disqualification do not commence until all existing disqualifications under this Division have been completed. It does not matter that some of the relevant offences giving rise to a further declaration also gave rise to an earlier declaration.	7 8 9 10 11 12
(8)	If, while an existing disqualification under this Division is in force, the person is disqualified by a court or automatically under another provision of this or any other Act, that further disqualification does not commence until all existing disqualifications under this Division have been completed.	13 14 15 16 17
(9)	Any period for which a stay of execution is in force under section 63 of the Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 is not to be taken into account when calculating the length of a period of disqualification under this Division.	18 19 20 21
202	Quashing of declaration and bar against appeals (cf former Act, s 31)	22
(1)	The declaration of a person as an habitual traffic offender by section 199 may be quashed by a court that convicts the person of a relevant offence (at the time of the conviction or at a later time) if it determines that the disqualification imposed by the declaration is a disproportionate and unjust consequence having regard to the total driving record of the person and the special circumstances of the case.	23 24 25 26 27 28
(2)	If a court quashes a declaration under this section, the court must state its reasons for doing so.	29 30
(3)	However, a declaration or disqualification under this Division cannot be appealed to any court whether under this or any other Act.	31 32
203	Disqualification in addition to any other penalty (cf former Act, s 32)	33
	A disqualification under this Division is in addition to any penalty imposed for the offence giving rise to the declaration.	34 35

	(b) is found under the influence of liquor.	6
(2)	The Commissioner of Police must immediately:	7
	(a) notify the Authority that the Commissioner has suspended the licence and the grounds for the suspension, and	8
	(b) report to the Authority whether in the Commissioner's opinion a further suspension or the cancellation of the licence is warranted or is desirable in the interest of public safety.	9
(3)	A driver licence that is suspended under this section is to be surrendered by the holder and forwarded to the Authority with the notification of the suspension.	10

		14
		15
		16
		17
205	Immediate suspension of licence in certain circumstances (cf former Act, s 34)	18
		19
(1)	If a person is charged by a police officer with an offence under section 9 (3) or (4), 15 (4), 16 or 22 (2) of the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999 , the same or another police officer may, at any time within 48 hours after the person has been charged, give the person a suspension notice.	20
		21
		23
		24
(2)	A suspension notice is a notice, in a form approved by the Authority:	25
	(a) informing the person that until the charge is heard and determined by a court (or until the charge is withdrawn, if that should happen) any driver licence held by the person is suspended:	26
		27
		28
		29
	(i) on and from a date specified in the notice, or	30
	(ii) if the notice so specifies—immediately on receipt of the notice, and	31
		32
	(b) informing the person of the right to appeal under section 242, and	33
	(c) requiring the person:	34
	(i) to surrender every such licence, on or before a date specified in the notice, to a police officer, or	35
		36

(ii)	if the notice so specifies—to surrender every such licence in the person’s possession immediately to the police officer who gave the person the notice.	1 2 3
(3)	Any driver licence held by a person to whom a suspension notice is given is suspended, in accordance with the terms of the notice, until the charge is heard and determined by a court or withdrawn.	4 5 6
(4)	Particulars of each suspension notice given under this section are to be forwarded to the Authority immediately after the notice is given.	7 8
(5)	A person who is given a suspension notice must surrender his or her driver licence in compliance with the notice. Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.	9 10 11
(6)	If, on the determination of the charge by a court, the person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence for a specified time:	12 13
(a)	the court must take into account the period of suspension under this section when deciding whether to make any order under section 188, and	14 15 16
(b)	to the extent (if any) that the court so orders, a suspension under this section may be regarded as satisfying all or part of any mandatory minimum period of disqualification required by that section to be imposed when the charge is proved.	17 18 19 20
(7)	For the purposes of this section:	21
(a)	a person is charged with an offence when particulars of the offence are notified in writing to the person by a police officer, and	22 23 24
(b)	a charge is withdrawn when the person charged is notified in writing of that fact by a police officer or when it is withdrawn before the court, and	25 26 27

- suspension notice, in relation to a person charged as referred to in subsection (2), means a notice, in a form approved by the Authority, informing the person:
- (a) that until the charge is heard and determined by a court or is withdrawn (if that should happen) his or her authority to drive in New South Wales is suspended:

 - (ii) if the notice so specifies—immediately on receipt of the notice, and
 - (b) informing the person of the right to appeal under section 242.

Division 5 Downgrading of licences

207 Downgrading of driver licences (cf former Act, s 36)

- (1) If a driver licence is cancelled as a special measure and the offence or offences (or alleged offence or offences) that gave rise to the cancellation arose wholly or mainly out of the use of a motor vehicle or trailer of a class prescribed for the purposes of this section, the Authority may issue the former licensee with another driver licence in substitution for the cancelled driver licence that does not authorise the driving of motor vehicles or trailers of that class.

(2)	For the purposes of this section, a driver licence is cancelled as a special measure if it is cancelled by:	1 2
(a)	the operation of the road transport legislation as a result of the imposition on the licensee of a period of disqualification from holding a driver licence, or	3 4 5
(b)	the Authority under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 because of:	6 7
(i)	the licensee's driving record of offences or alleged offences, or	8 9
(ii)	an alleged speeding offence referred to in section 33 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 .	10 11
(3)	The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the exercise by the Authority of its power under this section.	12 13
(4)	Nothing in this section:	14
(a)	limits any discretion of the Authority under the road transport legislation to decline to issue a driver licence to a person or cancel a driver licence, or	15 16 17
(b)	permits the issue of any driver licence to a person who for the time being is disqualified from holding one.	18 19
Part 5.5 Other sanctions		20
Division 1 Compensation orders		21
208	Court may order compensation for damages and other losses (cf former Act, s 37)	22 23
	A court that convicts a person of an offence under the road transport legislation may order any person to pay such an amount as compensation for loss of time or expense incurred in consequence of the offence of which the defendant was convicted as the court thinks fit.	24 25 26 27
209	Compensation for loss of time (cf former Act, s 38)	28
(1)	If proceedings are commenced by any person (other than a police officer or the Authority) for any offence under the road transport legislation and the proceedings are dismissed or withdrawn, the court concerned may, if it thinks fit, order that the person bringing the proceedings pay to the defendant, in addition to any costs, such compensation for loss of time or otherwise as seems reasonable.	29 30 31 32 33 34
(2)	Subsection (1) extends to a court hearing an appeal in any such proceedings.	35 36

210	Compensation orders for damage to road infrastructure (cf model provisions, s 140)	1 2
(1)	A court that finds a person guilty of an applicable road law offence may make an order (a roads compensation order) requiring the offender to pay a roads authority such amount by way of compensation as the court thinks fit for damage to any road infrastructure that the roads authority has incurred or is likely to incur in consequence of the offence.	3 4 5 6 7
(2)	A roads compensation order may be made on the application of the prosecutor, the roads authority or the Authority.	8 9
(3)	A roads compensation order may only be made in favour of a roads authority.	10 11
(4)	The court may make a roads compensation order where it is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the commission of the offence caused or contributed to the damage.	12 13 14
(5)	The court may make a roads compensation order when it finds the offender guilty of the offence or at any time afterwards, but not later than the period within which a prosecution for the offence could have been commenced.	15 16 17 18
211	Assessment of compensation (cf model provisions, s 141)	19
(1)	In making a roads compensation order, the court may assess the amount of compensation in the manner it considers appropriate, including (for example) the estimated cost of remedying the damage.	20 21 22
(2)	In assessing the amount of compensation, the court may take into account the matters it considers relevant, including:	23 24
(a)	any evidence adduced in connection with the prosecution of the offence, and	25 26
(b)	any evidence not adduced in connection with the prosecution of the offence but adduced in connection with the making of the proposed order, and	27 28 29
(c)	any certificate of the roads authority stating that the roads authority maintains the road concerned, and	30 31
(d)	any other certificate of the roads authority, such as a certificate:	32
(i)	estimating the monetary value of all or any part of the road infrastructure or of the damage to it, or	33 34
(ii)	estimating the cost of remedying the damage, or	35
(iii)	estimating the extent of the offender's contribution to the damage.	36 37

212	Service of certificates (cf model provisions, s 142)	1
(1)	If a roads authority proposes to use a certificate referred to in section 211 in proceedings, the roads authority must serve a copy of the certificate on the defendant at least 28 working days before the day on which the matter is set down for hearing.	2 3 4 5
(2)	Any such certificate cannot be used in the proceedings unless a copy of the certificate has been served in accordance with this section.	6 7
(3)	A defendant who wishes to challenge a statement in any such certificate must serve a notice in writing on the roads authority at least 14 working days before the day on which the matter is set down for hearing.	8 9 10
(4)	The notice of intention must specify the matters in the certificate that are intended to be challenged.	11 12
(5)	If the defendant is intending to challenge the accuracy of any measurement, analysis or reading in the certificate, the defendant must specify the reason why the defendant alleges that it is inaccurate and must specify the measurement, analysis or reading that the defendant considers to be correct.	13 14 15 16 17
(6)	The defendant cannot challenge any matter in the certificate if the requirements of this section have not been complied with in relation to the certificate, unless the court gives leave to do so in the interests of justice.	18 19 20 21
213	Limits on amount of compensation (cf model provisions, s 143)	22
(1)	If, in making a roads compensation order, the court is satisfied that the commission of the offence concerned contributed to the damage but that other factors not connected with the commission of the offence also contributed to the damage, the court must limit the amount of the compensation payable by the offender to the amount it assesses as being the offender's contribution to the damage.	23 24 25 26 27 28
(2)	The maximum amount of compensation cannot exceed the monetary jurisdictional limit of the court in civil proceedings.	29 30
(3)	The court may not include in the roads compensation order any amount for:	31 32
(a)	personal injury or death, or	33
(b)	loss of income (whether sustained by a roads authority or any other person or organisation), or	34 35
(c)	damage to any property (including a vehicle) that is not part of the road infrastructure.	36 37

214	Costs (cf model provisions, s 144)	1
	The court has the same power to award costs in relation to the proceedings for a compensation order under this Division as it has in relation to civil proceedings, and the relevant provisions of laws applying to costs in relation to civil proceedings apply with any necessary adaptations to costs in relation to the proceedings for the compensation order.	2 3 4 5 6 7
215	Enforcement of compensation order and costs (cf model provisions, s 145)	8
	A compensation order under this Division, and any award of costs, are enforceable as if they were a judgment of the court in civil proceedings.	9 10
216	Relationship with orders or awards of other courts and tribunals (cf model provisions, s 146)	11 12
(1)	A compensation order under this Division may not be made if another court or tribunal has awarded compensatory damages or compensation in civil proceedings in respect of the damage based on the same or similar facts, and if a court purports to make an order under this Division in those circumstances:	13 14 15 16 17
(a)	the order is void to the extent that it covers the same matters as those covered by the other award, and	18 19
(b)	any payments made under the order to the extent to which it is void must be repaid by the roads authority.	20 21
(2)	The making of a compensation order under this Division does not prevent another court or tribunal from afterwards awarding damages or compensation in civil proceedings in respect of the damage based on the same or similar facts, but the court or tribunal must take the order into account when awarding damages or compensation.	22 23 24 25 26
(3)	Nothing in this Division affects or limits any liability to pay compensation under section 102 of the Roads Act 1993 , except as provided by this section.	27 28 29

(3)	For the purpose of exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1), a police officer may cause any locking device or other feature of the motor vehicle concerned that is impeding the exercise of those powers to be removed, dismantled or neutralised and may, if the driver or any other person will not surrender the keys to the vehicle, start the vehicle by other means.	17 18 19 20 21 22
(4)	Any motor vehicle removed to a place in accordance with subsection (1) may, subject to the regulations, be impounded at that place or may be moved to and impounded at any other place determined by the Commissioner.	23 24 25 26

25
- (5) Any impounding or forfeiture under this section is in addition to any other penalty that may be imposed for the offence concerned, but for the purposes of any rights of appeal against a penalty so imposed by the court finding the offence to be proven, the impounding or forfeiture is taken to be, or to be part of, that penalty. 26
27
28
29

- (6) For the purposes of this section, payment of the amount specified: 31
