- (2) A member is eligible, if otherwise qualified, for reappointment.
- (3) A member must not hold office for more than 3 consecutive terms.
- (4) For the purposes of calculating the number of consecutive terms of office that a member has held, an appointment to fill a vacancy for the balance of a member's term of office must not be taken into account.

3 Remuneration

- (1) Members, acting members and committee members are entitled to be paid remuneration, including travelling and subsistence allowances, as determined by the Minister from time to time.
- (2) In this section—

acting member means a person appointed to act as a member under this Schedule, section 4.

committee member means a member of an advisory committee who is not also a member of the Board.

4 Acting members

- (1) The Minister may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of a member during—
 - (a) the member's absence, or
 - (b) a vacancy in the office of the member, until a person is appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy.
- (2) The person, while acting—
 - (a) is taken to be a member, and
 - (b) has all the functions of the member.
- (3) The Minister may revoke an appointment made under this section at any time.
- (4) This section does not operate to confer on a person acting in the office of a member who is the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson the member's functions as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson.

5 Vacancy in office

- (1) The office of a member becomes vacant if the member—
 - (a) dies, or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not reappointed, or
 - (c) resigns from office by written notice addressed to the Minister, or
 - (d) is removed from office by the Minister under this section, or

 - (ii) within 6 weeks of the third meeting, the member is excused by the Board for having been absent from the meetings, or
 - (f) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of a law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with the member's creditors or makes an assignment of the member's remuneration for the benefit of the member's creditors, or
 - (g) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
 - (h) is convicted in New South Wales of, or convicted elsewhere of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be, an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more.
- (2) The Minister may remove a member from office at any time.
- (3) If the office of a member becomes vacant, a person must be appointed to fill the vacancy.

6 Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson

- (1) A member vacates office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson if the member—
 - (a) ceases to be a member, or
 - (b) resigns from the office by written notice addressed to the Minister, or
 - (c) is removed from the office by the Minister under this section.
- (2) The Minister may remove a member from office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson at any time.
- (3) If the office of Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson becomes vacant, a member must be appointed to fill the vacancy.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a member does not cease to be a member on the expiry of the member's term of office if the member is reappointed as a member for a term commencing immediately after the expiration of the previous term.

7 Advisory committees

- (1) The Board may establish 1 or more advisory committees to assist the Board in the exercise of the Board's functions.
- (2) The Board must prepare and approve an advisory committee charter that provides for—
 - (a) the appointment of committee members, and
 - (b) the functions and responsibilities of advisory committees, and
 - (c) other relevant matters.
- (3) The Board must appoint committee members in accordance with the advisory committee charter.

- (4) At least 1 person appointed to the committee must also be a member of the Board.
- (5) This Schedule, sections 11, 13 and 14 apply to advisory committees and committee members in the same way the sections apply to the Board and members.

8 Effect of certain other Acts

- (1) The provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to a member.
- (2) A provision of another Act does not disqualify a person from holding a specified office and also the office of a member, or from accepting and retaining remuneration payable to the person under this Part, section 3, merely because the provision—
 - (a) requires a person who is the holder of the specified office to devote the whole of the person's time to the duties of the office, or
 - (b) prohibits the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of the office.

Part 3 Procedure

9 General procedure

The procedure for calling a meeting of the Board and for conducting business at meetings is, subject to this Act and the regulations, to be as determined by the Board.

10 First meeting

The Minister may call the first meeting of the Board in the way the Minister thinks fit.

11 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Board is a majority of members for the time being.

12 Presiding member

- (1) The Chairperson must preside at a meeting of the Board, unless the Chairperson is absent.
- (2) If the Chairperson is absent—
 - (a) the Deputy Chairperson must preside, or
 - (b) if the Deputy Chairperson is absent—1 of the members present at the meeting, as elected by the other members present, must preside.
- (3) The person presiding at a meeting has—
 - (a) a deliberative vote, and
 - (b) in the event of an equality of votes—a second or casting vote.

13 Voting

A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Board.

14 Minutes

The Board must keep full and accurate minutes of the proceedings of each meeting of the Board.

15 Disclosure of pecuniary interests

- (1) A member must disclose the nature of a pecuniary interest at a meeting of the Board as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge.
- (2) A member has a pecuniary interest if—
 - (a) the member has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered, or about to be considered, at a meeting of the Board, and
 - (b) the interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter.
- (3) A disclosure is a sufficient disclosure of the nature of an interest in a matter relating to a corporation or other body, or to a person, which may arise after the date of the disclosure and which is required to be disclosed under subsection (1), if the disclosure is that the member—
 - (a) is a member of, or employed by, a specified corporation or other body, or
 - (b) is a partner of, or employed by, a specified person, or
 - (c) has another interest relating to a specified corporation or other body, or to a specified person.
- (4) Particulars of a disclosure made under this section must be recorded by the Board in a book that is—
 - (a) kept for the purpose of recording disclosures, and
 - (b) open to inspection at all reasonable hours by a person on payment of the fee determined by the Board.
- (5) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in a matter, the member must not, unless the Board otherwise determines—
 - (a) be present during a deliberation of the Board about the matter, or
 - (b) take part in a decision of the Board about the matter.
- (6) For the purposes of the making of a determination under subsection (5), a member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which the disclosure relates must not—
 - (a) be present during a deliberation of the Board for the purpose of making the determination, or
 - (b) take part in the making of the determination.
- (7) A contravention of this section does not invalidate a decision of the Board.
- (8) This section applies to a committee member and the advisory committee in the same way it applies to a member and the Board.

16 Transaction of business outside meetings or by telephone or other means

- (1) The Board may transact its business by the circulation of papers, including by electronic means, among all members for the time being.
- (2) If the Board transacts business by the circulation of papers, a written resolution, approved in writing by a majority of members, is taken to be a decision of the Board made at a meeting of the Board.
- (3) The Board may transact its business at a meeting at which 1 or more members participate by telephone or other electronic means, provided a member who speaks on a matter can be heard by the other members.
- (4) The Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson and each other member have the same voting rights as they would have at an ordinary meeting of the Board for the purposes of—

- (a) the approval of a resolution under subsection (2), or
 - (b) a meeting held in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) A resolution approved under subsection (2) must be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

Schedule 2 Chief Executive Officer

section 8

1 Term of office of Chief Executive Officer

- (1) The Chief Executive Officer holds office for the period of not more than 3 years specified in the Chief Executive Officer's instrument of appointment.
- (2) The Chief Executive Officer is eligible, if otherwise qualified, for reappointment.

2 Remuneration

- (1) The employment of the Chief Executive Officer is, subject to this Act and the regulations, to be governed by a contract of employment between the Chief Executive Officer and the Minister.
- (2) The office of Chief Executive Officer is a statutory office and the provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to the office.

3 Acting Chief Executive Officer

- (1) The Minister may, from time to time, and in consultation with the Board, appoint a person to act in the office of Chief Executive Officer during—
 - (a) the Chief Executive Officer's absence, or
 - (b) a vacancy in the office of Chief Executive Officer.
- (2) The person, while acting—
 - (a) is taken to be the Chief Executive Officer, and
 - (b) has all the functions of the Chief Executive Officer.
- (3) The Minister may revoke an appointment made under this section at any time.
- (4) An acting Chief Executive Officer is entitled to be paid remuneration, including travelling and subsistence allowances, as determined by the Minister from time to time.

4 Vacancy in office

- (1) The office of Chief Executive Officer becomes vacant if the Chief Executive Officer—
 - (a) dies, or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not reappointed, or
 - (c) resigns from office by written notice addressed to the Minister, or
