Police Amendment (Police Officer Support Scheme) Bill 2024

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are to—

- (a) amend the Police Act 1990 to establish the police officer support scheme (the scheme) to provide payments to or in relation to police officers who die or become permanently or temporarily incapacitated for work, and
- (b) amend the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 to establish the Police Officer Support Scheme Division (the POSS Division) to hear and determine disputes in relation to the scheme.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Police Act 1990 No 47

Schedule 1[1] inserts definitions for Personal Injury Commission or Commission and police officer support scheme for the Police Act 1990.

Schedule 1[2] inserts proposed Part 9B to establish the police officer support scheme.

Proposed Part 9B, Division 1 defines certain words and expressions for the proposed part.

Proposed Part 9B, Division 2 establishes the scheme to provide payments, with the approval of the Minister for Police and Counter-terrorism (the Minister) and the concurrence of the Treasurer, for police officers who die or become permanently or temporarily incapacitated for work. A police officer must make contributions to the scheme as prescribed by the regulations. The regulations may also provide for other matters in relation to the scheme. The proposed part does not apply to a police officer who is a contributor to certain superannuation funds or a police officer who is not a contributor to the scheme.

Proposed Part 9B, Division 3 provides that the functions of Insurance and Care NSW (ICNSW) include conducting reviews of decisions made under the regulations in relation to the scheme.

Proposed Part 9B, Division 4 provides that the Personal Injury Commission (the Commission), members of the Commission and a medical assessor appointed under the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 have additional jurisdiction and functions provided by the proposed part. Proposed section 199I provides that a party to a dispute may appeal to the Commission by application to the President against a decision made by a non-presidential member. The proposed section sets out the procedures for an appeal. Proposed section 199J provides that a party to proceedings heard by the Commission, if constituted by a presidential member, may appeal, on a point of law, to the Court of Appeal. The proposed section sets out the procedure for an appeal.

Proposed Division 5 provides that certain privacy legislation does not apply to information that is necessary for the administration or operation of the scheme, including reviews of decisions conducted by ICNSW, hearings conducted by the Commission and appeals against decisions of the Commission.

Schedule 1[3] inserts savings and transitional provisions.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 No 18

Schedule 2[14] inserts proposed Schedule 3A to establish the Police Officer Support Scheme Division of the Commission.

Proposed Schedule 3A, Part 1 defines certain words and expressions for the proposed schedule.

Proposed Schedule 3A, Part 2 provides that the POSS Division is composed of the head of the POSS Division (the Division Head) and other members assigned to the Division under the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020.

Proposed Schedule 3A, Part 3 allocates the functions of the Commission in relation to the scheme to the POSS Division.

Proposed Schedule 3A, Part 4 provides that when the Commission is exercising its POSS Division functions, the Commission must be constituted by a non-presidential POSS Division member or a Division Head who is a principal member.

Proposed Schedule 3A, Part 5 provides that when the Commission is constituted by a non-presidential member, the member is to use the member's best endeavours to settle a dispute before making a determination in relation to a dispute. The proposed part provides the Commission with powers to require evidence in relation to a proceeding allocated to the POSS Division. Refusing or failing to comply with a requirement carries a maximum penalty of 50 penalty units. A person is not required to answer a question in relation to a proceeding if the answer would incriminate the person.

Schedule 2[1]–[13] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 3 Consequential amendments of other legislation

Schedule 3 makes consequential amendments to the following legislation—

- (a) the Industrial Relations Act 1996,

- (b) the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987,
- (c) the State Authorities Superannuation Regulation 2020,
- (d) the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013,
- (e) the Victims Rights and Support Regulation 2019.

(2)	This part does not apply to or in relation to a police officer who is not a contributor to the police officer support scheme.	38 39
Division 3	Additional functions for ICNSW	40
199F	Additional functions for ICNSW	41
(1)	The functions of ICNSW under the State Insurance and Care Governance Act 2015 , section 10 include conducting reviews of decisions made under regulations made under this part.	42 43 44
(2)	The costs of exercising functions referred to in subsection (1) must be met from the Self Insurance Fund established under the NSW Self Insurance Corporation Act 2004 , section 11.	45 46 47

(3)	In this section— ICNSW has the same meaning as in the State Insurance and Care Governance Act 2015 .	1 2 3
Division 4	Additional jurisdiction and functions for Personal Injury Commission, members and medical assessors	4 5
199G	Terms used in Personal Injury Commission Act 2020	6
	If a term is used in this part or regulations under this part and in the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 and is not defined in this part or the regulations, the term has the same meaning as in the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 unless the contrary intention appears.	7 8 9 10
199H	Additional jurisdiction or functions conferred or imposed on Personal Injury Commission, members and medical assessors	11 12
(1)	The jurisdiction and functions conferred or imposed on the Commission under this part or by regulations under this part include hearing and determining applications regarding disputes about decisions made under regulations made under this part. Note— The Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 , section 24 provides that the Personal Injury Commission has the jurisdiction and functions conferred or imposed on the Commission by any legislation.	13 14 15 16 17 18 19
(2)	A member of the Personal Injury Commission has the functions conferred or imposed on the member under this part or by regulations under this part. Note— The Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 , section 11 provides that a member of the Personal Injury Commission has any functions conferred or imposed on the member by any legislation.	20 21 22 23 24
(3)	A medical assessor appointed under the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 , section 33(1)(b1) has the functions conferred or imposed on the medical assessor by regulations made under this part. Note— The Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 , section 33(1)(b1) provides that the President of the Personal Injury Commission may appoint persons to be medical assessors for the purposes of the police officer support scheme.	25 26 27 28 29 30
199I	Appeal against decision of Personal Injury Commission constituted by non-presidential member	31 32
(1)	This section applies if the regulations provide for the referral of the determination about disputes of decisions made in relation to the police officer support scheme to the Personal Injury Commission.	33 34 35
(2)	A party to a dispute may appeal to the Commission, constituted by a presidential member, against a decision in relation to the dispute by the Commission constituted by a non-presidential member.	36 37 38
(3)	An appeal must be made by application to the President.	39
(4)	The appeal must not proceed unless the President is satisfied the procedural requirements of this section and any applicable rules of the Commission (the Commission rules) about the making of an appeal have been complied with.	40 41 42
(5)	The President is not required to be satisfied about the substance of the appeal.	43
(6)	There is no appeal under this section against an interlocutory decision except with the leave of the Commission.	44 45

- (7) The Commission must not grant leave unless, in the Commission’s opinion, determining the appeal is necessary or desirable for the proper and effective determination of the dispute. 1
- (8) The appeal must be made within— 4
(a) 28 days after the decision appealed against is made, or 5
(b) a longer period determined or allowed, whether generally or for the kind of proceedings, in accordance with the commission rules. 6
- (9) An appeal under this section is limited to a determination of whether the decision appealed against was or was not affected by an error of fact, law or discretion, and to the correction of the error. 8
10
- (10) The appeal is not a review or new hearing. 11
- (11) An appeal under this section stays the operation of the decision appealed against pending the determination of the appeal. 12
13
- (12) However, an appeal does not stay or otherwise affect the operation of a decision about weekly payments and weekly payments remain payable despite any appeal. 14
15
16
- (13) Fresh evidence or evidence in addition to or in substitution for the evidence received in relation to the decision appealed against may not be given on an appeal to the Commission except with the leave of the Commission. 17
18
19
- (14) The Commission must not grant leave unless satisfied the evidence was not available to the party, and could not reasonably have been obtained by the party, before the proceedings or that failure to grant leave would cause substantial injustice in the case. 20 21
23
- (15) On appeal, the decision may be confirmed or may be revoked and a new decision made in its place. 24
25
- (16) Alternatively, the matter may be remitted back to the non-presidential member, or to another non-presidential member, for determination in accordance with any decision or directions of the Commission, including, in relation to a decision about the degree of permanent impairment resulting from an injury, a direction to refer the matter for assessment by a medical assessor under the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998, Chapter 7, Part 7. 26
27
28
29
30
31
32
- (17) The Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014, Schedule 2, clause 2 applies to and in relation to the provision of legal services in connection with an appeal to the Commission under this section in the same way as it applies to and in relation to the provision of legal services in connection with a claim or defence of a claim for damages referred to in that clause. 33
34
35
36
37
Note— The Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014, Schedule 2, clause 2 prohibits a law practice from providing legal services in connection with a claim or defence unless a legal practitioner associate responsible for the provision of the services believes, on the basis of provable facts and a reasonably arguable view of the law, that the claim or defence has reasonable prospects of success. 38
39
40
41
42
- (18) In this section— 43
decision includes an award, interim award, order, determination, ruling and direction. 44 45
- 199J Appeal against decision of Personal Injury Commission constituted by presidential member 46
47
- (1) If a party to proceedings in relation to the police officer support scheme before the Personal Injury Commission constituted by a presidential member is 48
49

aggrieved by a decision of the presidential member on a point of law, the party may appeal to the Court of Appeal.	1 2
(2) The Court of Appeal may, on the hearing of any appeal under this section—	3
(a) remit the matter to the Commission constituted by a presidential member for determination by the Commission in accordance with any decision of the Court, or	4 5 6
(b) make another order in relation to the appeal the Court thinks appropriate.	7 8
(3) A decision of the Court of Appeal on an appeal under this section is binding on the Commission and on all the parties to the proceedings in relation to which the appeal was made.	9 10 11
(4) The following appeals under this section may be made only with leave of the Court of Appeal—	12 13
(a) an appeal from an interlocutory decision,	14
(b) an appeal from a decision as to costs only,	15
(c) an appeal from a decision made with the consent of the parties.	16
(5) In this section—	17
decision includes an award, interim award, order, determination, ruling and direction.	18 19
Division 5 Other matters	20
199K Application of privacy legislation	21
(1) The following Acts, and regulations and other instruments made under the Acts, do not apply in relation to information to the extent the information is necessary for the purposes of the administration or operation of the police officer support scheme and any associated workers compensation claims—	22 23 24 25
(a) the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 ,	26
(b) the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 .	27
(2) For subsection (1), the administration or operation of the police officer support scheme includes—	28 29
(a) the conduct by ICNSW of reviews of decisions made under regulations made under this part, and	30 31
(b) the hearing and determination by the Personal Injury Commission of applications regarding disputes about decisions made under regulations made under this part, including medical assessments undertaken in relation to a hearing and appeals against decisions made by members of the Personal Injury Commission.	32 33 34 35 36
