Same-Sex Marriage Bill 2013

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to allow for adults of the same sex to enter into a same-sex marriage.

Outline of provisions

Part 1 Preliminary

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Clause 3 defines certain words and expressions used in the proposed Act.

Part 2 Same-sex marriages

Part 2 (clauses 4–18) sets out the requirements for same-sex marriages. Clause 6 provides that same-sex marriages are required to be solemnised by authorised celebrants, and may be solemnised on any day, at any time and at any place in New South Wales. The proposed Part also sets out the grounds of eligibility for same-sex marriages, the notices and declarations that must be given before same-sex marriages may be solemnised, the form and wording of same-sex marriage ceremonies, and requirements relating to witnesses and same-sex marriage certificates.

Clause 14 provides that a same-sex marriage solemnised otherwise than in accordance with proposed Part 2 is not valid. Under clause 18, it is an offence for a person to solemnise a same-sex marriage unless the person is an authorised celebrant, and it is an offence for an authorised celebrant to solemnise a same-sex marriage except in accordance with the proposed Part (maximum penalty: $11,000, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both). Clause 18 also sets out a number of other offences relating to solemnising same-sex marriages.

Part 3 Void same-sex marriages

Part 3 (clause 19) sets out the grounds on which same-sex marriages are void, which include the following (among other grounds):

- (a) if either of the parties was already same-sex married to another person,
- (b) if either party subsequently marries another person under Commonwealth law (including a law recognised by the Commonwealth),
- (c) if either of the parties was not an adult,
- (d) if the consent of either of the parties was not real consent because of various circumstances, including duress, fraud, mistaken identity or mental incapacity.

Part 4 Dissolution and annulment

Part 4 (clauses 20–31) provides for the dissolution and annulment of same-sex marriages. Proceedings under proposed Part 4 are to be instituted in the Supreme Court. An application for a dissolution order in relation to a same-sex marriage must be based only on the ground that the same-sex marriage has broken down irretrievably (clause 21). This ground is established only if the Supreme Court is satisfied that the parties have separated and lived separately for a continuous period of at least 12 months. However, a dissolution order will not be made if the Court is satisfied that there is a reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed. Clause 22 deals with the meaning of separation and clause 23 deals with the effect of resumption of cohabitation.

A dissolution order takes effect one month from the making of the order, subject to certain circumstances. If a dissolution order has taken effect, the parties may same-sex marry again under the proposed Act.

An application for a decree of nullity of a same-sex marriage must be based on the ground that the same-sex marriage is void (clause 24).

Part 5 Authorised celebrants

Division 1 (clause 32) provides that the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages is authorised to solemnise same-sex marriages and that the Minister may authorise other persons employed in the Public Service and statutory officers to solemnise same-sex marriages.

Division 2 (clauses 33–42) provides for the registration of same-sex marriage celebrants, including provisions relating to the register of same-sex marriage celebrants, the requirements for entitlement to be registered and applications for registration. The effect of registration is that the registered same-sex marriage celebrant may solemnise same-sex marriages at any place in New South Wales.

The proposed Division also provides for performance reviews and disciplinary measures in relation to same-sex marriage celebrants. Certain decisions of the Registrar with respect to same-sex marriage celebrants are reviewable.

Part 6 Interstate same-sex marriages

Part 6 (clause 43) provides for same-sex marriages under the laws of other States or Territories to be recognised for the purposes of the law of New South Wales.

Part 7    Miscellaneous

Part 7 (clauses 44–52) creates a number of offences, including an offence of going through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with a person who is not an adult (maximum penalty: imprisonment for 2 years) and an offence of bigamy (maximum penalty: imprisonment for 5 years).

The proposed Part also contains several miscellaneous provisions. Clause 48 provides that proceedings for offences under the proposed Act are to be dealt with summarily before the Local Court, except for the offences of same-sex marriage with a person who is not an adult and bigamy, which are to be prosecuted on indictment. Clause 50 enables the Governor to make regulations for the purposes of the proposed Act and clause 51 enables rules of court to be made under the Supreme Court Act 1970 with respect to applications and service of documents under the proposed Act. Clause 52 provides for the review of the proposed Act in 5 years.

Schedule 1    Amendment of Acts

Schedule 1 makes amendments consequential on the enactment of the proposed Act to the Acts specified in the Schedule.

	This Part applies to and in relation to all same-sex marriages solemnised, or intended to be solemnised, in New South Wales.	3 4
5	Eligibility to same-sex marry	5
	Two persons are eligible to be same-sex married under this Act if:	6

	(b) both are adults, and	8
	(c) neither person is same-sex married under this Act or under the law of another State or Territory, and	9 10
	(d) neither person is married under Commonwealth law, and	11
	(e) at least one of them ordinarily resides in New South Wales, and	12
	(f) they are not in a prohibited relationship.	13
6	Solemnising of same-sex marriages	14
(1)	Same-sex marriages are required to be solemnised by authorised celebrants.	15
(2)	A same-sex marriage may be solemnised on any day, at any time and at any place in New South Wales.	16 17
7	Notice of intention to same-sex marry and marital status declaration	18
(1)	A same-sex marriage must not be solemnised unless:	19
	(a) notice in writing of the intended same-sex marriage (a notice of intention to same-sex marry ) has been given in accordance with this section and has been received by the authorised celebrant solemnising the same-sex marriage:	20 21 22
	(i) not earlier than 18 months before the date of the same-sex marriage, and	23
	(ii) not later than one month before the date of the same-sex marriage, and	24
	(b) the authorised celebrant has been given, in respect of each of the parties:	25
	(i) an official certificate, or an official extract of an entry in an official register, showing the date and place of birth of the party, or	26 27
	(ii) a statutory declaration made by the party or a parent of the party stating that, for reasons specified in the declaration, it is impracticable to obtain such a certificate or extract and stating, to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief and as accurately as the declarant has been able to ascertain, when and where the party was born, or	28 29 30 31 32
	(iii) a passport issued by the Commonwealth or by a government of an overseas country, showing the date and place of birth of the party, and	33 34
	(c) each of the parties has made and signed before the authorised celebrant a declaration (a marital status declaration ), in the form prescribed by the regulations, as to:	35 36 37
	(i) the party's marital status, and	38
	(ii) the party's belief that there is no legal impediment to the same-sex marriage, and	39 40
	(iii) such other matters as are prescribed by the regulations.	41
(2)	The marital status declarations of the parties to an intended same-sex marriage must be written on the one piece of paper and on the same side of that paper.	42 43

- (3) A notice of intention to same-sex marry: 1
- (a) must be in the form prescribed by the regulations and include such particulars 2 in relation to the parties as are indicated in the form, and 3
  - (b) must be signed by each of the parties in the presence of: 4
    - (i) an authorised celebrant, or 5
    - (ii) a justice of the peace, public notary or other person having authority to 6
administer an oath under the Oaths Act 1900. 7
- (4) However, if a party to an intended same-sex marriage is not able to sign the notice of 8 intention to same-sex marry in accordance with subsection (3) (b) by the time the 9 notice is required to be given under this section, a notice of intention to same-sex 10 marry duly signed by the other party and otherwise complying with this section is, if 11 it is signed by the first-mentioned party in the presence of an authorised celebrant 12 before the same-sex marriage is solemnised, taken to be sufficient notice for the 13 purposes of this section. 14
- (5) A notice of intention to same-sex marry is not ineffective for the purposes of this 15
section if: 16
- (a) a party to the intended same-sex marriage is unable, after reasonable inquiry, 17 to ascertain all the particulars in relation to that party required to be included 18
in the notice, and 19
  - (b) at any time before the same-sex marriage is solemnised, that party provides the 20 authorised celebrant solemnising the same-sex marriage with a statutory 21 declaration: 22
    - (i) explaining that party's inability to ascertain the particulars not included 23
in the notice, and 24
    - (ii) explaining the reasons for that inability. 25
- (6) An authorised celebrant must, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice of 26 intention to same-sex marry, give the parties a document in the form approved by the 27
Registrar outlining the obligations and consequences of same-sex marriage and 28 indicating the availability of same-sex marriage education and counselling. 29
- (7) If, by reason of the death, absence or illness of an authorised celebrant to whom a 30 notice of intention to same-sex marry has been given, or for any other reason, it is 31 impossible or impracticable for that person to solemnise the same-sex marriage, the 32 same-sex marriage may be solemnised by any authorised celebrant who has 33 possession of the notice. 34
- (8) An authorised celebrant must not solemnise a same-sex marriage: 35
- (a) unless the authorised celebrant is satisfied that the parties are the parties 36 referred to in the notice of intention to same-sex marry in relation to the 37 same-sex marriage, or 38
  - (b) if the authorised celebrant has reason to believe that any of the following 39 documents in relation to the same-sex marriage contains a false statement or 40 an error or is defective: 41
    - (i) a notice of intention to same-sex marry, 42
    - (ii) a marital status declaration, 43
    - (iii) a statutory declaration made for the purposes of this section. 44
- (9) An authorised celebrant may: 45
- (a) permit an error in a notice of intention to same-sex marry to be corrected in his 46 or her presence by either of the parties at any time before the same-sex 47 marriage to which it relates has been solemnised, and 48

(b)	treat the corrected notice as having been originally given in its corrected form.	1
(10)	If the marital status declaration of a party states that the party is a divorced person or a widow or widower, an authorised celebrant must not solemnise the same-sex marriage unless the authorised celebrant is provided with evidence of the party's divorce, or of the death of the party's spouse, as the case requires.	2 3 4 5
(11)	If the marital status declaration of a party states that the party was a party to a same-sex marriage that has been dissolved or declared void, an authorised celebrant must not solemnise the same-sex marriage unless the authorised celebrant is provided with evidence of the dissolution of the same-sex marriage or a declaration that the same-sex marriage is void.	6 7 8 9 10
8	Witnesses	11
	A same-sex marriage must not be solemnised unless at least 2 persons who are, or appear to the authorised celebrant solemnising the same-sex marriage to be, adults are present as witnesses.	12 13 14
9	Form of ceremony	15
(1)	If a same-sex marriage is solemnised by an authorised celebrant who is a minister of religion, it may be solemnised according to any form and ceremony recognised as sufficient for the purpose of the religious body or organisation of which he or she is a minister.	16 17 18 19
(2)	If a same-sex marriage is solemnised by an authorised celebrant who is not a minister of religion, it is sufficient if each of the parties says to the other, in the presence of the authorised celebrant and the witnesses, the following words (or words to the same effect): "I call upon the persons here present to witness that I, [ name of party ], take you, [ name of other party ], to be my lawful wedded spouse".	20 21 22 23 24 25
10	Authorised celebrants to explain nature of same-sex marriage relationship	26
	Before a same-sex marriage is solemnised by an authorised celebrant, the authorised celebrant is to say to the parties, in the presence of the witnesses, the following words: "I am duly authorised under the Same-Sex Marriage Act 2013 of New South Wales to solemnise same-sex marriages. "Before you are duly wed in my presence and the presence of these witnesses, I remind you of the solemn and binding nature of the relationship into which you are about to enter. "Under the law, this wedding recognises that you are voluntarily entering into a lawful and binding union, for life, to the exclusion of all others".	27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36
11	Ministers of religion not bound to solemnise same-sex marriages	37
	This Part does not:	38
(a)	prevent an authorised celebrant who is a minister of religion from making it a condition of his or her solemnising a same-sex marriage that:	39 40
(i)	longer notice of intention to same-sex marry than that required by this Act is given, or	41 42
(ii)	requirements additional to those provided by this Act are observed, or	43
(b)	require a minister of religion to make a place (such as a church or other place of public worship) available for solemnising a same-sex marriage.	44 45

12 Same-sex marriage certificates	1
(1) If an authorised celebrant solemnises a same-sex marriage, the authorised celebrant must:	2
	3
(a) prepare a certificate of the same-sex marriage, in the form prescribed by the regulations, to give to the parties to the same-sex marriage, and	4
	5
(b) prepare 2 official certificates of the same-sex marriage in the form prescribed by the regulations.	6
	7
(2) Despite subsection (1) (b), the regulations may provide that an authorised celebrant who is a person authorised to solemnise same-sex marriages under Division 1 of Part 5 is to prepare only one official certificate under that paragraph.	8
	10
(3) Immediately after the solemnisation of the same-sex marriage, the authorised celebrant, each of the parties to the same-sex marriage and 2 witnesses of the same-sex marriage who are, or appear to the authorised celebrant to be, adults must sign each of the certificates so prepared.	11
	12
	14
(4) One of the official certificates or the official certificate (as the case requires) must be on the reverse side of the paper bearing the marital status declarations made by the parties.	15
	16
	17
(5) The authorised celebrant must hand the certificate referred to in subsection (1) (a) to one of the parties to the same-sex marriage on behalf of the parties, and:	18
	19
(a) if 2 official certificates have been prepared:	20
(i) within 14 days after the solemnisation of the same-sex marriage, forward the official certificate to which subsection (4) applies, together with the notice of intention to same-sex marry and any statutory declarations relating to the same-sex marriage that are in his or her possession, to the Registrar, and	21
	22
	23
	24
	25
(ii) retain the other official certificate and deal with it in accordance with the regulations, or	26
	27
(b) if only one official certificate has been prepared, retain that certificate and deal with it in accordance with the regulations.	28
	29
(6) If the authorised celebrant dies without having prepared and signed the certificates of the same-sex marriage, or if due to other special circumstances the Registrar thinks it necessary to do so, the Registrar may, if satisfied that the same-sex marriage was duly solemnised, prepare and sign the certificates with such modifications as the Registrar thinks appropriate.	30
	31
	32
	33
	34
(7) A certificate prepared and signed by the Registrar under subsection (6) has the same force and effect as if it had been prepared and signed in accordance with this section by the authorised celebrant.	35
	36
	37
(8) The regulations may provide for the provision of a substitute certificate in the event of the loss or destruction of a certificate of same-sex marriage previously given under this section.	38
	39
13 Interpreters at same-sex marriage ceremonies	41
(1) If the authorised celebrant by whom a same-sex marriage is to be solemnised considers that it is appropriate to do so, the authorised celebrant may use the services of an interpreter, not being a party to the same-sex marriage, in or in connection with the ceremony.	42
	43
	45
(2) An authorised celebrant must not solemnise a same-sex marriage in or in connection with the ceremony for which the services of an interpreter are used unless the authorised celebrant has received a statutory declaration by the interpreter stating	46
	47

that the interpreter understands, and is able to converse in, the languages in respect of which he or she is to act as interpreter.	1
Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.	2
(3) A person who has acted as interpreter in or in connection with a ceremony of same-sex marriage must, as soon as practicable after the ceremony has been solemnised, provide the authorised celebrant with a certificate signed by the person, and in the form prescribed by the regulations, of the faithful performance of the person's services as interpreter.	3
Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.	4
14 Same-sex marriages invalid if not duly solemnised	5
(1) A same-sex marriage solemnised in New South Wales otherwise than in accordance with this Part is not a valid same-sex marriage.	6
(2) However, a same-sex marriage is not invalid merely because the person solemnising it was not authorised by this Act to do so.	7
(3) Subsection (2) applies only if, at the time the same-sex marriage was solemnised, either party to the same-sex marriage believed that the person solemnising the same-sex marriage was authorised to solemnise it. In any such case, the form and ceremony of the same-sex marriage are taken to have been sufficient for the purposes of this Part if they were such as to show an intention on the part of each of the parties to become, by the solemnisation, the lawful same-sex married spouse of the other.	8
15 Second same-sex marriage ceremonies	9
(1) If:	10
(a) 2 persons have gone through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other, and	11
(b) there is a doubt:	12
(i) whether those persons are parties to a valid same-sex marriage with each other, or	13
(ii) whether their same-sex marriage could be proved in legal proceedings,	14
those persons may, subject to this section, go through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other as if they had not previously gone through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other.	15
(2) If 2 persons decide to go through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other under subsection (1), they must furnish to the authorised celebrant by whom the form or ceremony is to be performed:	16
(a) a statutory declaration by them stating that they have previously gone through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other and specifying the date on which, the place at which and the circumstances in which they went through that form or ceremony, and	17
(b) a certificate by an Australian legal practitioner, being a certificate endorsed on the statutory declaration, that, on the facts stated in the declaration, there is, in his or her opinion, a doubt as to one of the matters specified in subsection (1) (b).	18
(3) The authorised celebrant by whom a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage is performed under subsection (1) must make an endorsement in accordance with the regulations on each certificate issued in respect of that ceremony.	19

16	Subsequent religious ceremonies of same-sex marriage	1
(1)	Nothing in this Part prevents 2 persons who are already parties to a valid same-sex marriage with each other from going through a religious ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other if those persons have:	2
		4
(a)	produced to the person by whom the ceremony is to be performed a certificate of their existing same-sex marriage, and	5
		6
(b)	given that person a statement in writing, signed by them and witnessed by that person, that:	7
		8
(i)	they have previously gone through a form or ceremony of same-sex marriage with each other, and	9
		10
(ii)	they are the parties mentioned in the certificate of same-sex marriage produced with the statement, and	11
		12
(iii)	they have no reason to believe that they are not parties to a valid same-sex marriage with each other.	13
		14
(2)	Sections 7 and 12 do not apply to or in relation to a religious ceremony of same-sex marriage performed in accordance with this section and the person by whom the religious ceremony is performed is not to:	15
		16
		17
(a)	prepare or issue in respect of it any certificate of same-sex marriage under this Act, or	18
		19
(b)	issue any other document to the parties in respect of the ceremony unless the parties are described in the document as already being parties to a valid same-sex marriage with each other.	20
		21
		22
(3)	A person who is not an authorised celebrant does not commit an offence under this Part by reason only of his or her having performed a religious ceremony of same-sex marriage between parties who have complied with the requirements of this section.	23
		24
17	Incorrect same-sex marriage certificates	26
(1)	If the Registrar is satisfied, by statutory declaration or otherwise, that any particular in a certificate of same-sex marriage prepared and signed under section 12 is incorrect, the Registrar may:	27
		28
		29
(a)	in the case of a certificate that has been handed to a party to the same-sex marriage or retained by the authorised celebrant—correct the certificate, and	30
		31
(b)	in the case of a certificate that has been forwarded to the Registrar—certify that a specified correction is necessary.	32
		33

Part 4 Dissolution and annulment

Note. This Part is about the dissolution and annulment of same-sex marriages. Couples who are same-sex married are not legally married for the purposes of the Commonwealth law but they may be de facto partners for the purposes of the Commonwealth law. In particular, Part VIIIAB of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth deals with financial matters arising out of the breakdown (other than by reason of death) of de facto relationships, including between persons of the same sex.

The Commonwealth law does not recognise same-sex marriages but the fact that persons are same-sex married under this Act does not prevent them from being de facto partners for the purposes of the Commonwealth law. If those persons are not de facto partners for the purposes of the Commonwealth law, but are in a domestic relationship within the meaning of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 of New South Wales, that Act will apply to financial matters arising from any breakdown in the relationship.

20 Institution of proceedings in Supreme Court

(1) Proceedings:

- (a) for a dissolution order or a decree of nullity in relation to a same-sex marriage, or
- (b) for a declaration as to the validity of:
  - (i) a same-sex marriage, or
  - (ii) a dissolution in relation to the same-sex marriage, or
  - (iii) the annulment of a same-sex marriage,

may be instituted in the Supreme Court.

(2) Except as otherwise prescribed by the regulations or the rules of court, any such proceedings are to be instituted by application to the Supreme Court.

(3) Proceedings under this Part for:

- (a) a dissolution order in relation to a same-sex marriage, or
- (b) a decree of nullity of a same-sex marriage, may be instituted by either party to the same-sex marriage or jointly by both parties to the same-sex marriage.

21 Dissolution of same-sex marriage

(1) An application for a dissolution order in relation to a same-sex marriage is to be based only on the ground that the same-sex marriage has broken down irretrievably.

(2) In proceedings instituted by such an application, the ground is taken to have been established, and a dissolution order in relation to the same-sex marriage may be made, if, and only if, the Supreme Court is satisfied that the parties have separated and lived separately and apart for a continuous period of not less than 12 months immediately preceding the date of the filing of the application for a dissolution order in relation to the same-sex marriage.

(3) However, a dissolution order in relation to a same-sex marriage is not to be made if the Supreme Court is satisfied that there is a reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed.

22 Meaning of separation

(1) The parties to a same-sex marriage may be taken to have separated despite the fact that the cohabitation was brought to an end by the action or conduct of only one of the parties.

(2) The parties to a same-sex marriage may be taken to have separated and to have lived separately and apart despite the fact that they have continued to reside in the same residence or that either party has rendered some household services to the other.

23	Effect of resumption of cohabitation	1
(1)	For the purposes of proceedings for a dissolution order in relation to a same-sex marriage, if, after the parties to the same-sex marriage separated, they resumed cohabitation on one occasion but, within a period of 3 months after the resumption of cohabitation, they again separated and after that separation lived separately and apart up to the date of the filing of the application, the periods of living separately and apart before and after the period of cohabitation may be aggregated as if they were one continuous period, but the period of cohabitation is not to be taken to be part of the period of living separately and apart.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
(2)	For the purposes of subsection (1), a period of cohabitation is taken to have continued during any interruption of the cohabitation that, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, was not substantial.	10 11 12
24	Nullity of same-sex marriage	13
	An application under this Part for a decree of nullity of a same-sex marriage is to be based on the ground that the same-sex marriage is void.	14 15
25	Court not to make dissolution order where application for decree of nullity before it	16
	If an application for a decree of nullity of a same-sex marriage and an application for a dissolution order in relation to that same-sex marriage are both before the Supreme Court, the Court must not make a dissolution order in relation to the same-sex marriage unless it has dismissed the application for a decree of nullity of the same-sex marriage.	17 18 19 20 21
26	Circumstances occurring before commencement of Act or outside New South Wales	22
	An order or a decree may be made, or refused, under this Part by reason of facts and circumstances despite those facts and circumstances, or some of them, having taken place before the commencement of this Act or outside New South Wales.	23 24 25
27	When dissolution order takes effect	26
(1)	Subject to this section, a dissolution order takes effect at the expiration of a period of one month from the making of the order.	27 28
(2)	A dissolution order does not take effect if either of the parties to the same-sex marriage dies before the dissolution order takes effect.	29 30
(3)	If an appeal is instituted before a dissolution order takes effect, the dissolution order takes effect:	31 32
(a)	at the expiration of a period of one month from the day on which the appeal is determined or discontinued, or	33 34
(b)	on the day on which the dissolution order would have taken effect under subsection (1) if no appeal had been instituted,	35 36
	whichever is the later.	37
(4)	For the purposes of subsection (3), appeal includes an application for a rehearing.	38
28	Certificate as to dissolution order	39
(1)	If a dissolution order takes effect, the Registrar of the Supreme Court must prepare and file a memorandum of the fact and of the date on which the dissolution order took effect.	40 41 42
(2)	If a dissolution order has taken effect, any person is entitled, on application to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, to receive a certificate signed by the Registrar of the Court that the dissolution order has taken effect.	43 44 45

(3)	A certificate given under subsection (2) is, in all courts and for all purposes, evidence of the matters specified in the certificate.	1 2
29	Rescission of dissolution order where parties reconciled	3
	Despite any provision of this Part, if a dissolution order has been made in relation to a same-sex marriage, the Supreme Court may, at any time before the order takes effect, on the application of the parties to the same-sex marriage, rescind the dissolution order on the ground that the parties have become reconciled.	4 5 6 7
30	Rescission of dissolution order on ground of miscarriage of justice	8
	If a dissolution order has been made in proceedings under this Part but has not taken effect, the Supreme Court may, on the application of a party to the proceedings, or on the intervention of the Attorney General, and if it is satisfied that there has been a miscarriage of justice by reason of fraud, perjury, suppression of evidence or any other circumstance, rescind the dissolution order and, if it thinks fit, order that the proceedings be reheard.	9 10 11 12 13 14
31	Remarriage	15
	If a dissolution order under this Part in relation to a same-sex marriage has taken effect, a party to the same-sex marriage may same-sex marry again under this Act.	16 17
