[1]    Section 154FA

Insert before section 154G:

154FA    Termination by Tribunal in certain cases of tenant fraud

- (1) This section applies to social housing tenancy agreements under which the landlord is the New South Wales Land and Housing Corporation.
- (2) The Tribunal must, on application by the landlord, make a termination order if it is satisfied that the tenant has been found guilty of an offence under section 69 or 69A of the Housing Act 2001.
- (3) Before making an application, the landlord must advise the tenant, by notice in writing, of the decision to do so and the grounds on which the application is to be made. However, the landlord may make an application under this section without giving the tenant a termination notice.
- (4) The Tribunal may make a termination order under this section that takes effect before the end of the fixed term if the social housing tenancy agreement is a fixed term agreement.
- (5) The Tribunal is not required to make a termination order under this section if the tenant satisfies the Tribunal that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the order not being made.
- (6) If the Tribunal does not make a termination order as a consequence of subsection (5), the Tribunal must provide written reasons for the decision.

[2]    Part 7, Division 8

Insert after section 156B:

Division 8      Rental bonds

156C    Termination notice for non-payment of rental bond

- (1) This section applies to social housing tenancy agreements under which the landlord is the New South Wales Land and Housing Corporation or the Aboriginal Housing Office.
- (2) A landlord may give a termination notice to a tenant if the tenant fails to pay all or part of a rental bond.
- (3) A termination notice may be given under this section whether the tenant was required to pay the rental bond at the time the tenant entered into the social housing tenancy agreement or at a later time.
- (4) The termination notice must specify a termination date that is not earlier than 14 days after the day on which the notice is given.
- (5) The termination notice may specify a termination date that is before the end of the fixed term of the social housing tenancy agreement if it is a fixed term agreement.
- (6) Sections 88 and 89 (1)–(4) apply to a failure to pay a rental bond in the same way as they apply to a failure to pay rent under a residential tenancy agreement. For that purpose, a reference in those sections to rent is to be read as a reference to a rental bond and a reference to a non-payment termination notice is to be read as a termination notice under this section.

156D Payment of rental bond during social housing tenancy agreements

- (1) This section applies to social housing tenancy agreements under which the landlord is the New South Wales Land and Housing Corporation or the Aboriginal Housing Office.

Note. Part 8 applies to a rental bond required to be paid under this section in the same way as it applies to a rental bond required to be paid under the original terms of a residential tenancy agreement.
- (3) A tenant may be required to pay a rental bond under this section only if:
  - (a) the tenant did not pay a rental bond at the time the tenant entered into the social housing tenancy agreement, and
  - (b) the tenant belongs to a class of tenant specified in the rental bond guidelines, and
  - (c) the tenant is given a written notice by the landlord or the landlord's agent specifying the amount of the rental bond payable and the day by which it must be paid, and
  - (d) the notice is given at least 14 days before the rental bond is payable, and
  - (e) the amount of the rental bond is determined in accordance with the rental bond guidelines.
- (4) This section does not affect the right of a landlord under Part 8 to require a tenant to pay a rental bond at the time the tenant enters into a residential tenancy agreement.
- (5) The rental bond guidelines are to be made publicly available.
- (6) A copy of the rental bond guidelines is to be provided, on request, to any tenant to which this section applies free of charge and to other persons either free of charge or on payment of reasonable copying charges.
