- (2) If a public holiday occurs while an officer or temporary employee is taking extended leave, the amount of extended leave to be deducted is to be reduced by the length of the holiday (one day or half a day, as the case may be).
- (3) In subclause (2), public holiday means any special or public holiday for which the officer or temporary employee is entitled to payment.

9 Extended leave may be postponed for temporary employees

If the period of extended leave to which a temporary employee is entitled under this Schedule exceeds the period for which the employee is employed under this Act, the balance of the period of extended leave may be taken during subsequent periods of employment in the Public Service, but only if each subsequent period of employment commences on the termination of a previous period of employment in the Public Service.

- (a) under Schedule 3 (in the case of an officer or temporary employee), or
- (b) under some other Act or law, such as an award or industrial agreement (in any other case).

7 Leave already taken, paid or deemed to have been taken excluded

- (2) The amount of extended leave that the public sector employee is deemed to have taken is calculated as if:
- (a) leave had accrued in relation to his or her service in the former agency at the same rate as leave accrues in relation to his or her service in the current agency, and
 - (b) the service in the former agency in respect of which leave accrued was the whole of the service recognised by the former agency for the purpose of calculating his or her extended leave entitlement, and
