

New South Wales

Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards Bill 2013

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are as follows:

- (a) to constitute the Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards (the Board) and to confer on it functions currently exercised by the Board of Studies under the Education Act 1990 and the NSW Institute of Teachers under the Institute of Teachers Act 2004,
- (b) to dissolve the Board of Studies and the NSW Institute of Teachers and to make consequential and other amendments of an administrative nature to the Education Act 1990 and the Institute of Teachers Act 2004.

Outline of provisions

Part 1 Preliminary

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or day to be appointed by proclamation (except for a consequential amendment to the proposed Act that will coincide with the commencement of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013).

Clause 3 defines certain words and expressions used in the proposed Act. The term education and teaching legislation covers the proposed Act, the Education Act 1990 and the Institute of Teachers Act 2004.

Part 2 Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards

Clause 4 constitutes the Board as a body corporate.

Clause 5 provides that the Board is to consist of the President of the Board, 3 ex-officio members nominated by the Director-General of the Department of Education and Communities and 19 members appointed by the Minister from various education and teaching sectors.

Clause 6 specifies the principal objective of the Board and its functions.

Clause 7 establishes the office of President of the Board.

Clause 8 specifies the principal functions of the President.

Clause 9 enables a person to be appointed by the Minister to act in the office of President.

Clause 10 provides for persons to be employed in the Public Service to enable the Board to exercise its functions.

Clause 11 provides for committees of the Board.

Clause 12 enables the Board to delegate its functions.

Part 3 Inspections

Clause 13 provides for the appointment of persons as inspectors for the purposes of the education and teaching legislation.

Clause 14 confers powers of inspectors in relation to the inspection of schools and premises of persons who provide courses to overseas students. These powers are currently contained in the Education Act 1990.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

Clause 15 establishes the Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards Fund which is a continuation of the Institute of Teachers Fund under the Institute of Teachers Act 2004.

Clause 16 enables the Board to enter into information sharing arrangements with relevant agencies such as the Department of Education and Communities. Such arrangements may extend to information relating to the teaching workforce and teacher quality.

Clause 17 makes it an offence to make a false statement in documents (such as applications for accreditation as a teacher) provided to the Minister or the Board under the education and teaching legislation.

Clause 18 protects members of the Board or a committee of the Board, or members of staff of the Board, from personal liability for things done or omitted to be done in good faith under the teaching and education legislation.

Clause 19 enables the Board to acquire property by gift, devise or bequest.

Clause 20 provides for the manner of serving documents on the Board.

Clause 21 provides for the service of documents on persons under the education and teaching legislation.

Clause 22 provides for offences under the education and teaching legislation to be dealt with summarily.

Clause 23 enables offences under the education and teaching legislation to be dealt with by way of penalty notices.

Clause 24 enables the Governor to make regulations for the purposes of the proposed Act.

Clause 25 enables the Board to make rules in respect of its functions. Such a power is currently contained in the Education Act 1990 in respect of the Board of Studies.

Clause 26 provides for the review of the proposed Act within 5 years.

Schedule 1 Members and procedure of Board

Schedule 1 contains provisions relating to members and procedure of the Board that are standard provisions for statutory corporations. Provision is included in relation to the nomination of the appointed members and to ensure that certain education and teacher related interests are represented on the Board.

Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 2 provides for the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act or any Act that amends the proposed Act. The Schedule also dissolves the Board of Studies and the NSW Institute of Teachers (including its Board of Governance) and provides for the transfer of the assets, rights and liabilities of the former bodies to the new Board.

Schedule 3 Amendment of Education Act 1990

Schedule 3 amends the Education Act 1990 as a consequence of the proposed Act. The registration requirements for non-government schools under section 47 of that Act are also amended to include the requirement that a school must have policies and procedures in place for the proper governance of the school and to ensure that a student enrolment and attendance register is maintained.

Schedule 4 Amendment of Institute of Teachers Act 2004

Schedule 4 amends the Institute of Teachers Act 2004 as a consequence of the proposed Act (including the repeal of administrative provisions relating to the NSW Institute of Teachers which are being replicated in the proposed Act). The name of the Act is also changed to the Teacher Accreditation Act 2004.

Schedule 5 Amendment of other Acts

Schedule 5.1 contains amendments to the proposed Act that will commence when the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 commences. These amendments include aligning the employment arrangements for the President of the Board (who will continue to be a statutory officer appointed by the Governor) with the new employment arrangements for senior executives in the Public Service under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.

Schedule 5.2 and 5.3 make consequential amendments to the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 and the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002.

7 President of Board	20
(1) The Governor may appoint a President of the Board.	21
(2) The President is to be appointed on a full-time basis.	22
(3) The employment of the President is subject to Part 3.1 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 , but is not subject to Chapter 1A of that Act.	23 24
8 Functions of President	25
The principal functions of the President are:	26
(a) to preside over meetings of the Board, and	27
(b) to oversee the functions of the Board in accordance with the Board's directions.	28 29
9 Acting President	30
(1) The Minister may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of President during the illness or absence of the President or during a vacancy in the office of President. The person, while so acting, has all the functions of the President and is taken to be the President.	31 32 33 34
(2) The Minister may, at any time, remove a person from office as acting President.	35
(3) An acting President is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine.	36 37
10 Staff of Board	38
Persons may be employed in the Public Service to enable the Board to exercise its functions.	39 40
Note. Those persons are employed under Chapter 1A of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 in the Office of the Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards. Section 4K of that Act provides that the persons so employed may be referred to	41 42 43

as the staff of the Board. The Chief Executive of the Office is a position created by section 10 of that Act.	1 2
11 Committees	3
(1) The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint such committees and members of committees as the Board considers appropriate to assist the Board in the exercise of its functions.	4 5 6
Note. The Quality Teaching Council is also established under the Teacher Accreditation Act 2004 to advise the Board in relation to its functions under that Act.	7 8
(2) The Board is not to appoint a person as a member of a committee of the Board unless the Board is of the opinion that the person has appropriate expertise to make a valuable contribution to the committee.	9 10 11
(3) It does not matter if any or all of the members of a committee are not members of the Board.	12 13
(4) The procedure of a committee of the Board is to be determined by the Board or (subject to any determination of the Board) by the committee.	14 15
12 Delegation of Board's functions	16
(1) The Board may delegate to an authorised person or body the exercise of any of its functions under the education and teaching legislation other than this power of delegation.	17 18 19
(2) In this section:	20
authorised person or body means any of the following:	21
(a) the President or a member of the Board,	22
(b) a member of staff of the Board,	23
(c) a committee of the Board,	24
(d) a person of a class prescribed by the regulations.	25

Part 3	Inspections	1
13	Appointment and identification of inspectors	2
(1)	The Board may appoint a member of staff of the Board, or any other person whose services the Board has arranged to make use of, to be an inspector for the purposes of the education and teaching legislation.	3 4 5
(2)	If a person who is not a member of staff of the Board is appointed as an inspector, the person is, in exercising functions as an inspector, subject to the control and direction of the Board.	6 7 8
(3)	The Board is to cause each inspector to be issued with a means of identification in the form approved by the Board.	9 10
14	Inspection of education premises	11
(1)	An inspector:	12
(a)	is at all reasonable times to have full and free access to any education premises and any documents that are on the premises, and	13 14
(b)	may remove, or make copies of, any such document.	15
(2)	Any such power may be exercised by an inspector only:	16
(a)	for the purposes of determining whether there has been compliance with or a contravention of the education and teaching legislation, or	17 18
(b)	for the purposes of obtaining documents for purposes connected with the administration of the education and teaching legislation, or	19 20
(c)	in connection with exercising the functions of an inspector under the education and teaching legislation.	21 22
(3)	A person who hinders or obstructs an inspector in exercising any power conferred by this section is guilty of an offence. Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.	23 24 25
(4)	A person is not guilty of an offence under subsection (3) because of any act of hindrance or obstruction unless it is established that the inspector:	26 27
(a)	identified himself or herself as an inspector, and	28
(b)	warned the person that that act constituted an offence.	29
(5)	This section does not affect any powers under any other provisions of the education and teaching legislation or under any other legislation. Note. For example, under section 24 of the Education Act 1990 an inspector may require the principal of a school to furnish a copy of the register of enrolments and attendances that is required to be kept under that section.	30 31 32 33 34
(6)	In this section: education premises means:	35 36
(a)	any school (including any proposed school in respect of which an application for registration has been made under the Education Act 1990), or	37 38
(b)	the premises of an approved provider within the meaning of Part 7A of the Education Act 1990 .	39 40

Part 4	Miscellaneous	1

(c)	any amount authorised by the Minister to be paid from the Fund, and	17
(d)	all other payments required by or under this or any other Act to be paid from the Fund.	18 19
(3)	Despite subsection (2), money held in the Fund that consists of the fees and charges paid to the Board under the Teacher Accreditation Act 2004 is to be applied only for the purposes of meeting costs incurred by the Board in connection with the accreditation of teachers under that Act and in monitoring, maintaining and developing teacher quality.	20 21 22 23 24
(4)	The Board may invest money in the Fund:	25
(a)	in such manner as may be authorised by the Public Authorities (Financial Arrangements) Act 1987 , or	26 27
(b)	if that Act does not confer power to invest money held by the Board, in accordance with and subject to the Trustee Act 1925 and in any other manner approved by the Minister with the concurrence of the Treasurer.	28 29 30
16	Exchange of information	31
(1)	The Board may enter into an arrangement (an information sharing arrangement) with a relevant agency for the purposes of sharing or exchanging any information that is held by the Board or the agency.	32 33 34
(2)	The information to which an information sharing arrangement may relate is limited to the following:	35 36
(a)	any information that assists in the exercise of the functions of the Minister or Board under the education and teaching legislation or of the relevant agency concerned,	37 38 39
(b)	data relating to the teaching workforce,	40
(c)	research on issues relating to teacher quality.	41
(3)	Under an information sharing arrangement, the Board and the relevant agency are, despite any other Act or law of the State, authorised:	42 43
(a)	to request and receive information that is held by the other party to the arrangement, and	44 45

(b)	to disclose that information to the other party.	1
(4)	This section does not limit the operation of section 83H of the Education Act 1990 or section 18 (3) of the Teacher Accreditation Act 2004 .	2 3
(5)	In this section:	4
	relevant agency means any of the following:	5
(a)	the Department of Education and Communities,	6
(b)	a teacher accreditation authority under the Teacher Accreditation Act 2004 ,	7
(c)	a university or other tertiary institution,	8
(d)	a government agency of the Commonwealth or of another State or Territory with functions similar or related to those of the Board,	9 10
(e)	any other person or body prescribed by the regulations.	11

(b)	in the case of a body corporate:	14
(i)	leaving it with a person apparently of or above the age of 16 years at, or by sending it by post to, the head office, a registered office or a principal office of the body corporate or to an address specified by the body corporate for the giving or service of documents, or	15 16 17 18
(ii)	sending it by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the body corporate.	19 20
(2)	This section does not affect the operation of any provision of a law or of the rules of a court authorising a document to be served on a person in any other manner.	21 22
22	Nature of proceedings for offences	23
	Proceedings for an offence under this Act may be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.	24 25
23	Penalty notices	26
(1)	An authorised officer may serve a penalty notice on a person if it appears to the authorised officer that the person has committed an offence under the education and teaching legislation, being an offence prescribed by the regulations as a penalty notice offence.	27 28 29 30
(2)	A penalty notice is a notice to the effect that, if the person served does not wish to have the matter determined by a court, the person can pay, within the time and to the person specified in the notice, the amount of the penalty prescribed by the regulations for the offence if dealt with under this section.	31 32 33 34
(3)	A penalty notice under this section is declared to be a penalty notice for the purposes of the Fines Act 1996 .	35 36
(4)	A penalty notice may be served personally or by post.	37
(5)	If the amount of penalty prescribed for an alleged offence is paid under this section, no person is liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.	38 39
(6)	Payment under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, and does not in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.	40 41 42
(7)	The regulations may:	43
(a)	prescribe an offence for the purposes of this section by specifying the offence or by referring to the provision creating the offence, and	44 45

(b)	prescribe the amount of penalty payable for the offence if dealt with under this section, and	1 2
(c)	prescribe different amounts of penalties for different offences or classes of offences.	3 4
(8)	The amount of a penalty prescribed under this section for an offence is not to exceed the maximum amount of penalty that could be imposed for the offence by a court.	5 6
(9)	This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.	7 8
(10)	In this section, authorised officer means a member of staff of the Board authorised in writing by the Board as an authorised officer for the purposes of this section.	9 10
24	Regulations	11
	The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.	12 13 14 15
25	Rules of Board	16
(1)	The Board may make rules, not inconsistent with the education and teaching legislation, for or with respect to the exercise of any of its functions.	17 18
(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), the rules may set out guidelines with respect to the requirements for registration, approval and accreditation under the education and teaching legislation.	19 20 21
(3)	A rule does not take effect unless approved by the Minister.	22
(4)	A rule is to be published on the Board's website and takes effect on the date of publication or a later date specified in the rule.	23 24
(5)	A copy of each rule must be available for public inspection at the Board's office during business hours.	25 26
26	Review of Act	27
(1)	The Minister is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing those objectives.	28 29 30
(2)	The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 5 years from the commencement of this Act.	31 32
(3)	A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 5 years.	33 34

(c)	at least one member who has professional experience or relevant expertise in the education of children with disabilities, and	28 29
(d)	at least one member who has professional experience or relevant expertise in Aboriginal education, and	30 31
(e)	at least one member who has professional experience or relevant expertise in the education of children from non-English speaking backgrounds, and	32 33
(f)	at least one member who has professional experience or relevant expertise in addressing the educational needs of regional and rural communities.	34 35
4	Deputy President	36
	The Minister may, on the advice of the President, appoint a member of the Board to be the Deputy President of the Board.	37 38
5	Term of office	39
	Subject to this Act, an appointed member is to hold office for such period (not exceeding 3 years) as may be specified in the instrument of the member's appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.	40 41 42

6	Alternative members	1
(1)	The Minister may, from time to time, appoint a person to be an alternative member for an appointed member of the Board.	2 3
(2)	The alternative members for appointed members are to be appointed by the Minister after consultation with the bodies responsible for nominating those members.	4 5
(3)	The provisions of this Schedule, with any necessary modifications, are to apply to and in respect of alternative members in the same way as they apply to members.	6 7
(4)	An alternative member may act in the office of the appointed member for whom he or she is the alternative member during the illness or absence of that member (or a vacancy in the office of that member) and, while so acting, has all the functions of that member and is to be taken to be that member.	8 9 10 11
7	Remuneration	12
	An appointed member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the member.	13 14 15
8	Filling of vacancy in office of appointed member	16
	If the office of any appointed member becomes vacant, a person is, subject to this Act, to be appointed to fill the vacancy.	17 18
9	Casual vacancies	19
(1)	The office of an appointed member becomes vacant if the member:	20
(a)	dies, or	21
(b)	completes a term of office and is not re-appointed, or	22
(c)	resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister, or	23
(d)	is removed from office by the Minister under this clause, or	24
(e)	is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Board of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post, except on leave granted by the Board or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Board for being absent from those meetings, or	25 26 27 28 29
(f)	becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or	30 31 32
(g)	becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or	33
(h)	is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable, or	34 35 36 37
(i)	being a member referred to in section 5 (2) (e)–(h), ceases to hold the qualifications or office necessary for his or her membership.	38 39
(2)	The Minister may remove an appointed member from office at any time.	40

10 Disclosure of pecuniary interests	1
(1) A member of the Board who, in terms of any guidelines determined by the Board for the purposes of this clause, has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest:	2
(a) in a matter that is being considered, or is about to be considered, at a meeting of the Board, or	3
(b) in a thing being done or about to be done by the Board,	4
is to disclose, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Board.	5
(2) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter or thing, the member is not, unless the Minister otherwise determines:	6
(a) to be present during any deliberation of the Board, or take part in any decision of the Board, with respect to that matter, or	7
(b) to exercise any functions under this Act with respect to that thing.	8
(3) Even though a member contravenes the provisions of this clause, the contravention does not invalidate any decision of the Board or the exercise of any function under this Act.	9
11 Effect of certain other Acts	10
(1) The statutory provisions relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to the appointment or office of an appointed member.	11
(2) If by or under any other Act provision is made:	12
(a) requiring a person who is the holder of an office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office, or	13
(b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office,	14
that provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of a member of the Board or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Act as a member.	15
(3) The office of a member of the Board is for the purposes of any Act to be taken not to be an office or place of profit under the Crown.	16
12 General procedure	17
The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Act and the regulations, to be as determined by the Board.	18
13 Quorum	19
The quorum for a meeting of the Board is 12 members.	20
14 Presiding member	21
(1) The President or, in the absence of the President, the Deputy President (or, in the absence of both, another member elected to chair the meeting by the members present) is to preside at a meeting of the Board.	22
(2) The presiding member at any meeting of the Board has a deliberative vote and, in the event of any equality of votes, has a second or casting vote.	23

15	Voting	1
	A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Board.	2 3
16	Minutes	4
	The Board is to cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings of each meeting of the Board.	5 6
17	Proof of certain matters not required	7
	In any legal proceedings, proof is not required (until evidence is given to the contrary) of:	8 9
	(a) the constitution of the Board, or	10
	(b) any resolution of the Board, or	11
	(c) the appointment of, or the holding of any qualifications or office by, any member of the Board, or	12 13
	(d) the presence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board.	14
18	First meeting of the Board	15
	The Minister is to call the first meeting of the Board in such manner as the Minister thinks fit.	16 17

Schedule 2	Savings, transitional and other provisions	1
Part 1	General	2
1	Regulations	3
(1)	The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act or any Act that amends this Act.	4 5
(2)	Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.	6 7
(3)	To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:	8 9 10
(a)	to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or	11 12 13
(b)	to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.	14 15 16

2	Dissolution of statutory bodies	18
(1)	The following bodies are dissolved:	19
(a)	the Board of Studies,	20
(b)	the NSW Institute of Teachers,	21
(c)	the Board of Governance for the NSW Institute of Teachers.	22
(2)	The assets, rights and liabilities of the Board of Studies or the NSW Institute of Teachers immediately before its dissolution become, on that dissolution, the assets, rights and liabilities of the Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards.	23 24 25
(3)	On the dissolution of the Board of Studies, each person appointed as a member of the Board of Studies ceases to hold office as such a member and is taken to be appointed under this Act as a member of the Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards for a period equivalent to the remainder of his or her term of appointment as a member of the Board of Studies and is eligible to be re-appointed at the end of that term.	26 27 28 29 30 31
(4)	The persons who were members of the Board of Governance immediately before its dissolution cease to be members of that Board and are not entitled to any remuneration or compensation because of the loss of that office.	32 33 34
(5)	In this clause:	35
	assets means any legal or equitable estate or interest (whether present or future, whether vested or contingent and whether personal or assignable) in real or personal property of any description (including money), and includes securities, choses in action and documents.	36 37 38 39
	liabilities means any liabilities, debts or obligations (whether present or future, whether vested or contingent and whether personal or assignable).	40 41
	rights means any rights, powers, privileges or immunities (whether present or future, whether vested or contingent and whether personal or assignable).	42 43

3	References to dissolved statutory bodies	1
