

New South Wales

Law Enforcement Conduct Commission Amendment Bill 2021

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Law Enforcement Conduct Commission Act 2016 (the Act) to provide for the maximum term a member of the Commission, an Assistant Commissioner or an alternate Commissioner may hold office for, and provide for when an office becomes vacant.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Clause 3 substitutes Schedule 1, clause 3 of the Act to provide that a member of the Commission, an Assistant Commissioner or an alternate Commissioner may not hold an office for more than 5 years, or, if appointed to a combination of offices, for more than 10 years. The clause also amends Schedule 1, clause 7 of the Act to provide that an office becomes vacant if a person holds the office for more than 5 years or a combination of offices for more than 10 years.
