Schedule 1 Minor amendments

(Section 3)

1.1 Contaminated Land Management Act 1997 No 140

Schedule 2 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert after clause 2:

2A Reference to Board of Tick Control

A reference in this Act to “the use of a cattle dip site on the land under a program implemented in accordance with the recommendations or advice of the Board of Tick Control under Part 2 of the Stock Diseases Act 1923” is taken to be a reference to “the use of a cattle dip site on the land in relation to a treatment ordered under the Stock Diseases Act 1923”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Contaminated Land Management Act 1997 is consequential on the proposed abolition of the Board of Tick Control elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.2 Conveyancing Act 1919 No 6

[1] Section 7 (1), definition of “Licensed conveyancer”

Omit “Conveyancers Licensing Act 1992”.

Insert instead “Conveyancers Licensing Act 2003”.

[2] Section 64 Satisfaction of covenants to produce deeds

Omit “section 14 of the Archives Act 1960” from section 64 (2).

Insert instead “the State Records Act 1998”.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Conveyancing Act 1919 (the Act) updates a reference to a repealed Act.

At present section 64 (2) of the Act enables the Registrar-General to destroy certain documents in the manner specified by section 14 of the Archives Act 1960. That Act has been repealed and replaced by the State Records Act 1998.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the power of the Registrar-General to destroy documents under section 64 (2) of the Act is subject to the provisions of the State Records Act 1998.

1.3 Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990 No 23

Section 4 Definitions

Omit paragraph (c) from the definition of authorised officer in section 4 (1).

Insert instead:

- (c) a person authorised in writing by the Commission, either generally or in a special case, to act as an authorised officer for the purposes of the provision in which the expression occurs.

Explanatory note

Currently, the definition of authorised officer in section 4 of the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990 (the Act) provides that the New South Wales Crime Commission may authorise a person in writing to act as an authorised officer under the Act. An authorised officer has various functions under the Act, however, the functions of an authorised officer authorised by the Commission are limited to the functions provided for by section 10 and Parts 4 and 4A of the Act.

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to provide that a person authorised by the Commission to act as an authorised officer for the purposes of any provision of the Act may carry out any of the functions of an authorised officer under that provision.

1.4 Crown Lands Act 1989 No 6

[1] Section 24A

Insert after section 24:

24A Protection from personal liability

- (1) Any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by a person who is a Chairperson or member of a local land board does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted in good faith for the purpose of exercising a function under this or any other Act, make the person personally liable to any action, claim or demand in respect of that matter or thing.
- (2) However, any such liability attaches instead to the Crown.

[2] Section 34A Special provisions relating to Minister's powers over Crown reserves

Insert after section 34A (7):

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) Without limiting section 49 of the Interpretation Act 1987, a delegation by a reserve trust manager under subsection (1) may, with the approval of the Minister, be revoked by the reserve trust manager at any time.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Crown Lands Act 1989 (the Act) provides that Chairpersons and members of local land boards are protected from personal liability for their actions and omissions done in good faith for the purpose of exercising any of their functions under the Act or any other Act.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the power of the Minister to grant certain interests (such as leases or licences) under section 34A of the Act in respect of a Crown reserve includes the power to enter into an agreement for such an interest.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that a delegation by a reserve trust manager can only be revoked with the Minister's approval.

- (1) An applicant to purchase land comprised in a lease is liable, if a survey is necessary as a result of the purchase and the survey is carried out by the Crown, to pay to the Crown the cost of the survey as assessed by the Minister.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Act 1989 makes it clear that when a person purchases land comprised in a lease (being a perpetual lease, special lease or term lease under that Act) the person must, if a survey is carried out by the Crown (and only if a survey is carried out by the Crown), pay the cost of the survey as assessed by the Minister. At present, irrespective of whether a survey of the land has been carried out, a person purchasing land comprised in a lease is required to pay a survey fee to the Crown if a survey fee had not been paid in respect of the lease.

1.6 Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Regulation 2006

[1] Clause 15 Survey fee

Omit the clause.

[2] Schedule 1 Fees and deposits

1.7 Fair Trading Act 1987 No 68

[1] Section 44A Country of origin representations

Insert instead “for contravening”.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Act extends the period within which an advisory council under that Act must send minutes of its meetings to the Minister for Fair Trading. The period is extended from 14 days to 21 days.

1.9 Firearms Act 1996 No 46

Section 78 of the Act provides for the payment of compensation to persons who surrender a registered prohibited pistol or post-1946 pistol during the buyback period. The buyback period expired on 30 June 2004. Items [4]–[6] of the proposed amendments remove provisions relating to that buyback scheme that are no longer necessary because of its expiry.

1.10 Freedom of Information Regulation 2005

1.13 Home Building Act 1989 No 147

Schedule 1 Provisions relating to advisory bodies

- (3) A penalty notice may be served personally or by post.
- (4) If the amount of penalty prescribed for an alleged offence is paid under this section, no person is liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (5) Payment under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, and does not in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
- (6) The regulations may:
 - (a) prescribe an offence for the purposes of this section by specifying the offence or by referring to the provision creating the offence, and

- (b) prescribe the amount of penalty payable for the offence if dealt with under this section, and
- (c) prescribe different amounts of penalties for different offences or classes of offences.
- (7) The amount of a penalty prescribed under this section for an offence is not to exceed the maximum amount of penalty that could be imposed for the offence by a court.
- (8) This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.
- (9) In this section, authorised officer means a person of a class prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

[2] Section 66 Provisions relating to subsidiaries

[4] Section 600 Rebates in respect of certain land vested in public bodies

Omit “Corporation Corporation” from the definition of public body in section 600 (9).

Insert instead “Corporation”.

Explanatory note

The Local Government Act 1993 (the Act) requires 2 members of the Local Government Project Review Committee to be the Directors-General of the now merged Premier’s Department and the Cabinet Office (or their nominees). Item [1] of the proposed amendments replaces these 2 members with a single member (being the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet (or his or her nominee).

Item [2] of the proposed amendments updates a reference to a Department.

Section 430 of the Act enables the Director-General of the Department of Local Government to authorise an investigation of a local council. Section 433 of the Act requires the person who carried out the investigation to report to the Minister for Local Government and the Director-General on the results of the investigation and to send a copy of the report to the council concerned.

Current ministerial practice is to lay reports made pursuant to section 433 before both Houses of Parliament. Item [3] of the proposed amendments applies section 14B of the Royal Commissions Act 1923 to such reports to enable this to be done when neither House of Parliament is sitting (as is provided for in relation to reports on public inquiries into local councils under section 740 of the Act).

Item [4] of the proposed amendments removes a duplicate word.

Omit Schedule 19.24.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Amendment Act 2006 is consequential on the proposed abolition of the Board of Tick Control elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.17 Police Integrity Commission Act 1996 No 28

[1] Section 141 Proceedings for offences

Omit “section 25” from section 141 (4) (a).

Insert instead “sections 25 and 26”.

[2] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of the Schedule with appropriate Part and clause numbering:

Part Provision consequent on enactment of Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2007

Proceedings for offences

Section 141, as amended by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2007, does not apply in respect of any alleged offence under section 26 that occurred before that section was so amended.

Explanatory note

Proceedings for offences under the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996 (the Act) must generally be commenced not more than 6 months after the date of the alleged offence. However, section 141 (4) of the Act provides that proceedings for certain offences (including offences against section 25 of the Act) may be commenced within 3 years of the date of the alleged offence.

Section 26 of the Act provides that the Police Integrity Commission may require a person to attend a specified place for the purpose of producing a specified document or other thing in relation to an investigation it is conducting. This provision is similar to section 25 of the Act which deals with the Commission’s power to obtain information from a public authority or public official.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments provides that proceedings for an offence under section 26 of the Act may be commenced within 3 years after the commission of the alleged offence, which is consistent with the time for commencing proceedings in respect of an offence under section 25 of the Act. The rationale for extending the period for commencing proceedings for an offence under section 26 of the Act is that, as with proceedings under section 25 of the Act, commencement of proceedings before the Police Integrity Commission has completed an investigation can prejudice its further conduct of the investigation.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments is a transitional provision that makes it clear that the proposed amendment to section 141 does not apply in respect of alleged offences under section 26 that occurred prior to the commencement of the proposed amendments.

1.18 Real Property Act 1900 No 25

Section 13K Conversions, purchases, extensions of term, subdivisions etc

Omit “before taking any action to give effect to the sale or purchase” from section 13K (2A).

Explanatory note

At present under Part 4A of the Crown Lands Act 1989, the Minister can impose restrictions on use or public positive covenants in connection with the sale of Crown land. Any such restriction on use or covenant is imposed in connection with section 88D or section 88E of the Conveyancing Act 1919. Section 13K (2A) of the Real Property Act 1900 requires the Registrar-General to record such restrictions or covenants on the relevant title before taking any action to give effect to the sale or purchase.

A restriction or covenant is imposed in accordance with section 88D in the case where the Crown land is still owned by the Crown. If the land is no longer held by the Crown, the restriction or covenant is imposed in accordance with section 88E. However, the Registrar-General does not, in the case of a section 88E restriction or covenant, have the opportunity to record the restriction or covenant on the relevant title because the sale of the land has already occurred.

The proposed amendment to the Real Property Act 1900 will mean the Registrar-General can record restrictions on use or public positive covenants imposed in connection with the sale of Crown land regardless of whether the land is still owned by the Crown.

1.19 Residential Parks Act 1998 No 142

Section 88 Applications to Tribunal about new or amended park rules

Omit section 88 (5) and (6).

Explanatory note

Section 88 (5) of the Residential Parks Act 1998 (the Act) requires that, if an application is made to the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal (the Tribunal) to resolve a dispute in relation to new or amended residential park rules, the Tribunal must, within 30 days of receiving the application, give written notice of its decision. Section 88 (6) of the Act requires that the notice be given to the applicants and the park owner. Section 88 (5) originally applied to a Park Disputes Committee for each residential park. Such committees were abolished by the Residential Parks Amendment (Statutory Review) Act 2005 and their functions transferred to the Tribunal.

Sections 28 and 49 of the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Act 2001 contain specific provisions relating to the procedure of the Tribunal and the time within which notice of its decisions must be given. The proposed amendment repeals section 88 (5) and (6) of the Residential Parks Act 1998 to make it clear that those specific provisions in the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Act 2001 govern the proceedings of the Tribunal in relation to disputes about residential park rules.

1.20 Security Industry Act 1997 No 157

[1] Section 7 Offence of carrying on unauthorised security activities

Omit “licence, and” from section 7 (1) (b).

Insert instead “licence.”

[2] Section 7 (1) (c)

Omit the paragraph.

[3] Section 16 Restrictions on granting licence—criminal and other related history

Omit section 16 (4).

Explanatory note

Amendments relating to employment of unlicensed persons

Section 7 (1) (c) of the Security Industry Act 1997 (the Act) currently provides that it is an offence for a person who is the holder of a master licence to employ or provide persons to carry on security activities unless each of the persons employed or provided is the holder of a licence under the Act.

Section 39 of the Act also provides that the holder of a master licence must not employ any person to carry on any security activity unless the person is the holder of a licence.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments omits section 7 (1) (c) of the Act to remove that offence on the basis that it is substantially the same as the offence under section 39 of the Act. Item [1] makes a consequential amendment.

Amendment relating to mandatory refusal of applications for master licences

Currently, section 16 (4) of the Act and clause 16 (1) (a) of the Security Industry Regulation 2007 both provide mandatory grounds for the refusal of an application for a master licence in respect of bankrupt persons (either as an applicant or, in the case of an applicant that is a corporation, any person involved in the management of the corporation).

Under section 16 (4) of the Act, the Commissioner of Police must refuse to grant an application for a master licence if the Commissioner is of the opinion that the applicant (or, if the applicant is a corporation, any person who is a director or who is concerned in the management of the corporation) has been declared bankrupt within the period of 5 years before the date of the application.

Clause 16 (1) (a) of the Security Industry Regulation 2007 also provides that the Commissioner must refuse to grant an application for a master licence if the applicant (or a close associate of the applicant, including a person holding office as a director, manager or other executive position or a person with power to participate in directional, managerial or executive decisions of the applicant) at any time in the 3 years before the application was made was an undischarged bankrupt or applied to take benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors (unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps to avoid the bankruptcy).

Item [3] of the proposed amendments omits section 16 (4) of the Act to remove this existing duplication in relation to the mandatory grounds for refusing applications for master licences by persons who are, or have been, bankrupt. The amendment will, in effect, reduce from 5 years to 3 years the period within which a person who has been declared bankrupt may be granted a master licence after being declared bankrupt.

Explanatory note

Part 2 of the Stock Diseases Act 1923 establishes the Board of Tick Control and sets out the functions, members and procedure of the Board. The functions of the Board, as set out in that Part, are of an advisory nature only. Item [1] omits that Part.

Items [2]–[5] make other amendments as a consequence of the proposed abolition of the Board of Tick Control.

[2] Schedule 2 Nominations and elections for Board of Tick Control

Section 36B (Contingent and future testamentary gifts to carry the intermediate income), as in force immediately before its repeal by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2007, continues to apply to wills and instruments that came into operation before the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act 1930 as if that section had not been repealed.

Explanatory note

Section 6 (1) of the Succession Act 2006 (the Act) requires a will to be signed by the testator or by some other person in the presence of and at the direction of the testator. Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the signature of a person signing in the presence and at the direction of the testator must be made with the intention of executing the will but that it is not essential that it be at the foot of the will.

Section 11 (1) (a) of the Act currently suggests that the only way to revoke the whole or part of a will by authority of an order under section 16 or 18 of the Act is by making another will. However, the Court may make an order authorising revocation to take place in other ways under those sections. Item [2] replaces section 11 (1) (a) and items [4] and [5] amend section 16 of the Act to make it clear that a will may be revoked in whole or in part by a will or by other means, if authorised by, and done in compliance with, such an order.

Section 14 of the Act sets out the ways in which a will may be altered. Item [3] of the proposed amendments clarifies the section by setting out the circumstances in which section 14 (1) has no application.

Items [4]–[6] also make amendments to ensure consistency of expression in, and between, sections 16 and 18 of the Act.

Item [6] amends section 21 of the Act (which enables the Court to have regard to information given to the Court in support of an application) to make it clear that the information referred to is that specified in section 19.

Item [7] amends section 31 of the Act to correct a typographical error.

Items [9] and [10] amend section 41 of the Act which currently operates as an exception to the lapse rule contained in section 35 of the Act in circumstances where a beneficiary, who is the issue of the testator, fails to survive the testator for 30 days but leaves issue who do survive the testator for this period. The proposed amendment extends the exception to circumstances where a period of 30 days, or some other period for survival, appears in the will. Item [8] is a consequential amendment.

At present the exception does not apply if the original beneficiary does not fulfil a condition imposed on the original beneficiary in the will or a contrary intention appears in the will. Item [11] replaces section 41 (3) so that the exception will not apply if a contrary intention appears in the will. Item [13] makes a consequential amendment to section 41 (5). Item [12] omits section 41 (4) which currently indicates that a general requirement or condition that issue survive the testator or reach a specified age does not indicate such a contrary intention.

Item [14] amends section 54 of the Act to require the person having possession or control of the will of a deceased person to allow the issue (not only the children) of the deceased person to inspect or be given copies of the will.

Item [15] enables the making of savings and transitional regulations.

Items [16] and [17] replace transitional provisions concerning the application of provisions of the Act.

Items [18], [19] and [20] make amendments to new section 92A as to be inserted in the Wills, Probate and Administration Act 1898 by Schedule 2 to the Succession Act 2006 so that the section will be consistent with section 41 as proposed to be amended by items [9] and [10].

Item [21] amends new section 92A so that a defined term is used consistently in the section.

Item [22] repeals section 36B of the Conveyancing Act 1919. It has been replaced by section 34 of the Succession Act 2006. Item [23] provides for the making of savings and transitional regulations and continues the application of the repealed section to certain wills and instruments.

Part 4 Acts that contain only commenced amendments and provisions being transferred to another Act by Schedule 4

Note. Section 30 (2) (c) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that, when an Act is repealed, no amendment or validation made by the Act is affected. Section 30A provides that, when a provision is transferred from an Act to another Act and an Act states that the provision is a transferred provision to which section 30A applies, the transfer does not affect the operation (if any) or meaning of the provision.

Schedule 5 Repeals

Column 1	Column 2
Name of Act being repealed	Act to which provisions being transferred by Schedule 4
Wentworth Irrigation (Amendment) Act 1979 No 161	Wentworth Irrigation Act 1890
Western Lands (Amendment) Act of 1905 No 38	Western Lands Act 1901
Young Men's Christian Association of Sydney Incorporation (Amendment) Act 1976 No 60	Young Men's Christian Association of Sydney Incorporation Act 1906

Explanatory note

Part 1 repeals Acts that are redundant.

Part 2 repeals Acts that contain only amendments, or amendments and repeals, that have commenced.

Part 3 repeals Acts that contain only amendments, or amendments and repeals, that have commenced and savings, transitional or other provisions that are redundant.

Part 4 repeals Acts that contain only amendments that have commenced and savings, transitional or other provisions the operation of which is preserved by amendments proposed to be made by Schedule 4 to this Act.

The repeals are explained in detail in the Explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions. The Acts that were amended by the Acts being repealed are up-to-date on the Legislation Database maintained by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and are available electronically (www.legislation.nsw.gov.au).

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that the following matters are not affected when an Act or statutory rule is amended or repealed:

- (a) the proof of any past act or thing,
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act or statutory rule,
- (c) any amendment or validation made by the Act or statutory rule,
- (d) the operation of any savings or transitional provision contained in the Act or statutory rule.

Schedule 6 General savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 5)

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

- (1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 or 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act is, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision (whether or not the amending provision has been repealed).
- (2) In this clause:
amending provision means a provision of an Act that makes a direct amendment to an Act by:
 - (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
 - (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
 - (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will be taken to have commenced on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

3 Application of Interpretation Act 1987 to amendments to statutory rules

Sections 39, 40 and 41 of the Interpretation Act 1987 do not apply to any amendments to statutory rules made by this Act.

Explanatory note

This clause makes it clear that certain provisions concerning the making, tabling and disallowance of statutory rules do not apply to amendments to statutory rules made by the proposed Act.

4 Effect of amendment on instruments

- (1) Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any instrument made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.
- (2) The amendment of an instrument by this Act does not prevent its later amendment or repeal by another instrument.

Explanatory note

Subclause (1) ensures that, unless expressly provided, any instrument that is in force and made under a provision of an Act that is amended or substituted by the proposed Act will be taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

Subclause (2) ensures that the amendment of an instrument by the proposed Act does not prevent its later amendment or repeal by another instrument.

5 Revocation of repeal

- (1) The Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette revoke the repeal of any Act or instrument effected by this Act.
- (2) Any Act or instrument the subject of a proclamation under subclause (1) is taken not to be, and never to have been, repealed by this Act.
- (3) Subclause (2) does not operate in respect of any Act or instrument so as:
 - (a) to affect in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) the rights of that person existing before the date of publication in the Gazette of the proclamation under subclause (1) in respect of that Act or instrument, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of publication of that proclamation.
- (4) A reference in this clause to an Act or instrument includes a reference to a provision of any Act or instrument.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the Governor, by proclamation, to revoke the repeal of any Act or instrument or the provision of any Act or instrument repealed by this Act. The Act or instrument or provision of an Act or instrument the subject of the revocation of repeal is taken not to be, and never to have been, repealed.

6 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the proposed Act.
