Public Sector Employment and Management Amendment (Extended Leave) Bill 2005

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 (the Principal Act):

- (a) to provide for certain employees of the State to have the benefit of additional extended leave entitlements, and
- (b) to replace (and simplify) provisions regarding the recognition of former government service currently in the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 (which is repealed by the proposed Act).

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Clause 3 is a formal provision that gives effect to the amendments to the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 set out in Schedule 1.

Clause 4 is a formal provision that gives effect to the amendments to the Acts and regulations set out in Schedule 2.

Clause 5 repeals the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 and the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Regulation 1998.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002

Schedule 1 [4] omits and re-inserts Schedule 3 to the Principal Act and inserts proposed Schedule 3A.

The current Schedule 3 provides for the extended leave entitlements of officers and temporary employees of the Public Service. It also applies, by way of reference to the Schedule in other Acts and instruments, to certain other State employees.

Proposed Schedule 3 provides for certain State employees to have certain extended leave entitlements in addition to the entitlements provided for under current Schedule 3. A number of the existing provisions of Schedule 3 are also clarified.

Under proposed Schedule 3, a relevant State employee has the benefit of the following additional extended leave entitlements:

- (a) an entitlement to extended leave after service for, or in excess of, 7 years (currently the Principal Act provides for an entitlement to extended leave after service for 10 years),
- (b) an entitlement to take extended leave on double pay for a proportionately reduced period (currently the Principal Act provides for extended leave to be taken on full pay or half pay),
- (c) an entitlement to have a public holiday that occurs during a period of extended leave not treated as extended leave.

Proposed clause 2 of Schedule 3 provides for an entitlement to extended leave after service for, or in excess of, 7 years. The entitlement in respect of service between 7 years and 10 years is an amount of leave proportionate to the officer's or temporary employee's length of service (up to 10 years) calculated at the rate of 2 months on full pay for 10 years served.

Proposed clause 2 of Schedule 3 also provides for an entitlement to extended leave on full pay, half pay or double pay (the amount of the entitlement varying proportionately).

Extended leave taken is deducted from an officer's or temporary employee's extended leave entitlement under proposed clause 8 of Schedule 3. Proposed clause 8 (2) of Schedule 3 provides that if a public holiday occurs while an officer or temporary employee is taking extended leave, the amount of extended leave to be deducted is to be reduced by the length of the holiday (one day or half a day, as the case may be).

Proposed Schedule 3A contains the provisions included in the Principal Act to replace and simplify the provisions of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961. The object of this Schedule is to provide for the recognition of former government service in the calculation of the extended leave entitlement of an employee of a public sector service. The Schedule comprises 3 Parts. Part 1 contains certain preliminary provisions.

Part 2 contains the provisions that set out the basis on which former government service is recognised.

Proposed clause 6 of Schedule 3A sets out the conditions for former government service to be recognised service. Prior employment in a public sector service or a Commonwealth or interstate agency is recognised service for a public sector employee in his or her current employment if the person's current employment immediately follows the prior employment or if the person is entitled by law or administrative practice to have the service in the former agency form part of the service in the current agency. Proposed clause 6 also provides for the mechanism by which recognised service is recognised in a public sector employee's current extended leave entitlement by providing that the public sector employee's service with his or her current employer is taken to include his or her recognised service.

Proposed clause 7 of Schedule 3A provides for certain amounts of extended leave to be deducted from the extended leave entitlement of a public sector employee whose service with his or her current employer includes recognised service. The deduction is to adjust the person's entitlement in light of the inclusion of the recognised service. Proposed clauses 8 and 9 make further provision for this adjustment.

Proposed clause 8 of Schedule 3A provides that a public sector employee who ceases to be employed in a public sector agency and commences employment in another public sector agency may elect to be paid the money value of his or her accrued extended leave or to retain the entitlement to the accrued extended leave.

Proposed clause 9 of Schedule 3A provides that a public sector employee with recognised service from previous employment in a Commonwealth or interstate agency is deemed to have taken certain leave. The leave deemed to have been taken under the proposed clause is deducted under proposed clause 7 of Schedule 3A. The amount of the leave deemed to have been taken is calculated as if the leave was accrued in the employment of the employee's current employer. Calculating the leave in this manner has certain consequences, including ensuring that the employee cannot have a "negative" leave entitlement as a result of the deduction under proposed clause 7 of Schedule 3A in respect of the recognised service.

Part 3 contains provisions that provide for recognised service to include service with the Australian Defence Force and service in certain State statutory offices.

Schedule 1 [1] inserts a new definition, used in proposed Schedules 3 and 3A, in section 3 (1) of the Principal Act.

Schedule 1 [2] makes an amendment to section 94 of the Principal Act, being an amendment consequential on the amendments made by Schedule 1 [4] regarding the recognition of former service.

Schedule 1 [3] amends section 95 to insert a note in relation to an election an employee may make regarding annual leave under that section. The note inserted corresponds to a note included in relation to the corresponding election regarding extended leave (provided for by proposed clause 8 of Schedule 3A).

Schedule 1 [5] inserts a power to make savings and transitional regulations consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 [6] inserts savings and transitional provisions consequent on the amendments made by Schedule 1 [1]–[4].

The savings and transitional provisions include a provision validating anything done or omitted to be done on or after 1 January 2005 (but before the commencement of Schedule 1 [4] to the proposed Act) in association with Schedule 3 to the Principal Act (as it would have been in force had the proposed Act then been in force).

The savings and transitional provisions also provide for how the amendments regarding additional extended leave entitlements apply to certain State employees and not to other State employees. The amendments made to provide the additional extended leave entitlements are to implement a Memorandum of Understanding made in settlement of proceedings in the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales, matters IRC 3817 of 2004 and IRC 4561 of 2004.

The Memorandum of Understanding does not apply to all persons to whom proposed Schedule 3 to the Principal Act applies. Schedule 3 applies to 2 categories of person. The first category is officers and temporary employees within the meaning of the Principal Act, being officers and temporary employees of the Public Service, to whom Schedule 3 applies under its own terms. The second category is persons to whom Schedule 3 applies by force of Acts (other than the Principal Act) or instruments that apply the provisions of Schedule 3 to the person by reference to Schedule 3.

Proposed clauses 16 and 17 in Schedule 4 to the Principal Act limit the effect of the amendments conferring the additional extended leave entitlements to the 2 categories of persons to whom the Memorandum of Understanding (or a corresponding agreement or determination) applies.

In respect of the first category of persons referred to in the previous paragraph, proposed clause 16 excludes the application of the additional extended leave entitlement amendments to the persons listed in the Table to the clause. The persons listed are persons to whom Schedule 3 applies by its own terms but to whom the Memorandum of Understanding, or a corresponding agreement or determination, does not apply.

In respect of the second category of persons, proposed clause 17 excludes the application of the additional extended leave entitlement amendments to persons to whom Schedule 3 applies by force of the Acts and instruments set out in the Table to the clause. The persons listed are persons to whom Schedule 3 applies by force of the Acts and instruments set out in the Table but to whom the Memorandum of Understanding, or a corresponding agreement or determination, does not apply.

Persons currently not entitled to the entitlements conferred under the Memorandum of Understanding may become entitled to corresponding entitlements as other industrial claims are settled. Proposed clauses 16 and 17 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act provide for the Governor to, by proclamation, omit items from the list in the Table to the relevant clause as persons referred to in the item become entitled to extended leave entitlements that correspond to the entitlements of persons to whom the Memorandum of Understanding applies.

Schedule 2 Amendment of other Acts and regulations

Schedules 2.3–2.6 amend the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906, the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987, the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the Superannuation Act 1916 so as to provide that, if extended leave is taken, remuneration in excess of leave on full pay is excluded from the relevant definition of salary in each Act. The amendments also provide a power to make savings and transitional regulations. The exclusion of the remuneration in excess of leave on full pay from the relevant definition of salary excludes, for example, double pay from inclusion in the calculation of superannuation benefits. This amendment is to avoid a person's salary, as included in the calculation of their superannuation benefits, being artificially inflated by the inclusion of double pay.

Schedules 2.2 and 2.7–2.9 make amendments consequential on the repeal of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act 1961 and the replacement of that Act's provisions by proposed Schedule 3A to the Principal Act.

Schedule 2.1 makes an amendment consequential on the omission and re-insertion of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act.

	(Section 55)	20
1 Definition of “service”		21
	(1) For the purposes of this Schedule, service includes:	22
	(a) in the case of an officer or temporary employee who has completed at least 10 years’ service—any period of leave without pay, not exceeding 6 months, taken after 13 December 1963, and	23
		25
		26
	(b) service occurring before the commencement of this Schedule, including service of the kind referred to in paragraph (a).	27
		28
		29
	Note. See also Schedule 3A as to the recognition of former service with certain Government agencies.	30
		31

- (2) Subject to clauses 2 (3) and 3 (3), for the purpose of determining whether or not an officer or temporary employee has completed at least 10 years' service, as referred to in subclause (1) (a), the officer's or temporary employee's period of service is taken:
- (a) to include any period of leave without pay taken before 13 December 1963, and
- (b) to exclude any period of leave without pay taken after 13 December 1963.
- Note. 13 December 1963 was the date of assent to the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act 1963.
- 2 Leave entitlements generally
- (1) After service for 7 years or more but not more than 10 years, an officer or temporary employee is entitled to extended leave, proportionate to his or her length of service, calculated at the rate of:
- (a) 2 months on full pay, or
- (b) 4 months on half pay, or
- (c) one month on double pay, for 10 years served.
- (2) After service for more than 10 years, an officer or temporary employee is entitled to extended leave under subclause (1) in respect of the first 10 years and additional extended leave, proportionate to his or her length of service, calculated at the rate of:
- (a) 5 months on full pay, or
- (b) 10 months on half pay, or
- (c) 2.5 months on double pay, for each 10 years served after the first 10 years.
- (3) For the purposes of this clause, service includes any period of leave without pay taken before 13 December 1963.
- 3 Entitlement to leave if employment terminated in special circumstances
- (1) This clause applies to an officer or temporary employee with at least 5 years' service but less than 7 years' service whose services are terminated:
- (a) by the officer or temporary employee, for reasons of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, or

- (b) by the Crown, the Governor or the appropriate Department Head, for reasons other than the officer's or temporary employee's serious and intentional misconduct. 1
- (2) The officer or temporary employee is entitled to: 4
- (a) for 5 years' service, one month's leave on full pay, and 5
- (b) for further service in excess of 5 years, additional leave proportionate to the officer's or temporary employee's length of service (up to but not including 7 years), calculated at the rate of 3 months' leave for 15 years' service. 6
10
- (3) For the purposes of this clause, service does not include any period of leave without pay, whether taken before, on or after 13 December 1963. 11 12
- 4 Payment of accrued leave on termination of employment 14
- (1) If an officer or temporary employee has acquired a right to extended leave and his or her services are terminated, the officer or temporary employee may not take the extended leave but is instead to be paid the money value of the extended leave. 15
16
18
- (2) Any pension to which any such officer or temporary employee is entitled under the Superannuation Act 1916 commences from and including the date on which the officer's or temporary employee's extended leave, if taken, would have commenced. 19 20
22
- 5 Leave to be paid out to dependants in cases of death 23
- (1) If an officer or temporary employee has acquired a right to extended leave and dies before starting it, or after starting it dies before completing it: 24
26
- (a) the officer's or temporary employee's spouse, or 27
- (b) if there is no such spouse, the officer's or temporary employee's children, or 28
29
- (c) if there is no such spouse or child, the person who, in the opinion of the appropriate Department Head, was, at the time of the officer's or temporary employee's death, a dependent relative of the officer or temporary employee, 30
31
32
33
- is entitled to receive the money value of the extended leave not taken or not completed. 34 35
- (2) If an officer or temporary employee with at least 5 years' service but less than 7 years' service dies: 36
37
- (a) the officer's or temporary employee's spouse, or 38

(b)	if there is no such spouse, the officer's or temporary employee's children, or	1 2
(c)	if there is no such spouse or child, the person who, in the opinion of the appropriate Department Head, was, at the time of the officer's or temporary employee's death, a dependent relative of the officer or temporary employee,	3 4 5 6
	is entitled to receive the money value of the extended leave that would have accrued to the officer or temporary employee had his or her services terminated as referred to in clause 3 (1).	7 8 9
(3)	If there is a guardian of any child referred to in subclause (1) (b) or (2) (b), the payment to which the child is entitled may be made to the child's guardian for the child's maintenance, education and advancement.	10 11 12 13
(4)	If:	14
(a)	no person is entitled to receive a payment under subclause (1) or (2), or	15 16
(b)	it appears to the appropriate Department Head that more than one person is entitled as a spouse to a payment under subclause (1) or (2),	17 18 19
	the payment must instead be made to the officer's or temporary employee's personal representatives.	20 21
(5)	Any payment under this clause is in addition to any payment due under any Act under which superannuation benefits are paid.	22 23
(6)	In this clause, spouse of an officer or temporary employee includes a person with whom the officer or temporary employee had a de facto relationship (within the meaning of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984) at the time of his or her death.	24 25 26 27
6	Calculation of money value of extended leave	28
	For the purpose of calculating the amount of an entitlement under this Schedule, the money value of extended leave accrued or payable to a chief executive officer or senior executive officer is to be determined on the basis of the officer's notional salary within the meaning of section 95.	29 30 31 32 33
7	Certain periods to be disregarded	34
	Any period during which an officer or temporary employee is not employed, as referred to in clause 3 (2) of Schedule 3A, is to be disregarded for the purpose of calculating his or her extended leave entitlement.	35 36 37 38

8	Leave entitlement reduced by leave already taken or paid out	1
(1)	The following amounts of extended leave are to be deducted from an officer's or temporary employee's extended leave entitlement:	2
(a)	for each period of extended leave taken on full pay—the number of days (or parts of a day) so taken,	3
(b)	for each period of extended leave taken on half pay—half the number of days (or parts of a day) so taken,	4
(c)	for each period of extended leave taken on double pay—twice the number of days (or parts of a day) so taken,	5
(d)	for each period of extended leave in respect of which the officer or temporary employee has been paid the money value—the number of days of extended leave on full pay that is equivalent to the money paid.	6
(2)	If a public holiday occurs while an officer or temporary employee is taking extended leave, the amount of extended leave to be deducted is to be reduced by the length of the holiday (one day or half a day, as the case may be).	7
(3)	In subclause (2), public holiday means any special or public holiday for which the officer or temporary employee is entitled to payment.	8
9	Extended leave may be postponed for temporary employees	9
	If the period of extended leave to which a temporary employee is entitled under this Schedule exceeds the period for which the employee is employed under this Act, the balance of the period of extended leave may be taken during subsequent periods of employment in the Public Service, but only if each subsequent period of employment commences on the termination of a previous period of employment in the Public Service.	10

Schedule 3A Recognition of prior government service for public sector employees extended leave entitlements

(Section 94)

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Definitions

In this Schedule:

Australian Defence Force includes the armed forces of the Commonwealth, however described.

Commonwealth or interstate agency means:

- (a) a body that:
 - (i) is established under an Act of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory, and
 - (ii) is under the control of a Minister of the Commonwealth or other State or Territory, and
 - (iii) is part of the public service (however described) of the Commonwealth or other State or Territory, and
 - (iv) is a body in which persons are employed under conditions substantially equivalent to the conditions under which officers are employed under this Act, or
- (b) a body that is declared to be a Commonwealth or interstate agency for the purposes of this Schedule pursuant to an order under clause 2, but, subject to paragraph (b), does not include:

- (c) a local government authority, or
- (d) a university or the governing body of a university, or
- (e) a corporation owned by the Commonwealth or another State or Territory, or by the Crown in right of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory, or
- (f) a body that is declared not to be a Commonwealth or interstate agency for the purposes of this Schedule pursuant to an order under clause 2.

continuous is defined in clause 3.

immediately follows is defined in clause 4.

judicial officer has the meaning it has in the Judicial Officers Act 1986.

public sector agency has the same meaning as public sector service.	1 2
public sector employee means a person who is employed in a public sector agency.	3 4
recognised service , in relation to a public sector employee, means service that is recognised service in relation to the employee pursuant to Part 2.	5 6 7
2 Declarations concerning Commonwealth or interstate agencies	8
(1) The Director-General of the Premier’s Department may, by order in writing, declare that a specified body is, or is not, a Commonwealth or interstate agency for the purposes of this Schedule.	9 10 11 12
(2) An order under this clause:	13
(a) takes effect on such day as is specified in the order, being a day occurring before, on or after the day on which the order is made, and	14 15 16
(b) may be subject to specified limitations, but not so as to operate to the prejudice of any person who was a public sector employee immediately before the order took effect.	17 18 19
(3) There are to be made publicly available at the offices of the Premier’s Department:	20 21
(a) a list of the names of each body that is declared under this clause to be a Commonwealth or interstate agency, and	22 23
(b) a list of the names of each body that is declared under this clause not to be a Commonwealth or interstate agency.	24 25
3 Definition of “continuous”	26
(1) For the purposes of this Schedule, a person’s employment by an employer is continuous , in relation to a period, if the person remains employed by that employer for the whole of the period.	27 28 29
(2) The person is taken to remain employed by the employer for the whole of any period even if, during that period, the person ceases to be employed by the employer on the grounds of retrenchment or reduction of work but is re-employed by the employer within the next 12 months.	30 31 32 33 34
4 Definition of “immediately follows”	35
(1) For the purposes of this Schedule, a person’s period of employment immediately follows another period of employment if:	36 37 38

- (a) the later period commences: 1
 - (i) except as provided by subparagraph (ii), within 2 2 months after the end of the earlier period, or 3
 - (ii) if the earlier period comprises full-time war service 4 as a member of the Australian Defence Force, 5 within 12 months after the end of the earlier period, 6 and 7
- (b) the earlier period ends otherwise than by reason of the 8 person's dismissal for disciplinary reasons. 9
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1) (a) (ii), war service means: 10
 - (a) service occurring during, or partly during, a period of war 11 in which the Australian Defence Force is engaged, or 12
 - (b) service of a kind declared by the regulations to be war 13 service for the purposes of this clause. 14

Part 2 Recognition of former government service 15 for public sector employees generally 16

5 Object of Part 17

The object of this Part is to provide for the recognition of former 18 government service in the calculation of a public sector 19 employee's extended leave entitlement, whether such an 20 entitlement arises: 21

- (a) under Schedule 3 (in the case of an officer or temporary 22 employee), or 23
- (b) under some other Act or law, such as an award or industrial 24 agreement (in any other case). 25

6 Recognition of former government service 26

- (1) For the purpose of calculating a public sector employee's 27 extended leave entitlement, the public sector employee's service 28 with his or her current employer is taken to include his or her 29 recognised service. 30
- (2) The person's employment in a public sector agency or a 31 Commonwealth or interstate agency (the former agency) is 32 recognised service in relation to the person's subsequent 33 employment in a public sector agency (the current agency) if: 34
 - (a) the period of employment in the former agency has been 35 continuous, and 36

- (b) either: 1
- (i) the person's employment in the current agency has immediately followed the person's employment in the former agency, or 2
 - (ii) the person is entitled, by law or administrative practice, to have the service in the former agency form part of the service in the current agency for the purpose of calculating the person's extended leave entitlement. 3
- (3) A period of recognised service may not be counted more than once for the purpose of calculating the person's extended leave entitlement. 4
- 7 Leave already taken, paid or deemed to have been taken excluded 5
- (1) The following amounts of leave are to be deducted from a public sector employee's extended leave entitlement: 6
- (a) the amount of any extended leave taken by the public sector employee in relation to recognised service, 7
 - (b) the amount of any extended leave in respect of which the public sector employee has elected to be paid the money value under clause 8 in respect of recognised service, 8
 - (c) the amount of any extended leave that the public sector employee is deemed to have taken under clause 9 in respect of recognised service. 9
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1) (a), the public sector employee is deemed to have taken extended leave if he or she has been paid the money value of that leave. 10
- (3) A period of extended leave is not to be deducted more than once under this clause. 11
- 8 Public sector employee may elect to be paid money value of accrued leave if former employer a public sector agency (cf s 95) 12
- (1) A public sector employee who ceases to be employed in a public sector agency (the prior employment) and immediately commences employment in another public sector agency (the current employment) may elect: 13
- (a) to be paid the money value of the public sector employee's accrued extended leave, or 14
 - (b) to retain the entitlement to that accrued extended leave. 15
- Note. For example, such an election may not be made by an officer who merely moves between different Departments of the Public Service. 16

- (2) This clause does not apply to an officer or temporary employee who has been paid the money value of his or her accrued extended leave under clause 4 of Schedule 3. 1
Note. Whichever election the public sector employee makes, his or her service with the current employer will, pursuant to clause 6, be deemed to include service with the former employer. 4
- 9 Employee who has recognised interstate service and was entitled to take leave in former agency deemed to have taken leave 7
- (1) For the purposes of clause 7 (1) (c), a public sector employee: 9
- (a) whose employment in a public sector agency (the current agency) immediately follows employment in a Commonwealth or interstate agency (the former agency), or 10
12
13
- (b) who is entitled, by law or administrative practice, to have the service in the former agency form part of the service in the current agency, 14
15
16
- and who, at any time during his or her employment in the former agency, has been entitled under the relevant Commonwealth or interstate law to take extended leave or be paid the money value of extended leave is deemed to have taken the leave. 17 18
20
- (2) The amount of extended leave that the public sector employee is deemed to have taken is calculated as if: 21
22
- (a) leave had accrued in relation to his or her service in the former agency at the same rate as leave accrues in relation to his or her service in the current agency, and 23 24
25
- (b) the service in the former agency in respect of which leave accrued was the whole of the service recognised by the former agency for the purpose of calculating his or her extended leave entitlement, and 26
27
28
29
- (c) the amount of leave taken before the calculation of the entitlement was nil, and 30 31
- (d) the money value of leave paid before the calculation of the entitlement was nil. 32
33
