Local Government Amendment (Employment Arrangements) Bill 2024

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to remove the special employment status of local government senior staff within the organisation structures of local government councils.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Local Government Act 1993 No 30

Schedule 1 [5]–[7] and [12]–[21] make amendments to give effect to the object of the proposed Act. Schedule 1 [1]–[4], [8]–[11], [22]–[39] and [41] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1 [40] contains savings, transitional and other provisions consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act. More specifically, the provisions deal with transitional matters relating to employment contracts of members of the senior staff of local government councils at the time the proposed Act commences.

Part	Provisions consequent on enactment of Local Government Amendment (Employment Arrangements) Act 2024	1
		2
		3
Definition		4
	In this part—	5
	amending Act means the Local Government Amendment (Employment Arrangements) Act 2024 .	6
		7
Existing employment contracts of senior staff		8
(1)	An employment contract for a member of the senior staff of a council that was in force immediately before the commencement of the amending Act continues in force until it expires or is terminated.	9 10 11
(2)	For subclause (1)—	12
	(a) the provisions of this Act amended by the amending Act, other than section 340, as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments, continue to apply to the employment contract and the member of the senior staff while the employment contract continues in force, and	13 14 15 16 17
	(b) to avoid doubt, no award, agreement, contract determination or order made or taken to have been made or continued in force under the Industrial Relations Act 1996 , whether made before or after the commencement of this section, has effect in relation to the employment of the member of the senior staff while the employment contract continues in force, and	18 19 20 21 22 23
	(c) a member of the senior staff's employment contract is taken to be an industrial instrument for the Industrial Relations Act 1996 , Chapter 2, Part 6.	24 25 26
(3)	However—	27
	(a) a member of the senior staff of a council employed under a standard form of contract approved by the Departmental Chief Executive under section 338(4) may request the council to transition the staff member to employment under an award or enterprise agreement before the expiry of the approved contract, and	28 29 30 31 32
	(b) the council may accept the request and transition the staff member's employment as requested, and	33 34
	(c) to avoid doubt, section 348(1) does not apply to a transition of employment referred to in paragraph (b), and	35 36
	(d) the council must not unreasonably refuse the staff member's request, and	37 38
	(e) the staff member may apply to the Industrial Relations Commission for a review of the council's refusal, and	39 40
	(f) if the Industrial Relations Commission, after a review, is of the opinion that the council's refusal is unreasonable—the Industrial Relations Commission may order the council to transition the staff member's employment to employment under an award or enterprise agreement on the terms and conditions specified in the order, within the time specified in the order.	41 42 43 44 45 46

- (4) Section 348 also does not apply to the transition of a person’s employment, under an award or enterprise agreement, to a position within the organisation structure of the council after the person’s employment contract as a member of the senior staff of the council, continued by subclause (1), has expired. 1
2
3
4
 - (5) The regulations may deal with the following— 5
 - (a) the review by the Industrial Relations Commission of a council’s refusal to accept a request to the council to transition the staff member to employment under an award or enterprise agreement, 6 7
8
 - (b) orders by the Industrial Relations Commission if the Industrial Relations Commission find the refusal was unreasonable. 9
10
 - (6) In this clause— 11
 - senior staff* has the same meaning it had immediately before the commencement of the amending Act. 12
13
- [41] Dictionary 14
- Omit the definition of senior staff. 15
