Racing Legislation Amendment Bill 2019

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are as follows—

- (a) to permit Racing NSW and Harness Racing New South Wales to use compulsion powers to require persons to provide information for the purposes of a special inquiry, but only where the use of the powers has been authorised by the Supreme Court,
- (b) to provide an explicit power for Racing NSW to make rules in relation to horse racing,
- (c) to permit the Commissioner of Police to make an order excluding a person from racecourses during race meetings if it is in the public interest to do so,
- (d) to expand the circumstances in which a qualified person may be appointed to act as the Racing Appeals Tribunal (the Tribunal) and to allow the Tribunal to appoint expert assessors to assist the Tribunal in particular proceedings,
- (e) to increase the maximum penalty for failing to comply with a notice requiring attendance before the Tribunal from $550 to $11,000 or imprisonment for 6 months (or both),
- (f) to allow the Tribunal to make use of the services of the staff of any racing controlling body (being Racing NSW, Harness Racing New South Wales, the Greyhound Welfare and Integrity Commission and Greyhound Racing New South Wales),
- (g) to permit the electronic service of documents under the Racing Appeals Tribunal Act 1983,
- (h) to wind up the Tax Reduction Trust Fund and to pay any money standing to the credit of the Fund to Greyhound Racing New South Wales,
- (i) to make other minor statute law amendments.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1      Amendment of Harness Racing Act 2009 No 20

Schedule 1[1] clarifies that Harness Racing New South Wales (HRNSW) may amend or repeal rules that it makes in relation to harness racing.

Schedule 1[2] inserts proposed Division 4 into Part 3 of the Harness Racing Act 2009 which provides for special inquiries. The proposed Division comprises proposed sections 27A–27F.

Proposed section 27A contains definitions used in the proposed Division including threat to harness racing which means a threat to the integrity of harness racing or to public confidence in the conduct of harness racing.

Proposed section 27B provides that HRNSW may, when conducting an inquiry, determine to treat the inquiry as a special inquiry if HRNSW is reasonably satisfied that the inquiry raises a threat to harness racing. The procedures of a special inquiry are to be determined by the rules made by HRNSW. However, if a person is attending the special inquiry because of a compulsion order, the person is permitted to have legal representation and the person presiding at the special inquiry must be assisted by an Australian legal practitioner.

Proposed section 27C permits HRNSW to apply to the Supreme Court for a compulsion order against a person. A compulsion order is an order that authorises HRNSW to use one or more compulsion powers on the person. Those powers are—

- (a) the power to order the person to attend a hearing of the special inquiry, and
- (b) the power to order the person to provide information at a hearing, and
- (c) the power to order the person to otherwise provide information.

Proposed section 27D authorises HRNSW to exercise compulsion powers on a person in accordance with a compulsion order. Before doing so, HRNSW must notify the person. It is an offence for a person to fail to comply with a requirement imposed on the person by the exercise of a compulsion power (maximum penalty 6 months imprisonment or a fine of $11,000, or both).

Proposed section 27E provides that a person is not excused from a requirement to provide information on the ground that the information might incriminate the person. However, any information provided by an individual is not admissible in evidence against the individual in disciplinary, civil or criminal proceedings.

Proposed section 27F requires the Minister to review the penalty under proposed section 27D after 3 years.

Schedule 1[3] omits a spent provision.

Schedule 2      Amendment of Thoroughbred Racing Act 1996 No 37

Schedule 2[1] inserts proposed Divisions 5 and 6 into Part 2A of the Thoroughbred Racing Act 1996.

Proposed Division 5 authorises Racing NSW to make rules with respect to the control and regulation of horse racing or the exercise of the functions of Racing NSW.

Proposed Division 6 provides for special inquiries and comprises proposed sections 29Q–29V.

Proposed section 29Q contains definitions used in the proposed Division including threat to horse racing which means a threat to the integrity of horse racing or to public confidence in the conduct of horse racing.

Proposed section 29R provides that Racing NSW may, when conducting an inquiry, determine to treat the inquiry as a special inquiry if Racing NSW is reasonably satisfied that the inquiry raises a threat to horse racing. The procedures of a special inquiry are to be determined by the rules made by Racing NSW. However, if a person is attending the special inquiry because of a compulsion order, the person is permitted to have legal representation and the person presiding at the special inquiry must be assisted by an Australian legal practitioner.

Proposed section 29S permits Racing NSW to apply to the Supreme Court for a compulsion order against a person. A compulsion order is an order that authorises Racing NSW to use one or more compulsion powers on the person. Those powers are—

- (a) the power to order the person to attend a hearing of the special inquiry, and
- (b) the power to order the person to provide information at a hearing, and
- (c) the power to order the person to otherwise provide information.

Proposed section 29T authorises Racing NSW to exercise compulsion powers on a person in accordance with a compulsion order. Before doing so, Racing NSW must notify the person. It is an offence for a person to fail to comply with a requirement imposed on the person by the exercise of a compulsion power (maximum penalty 6 months imprisonment or a fine of $11,000, or both).

Proposed section 29U provides that a person is not excused from a requirement to provide information on the ground that the information might incriminate the person. However, any information provided by an individual is not admissible in evidence against the individual in disciplinary, civil or criminal proceedings.

Proposed section 29V requires the Minister to review the penalty under proposed section 29T after 3 years.

Schedule 2[2] provides that proceedings for an offence under the Thoroughbred Racing Act 1996 may be dealt with before the Local Court.

Schedule 2[3] omits a spent provision.

Schedule 3      Amendment of Betting and Racing Act 1998 No 114

Schedule 3 inserts proposed Division 3 into Part 2 of the Betting and Racing Act 1998 that provides for the exclusion by the Commissioner of Police of persons from racecourses. The proposed Division comprises proposed sections 15A–15D.

Proposed section 15A contains definitions used in the proposed Division.

Proposed section 15B authorises the Commissioner of Police to make an exclusion order against a person that excludes the person from racecourses during race meetings. The Commissioner can make an exclusion order only if the Commissioner is of the opinion that it is necessary to do so in the public interest. The Commissioner is to give notice of the making of the order to the following—

- (a) Racing NSW, Harness Racing New South Wales, Greyhound Racing New South Wales and the Greyhound Welfare and Integrity Commission,
- (b) other Australian police forces,
- (c) the person who is the subject of the order (if that person can be found).

Proposed section 15C creates an offence with a maximum penalty of 12 months imprisonment or a fine of $5,500, or both if a person who is the subject of an order enters, or remains on, a racecourse at any time during which there is a race meeting being held at the racecourse.

Proposed section 15D provides that a person against whom an exclusion order is made may appeal to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal against the decision to make the order.

Schedule 4      Amendment of Racing Appeals Tribunal Act 1983 No 199

Schedule 4[1] enables a qualified person to be appointed to act as the Racing Appeals Tribunal (the Tribunal) on the occasions or in respect of the appeals as the person appointed as the Tribunal directs.

Schedule 4[2] allows the Tribunal to appoint expert assessors to assist the Tribunal in particular proceedings.

Schedule 4[3] increases the maximum penalty for failing to comply with a notice requiring attendance before the Tribunal from $550 to $11,000 or imprisonment for 6 months (or both).

Schedule 4[4]–[8] enable the Tribunal to make use of the services of the staff of any racing controlling body (being Racing New South Wales, Harness Racing New South Wales, the Greyhound Welfare and Integrity Commission and Greyhound Racing New South Wales).

Schedule 4[9] permits the electronic service of documents under the Racing Appeals Tribunal Act 1983.

Schedule 5      Amendment of Totalizator Act 1997 No 45

Schedule 5 omits provisions relating to the Tax Reduction Trust Fund, winds up that Fund and provides that any money standing to the credit of the Fund be paid to Greyhound Racing New South Wales.

Schedule 6      Amendment of Totalizator Regulation 2012

Schedule 6 makes an amendment consequential on the winding up of the Tax Reduction Trust Fund by Schedule 5.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts—

1

1 Name of Act

2

This Act is the Racing Legislation Amendment Act 2019.

3

2 Commencement

4

(1) This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation, except as provided by subsection (2).

5

6

(2) Schedules 5 and 6 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

7

Schedule 1	Amendment of Harness Racing Act 2009 No 20	1
[1] Section 23 Rules generally		2
Insert after section 23(3)—		3
(4) HRNSW may amend or repeal a rule made under this Division.		4
[2] Part 3, Division 4		5
Insert after Division 3—		6
Division 4	Special inquiries	7
27A	Definitions	8
In this Division—		9
compulsion order and compulsion powers have the same meanings as in section 27C.		10
information includes a document or thing that contains information.		11
provide information includes answering a question.		12
special inquiry means a special inquiry established under section 27B.		13
threat to harness racing means a threat to—		14
(a) the integrity of harness racing, or		15
(b) public confidence in the conduct of harness racing.		16
27B	Special inquiry	17
(1) HRNSW may, when conducting an inquiry, decide to treat the inquiry as a special inquiry if HRNSW is reasonably satisfied that the inquiry raises a threat to harness racing.		18
(2) If a person attending a hearing of a special inquiry is attending because of a compulsion order—		19
(a) the person is entitled to be represented by an Australian legal practitioner, and		20
(b) the person presiding at the hearing is to be assisted by an Australian legal practitioner who has been practising in the State for at least 7 years, and		21
(c) the Australian legal practitioner assisting the person presiding must explain to the person the subject of the compulsion order—		22
(i) the effect of the compulsion powers specified in the order, and		23
(ii) the effect of section 27E.		24
(3) The rules may make further provision for the conduct of a special inquiry, including the procedures to be followed at a hearing of the special inquiry.		25
(4) Nothing in this section limits the power of HRNSW to otherwise inquire into any matter.		26
27C	Compulsion orders	27
(1) HRNSW may apply to the Supreme Court for an order (a compulsion order ) authorising HRNSW to use the following powers ( compulsion powers ) on a person for the purposes of obtaining information of relevance to a special inquiry ( relevant information )—		28
		29
		30
		31
		32
		33
		34
		35
		36
		37
		38
		39
		40
		41

- (a) the power to order the person to attend a hearing of the special inquiry on the days specified in the order, 1 2
  - (b) the power to order the person to provide the relevant information at a hearing, 3 4
  - (c) the power to order the person to otherwise provide the relevant information to the special inquiry. 5 6
- (2) HRNSW may apply for the compulsion order only if it is reasonably satisfied that— 7 8
  - (a) the person has relevant information and the person is unwilling to provide the relevant information to the special inquiry, or 9 10
  - (b) the person has relevant information and exceptional circumstances exist that require a compulsion power to be used without first asking the person to voluntarily provide the relevant information. 11
12
13
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), exceptional circumstances include circumstances in which there is a very high likelihood that relevant information essential to the special inquiry will be lost. 14
15
16
- (4) The Supreme Court is to decide the application for the compulsion order in the absence of the person and without conducting a hearing unless it is satisfied that the interests of justice require the person to be present. 17
18
19
- (5) The Supreme Court is, when deciding if the interests of justice require the person to be present, to take into account— 20 21
  - (a) the risk that the relevant information may be lost if the person is given advance notice of the proposed exercise of compulsion powers, and 22 23
  - (b) any other matter the Court considers relevant. 24
- (6) The Supreme Court is, when deciding whether to grant the compulsion order, to take into account the following— 25 26
  - (a) the nature of the threat to harness racing that the special inquiry is considering, 27 28
  - (b) the value to the special inquiry of the relevant information sought, 29
  - (c) the likelihood the person has the relevant information, 30
  - (d) the likelihood the person would be unwilling to provide the relevant information, 31
32
  - (e) if the application was made on the basis of HRNSW being satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist, the nature of the exceptional circumstances, 33
34
35
  - (f) the harm likely to be caused to the person if the order is granted and the person is required to provide relevant information that may incriminate the person, 36
37
38
  - (g) any other matter the Court considers relevant. 39
- (7) If the Court decides to grant the compulsion order, it must specify the following in the order— 40
41
  - (a) the name of the person the subject of the order, 42
  - (b) the compulsion powers HRNSW is authorised to use, 43
  - (c) any limitation to which the use of the compulsion powers is subject, 44
  - (d) the day on which the order expires. 45

(8)	The Court must give reasons for its decision to grant or refuse to grant the compulsion order.	1 2
(9)	A reference in this section to relevant information being lost includes a reference to the relevant information being concealed, altered, destroyed or otherwise being made unavailable to a special inquiry.	3 4 5
27D	HRNSW may exercise compulsion powers in accordance with order	6
(1)	HRNSW may, in accordance with a compulsion order, exercise a compulsion power on the person the subject of the compulsion order.	7 8
(2)	Before exercising the compulsion power on the person, HRNSW must inform the person in writing of the following—	9 10
(a)	that a compulsion order has been made in relation to the person,	11
(b)	what the compulsion power requires the person to do,	12
(c)	the reasonable time within which the person must comply with the requirement,	13 14
(d)	the penalty for failing to comply with the requirement.	15
(3)	A person must not fail to comply with a requirement imposed on the person by the exercise of a compulsion power. Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment, or both.	16 17 18
27E	Provisions relating to requirements to provide information	19
(1)	Warning to be given on each occasion A person is not guilty of an offence of failing to comply with a requirement under this Division to provide information unless the person was warned on that occasion that a failure to comply is an offence.	20 21 22 23
(2)	Self-incrimination not an excuse A person is not excused from a requirement under this Division to provide information on the ground that the information might incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.	24 25 26 27
(3)	Information not admissible in other proceedings However, any information provided by a natural person in compliance with a requirement under this Division is not admissible in evidence against the person in disciplinary, civil or criminal proceedings (except for proceedings under this Act).	28 29 30 31 32
(4)	Further information Further information obtained as a result of information provided in compliance with a requirement under this Division is not inadmissible on the ground—	33 34 35 36
(a)	that the information had to be provided, or	37
(b)	that the information might incriminate the person.	38
27F	Review of penalty for offence	39
(1)	The Minister is to review the penalty imposed by section 27D(3) to determine whether the level of the penalty remains valid and appropriate for securing the objectives of this Division.	40 41 42
(2)	The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 3 years from the commencement of that section.	43 44

(3) A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 3 years. 1

[3] Section 49 Review of Act 3

Omit the section. 4

Schedule 2	Amendment of Thoroughbred Racing Act 1996	1
	No 37	2
[1] Part 2A, Divisions 5 and 6		3
Insert after Division 4—		4
Division 5	Rules	5
29O	Rules in relation to horse racing	6
	Racing NSW may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act or the regulations, for or with respect to—	7 8
	(a) the control and regulation of horse racing, or	9
	(b) the exercise of the functions of Racing NSW.	10
29P	Rules generally	11
	(1) A provision of a rule made under this Division may—	12
	(a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors, or	13 14
	(b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind, or	15
	(c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person or body,	16 17
	or may do any combination of those things.	18
	(2) A rule made under this Division may apply, adopt or incorporate any publication as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time.	19 20
	(3) A rule made under this Division may not be made for or with respect to any of the matters for or with respect to which regulations may be made by virtue of this Act.	21 22 23
	(4) Racing NSW may amend or repeal a rule made under this Division.	24
Division 6	Special inquiries	25
29Q	Definitions	26
	In this Division—	27
	compulsion order and compulsion powers have the same meanings as in section 29S.	28 29
	information includes a document or thing that contains information.	30
	provide information includes answering a question.	31
	special inquiry means a special inquiry established under section 29R.	32
	threat to horse racing means a threat to—	33
	(a) the integrity of horse racing, or	34
	(b) public confidence in the conduct of horse racing.	35
29R	Special inquiry	36
	(1) Racing NSW may, when conducting an inquiry, decide to treat the inquiry as a special inquiry if Racing NSW is reasonably satisfied that the inquiry raises a threat to horse racing.	37 38 39

(2)	If a person attending a hearing of a special inquiry is attending because of a compulsion order—	1
		2
(a)	the person is entitled to be represented by an Australian legal practitioner, and	3
		4
(b)	the person presiding at the hearing is to be assisted by an Australian legal practitioner who has been practising in the State for at least 7 years, and	5
		6
		7
(c)	the Australian legal practitioner assisting the person presiding must explain to the person the subject of the compulsion order—	8
		9
(i)	the effect of the compulsion powers specified in the order, and	10
(ii)	the effect of section 29U.	11
(3)	The rules may make further provision for the conduct of a special inquiry, including the procedures to be followed at a hearing of the special inquiry.	12
		13
(4)	Nothing in this section limits the power of Racing NSW to otherwise inquire into any matter.	14
		15
29S	Compulsion orders	16
(1)	Racing NSW may apply to the Supreme Court for an order (a compulsion order ) authorising Racing NSW to use the following powers ( compulsion powers ) on a person for the purposes of obtaining information of relevance to a special inquiry ( relevant information )—	17
		18
		20
(a)	the power to order the person to attend a hearing of the special inquiry on the days specified in the order,	21
		22
(b)	the power to order the person to provide the relevant information at a hearing,	23
		24
(c)	the power to order the person to otherwise provide the relevant information to the special inquiry.	25
		26
(2)	Racing NSW may apply for the compulsion order only if it is reasonably satisfied that—	27
		28
(a)	the person has relevant information and the person is unwilling to provide the relevant information to the special inquiry, or	29
		30
(b)	the person has relevant information and exceptional circumstances exist that require a compulsion power to be used without first asking the person to voluntarily provide the relevant information.	31
		32
		33
(3)	For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), exceptional circumstances include circumstances in which there is a very high likelihood that relevant information essential to the special inquiry will be lost.	34
		35
		36
(4)	The Supreme Court is to decide the application for the compulsion order in the absence of the person and without conducting a hearing unless it is satisfied that the interests of justice require the person to be present.	37
		38
		39
(5)	The Supreme Court is, when deciding if the interests of justice require the person to be present, to take into account—	40
		41
(a)	the risk that the relevant information may be lost if the person is given advance notice of the proposed exercise of compulsion powers, and	42
		43
(b)	any other matter the Court considers relevant.	44
		44
(6)	The Supreme Court is, when deciding whether to grant the compulsion order, to take into account the following—	45
		46

(a)	the nature of the threat to horse racing that the special inquiry is considering,	1 2
(b)	the value to the special inquiry of the relevant information sought,	3
(c)	the likelihood the person has the relevant information,	4
(d)	the likelihood the person would be unwilling to provide the relevant information,	5 6
(e)	if the application was made on the basis of Racing NSW being satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist, the nature of the exceptional circumstances,	7 8 9
(f)	the harm likely to be caused to the person if the order is granted and the person is required to provide relevant information that may incriminate the person,	10 11 12
(g)	any other matter the Court considers relevant.	13
(7)	If the Court decides to grant the compulsion order, it must specify the following in the order—	14 15
(a)	the name of the person the subject of the order,	16
(b)	the compulsion powers Racing NSW is authorised to use,	17
(c)	any limitation to which the use of the compulsion powers is subject,	18
(d)	the day on which the order expires.	19
(8)	The Court must give reasons for its decision to grant or refuse to grant the compulsion order.	20 21
(9)	A reference in this section to relevant information being lost includes a reference to the relevant information being concealed, altered, destroyed or otherwise being made unavailable to a special inquiry.	22 23 24
29T	Racing NSW may exercise compulsion powers in accordance with order	25
(1)	Racing NSW may, in accordance with a compulsion order, exercise a compulsion power on the person the subject of the compulsion order.	26 27
(2)	Before exercising the compulsion power on the person, Racing NSW must inform the person in writing of the following—	28 29
(a)	that a compulsion order has been made in relation to the person,	30
(b)	what the compulsion power requires the person to do,	31
(c)	the reasonable time within which the person must comply with the requirement,	32 33
(d)	the penalty for failing to comply with the requirement.	34
(3)	A person must not fail to comply with a requirement imposed on the person by the exercise of a compulsion power. Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment, or both.	35 36 37
29U	Provisions relating to requirements to provide information	38
(1)	Warning to be given on each occasion	39
	A person is not guilty of an offence of failing to comply with a requirement under this Division to provide information unless the person was warned on that occasion that a failure to comply is an offence.	40 41 42

(2)	Self-incrimination not an excuse	1
	A person is not excused from a requirement under this Division to provide information on the ground that the information might incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.	2 3 4
(3)	Information not admissible in other proceedings	5
	However, any information provided by a natural person in compliance with a requirement under this Division is not admissible in evidence against the person in disciplinary, civil or criminal proceedings (except for proceedings under this Act).	6 7 8 9
(4)	Further information	10
	Further information obtained as a result of information provided in compliance with a requirement under this Division is not inadmissible on the ground—	11 12 13
	(a) that the information had to be provided, or	14
	(b) that the information might incriminate the person.	15
29V	Review of penalty for offence	16
(1)	The Minister is to review the penalty imposed by section 29T(3) to determine whether the level of the penalty remains valid and appropriate for securing the objectives of this Division.	17 18 19
(2)	The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 3 years from the commencement of that section.	20 21
(3)	A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 3 years.	22 23

Schedule 3	Amendment of Betting and Racing Act 1998	1
	No 114	2
Part 2, Division 3		3
Insert after Division 2—		4
Division 3	Exclusion of persons from racecourses	5
15A	Definitions	6
	In this Division—	7
	Commissioner means the Commissioner of Police.	8
	exclusion order has the same meaning as in section 15B.	9
15B	Commissioner of Police may exclude person from racecourses	10
(1)	The Commissioner may, by written order (an exclusion order ), exclude a person from licensed racecourses at any time during which there is a race meeting at the racecourse.	11 12 13
(2)	An exclusion order may be made only if the Commissioner is of the opinion it is necessary to do so in the public interest.	14 15
(3)	An exclusion order remains in force for the period specified in the order, unless sooner revoked by the Commissioner.	16 17
(4)	The Commissioner is to ensure that a written notice of the making of an exclusion order is given to—	18 19
	(a) each racing controlling body, and	20
	(b) if the person the subject of the exclusion order can be reasonably found by the Commissioner, that person.	21 22
(5)	The notice must set out the terms of the order and, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, include a photograph of the person the subject of the order.	23 24 25
(6)	Each racing controlling body that is given the notice must give a copy of the notice to each non-proprietary association that is registered as a racing club by the racing controlling body.	26 27 28
(7)	The copy must be given as soon as practicable after the racing controlling body receives the notice.	29 30
(8)	The Commissioner is to—	31
	(a) notify the appropriate authority in each State or Territory of the making of an exclusion order and the revocation of an exclusion order, and	32 33
	(b) provide the appropriate authorities with the name of the person the subject of the exclusion order and, if practicable, a photograph of that person.	34 35 36
(9)	The Commissioner is not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give any reasons for making an exclusion order if the giving of those reasons would disclose the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information.	37 38 39 40
(10)	In this section—	41
	appropriate authority means—	42

(a)	in relation to a State or Territory (other than the Australian Capital Territory)—an authority exercising, in relation to the police force of that State or Territory, functions corresponding to the functions of the Commissioner in relation to the NSW Police Force, or	1 2 3 4
(b)	in relation to the Australian Capital Territory—the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police.	5 6
15C	Entering racecourse in breach of an exclusion order	7
	A person who is the subject of an exclusion order must not enter, or remain on, a racecourse at any time during which there is a race meeting being held at the racecourse.	8 9 10
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months (or both).	11
15D	Right to seek administrative review from Civil and Administrative Tribunal	12
(1)	A person may apply to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal for an administrative review under the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 of a decision to make an exclusion order applying to the person.	13 14 15
(2)	In determining the application, the Civil and Administrative Tribunal (and any Appeal Panel of the Tribunal in determining any internal appeal against the review under the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 )—	16 17 18
(a)	is to ensure that it does not, in the reasons for its decision or otherwise, disclose the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information without the approval of the Commissioner, and	19 20 21 22
(b)	to prevent the disclosure of a criminal intelligence report or other criminal information, is to receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of the public, the applicant for the administrative review, the applicant’s representative and any other interested party, unless the Commissioner approves otherwise.	23 24 25 26 27
(3)	If the Tribunal considers that information contained in a criminal intelligence report or other criminal information has not been properly identified, the Tribunal must ask the Commissioner whether the Commissioner wishes to withdraw the information from consideration by the Tribunal in its determination of the application.	28 29 30 31 32
(4)	Information that is withdrawn by the Commissioner must not be—	33
(a)	disclosed to any person, or	34
(b)	taken into consideration by the Tribunal in determining the application.	35
(5)	Section 53 (Internal reviews) of the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 does not apply in relation to a decision referred to in subsection (1).	36 37
