Roman Catholic Church Trust Property Amendment (Justice for Victims) Bill 2014

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The NSW Court of Appeal has held that property held on trust under the Roman Catholic Church Trust Property Act 1936 for the use, benefit or purposes of the Roman Catholic Church in New South Wales cannot be used to satisfy legal claims associated with sexual abuse by Roman Catholic clergy, officials or teachers. The object of this Bill is to amend that Act:

- (a) to allow a person suing a member of the Church's clergy, a Church official or a Church teacher in relation to sexual abuse to join the following as defendants in those proceedings (and to make them liable for any damages awarded):
 - (i) the body corporate established by the Act to hold property on trust for the dioceses in which the relevant abuse allegedly occurred,
 - (ii) the trustees that make up that body corporate,
 - (iii) if the regulations so provide, any body corporate established under the Roman Catholic Church Communities' Lands Act 1942 by which the relevant member of the clergy, official or teacher was employed or that was established as trustee of community land of any community of which the relevant member of the clergy, official or teacher was a part, and
- (b) to allow a person who is owed a judgment debt in respect of civil liability arising as a result of sexual abuse by a member of the Church's clergy, a Church official or a Church teacher to recover the debt from any of the following (as an alternative to pursuing the clergy member, official or teacher concerned):
 - (i) the body corporate established by the Act to hold property on trust for the dioceses in which the relevant abuse allegedly occurred,

- (ii) the trustees that make up that body corporate,
 - (iii) if the regulations so provide, any body corporate established under the Roman Catholic Church Communities' Lands Act 1942 by which the relevant member of the clergy, official or teacher was employed or that was established as trustee of community land of any community of which the relevant member of the clergy, official or teacher was a part, and
- (c) to suspend the operation of the Limitation Act 1969 for 2 years in relation to such causes of action that would otherwise be out of time.
