Road Transport Legislation Amendment (Drink and Drug Driving Offence) Bill 2021

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to introduce a combined alcohol and drug driving offence under the Road Transport Act 2013 (the Act) and provide for the penalties for the offence. The Bill makes other minor and consequential amendments.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Road Transport Act 2013 No 18

Schedule 1[1] inserts the definition of combined alcohol and drug driving offence.

Schedule 1[2] amends the definition of major offence to provide that a combined alcohol and drug driving offence is a major offence.

Schedule 1[3] inserts proposed section 111A which provides that it is an offence for a person driving, occupying the driving seat of a motor vehicle and attempting to put the vehicle in motion, or occupying the seat next to a learner driver driving the vehicle while a high range prescribed concentration of alcohol and presence of a prescribed illicit drug or a middle range prescribed concentration of alcohol and presence of a prescribed illicit drug is present in the person. Proposed section 111A(3) also provides that it is an offence for a person to commit an offence under section 110(1), (2) or (3) while there is present in the person's oral fluid, blood or urine, a prescribed illicit drug if the person has, within the previous 5 years, been convicted of combined alcohol and drug driving offence under proposed section 111A(1) or (2), or if the person has previously been convicted of the same offence under subsection (3) in the previous 5 years. The proposed new offence provides that a person cannot be convicted of certain other offences in relation to the same conduct. The court is also provided with a power to acquit a person of an offence against proposed section 111A and find the person guilty of certain offences with the same or a lesser maximum penalty. The proposed section sets out the circumstances which are not a defence to a prosecution for an offence. It also provides a defence for an offence that relates to a novice range prescribed concentration of alcohol.

Schedule 1[4] inserts a reference to proposed section 111A in relation to section 113(1) for the purpose of ensuring that the provision about detention of vehicles in certain cases extends to the proposed combined alcohol and drug driving offence.

Schedule 1[5] inserts a reference to proposed section 111A in section 202(1)(d) for the purpose of prescribing the period within which proceedings may be commenced.

Schedule 1[6] amends section 203(2)(a) to provide that proposed section 111A is an applicable offence for the purpose of disapplying the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999, section 10, in certain circumstances.

Schedule 1[7]–[11] provide that a conviction for an offence against proposed section 111A is a type of offence for which a disqualification, including an automatic disqualification, from holding a driver licence applies, and prescribes the periods for the disqualification.

Schedule 1[12] provides that section 205(4) does not apply in relation to the calculation of disqualification periods for multiple convictions of a person if one or more of the convictions is for a combined alcohol and drug driving offence.

Schedule 1[13] inserts a provision to provide for the maximum period of automatic disqualification from holding a licence if multiple offences are committed arising out of a single incident and one of the offences is a combined alcohol and drug driving offence.

Schedule 1[14] amends the definition of alcohol-related major offence to include a combined alcohol and drug driving offence as an alcohol-related major offence for Part 7.4, Division 2.

Schedule 1[15] amends the definition of mandatory interlock offence to include a combined alcohol and drug driving offence that is a first offence or a second or subsequent offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence.

Schedule 1[16] provides for offences against proposed section 111A to be inserted into the table relating to mandatory interlock offences and provides for the minimum and maximum disqualification period and minimum interlock period.

Schedule 1[17] amends section 212(3)(c) and (5) to provide for circumstances that affect whether the court may make a mandatory interlock order in relation to a conviction for an offence against proposed section 111A(2).

Schedule 1[18] continues the operation of a suspension notice given by a police officer for an offence against section 110 if the driver is later charged with an offence against proposed section 111A, until all charges are withdrawn or heard and determined by the court.

Schedule 1[19] amends the definition of sanctionable offence to include a combined alcohol and drug driving offence for the purposes of Part 7.6.

Schedule 1[20] provides for when a police officer may impose an additional sanction for a sanctionable offence that is a combined alcohol and drug driving offence.

Schedule 1[21] inserts into Schedule 3 provisions relating to evidence about the alcohol concentration for proceedings for an offence against proposed section 111A and the presence of drugs for proceedings for an offence against proposed section 111A.

Schedule 1[22] and [23] amend Schedule 3 to provide that a conviction for an offence against proposed section 111A is not admissible as evidence of the fact that a person was at any time under the influence of, or in any way affected by, intoxicating liquor or incapable of driving or of exercising effective control over a motor vehicle for the purpose of a contract of insurance. Certain covenants, terms, conditions or provisions in a contract of insurance relating to an offence against proposed section 111A are also void.

Schedule 1[24] and [25] extend provisions about certificate evidence to apply for an offence against proposed section 111A.

Schedule 1[26] inserts the proposed section 111A offence in the definition of related alcohol or drug offence in Schedule 3, clause 40(4), in relation to ensuring a person is not convicted of an offence against section 112(1) as well as a combined alcohol and drug driving offence if the offences arose out of the same circumstances.

Schedule 2 Amendment of other legislation

Schedule 2.1 amends the Criminal Procedure Regulation 2017 to include the new combined alcohol and drug driving offence as an offence prescribed for the purposes of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, section 187(5), for which a prosecutor is not required to serve a brief of evidence.

Schedule 2.2 amends the Health Services Regulation 2018 to prescribe a combined alcohol and drug driving offence as a traffic offence for the purposes of Part 4 of that Regulation.

Schedule 2.3 provides that a combined alcohol and drug driving offence is a disqualifying offence under the Point to Point Transport (Taxis and Hire Vehicles) Regulation 2017, clause 24.

Schedule 2.4 includes a combined alcohol and drug driving offence in the Recreation Vehicles Act 1983, section 23 which relates to driving a motor vehicle in a recreational vehicle area.

Schedule 2.5 prescribes, for the purposes of the Act, section 9(5)(e), that an offence under the law of another jurisdiction that includes the same elements of a combined alcohol and drug driving offence is an equivalent offence.

Schedule 2.6 provides that a combined alcohol and drug driving offence is a type of offence for which Transport for NSW may require a person to undertake an alcohol or other drug education program and makes consequential amendments to update references to Transport for NSW.

	(a) for a first offence—30 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 months or both, or	43 44

(b)	for a second or subsequent offence—60 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or both.	1 2
(3)	Offence—second or subsequent offence of combined alcohol and drug driving offence	3 4
	A person commits an offence against this subsection if—	5
(a)	the person commits an offence under section 110(1), (2) or (3), while there is present in the person’s oral fluid, blood or urine, a prescribed illicit drug, and	6 7 8
(b)	the person has been convicted of an offence against this subsection or subsection (1) or (2) in the previous 5 years.	9 10
	Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 months or both.	11
(4)	A person cannot be convicted of an offence against this section and section 110, 111(1) or 112 in relation to the same conduct.	12 13
(5)	Alternative verdicts	14
	If the court, on a prosecution of a person for an offence against a subsection of this section, is not satisfied that the offence is proven but is satisfied that the person has committed an offence against another subsection of this section or against section 110 or 111(1), having the same or a lesser maximum penalty, the court may acquit the person of the offence with which the person is charged and find the person guilty of the other offence, and the person is liable to be punished accordingly.	15 16 17 18 19 20 21
(6)	Presence of higher concentration of alcohol not defence	22
	It is not a defence to a prosecution for an offence against a subsection of this section if the defendant proves that, at the time the defendant engaged in the conduct that is alleged to have contravened the subsection, a greater concentration of alcohol was present in the defendant’s breath or blood than the prescribed concentration of alcohol referred to in the offence.	23 24 25 26 27
(7)	Defence for offence relating to novice range prescribed concentration of alcohol	28 29
	It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (3), if—	30
(a)	an element of the offence under subsection (3) is that the person is alleged to have committed an offence under section 110(1), and	31 32
(b)	the defendant proves to the court’s satisfaction that, at the time the defendant engaged in the conduct that is alleged to have contravened section 110(1), the presence in the defendant’s breath or blood of the novice range prescribed concentration of alcohol was not caused, in whole or in part, by—	33 34 35 36 37
(i)	the consumption of an alcoholic beverage, other than for the purposes of religious observance, or	38 39
(ii)	the consumption or use of another substance, for example, food or medicine, for the purpose of consuming alcohol.	40 41
[4]	Section 113 Detention of vehicle in certain cases	42
	Insert after section 113(2)—	43
(3)	Subsection (1) extends to a police officer dealing with a vehicle in respect of which the offence that has been committed is subsequently determined to be an offence against section 111A.	44 45 46

[5] Section 202 Period within which certain other proceedings may be commenced	1
Insert “, 111A” after “111” in section 202(1)(d).	2
[6] Section 203 Section 10 of Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 not applicable in certain circumstances	3
Insert “111A,” after “111,” in section 203(2)(a).	4
[7] Section 205 Disqualification for certain major offences	5
Insert after section 205(2)(b)—	6
(b1) where the conviction is for an offence against section 111A(2)—	7
(i) the person is automatically disqualified for 2 years from holding a driver licence, or	8
(ii) if the court that convicts the person thinks fit to order a shorter period, but not shorter than 12 months, or longer period of disqualification—the person is disqualified from holding a driver licence for the period specified in the order, or	9
[8] Section 205(2)(c1)	10
Insert after section 205(2)(c)—	11
(c1) where the conviction is for an offence against section 111A(1)—	12
(i) the person is automatically disqualified for 4 years from holding a driver licence, or	13
(ii) if the court that convicts the person thinks fit to order a shorter period, but not shorter than 18 months, or longer period of disqualification—the person is disqualified from holding a driver licence for the period specified in the order, or	14
[9] Section 205(3)(a1)	15
Insert after section 205(3)(a)—	16
(a1) where the conviction is for an offence against section 111A(3)—	17
(i) the person is automatically disqualified for 2 years from holding a driver licence, or	18
(ii) if the court that convicts the person thinks fit to order a shorter period, but not shorter than 18 months, or longer period of disqualification—the person is disqualified from holding a driver licence for the period specified in the order, or	19
[10] Section 205(3)(b1)	20
Insert after section 205(3)(b)—	21
(b1) where the conviction is for an offence against section 111A(2)—	22
(i) the person is automatically disqualified for 2 years from holding a driver licence, or	23
(ii) if the court that convicts the person thinks fit to order a shorter period, but not shorter than 18 months, or longer period of disqualification—the person is disqualified from holding a driver licence for the period specified in the order, or	24
[11] Section 205(3)(c1)	25
Insert after section 205(3)(c)—	26
(c1) where the conviction is for an offence against section 111A(1)—	27

	(i) the person is automatically disqualified for 6 years from holding a driver licence, or	1 2
	(ii) if the court that convicts the person thinks fit to order a shorter period, but not shorter than 3 years, or longer period of disqualification—the person is disqualified from holding a driver licence for the period specified in the order, or	3 4 5 6
[12]	Section 205(4)	7
	Insert “other than for an offence against section 111A(1), (2) or (3),” after “or trailer,”.	8
[13]	Section 205(4A)	9
	Insert after section 205(4)—	10
	(4A) Calculation of disqualification periods in case of multiple offences including a combined alcohol and drug driving offence	11 12
	If 2 or more convictions of a person are made, whether or not at the same time, for crimes or offences arising out of a single incident involving the use of a motor vehicle or trailer, and one of the offences is an offence against section 111A(1), (2) or (3), the following provisions apply—	13 14 15 16
	(a) for the purpose of ascertaining whether subsection (2) or (3) should apply in relation to the conviction—	17 18
	(i) the other of those convictions are to be disregarded, and	19
	(ii) subsection (2) or (3), as the case may require, is, accordingly, to be the applicable subsection,	20 21
	(b) the maximum period of automatic disqualification for all crimes or offences is to be—	22 23
	(i) if subsection (2) is applicable—4 years, or	24
	(ii) if subsection (3) is applicable—6 years,	25
	(c) a minimum period of ordered disqualification is, for the crimes or offences, to be disregarded to the extent that the total period of ordered and, where relevant, automatic disqualification would exceed—	26 27 28
	(i) where subsection (2) is applicable—18 months, or	29
	(ii) where subsection (3) is applicable—3 years.	30
	However, nothing in paragraph (c) prevents the court, if it thinks fit, from making an order it could have made if paragraph (c) had not been enacted.	31 32
[14]	Section 209 Definitions	33
	Insert after paragraph (e) of the definition of alcohol-related major offence in section 209(1)—	34 35
	(e1) a combined alcohol and drug driving offence,	36
[15]	Section 209(1), definition of “mandatory interlock offence”	37
	Insert after paragraph (e)—	38
	(e1) a combined alcohol and drug driving offence that is a first offence or a second or subsequent offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence,	39 40 41
[16]	Section 211 Mandatory interlock orders	42
	Insert in appropriate order in the Table to the section—	43

	An offence against section 111A(1) that is a first offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence	6 months	9 months	24 months
	An offence against section 111A(1) that is a second or subsequent offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence	9 months	12 months	48 months
	An offence against section 111A(2) that is a first offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence	3 months	6 months	12 months
	An offence against section 111A(2) that is a second or subsequent offence by the offender for any other alcohol-related major offence	6 months	9 months	24 months
	An offence against section 111A(3)	1 month	3 months	12 months
[17]	Section 212 Interlock exemption orders				1
	Insert “or 111A(2)” after “or (c)” wherever occurring in section 212(3)(c) and (5).				2
[18]	Section 224 When immediate licence suspension notice may be issued by police officer				3
	Insert after section 224(4)—				4
	(4A) If a driver is given an immediate licence suspension notice under subsection (1) in relation to an offence against section 110, other than a driver issued with a penalty notice for an offence under section 224(1)(a1), and the driver is subsequently charged with an offence against section 111A, the licence suspension continues until—				5
	(a) the charge for the offence against section 111A is withdrawn or heard and determined by the court, and				6
	(b) any other charges for which the immediate licence suspension notice was given are withdrawn or heard and determined by the court.				7
[19]	Section 237 Definitions				8
	Insert after paragraph (a1) of the definition of sanctionable offence in section 237(1)—				9
	(a2) an offence against—				10
	(i) section 111A(2), but only if the person has been convicted of an alcohol-related major offence, within the meaning of Part 7.4, Division 2, during the period of 5 years before the new offence was committed, or				11
	(ii) section 111A(1) or (3),				12
[20]	Section 238 When additional sanctions may be imposed				13
	Insert after section 238(b)—				14
	(b1) is being or has, on that day or during the past 60 days, been operated on a road by an offending operator of the vehicle to commit a sanctionable offence of a kind specified in section 237(1), definition of sanctionable offence , paragraph (a2), or				15
