Division 6 Protection of animal enterprises

203F Definitions

In this Division:

animal enterprise includes any of the following:

- (a) a commercial or academic enterprise that uses, sells, houses or stores animals or animal products for profit, food, fibre production, agriculture, education, research or testing,
- (b) a zoo, aquarium, animal shelter, pet shop, animal breeding establishment or circus,
- (c) a rodeo or other lawful competitive animal event,
- (d) any show or similar event intended to advance agricultural arts and sciences.

economic damage includes any of the following:

- (a) the costs of replacing lost or damaged property,
- (b) the costs of repeating an interrupted or invalidated experiment,
- (c) lost profits or an increase in costs, but does not include the costs of any lawful economic disruption (including a lawful boycott) that results from a lawful public, government or business response to the disclosure of information about an animal enterprise.

serious bodily injury means any of the following:

- (a) injury posing a substantial risk of death,
- (b) extreme physical pain,
- (c) protracted and obvious disfigurement,
- (d) protracted loss or impairment of the function of any part of the body or mental faculty.

substantial bodily injury means any of the following:

- (a) deep cuts or serious burns or abrasions,
- (b) significant physical pain,
- (c) fractured or dislocated bones,
- (d) short-term or non-obvious disfigurement,
- (e) illness,
- (f) short-term loss or impairment of the function of any part of the body or mental faculty,
- (g) any other significant injury to the body.

203G Engaging in conduct that interferes with animal enterprises

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if:

- (a) the person engages in conduct that destroys or damages property:
    - (i) used in carrying on an animal enterprise, or

- (ii) belonging to another person who carries on an animal enterprise, or
(iii) belonging to a person who is otherwise connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise, and
- (b) the person engages in that conduct with the intention that it will interfere with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.
- Maximum penalty:
- (a) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (1) applies—
imprisonment for 5 years, or
(b) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (2) applies—
imprisonment for 10 years, or
(c) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (3) applies—
imprisonment for 20 years, or
(d) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (4) applies—
imprisonment for life, or
(e) in any other case—imprisonment for 1 year.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter whether the conduct actually interferes with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.
- 203H Other unlawful conduct relating to animal enterprises
- (1) A person (the relevant person) is guilty of an offence if:
- (a) the relevant person engages in conduct involving threats, vandalism, damage to property, trespass, harassment or intimidation (the unlawful conduct), and
(b) the unlawful conduct causes another person (the other person) reasonably to fear that any person will cause death or serious injury to a person (the targeted person) who is:
- (i) the other person, or
(ii) a close family member of the other person, or
(iii) an employee of the other person, or
(iv) a contractor engaged by the other person to participate in the carrying on of an enterprise, and
- (c) the other person or the targeted person carries on an animal enterprise or is otherwise connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise, and (d) the relevant person engages in the unlawful conduct with the intention that it will interfere with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.
- Maximum penalty:
- (a) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (1) applies—
imprisonment for 5 years, or
(b) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (2) applies—
imprisonment for 10 years, or
(c) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (3) applies—
imprisonment for 20 years, or
(d) in the case of an offence to which section 203I (4) applies—
imprisonment for life, or
(e) in any other case—imprisonment for 1 year.

(2) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter whether the conduct actually interferes with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.	1 2
