

DAIRY INDUSTRY (AMENDMENT) BILL 1989

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Dairy Industry Act 1979 as follows:

- * to remove the requirement for registration under that Act of a person who sells milk by retail sale from premises (known as a dairy produce merchant (shop));
- * to replace the current provisions for imposing conditions on the certificate of registration of a dairy produce merchant (shop) with provisions enabling the New South Wales Dairy Corporation ("the Corporation") to give directions to a dairy produce merchant (shop) covering the same matters as may currently be the subject of conditions;
- * to replace the current provisions enabling the Corporation to refuse to issue, or to cancel, a certificate of registration of a dairy produce merchant (shop) in specified circumstances with a power for the Corporation to prohibit the sale of milk by a dairy produce merchant (shop) in those circumstances;
- * to make other minor or consequential amendments and to enact a transitional provision.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act is to commence on a proclaimed day or days.

Clause 3 is a formal provision that gives effect to Schedule 1.

Schedule 1 makes the amendments referred to above.
