- (a) insert the advertisement in any newspaper, periodical publication or other publication, or
 - (b) publicly exhibit the advertisement in, on, over or under any building, vehicle or place (whether or not a public place and whether on land or water), or in the air in view of persons being or passing in or on any street or public place, or
 - (c) include the advertisement in any document gratuitously sent or delivered to any person or thrown or left on premises occupied by any person, or
 - (d) broadcast the advertisement by radio or television, or
 - (e) disseminate the advertisement by a website, email or other electronic communication.
- (2) For the purposes of this Division, a price is less than an estimated selling price that is expressed as a price range if it is lower than the lowest price in the range.
- (3) For the purposes of this Division, a statement is made in the course of marketing a residential property if the statement is made:
- (a) in an advertisement, or in arranging an advertisement, in respect of the property that is published or caused to be published by the agent, or
 - (b) to any person (orally or in writing) in connection with the proposed sale of the property.

72A Estimated selling price in agency agreement for sale of residential property

- (1) A real estate agent must not enter into an agency agreement with a person for the sale of residential property unless the agreement includes the agent's estimate of the likely selling price of the property.
- (2) A real estate agent's estimate of the likely selling price of a property may be expressed as a price range, but only if the highest price in the price range exceeds the lowest price by not more than 10 per cent of the lowest price.

- (3) A real estate agent must ensure that the estimated selling price of a residential property is, and remains, a reasonable estimate of the likely selling price of the property.
- (4) A real estate agent must ensure that the estimated selling price is revised if it ceases to be a reasonable estimate of the likely selling price of a property, by:
 - (a) notifying the other party to the agency agreement, in writing, of the revised estimated selling price, and
 - (b) amending the agency agreement.
- (5) A real estate agent must, before or when specifying an estimated selling price or revising an estimated selling price, provide the seller or prospective seller of the property with evidence of the reasonableness of the estimated selling price.
- (6) A real estate agent who fails to comply with subsection (1), (3), (4) or (5) is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

73 Underquoting in advertisements for residential property

- (1) A real estate agent must not publish or cause to be published an advertisement in relation to the sale of a residential property that indicates or suggests a selling price for the property that is less than the estimated selling price for the property.
Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.
- (2) A real estate agent must not publish or cause to be published an advertisement in relation to the sale of a residential property that includes the phrase “offers above” or “offers over” (or similar symbols or words in any language) a specified selling price or price range.
Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.
- (3) A real estate agent must, as soon as practicable after revising the estimated selling price for a residential property, take all reasonable steps to amend or retract any advertisement published in relation to the property that includes an advertised selling price for the property that is less than the revised estimated selling price.
Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

73A Underquoting in representations by real estate agents

- (1) A real estate agent acting pursuant to an agency agreement for the sale of residential property or an agent’s employee must not, by a statement made in the course of marketing the property, represent to a buyer or prospective buyer that the property is likely to be sold for a price that is less than the estimated selling price for the property.
Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.
- (2) In addition to any penalty that it imposes under this section, a court may order that a person found guilty of an offence under this section is to pay to the credit of the Compensation Fund the whole or any part of any fees or commission paid to the real estate agent in relation to the sale of the property concerned.

73B Real estate agents to keep record of quotes

- (1) A real estate agent who makes a statement in the course of marketing a residential property to a buyer, prospective buyer, seller or prospective seller that the property is likely to be sold for a specified price or within a specified price range, must make a written record of the statement in accordance with subsection (2).

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

- (2) The record of the statement must:
- (a) contain the address of the property concerned, the price or price range, the date and time of the representation and any other information that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, and
 - (b) be kept at the real estate agent's principal place of business for at least 3 years.
