New South Wales

Criminal Procedure Amendment (Sentencing Guidelines) Bill 1998

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.*

Overview of Bill

In the recent case of R v Jurisic Matter No 6013 1/98 [1998]NSWSC 423 (12 October 1998) the Court of Criminal Appeal adopted the practice of the English Court of Appeal of giving a guideline judgment in the context of a particular case. A guideline judgment sets out guidelines for the sentencing of offenders. Such guidelines are intended to be indicative only and are not intended to be applied in every case as if they were rules binding on judges but help to ensure consistency in sentencing decisions. The object of this Bill is to amend the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 to enable the Attorney General to apply to the Court at any time (rather than in the context of a particular case) to ask it to exercise its power and jurisdiction to give a guideline judgement in respect of a specified offence or category of offences.
