Australian Capital Territory direction means a direction issued under section 26 of the Australian Capital Territory Act.

chief executive, escort officer and full-time detainee have the same meanings as they have in the Australian Capital Territory Act.

43 Application of Division

This Division does not apply to a full-time detainee who is in custody in a correctional centre in New South Wales pursuant to a transfer effected under the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982.

44 Conveyance and detention of full-time detainees from ACT

- (1) If an escort officer has a full-time detainee in custody in accordance with the terms of an Australian Capital Territory direction, it is lawful for the escort officer to hold and deal with the detainee in accordance with those terms.
- (2) It is the duty of the general manager of a correctional centre or any other officer doing duty at a correctional centre to accept custody of any full-time detainee the subject of an Australian Capital Territory direction.
- (3) The full-time detainee is to be held in custody in a correctional centre for so long as is necessary for the detainee's sentence referred to in the Australian Capital Territory direction to be executed in accordance with that direction.

- (4) Nothing in this section prevents the early release of a full-time detainee by reason of the operation of any law of the Commonwealth, or of the Australian Capital Territory, relating to the release of full-time detainees.
- (5) Until released from custody or delivered into the custody of an escort officer under an Australian Capital Territory direction, a full-time detainee may be dealt with as if the detainee's sentence were a sentence passed under a law of New South Wales.
- (6) Subsection (5) is subject to the provisions of the Australian Capital Territory Act.

45 Return of full-time detainees to ACT

- (1) If an escort officer presents to a general manager of a correctional centre an Australian Capital Territory direction in respect of a full-time detainee held in custody in the correctional centre under this Division:
 - (a) for the delivery of the full-time detainee into the custody of the escort officer, and
 - (b) for the conveyance of the full-time detainee to the Australian Capital Territory,the general manager of the correctional centre must deliver the full-time detainee into the custody of the escort officer.
- (2) The direction is sufficient authority for the escort officer to convey the full-time detainee in custody to the Australian Capital Territory.

46 Evidentiary provision

A document purporting to be an Australian Capital Territory direction and to be under the hand of the chief executive is admissible in any proceedings and is in all courts exercising jurisdiction in New South Wales and on all occasions evidence of the particulars stated in the document.

[2] Section 257 Disclosure of information
