New South Wales

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2012

Act No , 2012

An Act to repeal certain Acts and instruments and to amend certain other Acts and instruments in various respects and for the purpose of effecting statute law revision; and to make certain savings.

I have examined this bill and find it to correspond in all respects with the bill as finally passed by both Houses.

Assistant Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act commences on 6 July 2012 except as provided by subsection (2).
- (2) The amendments made by the Schedules to this Act commence on the day or days specified in those Schedules in relation to the amendments concerned. If a commencement day is not specified, the amendments commence in accordance with subsection (1).

3 Explanatory notes

The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in any of the Schedules does not form part of this Act.

Schedule 1 Minor amendments

1.1 Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983 No 42

Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Omit “on or after 1 January 2013” from clause 45 (2).

Insert instead “on or after 1 July 2014”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to a transitional provision under the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983 extends until 30 June 2014 the period during which a Local Aboriginal Land Council can operate a social housing scheme (in existence on 1 July 2007) without an approval of the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council.

1.2 Animal Diseases (Emergency Outbreaks) Act 1991 No 73

Section 67 Delegation

Omit the following:

The Minister may, either generally or as otherwise provided by the instrument of delegation in writing, delegate to the Director-General, the Chief Veterinary Officer, a Deputy Chief Veterinary Officer or a person prescribed by the regulations all or any of the functions of the Minister under this Act.

Insert instead:

The Minister may, either generally or as otherwise provided by the instrument of delegation in writing, delegate all or any of the functions of the Minister under this Act (other than this power of delegation) to any of the following persons:

- (a) the Director-General,
- (b) the Chief Veterinary Officer,
- (c) a Deputy Chief Veterinary Officer,
- (d) a member of staff of the Department,
- (e) a person prescribed by the regulations.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Animal Diseases (Emergency Outbreaks) Act 1991 extends the class of persons to whom the Minister for Primary Industries may delegate any of the Minister’s functions under the Act so as to include members of staff of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services.

1.3 Barangaroo Delivery Authority Act 2009 No 2

[1] Section 9 Board of Authority

Omit section 9 (2) (b).

[2] Section 9 (2) (d)

Omit “4 persons”. Insert instead “5 persons”.

[3] Schedule 1 Members and procedure of Board

Omit clause 8 (1).

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Barangaroo Delivery Authority Act 2009 removes a requirement for the Secretary of the Treasury to be a member of the Board of the Barangaroo Delivery Authority. Item [3] makes a consequential amendment.

Item [2] increases the number of persons that the Premier may appoint to the Board from 4 to 5 persons.

1.4 Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 No 62

[1] Section 25F Definitions

Omit the definition of interstate Registrar.

[2] Section 31C Applications for change of name by or on behalf of restricted person

Omit “an interstate Registrar” wherever occurring in section 31C (1) (b) and (2) (b).

Insert instead “a registering authority”.

[3] Section 31D Approval by supervising authority

Insert “or a registering authority” after “Registrar” wherever occurring in section 31D (1)–(3).

[4] Section 31D (1)–(3) and (5)

Omit “the authority” wherever occurring.

Insert instead “the supervising authority”.

[5] Section 31D (5)

Insert “or a registering authority” after “Registrar” where firstly occurring.

[6] Section 31D (5) (b)

Omit “or the interstate Registrar”. Insert instead “or the registering authority”.

[7] Section 31J Review by Administrative Decisions Tribunal of certain decisions under this Part Insert “or a registering authority” after “Registrar”.

[8] Section 31K Appeals from decisions of Mental Health Review Tribunal under this Part

Insert “or a registering authority” after “Registrar” in section 31K (1).

[9] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert after Part 7:

Part 8 Provisions consequent on enactment of Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012

25 Reviews and appeals

- (1) In this clause, amending Act means the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012.
- (2) Sections 31J and 31K as amended by the amending Act extend to decisions in relation to the making of an application to a registering authority for a change of name that were made after the commencement of those sections and before the commencement of this clause.
- (3) For the purpose only of determining the period within which an application for a review may be made under section 31J, or an appeal may be made under section 31K, in relation to a decision referred to in subclause (2) that was made before the commencement of this clause, the decision is taken to have been made on the commencement of this clause.

Commencement

Items [1]–[6] of the amendments to the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 are taken to have commenced on the commencement of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Amendment (Change of Name) Act 2012.

Explanatory note

Items [1], [2] and [6] of the proposed amendments to the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 (the Act) remove the definition of interstate Registrar from section 25F and change references to that term in sections 31C and 31D to references to a registering authority. The term interstate Registrar is not needed as it is defined in exactly the same way as the term registering authority in section 4 (1) of the Act.

Items [3], [5], [7] and [8] insert references to a registering authority in sections 31D, 31J and 31K of the Act where references to the Registrar (being the New South Wales Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages) already appear. Section 31C of the Act currently requires certain persons to obtain the consent of a supervising authority before making an application to the New South Wales Registrar or to an interstate Registrar for a change of name. The references to the interstate Registrar were inadvertently omitted from certain provisions of sections 31D, 31J and 31K of the Act which deal with the criteria for granting consent and provide appeal rights in relation to decisions to refuse consent.

Item [4] makes a consequential amendment.

Item [9] makes it clear that the amendments to sections 31J and 31K of the Act in relation to review and appeal rights extend to decisions made before the commencement of those amendments and provides that, in such a case, the period for making an application for the review of such a decision or appealing against it is to be determined as if the decision had been made on the commencement of the item.

1.5 Crimes Act 1900 No 40

Section 93FA Possession, supply or making of explosives

Omit section 93FA (3).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Crimes Act 1900 corrects an oversight that occurred when the maximum penalty for an offence under section 93FA of the Crimes Act 1900 was increased from imprisonment for 2 years to imprisonment for 3 years. Offences having a maximum penalty of imprisonment of more than 2 years are generally indictable offences. The proposed amendment omits a provision that states that the offence is a summary offence only. The Criminal Procedure Act 1986 provides, on the basis that the offence concerned is an indictable offence, that the offence is to be dealt with summarily unless the prosecutor elects otherwise.

1.6 Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 No 203

[1] Section 23G Joint regional planning panels

Insert “or the Director-General” after “Minister” where firstly occurring in section 23G (2) (c).

[2] Section 23G (2) (c)

Insert “or the Director-General (as the case may be)” after “by the Minister”.

[3] Section 89C Development that is State significant development

Omit “that is not declared under subsection (2)” from section 89C (3).

[4] Section 98A Appeal concerning security

Insert at the end of section 98A (1) (b):

or

- (c) the failure or refusal of a council to release a security held by it that has been provided in accordance with a condition of a complying development certificate,

[5] Section 98A (3)

Insert “or (c)” after “subsection (1) (b)”.

[6] Section 115ZI Modification of Minister’s approval

Insert “, and includes an approval granted on the determination of a staged infrastructure application” after “Part” in the definition of Minister’s approval in section 115ZI (1).

Explanatory note

Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments to the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 (the Act) will enable joint regional planning panels to provide advice about planning or development matters or environmental planning instruments to the Director-General of the Department of Planning and Infrastructure, and not just to the Minister for Planning and Infrastructure (the Minister) as is currently the case.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments will enable the Minister to make an order declaring that the whole of particular development is State significant development (SSD) even if part of the development is already SSD under a State environmental planning policy.

Item [4] of the proposed amendments will enable a person who has provided security to a council in accordance with a condition of a complying development certificate to appeal to the Land and Environment Court if dissatisfied with the failure or refusal of the council to release the security. Item [5] makes a consequential amendment.

Item [6] of the proposed amendments is intended to remove any doubt that a provision of the Act under which the Minister may modify his or her approval of State significant infrastructure also enables the Minister to modify his or her approval of a staged infrastructure application under the Act.

1.7 Evidence (Audio and Audio Visual Links) Act 1998 No 105

Section 5 Application of Act

Omit section 5 (6).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment removes a redundant provision from the Evidence (Audio and Audio Visual Links) Act 1998 dealing with the application to child detainees of provisions regulating the appearance of accused persons in court by audio visual link.

Those provisions formerly distinguished between child and adult detainees but were amended in 2007 to remove the distinction and provide the same rules for both adult and child detainees.

The redundant provision was previously required to make it clear that the adult detainee provisions did not apply to child detainees but is no longer required now that the provisions have been standardised for both children and adults.

1.8 Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986 No 123

Section 27 Applications

Insert after section 27 (3A) (g):

- (h) any other matter that the Director-General considers relevant.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986 makes it clear that the Director-General of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services may, when considering an application for an authority under the Act, consider such other matters as the Director-General considers relevant in addition to the matters specified in section 27 (3A) of that Act.

1.9 Explosives Act 2003 No 39

[1] Section 36 Regulations

Insert after section 36 (2) (a) (i):

- (ia) the security clearances required to be held by persons who handle explosives or explosive precursors,

[2] Section 36 (2A)

Insert after section 36 (2):

- (2A) Sections 13 and 24 apply in respect of any security clearances required to be held under the regulations in the same way as they apply in respect of licences.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Explosives Act 2003 (the Act) relate to a proposal to rename “unsupervised handling licences”, which are currently granted under the Act, as “security clearances”. An unsupervised handling licence is more accurately described as a security clearance because it does not, by itself, authorise a person to handle explosives or explosive precursors. It enables a person to handle explosives or explosive precursors (unsupervised) under the authority of another licence granted under the Act. Unsupervised handling licences are granted only after appropriate police checks have been carried out.

Item [1] makes it clear that the regulations under the Act can provide for the security clearances to be held by persons who handle explosives or explosive precursors. The amendment is for avoidance of doubt only, as the Act already provides that the regulations may make provision for or with respect to the control and regulation of explosives and explosive precursors, including the handling of explosives or explosive precursors.

Item [2] provides that the current provisions of the Act relating to police check arrangements for licences, and appeals against licence decisions, apply to security clearances in the same way as they apply to licences. This ensures that the proposed change in name of unsupervised handling licences has no effect on existing arrangements for police checks and appeals.

1.10 Firearms Act 1996 No 46

[1] Section 4D Special provisions relating to imitation firearms

Omit section 4D (1) (a). Insert instead:

- (a) the Commissioner may not issue a licence authorising the possession or use of an imitation firearm (except to a firearms dealer) but may issue a permit authorising the possession or use of an imitation firearm,

[2] Section 25 Surrender and seizure of firearms when licence surrendered or revoked

Insert “A police officer is also authorised to seize the licence itself.” after “in force.” in section 25 (2).

[3] Section 30 General provisions relating to permits

Insert “A police officer is also authorised to seize the permit itself.” after “in force.” in section 30 (7).

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Firearms Act 1996 removes regulatory duplication by enabling firearm dealers to possess or otherwise deal with imitation firearms under the authority of a firearms dealer licence rather than having to obtain a separate permit for imitation firearms. The amendment also resolves an anomaly with section 43 of the Act which prohibits a firearms dealer from possessing firearms (which includes imitation firearms) unless authorised to do so by a firearms dealer licence.

Items [2] and [3] of the proposed amendments authorise police officers to seize licences and permits that are suspended or revoked or have otherwise ceased to be in force. The Act currently requires a person, if his or her licence or permit is suspended, revoked or otherwise ceases to be in force, to surrender any firearms in the person's possession along with the licence or permit. However, police officers are currently only authorised to seize the person's firearms.

1.11 Fisheries Management Act 1994 No 38

[1] Section 163 Grant of aquaculture lease

Omit “in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the land is situated,” from section 163 (7A) (a).

Insert instead “in the Gazette and on the website of the Department”.

[2] Section 170 Lessee may fence leased area in certain cases

Insert after section 170 (5):

- (5A) A reference in this section to a fence on a leased area includes (but is not limited to) a reference to a barrier or other structure located in or on the area to prevent, or dissipate the force of, waves entering the area.

[3] Section 177 Power of Minister to cancel leases in certain cases

Insert “or no aquaculture is being undertaken in the area” after “was granted” in section 177 (1) (a).

[4] Section 191 Regulations

Insert after section 191 (m):

- (m1) applications and eligibility for, and subdivisions, transfers or other dealings involving, aquaculture leases,

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Fisheries Management Act 1994 (the Act) provides for a notice of an application for an aquaculture lease to be published in the Gazette and on the website of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services instead of in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating locally (as is currently the case).

Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the Minister may authorise the use of fencing in the leased area of an aquaculture lease for the purpose of creating a wave barrier.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the Minister may cancel an aquaculture lease if no aquaculture is being undertaken in the leased area.

Item [4] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the regulations may make provision for or with respect to applications and eligibility for, and subdivisions, transfers or other dealings involving, aquaculture leases.

1.12 Health Care Complaints Act 1993 No 105

[1] Section 4 Definitions

Omit “and nursing services” from paragraph (a) of the definition of health service.

Insert instead “, nursing and midwifery services”.

[2] Section 4, definition of “health service”

Omit paragraphs (i) and (j). Insert instead:

- (i) services provided in connection with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health practices and medical radiation practices,
- (j) Chinese medicine, chiropractic, occupational therapy, optometry, osteopathy, physiotherapy, podiatry and psychology services,
- (j1) optical dispensing, dietitian, massage therapy, naturopathy, acupuncture, speech therapy, audiology and audiometry services,

Commencement

Item [2] of the amendments to the Health Care Complaints Act 1993 (the Act) commences, or is taken to have commenced, on 1 July 2012.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Act amends the definition of health service to reflect that nursing services are recognised as distinct from midwifery services under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW), which commenced on 1 July 2010.

Item [2] updates the terminology in the definition of health service in the Act to make its language consistent with the terminology in the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW).

1.13 Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 No 71

[1] Section 4 Definitions

Omit “and nursing services” from paragraph (a) of the definition of health service in section 4 (1).

Insert instead “, nursing and midwifery services”.

[2] Section 4 (1), definition of “health service”

Omit paragraphs (i) and (j). Insert instead:

- (i) services provided in connection with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health practices and medical radiation practices,
- (j) Chinese medicine, chiropractic, occupational therapy, optometry, osteopathy, physiotherapy, podiatry and psychology services,
- (j1) optical dispensing, dietitian, massage therapy, naturopathy, acupuncture, speech therapy, audiology and audiometry services,

Commencement

Item [2] of the amendments to the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (the Act) commences, or is taken to have commenced, on 1 July 2012.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Act amends the definition of health service to reflect that nursing services are recognised as distinct from midwifery services under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW), which commenced on 1 July 2010.

Item [2] updates the terminology in the definition of health service in the Act to make its language consistent with the terminology in the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW).

1.14 Health Services Act 1997 No 154

Section 116 Employment of staff generally

Omit “health support services” from section 116 (1) (d).

Insert instead “services”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Health Services Act 1997 is consequential on the amendment of sections 126B and 126G of the Health Services Act 1997 by the Health Services Amendment (Local Health Networks) Act 2010.

1.15 Heritage Act 1977 No 136

Section 37 Action by Heritage Council on Minister’s decision

Insert after section 37 (3):

- (4) Publication in the Gazette before 24 March 2012 of the Minister’s decision to direct a listing on the State Heritage Register is (for the purposes of this section) deemed to be (and always to have been) publication in the Gazette of notice of the listing.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Heritage Act 1977 removes any doubt that items listed on the State Heritage Register before 24 March 2012 are validly listed, despite a technical error that may have occurred in the form of words used to give notice of the listing.

1.16 Home Building Act 1989 No 147

- [1] Sections 20 (1), (3) and (6), 25 (1) and (3), 31 and 40 (1), (2), (2A), (2B), (2E), (3) and (4)

Omit “reject” wherever occurring. Insert instead “refuse”.

- [2] Sections 20 (6) (a), 40 (2B) and 51 (2) (d)

Omit “rejected” wherever occurring. Insert instead “refused”.

- [3] Section 40 Renewal or restoration of authorities

Omit section 40 (2) (a).

- [4] Section 48K Jurisdiction of Tribunal in relation to building claims

Omit section 48K (7). Insert instead:

- (7) The Tribunal does not have jurisdiction in respect of a building claim arising from a breach of a statutory warranty implied under Part 2C if the date on which the claim is lodged is after the end of the period within which proceedings for a breach of the statutory warranty must be commenced (as provided by section 18E).

[5] Sections 56 (k) and 57 (g)

Omit “rejecting” wherever occurring. Insert instead “refusing”.

[6] Schedule 4 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 116:

- (2) A provision included in an insurance contract for the purpose of giving effect to clause 53 (3) of the Home Building Regulation 1997 is taken to be modified to the extent necessary to give effect to clause 63 (3) of the Home Building Regulation 2004 as amended by the amending Act.
- (3) The modification of a provision of an insurance contract effected by this clause is taken to have had effect from the commencement of the contract concerned.
- (4) The amendment by the amending Act of clause 63 of the Home Building Regulation 2004 (the clause 63 amendment) is taken to have had effect from the commencement of that Regulation. Clause 53 of the Home Building Regulation 1997 is taken to have been amended (from its commencement) to the same effect as the clause 63 amendment.
- (5) Nothing in this clause affects the liability of an insurer for a claim that was made under a policy of insurance before the date of assent to the amending Act, whether or not the claim was finalised before that date.
- (6) For the purposes of this clause, a claim for a loss was not made under a policy of insurance merely because the insurer is taken to have been notified of that loss by operation of clause 63 (3) of the Home Building Regulation 2004, clause 53 (3) of the Home Building Regulation 1997 or a provision included in an insurance contract for the purpose of giving effect to either of those clauses.

Commencement

Item [6] of the amendments to the Home Building Act 1989 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

Items [1], [2] and [5] of the proposed amendments to the Home Building Act 1989 make the language of the licensing and certification provisions of that Act consistent with the language of the relevant provisions of the Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002. The Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002 is the Act that applies uniform procedures to various licensing and registration schemes under the Home Building Act 1989.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments deletes a ground for rejecting an application under that Act because the ground concerns one of the aspects of the application process that has been transferred from that Act to the Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002. The deleted ground is a vestige of the application scheme under the Home Building Act 1989 prior to the introduction of the licensing and registration (uniform procedures) scheme and is now redundant.

Item [4] of the proposed amendments aligns the period for the making of a claim in the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal in respect of a breach of a statutory warranty under the Home Building Act 1989 with the period within which proceedings for the breaching of a statutory claim must be brought. The amendment is consequential on amendments made in 2011 that caused the periods to become misaligned.

Item [6] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that an existing transitional provision that operates to extend an amendment made in 2011 to policies of insurance written before the amendment commenced is not limited to policies written under the Home Building Regulation 2004 (the 2004 Regulation) and applies also to earlier policies written under the Home Building Regulation 1997 (the 1997 Regulation). The 2004 Regulation replaced the 1997 Regulation under the staged repeal program.

1.17 Interpretation Act 1987 No 15

[1] Section 30B Effect of amendment of instrument by an Act

Omit “a statutory rule”. Insert instead “an instrument”.

[2] Section 30B

Omit “another statutory rule”. Insert instead “another instrument”.

[3] Section 30C Automatic repeal of amending Acts that have commenced

Omit “an item” from paragraph (b) of the definition of amending Act in section 30C (1).

Insert instead “a provision”.

[4] Section 30C (1), paragraph (b) of the definition of “amending Act”

Insert “apart from ancillary provisions” after “other provisions”.

[5] Section 49 Delegation of functions

Insert “by or” after “is delegated” in section 49 (8).

[6] Section 49 (8) (b)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (b) the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned is taken to be the delegator or delegate (as the case requires).

Explanatory note

Items [5] and [6] of the proposed amendments to the Interpretation Act 1987 confirm existing case law to the effect that a delegation by an office holder generally continues to have effect even though the person who made the delegation has ceased to hold the relevant office. Like other provisions in the Interpretation Act 1987, this provision will apply to a particular Act or instrument, except in so far as the contrary intention appears in that Act or instrument.

Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments ensure that the amendment by an Act of any statutory instrument (not just a regulation or other statutory rule) does not prevent its later amendment or repeal by a later statutory instrument.

Items [3] and [4] of the proposed amendments are technical amendments clarifying the automatic repeal of amending Acts after their commencement.

1.18 Liquor Act 2007 No 90

[1] Section 144C Committing a prescribed offence

Insert at the end of section 144C (1) (b):

, or

- (c) a penalty notice enforcement order under the Fines Act 1996 is made against the person in respect of the offence.

[2] Section 144C (2)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (2) However, if:
 - (a) the conviction is overturned on appeal, or
 - (b) the person elects, after an amount is paid under the penalty notice, to have the offence dealt with by a court, or
 - (c) the penalty notice, or the penalty notice enforcement order to the extent that it applies to the penalty notice, is withdrawn or annulled,any strike based on the conviction, penalty notice or enforcement order is revoked and any remedial action taken as the result of the strike ceases to have effect.

[3] Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert after Part 7:

Part 8 Provisions consequent on enactment of Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012

34 Operation of amendments to Part 9A

- (1) The amendment made by the amending Act to section 144C (1) applies to a penalty notice enforcement order that is made after the commencement of the amending Act whether or not the prescribed offence in respect of which the order is made was committed before or after that commencement.

- (2) Section 144C (2), as substituted by the amending Act, extends to strikes that have been incurred before the commencement of the amending Act.
- (3) In this clause, amending Act means the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012.

Explanatory note

Under Part 9A of the Liquor Act 2007, a strike is or may be incurred in relation to a liquor licence under the 3 strikes disciplinary system if the licensee or manager of the premises to which the licence relates commits an offence specified in that Part. For the purposes of that Part, an offence is committed if a court convicts the person for the offence or an amount is paid under a penalty notice in respect of the offence. Part 9A also provides that, if the conviction is overturned on appeal, any strike based on the conviction is revoked and any remedial action taken as a result of the strike (for example, imposition of licence conditions) ceases to have effect.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments provides that an offence for the purposes of Part 9A of the Liquor Act 2007 is also committed if a penalty notice enforcement order under the Fines Act 1996 is made in respect of the offence. Such enforcement orders may be made by the State Debt Recovery Office generally if the amount under a penalty notice is not paid or the person alleged to have committed the offence has not elected to have the matter dealt with by a court. Item [3] provides that the amendment made by item [1] will only apply to penalty notice enforcement orders made after the commencement of the amendment.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments provides that, if a person elects, after paying an amount under a penalty notice for an offence, to have the matter dealt with by a court or if a penalty notice or enforcement order issued or made in respect of the offence is withdrawn or annulled, then any strike based on the penalty notice or enforcement order will be revoked and any remedial action taken as a result of the strike will cease to have effect. Item [3] provides that the amendment made by item [2] extends to strikes that have already been incurred.

1.19 Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 No 71

[1] Long title

Omit “and loss assessors”.

[2] Section 66 Education and Research Fund

Omit “or loss assessors’ work” from section 66 (2) (b).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 remove references to the scheme relating to licensing of loss assessors, which, as a consequence of amendments by the Regulatory Reduction Act 1996, no longer exists.

1.20 Motor Vehicles Taxation Act 1988 No 111

Schedule 1 Motor vehicle tax for 2010

Omit “$594” from clause 5. Insert instead “$564”.

Commencement

The amendment to the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act 1988 is taken to have commenced on 1 July 2010.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act 1988 reduces the amount of motor vehicle tax payable in relation to certain motor lorries exceeding 2,500 kg by $30. The amount of the tax was increased by $30 in error on 1 July 2010. However, this increase has never been charged. Accordingly, the proposed amendment is taken to have commenced on 1 July 2010.

1.21 National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 No 80

[1] Section 21 Delegation

Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments enable the Minister and the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet to delegate their functions under the NPW Act to the head and members of staff of the Office of the Environment Protection Authority.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments enables the head and members of staff of the Office of the Environment Protection Authority to issue penalty notices for certain offences under the NPW Act or the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995.

Application of amendment

Section 17A (as in force before its amendment by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012) continues to apply in relation to changes of ownership that occurred before the commencement of the amendment to that section.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Plantations and Reafforestation Act 1999 requires the former owner of an authorised plantation, rather than the new owner, to notify the Minister for Primary Industries of the change in the ownership.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes provision for a transitional matter consequent on the enactment of the proposed amendment made by item [1].

1.24 Public Health (Tobacco) Act 2008 No 94

Section 5 Meaning of “health warning”

Omit “Part 4 of the Trade Practices (Consumer Product Information Standards) (Tobacco) Regulations 2004 made under the Trade Practices Act 1974”.

Insert instead “Parts 2 and 9 of the Competition and Consumer (Tobacco) Information Standard 2011 made under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Public Health (Tobacco) Act 2008 updates a reference to Commonwealth legislation to require the display of health warnings on tobacco packaging to comply with the relevant requirements of the applicable Standard made under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 of the Commonwealth instead of requirements under a repealed Regulation.

1.25 Residential Tenancies Act 2010 No 42

[1] Section 62 Definitions

Omit “not owned by” from the definition of urgent repairs.

Insert instead “that are owned by a person other than”.

Insert “, unless the Tribunal makes a termination order on the basis that the tenant has frequently failed to pay rent on time” after “landlord” in section 88 (3).

[3] Section 107 Landlord’s remedies on abandonment

[9] Section 217 (2) (a)

Insert “or that has been listed on the database for longer than the applicable period specified in section 218 (1)” after “out-of-date”.

[10] Section 223 Service of notices or other documents

Omit “at the person’s residential or business address” from section 223 (1) (a) (i).

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Residential Tenancies Act 2010 (the Act) makes it clear that urgent repairs do not include work needed to repair premises that are owned by someone other than the landlord or head landlord.

Item [2] further provides for the information that must be included in a non-payment termination notice issued to a tenant by a landlord. Such a notice must currently inform the tenant that he or she is not required to vacate the premises if all the rent is paid. The amendment provides that the notice will now also have to inform the tenant that he or she may be required to vacate the residential premises, despite having paid all the rent owing, if the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal (the Tribunal) makes a termination order on the basis that the tenant has frequently failed to pay rent owing on the premises.

Items [3]–[5] clarify the operation of a provision relating to compensation that a tenant is required to pay to the landlord where the tenant ends the residential tenancy agreement before the end of the fixed term so that, if the agreement provides for the payment of a specified break fee, the tenant must pay the full amount of the break fee and the landlord is not required to mitigate the landlord's loss.

Item [6] provides that all social housing tenants will now be required to pay water usage charges in accordance with Ministerial guidelines. Currently, some social housing tenants are required to pay for water usage in accordance with the general water usage provision in section 39 of the Act if the tenancy agreement concerned so provides.

Item [7] enables a landlord or landlord's agent to receive a rental bond from a tenant before the tenant signs the residential tenancy agreement. It remains an offence for a landlord or landlord's agent to require a rental bond from a tenant before a residential tenancy agreement is signed by the tenant.

Item [8] provides that a person may apply to the Tribunal for an order that personal information about the person not be listed in a residential tenancy database before the information has been listed. Item [9] enables the Tribunal to order that personal information about a person be removed from a residential tenancy database if that information has been listed in the database for longer than the period allowed under the Act (usually 3 years).

Item [10] provides that a notice or other document under the Act can be served on a natural person by delivering it to the person personally, whether or not at the person's residential or business address.

1.26 Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 No 146

[1] Section 10A Certain statutory rules to remain in force

Omit section 10A (1), (1A) (b)–(d) and (h) and (2).

[2] Section 10A (3)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (3) Despite the other provisions of this Part, the following statutory rules remain in force until 1 September 2013, unless sooner repealed:
 - (a) Electricity Supply (General) Regulation 2001,
 - (b) Employment Protection Regulation 2001,
 - (c) Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000,
 - (d) Fisheries Management (Aquatic Reserves) Regulation 2002,
 - (e) Gas Supply (Natural Gas Retail Competition) Regulation 2001,
 - (f) Industrial Relations (General) Regulation 2001,
 - (g) Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Regulation 1999.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 (the Act) have the effect of keeping a number of regulations in force for a further period of one year after the date on which they would otherwise be repealed by the Act. However, any of the regulations may be repealed sooner by other legislation.

This is necessary as the regulations have each been postponed on at least 5 occasions, and are now due to be repealed by the Act on 1 September 2012.

Each of the regulations continues to be required and the repeal of each of the regulations is to be further postponed until 1 September 2013 for the following reasons:

- (a) The Ministerial Council on Energy is currently undertaking a national energy market reform program which is expected to result in significant regulatory changes to areas that are dealt with by the Electricity Supply (General) Regulation 2001 and the Gas Supply (Natural Gas Retail Competition) Regulation 2001. It is therefore proposed to await these changes before remaking these regulations.
- (b) The Department of Finance and Services is proposing to undertake a full review of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 and the Employment Protection Act 1982 as a consequence of the operation of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth and the referral of certain matters relating to industrial relations to the Commonwealth. In light of this, it is considered to be premature to remake the Employment Protection Regulation 2001 and the Industrial Relations (General) Regulation 2001.
- (c) The Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services is participating in a scientific audit of marine parks and aquatic reserves. It is therefore proposed to postpone the repeal of the Fisheries Management (Aquatic Reserves) Regulation 2002 until that audit, and any legislative changes flowing from it, are completed.
- (d) Transport for NSW is currently preparing to consolidate road transport legislation. As part of that consolidation the matters dealt with by the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Regulation 1999 will be included in a general road transport regulation. It is therefore proposed to await that consolidation rather than remaking the regulation before 1 September 2012.

It is noted that the Environmental Planning and Assessment Amendment (Part 3A Repeal) Act 2011 postponed the repeal of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000 until 1 September 2013.

Insert instead:

withdrawn,
if that is the case.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Water Management Amendment Act 2008 amend an uncommenced amendment to the Water Management Act 2000 (the principal Act) so as to require (rather than allow) the holder of an approval for a water supply work under the principal Act to notify the Minister that the work has been nominated as a work from which water credited to the interstate equivalent of an access licence may be taken, or that such a nomination has been withdrawn, if that is the case.

1.29 Work Health and Safety Act 2011 No 10

Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions
