Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2011

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to make minor amendments to various Acts and Regulations (Schedule 1), and
- (b) to amend certain other Acts and instruments for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 2), and
- (c) to amend various Acts to enable the repeal of legislation by Schedule 4 (including by transferring into them provisions of the legislation to be repealed that are of possible ongoing effect) (Schedule 3), and
- (d) to repeal certain Acts and instruments and provisions of Acts and instruments (Schedule 4), and
- (e) to make other provisions of a consequential or ancillary nature (Schedule 5).

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Clause 3 makes it clear that the explanatory notes contained in the Schedules do not form part of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 makes amendments to the following Acts and Regulations:

Adoption Act 2000 No 75

Associations Incorporation Act 2009 No 7

Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 No 157

Election Funding, Expenditure and Disclosures Act 1981 No 78

Fire Brigades Act 1989 No 192

Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002 No 88

Police Act 1990 No 47

Police Integrity Commission Act 1996 No 28

Schedule 2     Amendments by way of statute law revision

Schedule 2 amends certain Acts and instruments for the purpose of effecting statute law revision.

The amendments to each Act and instrument are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act or instrument concerned set out in Schedule 2.

Schedule 3 Amendments transferring provisions, and other amendments consequential on repeals

Schedule 3 contains amendments that enable, or are consequential on, the repeal of Acts and instruments by Schedule 4. The amendments include the transfer, into various Acts, of provisions of Acts and instruments repealed by clause 4 of Schedule 4.

Section 30A of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that the transfer of a provision of an Act to another Act does not affect the operation (if any) or meaning of the provision.

Schedule 4 Repeals

Schedule 4 repeals a number of Acts and instruments and provisions of Acts and instruments.

Clause 1 repeals redundant Acts and instruments and redundant provisions of Acts. These include the repeal of the Sports Drug Testing Act 1995 (which has been superseded by Commonwealth legislation and is repealed at the request of the portfolio concerned).

Clause 2 repeals Acts and instruments and provisions of Acts and instruments that contain only commenced amendments to other Acts and instruments.

Clause 3 repeals uncommenced provisions that cannot be commenced either because they amend Acts, instruments or provisions that have since been repealed, or for other reasons. These will include provisions of the Superannuation Legislation Amendment (Family Law) Act 2003 (at the request of the portfolio concerned).

Clause 4 repeals Acts and instruments whose repeal is enabled by the transfer of provisions of those Acts and instruments by Schedule 3.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that the repeal of an Act or statutory rule does not affect the operation of any savings, transitional or validation provision contained in the Act or statutory rule, and that the repeal of an amending Act does not affect any amendment made by the Act. Section 5 (6) of the Interpretation Act 1987 extends this provision to the repeal of an environmental planning instrument.

The Acts or instruments that were amended by the Acts being repealed are available electronically on the NSW legislation website at www.legislation.nsw.gov.au.

Schedule 5      General savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 5 contains savings, transitional and other provisions of a more general effect than those set out in Schedule 1. The Schedule includes a provision that, in conjunction with section 29A of the Interpretation Act 1987, enables the Governor, by proclamation, to revoke the repeal of any Act or instrument or provision of an Act or instrument repealed by the proposed Act and restore its operation.

The purpose of each provision is explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the provision concerned set out in the Schedule.

	designated agency has the same meaning as in section 139 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 .	1 2
	Explanatory note	3
	The proposed amendments to the Adoption Act 2000 allow the Supreme Court, when making an order for the adoption of a child under 18 years of age, to accept a report that has been prepared by the principal officer (or delegate of the principal officer) of any government agency or non-government agency organisation that is accredited to provide out-of-home care under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 .	4 5 6 7 8 9
1.2	Associations Incorporation Act 2009 No 7	10
[1]	Section 45 Lodgment of documents with Director-General	11
	Omit “The public officer of a” from section 45 (1). Insert instead “A”.	12
[2]	Section 49 Lodgment of summary with Director-General	13
	Omit “The public officer of a” from section 49 (1). Insert instead “A”.	14
	Explanatory note	15
	The proposed amendments to the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 make an association under that Act responsible for lodging its financial reports. At present, this obligation falls on the public officer of the association.	16 17 18
1.3	Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 No 157	19 20
[1]	Section 29 Protection of persons who make reports or provide certain information	21 22
	Omit “(including any appeal arising from those proceedings), other than the following” from section 29 (1) (d).	23 24
	Insert instead “other than the following proceedings (and appeals arising from the following proceedings)”.	25 26
[2]	Section 37 Alternative dispute resolution	27
	Omit section 37 (2) and (3). Insert instead:	28
	(2) Participation in any such alternative dispute resolution is voluntary.	29 30
	(3) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not apply to any dispute resolution conducted by the Children’s Registrar of the Children’s Court, or ordered by the Children’s Court, under this Act.	31 32 33 34

[3] Section 220 Regulations relating to children's services	1
Renumber paragraph (a) of section 220 (11) as (a1) and insert before that paragraph (as so renumbered):	2 3
(a) a person who is a licensee or proposed licensee,	4
Explanatory note	5
Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (the Act) makes it clear that a report relating to a child or young person that is admissible in proceedings specified in section 29 (1) (d) of the Act is also admissible in any appeal proceedings arising from those proceedings.	6 7 8 9
Item [2] revises a provision that states that participation in alternative dispute resolution services arranged by the Director-General under the Act is voluntary to make it clear that the provision does not apply to dispute resolution conducted by the Children's Registrar of the Children's Court, or ordered by the Children's Court, under the Act. The amendment also removes an obsolete reference to preliminary court conferences.	10 11 12 13 14
Item [3] allows regulations to be made regarding probity checks that may be conducted on a person who is a licensee or proposed licensee of a prescribed children's service under Part 3 of Chapter 12 of the Act. The Act already grants power to make regulations for probity checks in relation to persons involved in the control or management of a licensee or proposed licensee. This amendment will ensure that the regulations may make provision for the probity checks to be conducted in relation to natural persons who provide children's services.	15 16 17 18 19 20 21
1.4 Election Funding, Expenditure and Disclosures Act 1981 No 78	22 23
Section 97E Public funding of eligible parties for administrative expenditure	24 25
Omit "elected at the State election" from section 97E (2) (b).	26
Insert instead "elected at a State election (including at a joint sitting to fill a vacancy in the Legislative Council)".	27 28
Transitional	29
The amendment to section 97E extends to payments from the Administration Fund in respect of expenditure incurred during the 2010 calendar year.	30 31
Explanatory note	32
The Act provides that annual payments for administrative expenditure are to be made from an Administration Fund to political parties with parliamentary representatives ( elected members ) based on the number of their elected members at the time an annual amount becomes payable. The amendment makes it clear that the number of elected members includes members at that time who were elected at a joint sitting of members of Parliament to fill a casual vacancy in the Legislative Council.	33 34 35 36 37 38

1.5 Fire Brigades Act 1989 No 192	1
[1] Section 3 Definitions	2
Omit “NSW Fire Brigades” from the definition of Commissioner in section 3 (1).	3
Insert instead “Fire and Rescue NSW”.	4
Insert instead “Fire and Rescue NSW”.	5
[2] Section 3 (1), definition of “Department”	6
Omit the definition. Insert instead:	7
Department means Fire and Rescue NSW.	8
[3] Sections 65 and 78A	9
Omit the sections.	10
[4] Schedule 4 Savings and transitional provisions	11
Insert after Part 8:	12
 Part 9 Provision relating to the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2011	 13
 30 Continuation of Fire and Rescue NSW as Division of the Government Service	 15
The repeal of section 65 by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2011 does not affect the establishment of Fire and Rescue NSW as a Division of the Government Service under Chapter 4 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 .	16
	17
	18
	19
	20
Explanatory note	21
Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments to the Fire Brigades Act 1989 (the Act) update references to “NSW Fire Brigades” as a consequence of the change of name of that Department (by the Public Sector Employment and Management (Fire and Rescue NSW) Order 2010 ) to “Fire and Rescue NSW”.	22
	23
	25
Item [3] omits section 65 of the Act, which establishes “NSW Fire Brigades” as a Department, and item [4] makes it clear that the repeal of that provision does not affect the status of Fire and Rescue NSW as a Department.	26
	27
	28
Item [3] also omits a provision relating to temporary assignment of members of staff of Fire and Rescue NSW and members of permanent fire brigades to the former Police and Emergency Services NSW, which has since been abolished as a Division of the Government Service. Accordingly, the provision no longer has any operation.	29

2 Application of amendments	8
The amendments made to this Act by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2011 apply only to occupation agreements entered into on or after the commencement of those amendments.	9 10 11 12
Explanatory note	13
Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002 (the Act) makes it clear that it is a standard term of an occupation agreement for a holiday park site that the occupant must not occupy the site for more than 180 days in any 12-month period (in a continuous or broken period). Under section 5 (1) of the Act, the Act applies in respect of an occupation agreement only if the occupant can occupy the site for no more than 180 days in any 12-month period (in a continuous or broken period). The amendment is to avoid a suggestion that an occupant can occupy the site for the whole term of the occupation agreement, as specified in the agreement, when the term of the agreement exceeds 180 days.	14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23
Item [3] is a related amendment that makes it clear that a park owner is obliged to ensure that there is no legal reason why an occupant cannot use the holiday park site in accordance with the terms of the agreement. This replaces a standard term which requires the park owner to agree that there is no legal reason why the occupant cannot use the site for the term of the agreement.	24 25 26 27 28
Item [2] merges 2 existing provisions of the Act so that all payment method options available to occupants of holiday park sites under an occupation agreement are contained in one provision.	29 30 31
Item [5] applies the amendments to occupation agreements entered into on or after the commencement of the proposed amendments. Item [4] is a consequential amendment.	32 33

Explanatory note	19
Items [1]–[11] of the proposed amendments to the Police Act 1990 make provisions relating to the employment of persons in the NSW Police Force consistent with the equivalent provisions for other public sector employees in the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 .	20 21 22 23
Items [1] and [4] enable long-term temporary employees (that is, employed for at least 2 years) to be appointed on merit to vacant executive positions and vacant non-executive administrative positions that have not been advertised.	24 25 26
Items [2] and [9] modify the criteria for determining merit by replacing references to a person's abilities and personal qualities with a reference to the person's capabilities.	27 28
Items [3] and [5] provide that an eligibility list for executive officers or non-executive administrative officers will remain current for 12 months instead of 6 months.	29 30
Item [6] provides that an eligibility list for non-executive administrative positions is also applicable to positions outside the NSW Police Force in a Division of the Government Service that the relevant Division Head determines the list should be applicable to, on the basis that the other position is substantially the same as the position for which the eligibility list was initially created.	31 32 33 34 35
Item [7] enables the Commissioner of Police to recruit and appoint a person as a non-executive administrative officer pending the vacation of the position by the incumbent officer.	36 37 38
Item [8] removes the requirement that the position to which a long-term temporary employee may be appointed must have substantially the same duties as those performed by the person as a temporary employee. Instead, the employee must have	39 40 41 been performing duties at the same or similar grade to the position to which the employee is being appointed and must have been, at some stage during the temporary employment, selected on merit to perform duties at that grade. Item [10] is a consequential amendment. 1

Item [11] authorises the Commissioner of Police to exempt a non-executive administrative officer from the requirement that all members of the NSW Police Force must be an Australian citizen or a permanent Australian resident. 5

10

18
19
20
21

Explanatory note 22

In doing so, the proposed amendment recasts the current provision (for more accurate expression and for consistency with the language of a like exemption in the Act) and updates the reference to the repealed Act. 23

[8] Section 110 Tenant may vacate at any time before termination date specified by landlord	1
Insert after section 110 (2):	3
(3) Subsection (2) does not affect the liability of a tenant under a fixed term agreement to pay rent in respect of a period after the tenant gives vacant possession of the residential premises and before the end of the fixed term, if the termination notice is given by the landlord in accordance with section 84.	4
	8
Explanatory note	9
Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments to the Residential Tenancies Act 2010 (the Act) extend certain offences that apply to landlords so that they also apply to an agent of a landlord.	10
	12
Item [3] creates an exemption for the New South Wales Land and Housing Corporation and the Aboriginal Housing Office from the requirements under section 36 relating to the issuing of rent receipts. This mirrors the previous exemption in the repealed Residential Tenancies Act 1987 .	13
	14
	16
Item [4] changes a provision, which prevents rent being increased under a fixed term agreement lease unless the rent increase is specified in the agreement, so that the provision applies to an agreement for a term of less than 2 years (rather than a term of 2 years or less, as is currently the case). In addition, the requirement to specify, in an agreement for a fixed term of less than 2 years, the amount of a proposed increase in rent is replaced with a requirement to specify the increased rent (this ensures consistency between sections 41 and 42 of the Act).	17
	18
	19
	20
	21
	22
	23
Item [5] clarifies that if the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal makes a termination order because it is satisfied that a tenant has frequently failed to pay rent owing, in accordance with section 89 (5), a warrant for possession may be issued, even if the tenant has paid all the rent owing or complied with a repayment plan.	24
	25
	27
Items [6] and [7] make it clear that an order made by the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal to terminate the tenancy of a co-tenant under a residential tenancy agreement is taken to be an order for the possession of residential premises in favour of the remaining tenant or co-tenants. Accordingly, a warrant for possession may be issued in favour of the remaining tenant or co-tenants.	28
	29
	30
	31
	32
Item [8] transfers to the Act a provision in the Residential Tenancies Regulation 2010 . The provision makes it clear that a tenant under a fixed term agreement who vacates premises before the end of a fixed term can be liable to pay rent for the balance of the fixed term.	33

	15
Explanatory note	17
The proposed amendment to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 allows the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal to determine the remuneration of part-time members of the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal. The amendment is consequential on an amendment to the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Act 2001 that provides for the remuneration of part-time members of the Tribunal to be determined in the same manner as for full-time members (that is, in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 ).	18

Schedule 5	General savings, transitional and other provisions	1
1	Effect of amendment of amending provisions	3
(1)	An amendment made by Schedule 1, 2 or 3 to an amending provision contained in an Act or instrument is, if the amending provision has commenced before the Schedule 1, 2 or 3 amendment concerned, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision (whether or not the amending provision has been repealed).	4 5 6 7 8
(2)	In this clause: amending provision means a provision of an Act or instrument that makes a direct amendment to an Act or instrument by:	9 10 11
(a)	the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or	12 13 14
(b)	the omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or	15 16 17
(c)	the insertion into the amended Act or instrument of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act or instrument.	18 19 20
	Explanatory note	21
	This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will be taken to have commenced on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.	22 23 24 25 26 27 28
2	Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made	29
	Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:	30
(a)	amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or	31
(b)	repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument,	32 33
	any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.	34 35 36
	Explanatory note	37
	This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.	38 39 40

3	Effect of amendment on instruments	1
	Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any instrument made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.	2 3 4 5
	Explanatory note	6
	This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any instrument that is in force and made under a provision of an Act that is amended or substituted by the proposed Act will be taken to have been made under the Act as amended.	7 8 9
4	Revocation of repeal	10
	Section 29A of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to the repeal of Acts or instruments by this Act.	11 12
	Explanatory note	13
	The effect of this clause is to enable the Governor, by proclamation, to revoke the repeal of any Act or instrument or the provision of any Act or instrument repealed by this Act. The Act or instrument or provision of an Act or instrument the subject of the revocation of repeal is taken not to be, and never to have been, repealed.	14 15 16 17
5	Regulations	18
(1)	The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.	19 20
(2)	Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.	21 22
(3)	To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:	23 24 25
(a)	to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or	26 27 28
(b)	to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.	29 30 31
	Explanatory note	32
	This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the proposed Act.	33 34 35
