

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCATION OF PROCLAMATION) BILL 1988

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to revoke a proclamation commencing the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987; and
- (b) to enact provisions consequent on the revocation of the proclamation.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act will commence on assent.

Clause 3 defines the terms “amending Act” and “Principal Act” used in the proposed Act.

Clause 4 revokes a proclamation under section 2 of the amending Act (being a proclamation that provides for the commencement of that Act) and provides that the proclamation shall be taken never to have been made. The clause ensures that further proclamations can be made to commence the provisions of the amending Act and repeals regulations made as a consequence of its previous commencement.

Clause 5 contains savings and transitional provisions. It saves things which happened during the life of the proclamation to be revoked. It also provides that certain pending applications are to be considered as applications for licences or permits under the Principal Act and that certain licences in force are to be considered as licences or permits under the Principal Act.
