Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Education Amendment (Non-Government Schools Registration) Act 2004.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Education Act 1990 No 8

The Education Act 1990 is amended as set out in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1 Amendments

(Section 3)

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 3 (1):

distance education means a form of education in which students and teachers are not regularly in the presence of each other but communicate with each other in writing, by print or by electronic or like means.

responsible person for a school means:

- (a) the proprietor of the school and, if the proprietor is a corporation, each director or person concerned in the management of the school, or
- (b) a member of the governing body of the school, or
- (c) the principal of the school.

[2] Section 3 (1), definition of “proprietor”

Omit “person”. Insert instead “legal entity”.

[3] Section 3 (3)

Insert after section 3 (2):

- (3) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

[4] Section 8 Minimum curriculum for primary education

Omit “may (but need not) be taught in accordance with” from section 8 (1) (f).

Insert instead “are to be based on, and taught in accordance with,”.

[5] Section 8 (3) and (4)

Insert after section 8 (2):

- (3) If requested to do so by the proprietor of a non-government school (or, in the case of a school that is a member of a system of non-government schools, the approved authority for the system), the Board may approve such modifications to the syllabus referred to in subsection (1) (f) as it considers necessary to enable any part of a course of study in a key learning area that appears to the Board to be incompatible with the educational philosophy or religious outlook of the school to be based on, and taught compatibly with, that educational philosophy or religious outlook. The part of the course of study at that school is to be based on and taught in accordance with the syllabus as modified.

- (4) Any modification approved under subsection (3) must be consistent with the guidelines referred to in subsection (1) (e).

[6] Section 10 Minimum curriculum for secondary education (Years 7 to 10)

- (3) If requested to do so by the proprietor of a non-government school (or, in the case of a school that is a member of a system of non-government schools, the approved authority for the system), the Board may approve such modifications to the syllabus referred to in subsection (1) (e) as it considers necessary to enable any part of a course of study in a key learning area that appears to the Board to be incompatible with the educational philosophy or religious outlook of the school to be based on, and taught compatibly with, that educational philosophy or religious outlook. The part of the course of study at that school is to be based on and taught in accordance with the syllabus as modified.
- (4) Any modification approved under subsection (3) must be consistent with the guidelines referred to in subsection (1) (d).

[8] Section 44 Withdrawal of non-government school from system

Insert after section 44 (3):

- (3A) A school that is withdrawn from a system of non-government schools that proposes to apply for registration as an individual non-government school must make an application for renewal of registration within 1 month after ceasing to be a member of the system.

[9] Sections 47 and 47A

Omit section 47. Insert instead:

47 Registration requirements for non-government schools

For the purposes of this Act, the requirements for the registration of a non-government school are as follows:

- (a) if the school is seeking to become registered as an individual school—the school’s proposed proprietor must be a corporation or other form of legal entity approved by the Minister,
- (b) each responsible person for the school, and any other person or body having similar functions in relation to the school as those of such a responsible person, is of good character,
- (c) any refusal to register, or cancellation of registration, of the school or any other school under section 56 or 59 occurring during the period of 5 years immediately before the application for registration is made has not been largely attributable to the actions of a responsible person or proposed responsible person for the school, or any other person or body having similar functions in relation to the management or operation of the school to those of a responsible person,
- (d) teaching staff for the school:
 - (i) have attained the standard of professional teacher competence determined by the Minister, or
 - (ii) are working towards the standard of professional teacher competence determined by the Minister and are under the direct, on-site supervision of teaching staff who have attained the necessary standard of professional teacher competence,
- (e) educational facilities are adequate for the courses of study provided at the school,
- (f) school premises and buildings are satisfactory,
- (g) a safe and supportive environment is provided for students by means that include:
 - (i) school policies and procedures that make provision for the welfare of students, and

- (ii) persons who are employed at the school being employed in accordance with the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998, and
- (iii) school policies and procedures that ensure compliance with relevant notification requirements imposed in relation to persons employed at the school by Part 3A of the Ombudsman Act 1974 and Part 7 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998,
- (h) school policies relating to discipline of students attending the school are based on principles of procedural fairness, and do not permit corporal punishment of students,
- (i) if the school provides boarding facilities, whether itself or by contractual arrangement—school policies and procedures that are satisfactory to ensure the safety and welfare of boarders,
- (j) compliance with the requirements set out in Part 3 relating to:
 - (i) in the case of a school providing primary education—the minimum curriculum for a school providing primary education, or
 - (ii) in the case of a school providing secondary education for children during Year 7 to Year 10—the minimum curriculum for a school providing any such secondary education, or
 - (iii) in the case of a school providing secondary education for children during Year 11 and Year 12—the curriculum for students who are candidates for the Higher School Certificate,
- (k) school policies and procedures are appropriate to ensure the personal and social development of students who are undertaking all or a significant part of their courses of study by means of distance education,
- (l) school policies and procedures ensure its participation in annual reporting (of a kind determined by the Minister following consultation with persons recognised by the Minister as having appropriate expertise in accountability matters):

- (i) to publicly disclose the educational and financial performance measures and policies of the school, and
 - (ii) to provide data to the Minister that is relevant to the Minister's annual report to Parliament on the effectiveness of schooling in the State.

Note. Section 131 enables the Board to make rules setting out guidelines to assist a non-government school to comply with the requirements for registration set out in section 47.

47A Effect of section 47 on certain contracts

The operation of section 47 is not to be regarded as giving rise to any implication that it is a term of any contract (whether or not written) between the proprietor of a registered non-government school and a parent of any child enrolled at the school that the school comply with the requirements imposed by or under this Act for registration of non-government schools or that failure to comply with any such requirement in itself gives rise to any civil cause of action.

Note. Non-government schools are given protection from civil liability in tort for breach of a statutory duty (including liability for damages sought in an action for breach of contract or any other action) under Part 5 of the Civil Liability Act 2002 by virtue of the Civil Liability Regulation 2003.

[10] Section 49 Application for initial registration of a new non-government school or a school joining a system

Insert after section 49 (2):

- (2A) An application for registration of a new non-government school must be made not later than 31 March in the calendar year before the year the proposed proprietor or approved authority intends to commence operating the school.
