

[Act 1996 No 143]

New South Wales

Parliamentary Committees Enabling Bill 1996

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to enable certain Parliamentary Committees to function during the next prorogation of Parliament and during the third session of the present Parliament.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 specifies the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act is to commence on the date of assent.

Clause 3 declares that the Parliamentary Committees mentioned in Schedule 1 to the proposed Act may lawfully sit during the prorogation of the present Parliament and during the third session of the present Parliament. The clause also enables the Committees in that period to do all things they might lawfully have done during the second session of the present Parliament. The clause is subject to the powers of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly.

Schedule 1 sets out the Parliamentary Committees continued by the proposed Act.
