

[Act 1996 No 136]

New South Wales

Marketing of Primary Products Amendment Bill 1996

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to ensure that the M.I.A. Citrus Fruit Promotion Marketing Order 1989 remains in force and to extend its operation until 28 March 1998 unless it is sooner revoked.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the proposed Act to commence on the date of assent.

Clause 3 is a formal provision giving effect to the amendment to the Marketing of Primary Products Act 1983 set out in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1 inserts in the Marketing of Primary Products Act 1983 a new section 165 that makes it clear that the M.I.A. Citrus Fruit Promotion Marketing Order 1989 is still in force and extends its operation for a year until 28 March 1998. The proposed section expires on that date. The proposed amendment does not prevent the order from being amended or revoked before then.
