Wardens' Courts Rules 1992

New South Wales

1 Name of rules

These rules may be cited as the Wardens' Courts Rules 1992.

2 Commencement

These rules commence on 21 August 1992.

3 Definitions

(1) In these rules:

practice direction means a practice direction in force under section 333 of the Act.

the Act means the Mining Act 1992.

(2) In these rules, a reference to a form is a reference to a form set out in Schedule 1.

4 Practice and procedure generally

(1) The practice in a warden's court is to be the practice prescribed by the Act, by these rules and by the practice directions.

(2) A warden's court may on terms dispense with compliance with any of the requirements of these rules, or of the practice directions, either before or after the occasion for the compliance arises.

(3) The practice prescribed by these rules and by the practice directions applies to all proceedings commenced or maintained in a warden's court, except in so far as that practice is inconsistent with any provision of or under any Act.

5 Orders as to procedure where provision does not otherwise exist

(1) A warden's court may, on application or of its own motion, make orders as to the manner or form of procedure in any case in which:

(a) the manner or form of procedure for commencing proceedings, or for taking any step in proceedings, is not prescribed by the Act, by these rules, by the practice directions or by or under any other Act, or

(b) there is any doubt as to the manner or form of procedure for commencing proceedings or for taking any step in proceedings.

(2) Proceedings commenced in accordance with the orders of a warden's court are duly commenced and steps taken in accordance with the orders of a warden's court are duly taken.

6 Orders as to procedure for preliminary matters

(1) A warden's court may make such orders as to the following matters as appear to the court appropriate to facilitate the hearing of a proceeding or the identification and reduction of issues in a proceeding:

- (a) points and particulars of a claim,
- (b) points and particulars of a defence or cross-claim,
- (c) admissions,
- (d) discovery,
- (e) interrogatories,
- (f) any other matter of procedure.

(2) A warden's court may also impose time limits and sanctions in respect of any such orders.

7 Forms

(1) It is sufficient compliance with any requirement as to the form of any document if the document is substantially in accordance with the requirement or has only such variations as the nature of the case requires.

(2) Any document for use in proceedings before a warden's court must be in the relevant form set out in Schedule 1 or, if there is no such form, in such form as the chief warden may from time to time approve.

(3) In particular:

- (a) the heading and conclusion to orders and other documents used in proceedings before a warden's court are to be in the form set out in Form 1, and
- (b) the heading and conclusion to affidavits used in proceedings before a warden's court are to be in the form set out in Form 2, and
- (c) a summons on a complaint is to be in the form set out in Form 3, and
- (d) a warrant of commitment for contempt is to be in the form set out in Form 4, and

- (e) a subpoena to give evidence is to be in the form set out in Form 5, and
- (f) a subpoena for production is to be in the form set out in Form 6.

8 Fees

- (1) The fee to be paid to the registrar of a warden's court for the issue of a summons is $130.
- (2) The fee to be lodged with the registrar of a warden's court with an application to a warden to state a case is $110.

9 Complaints

- (1) A summons on a complaint must contain particulars of:
 - (a) the basis of the complaint, and
 - (b) the relief or remedy sought (including the amount of any money sought to be recovered), and
 - (c) any ancillary matter.
- (2) The particulars must be sufficient to enable the defendant to identify precisely the case the defendant is required to meet.
- (3) A summons on a complaint must be served on the defendant at least 14 days before the day stated in the summons for the appearance of the defendant or by such other day as a warden's court may direct.

10 Injunctions

- (1) An application for an injunction:
 - (a) must be in writing, and
 - (b) must contain particulars of the injunction sought and the grounds on which it is sought, and
 - (c) must be supported by the affidavit of at least one person who has knowledge of the circumstances giving rise to the application.
- (2) An application for an injunction, and every affidavit supporting the application:
 - (a) must be served on each person who will, if it is granted, be restrained by the injunction, and
 - (b) must be so served at least 14 days before the day stated in the application for the appearance of the person or by such other day as a warden's court may direct.

11 Other applications etc

Any application other than an application for an injunction, and every affidavit supporting the application:

- (a) must be served on each person who may be affected by the decision on the application, and
- (b) must be so served at least 14 days before the day stated in the application for the appearance of the person or by such other day as a warden's court may direct.

12 Summons or subpoena to attend as witness etc

- (1) A summons or subpoena requiring a person to attend as a witness must be served on the person at least 5 days before the day stated in the summons or subpoena for the appearance of the person at the proceedings or inquiry concerned.
- (2) The costs of attendance to be tendered to a person in connection with a summons or subpoena requiring the person to attend as a witness must be sufficient to cover the person's reasonable costs of travel, accommodation and meals (as appropriate) for each day the person is required to attend.

13 Manner of service of documents

- (1) Subject to the Act, any document concerning a proceeding or matter may be served on a person:
 - (a) personally, or
 - (b) by sending it to the person by post addressed to:
 - the person's place of residence or place of business, or
 - the place of business of the person's solicitor or agent in the proceeding or matter, or
 - (c) by leaving the document with any person apparently of or above the age of 16 years at:
 - the person's place of residence or place of business, or
 - the place of business of the person's solicitor or agent in the proceeding or matter, or
 - (d) by delivering the document to the facilities of a document exchange of which the person, or the person's solicitor or agent in the proceeding or matter, is a member.
- (2) In the case of service by delivery to the facilities of a document exchange, the document is, unless the contrary is proved, taken to have been served on the second business day following the day of delivery of the document to those facilities.

14 Orders for delivery or deposit of minerals etc

A warden's court that makes an order in any proceedings for the delivery or deposit of any mineral or other property may make further orders as to:

- (a) the safe-keeping of the mineral or other property, and
- (b) the payment by any party to the proceedings of the cost of any such delivery, deposit or safe-keeping.

15 Costs

Costs recoverable in proceedings before a warden's court are, unless the court otherwise orders, to be determined by reference to the scales of costs applicable in the District Court.

16 Wardens' courts registers

The register to be kept by the registrar of a warden's court is to be kept in writing or by means of computer equipment and is to contain the following particulars in respect of each proceeding or matter commenced in the court:

- (a) the name and address of each party to the proceeding or matter,
- (b) the name and description of any legal practitioner or agent acting for any party to the proceeding or matter,
- (c) a short description of the nature of the proceeding or matter,
- (d) the amount of money or order sought in the proceeding or matter,
- (e) a brief note of the decision or order, if any, made on the proceeding or matter.
