- (2) The General Assembly may require a school or college conducted on property vested in the Trustees to contribute to the Central Education Fund such sums, annual or otherwise, as the Trustees, after consultation by them, or on their behalf, with the Council of the school or college, consider reasonable, having regard to the circumstances and needs of the school or college as well as to the necessity to augment the Central Education Fund.

28 Co-operative use of property

- (1) Where with the consents for the time being and from time to time prescribed by the General Assembly a congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in New South Wales has, at a meeting duly called in accordance with the requirements of the General Assembly, resolved to enter into a scheme of co-operation with, or involving, a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, being a scheme that involves the use of property vested in the Trustees, the Trustees may, while the scheme of co-operation continues in force, permit that property to be used, managed and administered in connection with that scheme in such manner and upon such conditions as the General Assembly determines or prescribes.
- (2) The conditions that the General Assembly may determine or prescribe under subsection one of this section include conditions with respect to the making of contributions of money for the acquisition, construction, alteration or repair of assets vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation upon such terms as to charges upon other assets and charges upon property vested in the Trustees for any such contributions from other denominations and otherwise as may be so determined or prescribed, and any such contributions by or on behalf of a congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in New South Wales or towards assets of or held on behalf of such a congregation are, to the extent so determined or prescribed at the time of the contributions, hereby so charged.
- (3) Neither the Registrar-General nor any person dealing bona fide and for value with any property vested in the Trust shall be bound to enquire whether any security or charge referred to in subsection two of this section exists or be deemed to have notice thereof or be bound thereby by virtue only of this Act or the existence of any scheme of co-operation under this section and:
 - (a) a conveyance, transfer or other assurance to such a person shall operate as a discharge of any security or charge so referred to, in so far as the property conveyed, transferred or assured would, but for this subsection, be subject thereto, and
 - (b) a mortgage or charge in favour of such a person shall have priority over any security or charge so referred to that affects the property mortgaged or charged in favour of that person.
- (4) The proceeds of the sale, mortgage or other dealing with property referred to in this section, and all moneys collected or held in respect of a scheme of co-operation may be applied in such manner as the General Assembly determines or prescribes.

29 Rights of minister of co-operating congregations

The minister or other person in charge of the religious services of a congregation that has entered into a scheme of co-operation may be of a denomination other than Presbyterian and, if that minister or other person is of another denomination he shall, so long as he is in charge of the religious services and so long as that scheme of co-operation is in force, have the rights of a minister that are specified in section seventeen of this Act.

30 Constitution of Committee of Management where scheme of co-operation is in force

Where a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in New South Wales has entered into a scheme of co-operation the Committee of Management of that congregation may include members of any other congregation that is a party to the scheme of co-operation and those members may be of a denomination other than Presbyterian.

31 Certain provisions to apply to property held on behalf of co-operating congregations

- (1) The provisions of sections twenty-eight, twenty-nine and thirty of this Act shall apply to and in relation to all property at any time held on behalf of a congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in New South Wales that has entered into a scheme of co-operation except to the extent that the property is held subject to any express trust expressly forbidding its use or administration in any manner referred to in those sections.
- (2) Subsection one of this section shall not apply to prevent the use or administration of property in a manner referred to in sections twenty-eight, twenty-nine and thirty of this Act if the property is merely directed to be held on trust for Presbyterian worship or purposes.
