Part 2 Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children

4 Continuation of Institute under new name

- (1) The Royal New South Wales Institute for Deaf and Blind Children constituted under the Royal New South Wales Institute for Deaf and Blind Children Act 1905 is continued by this Act as a body corporate with the corporate name of the “Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children”.
- (2) The Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children is the same legal entity as the legal entity continued by this Act.

5 Institute not agency of State

- (1) The Institute is not, and does not represent, the Crown.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Institute:
- (a) is not an instrumentality or agency of the State, and
 - (b) is not entitled to any immunity or privilege of the State, and
 - (c) is not a public authority for any purpose and is taken not to have been constituted or established for a public purpose or for a purpose of the State.

6 Object

- (1) The principal object of the Institute is the advancement in life, to the greatest extent practicable, of deaf and blind children.
- (2) The Institute is not to carry out its activities for the purpose of private gain for particular persons.

7 Membership of Institute

- (1) The members of the Institute are persons who have been admitted to membership of the Institute by the Board in accordance with the by-laws.
- (2) A register of members is to be kept by the Institute in such place and is to include such information as is prescribed by the by-laws.

8 Annual general meeting of Institute

- (1) The Board is to call an annual general meeting of the Institute as soon as practicable after the completion of each financial year of the Institute.
- (2) A quorum for an annual general meeting is 10 members.

- (3) The Institute is to elect the directors of the Board at the annual general meeting in accordance with this Act and the by-laws.

9 Special meeting of Institute

- (1) A special meeting of the Institute for the transaction of any particular business may be called at any time by the Board and must be held on written requisition of at least 20 members given to the President or, in the absence of the President, a Vice President.
- (2) The special meeting is to be held within 30 days after the receipt of the requisition by the President or, in the absence of the President, a Vice President.
- (3) At least 7 days' notice of the time and place of any special meeting as well as the business to be transacted is to be given in accordance with the by-laws.

Part 3 Board

10 Board of Institute

- (1) The Institute is to have a Board consisting of no more than 15 directors who are members of the Institute.
- (2) The Board has the control of the affairs of the Institute subject to any by-laws and has such other functions as may be conferred or imposed on the Board by or under this or any other Act.
- (3) Any act, matter or thing done in the name of, or on the behalf of, the Institute by the Board is taken to have been done by the Institute.
- (4) Schedule 1 has effect with respect to the directors.
- (5) Schedule 2 has effect with respect to the procedure of the Board.

11 Delegation of functions

- (1) The Board may delegate to an authorised person any of the functions of the Board, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) A delegate may sub-delegate to an authorised person any function delegated by the Board if the delegate is authorised in writing to do so by the Board.
- (3) In this section, authorised person means a member of the staff of the Institute or any other person, or person within a class of persons, prescribed by the by-laws.

12 Powers to invest

The Board may invest funds of the Institute:

- (a) in accordance with, and subject to, the Trustee Act 1925, or

(b) in any other manner authorised by the regulations.

13 Indemnity

- (1) A person is entitled to be indemnified out of the property of the Institute against all expenses and liabilities incurred by the person (whether as a director or in any other capacity) in connection with the exercise in good faith of the duties of office of the person, including any reasonable legal costs and disbursements.
- (2) The Institute may insure any person against any liability to which subsection (1) applies.

14 Committees and subcommittees

The Board may establish such committees and subcommittees as the Board thinks fit for the purpose of assisting it to exercise its functions.

Part 4 Property of Institute

15 Power to hold and deal with property

The Institute has power to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, mortgage and otherwise deal with property held by the Institute in accordance with its objects.

16 Power to accept gifts

- (1) The Institute has power to acquire by gift, bequest or devise any property for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to all or any of its objects and to agree to and carry out the conditions of the gift, bequest or devise.
- (2) The rule of law against remoteness of vesting does not apply to or in respect of any condition of a gift, bequest or devise to which the Institute has agreed.
- (3) The Stamp Duties Act 1920 does not apply to or in respect of any conveyance or gift to, activity or transaction of, or bequest or devise in favour of, the Institute and taking effect after the commencement of the Royal New South Wales Institute for Deaf and Blind Children Act 1905.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

22 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 3 has effect.

Schedule 1 Provisions relating to directors

(Section 10)

1 Board

- (1) The Board is to consist of no more than 15 directors who are members of the Institute.
- (2) At the first meeting of the Board after the annual general meeting, the Board:
 - (a) is to elect one director to be President of the Board, and
 - (b) is to elect up to 4 directors to be Vice Presidents of the Board.

2 President and Vice Presidents

- (1) Candidates for the position of President and for the positions of Vice President must be properly nominated in accordance with the by-laws.
- (2) The Board may at any time remove a director from the office of President or Vice President.
- (3) A person who is appointed as President or Vice President vacates that office if the person:
 - (a) is removed from that office by the Board, or
 - (b) resigns that office by notice in writing to the Board, or
 - (c) ceases to be a member, or

(d) ceases to be a director under clause 4.

3 Vacancy

- (1) If the office of any director becomes vacant, a member may be appointed, subject to this Act, by the Board to fill the vacancy.
- (2) If a person is appointed under subclause (1), that person:
 - (a) is to retire immediately before the following annual general meeting, and
 - (b) is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-election.

4 Retirement of directors

- (1) At least one-third of the directors are to retire by rotation each year.
- (2) In the event of a dispute under subclause (1), the Board is to determine by ballot which directors are to retire.
- (3) Each director must retire no later than 3 years after being elected and may submit for re-election.
- (4) Directors who retire are eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-election.

Schedule 2 Provisions relating to procedure of Board

(Section 10)

1 General procedure

The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Act and the by-laws, to be determined by the Board.

2 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Board is 4 directors.

3 Chairperson

- (1) The President, or in the President's absence a Vice President, is to preside as chairperson.
- (2) If the President and all Vice Presidents are absent from any meeting of the Board, the directors present are to elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.
- (3) The person acting as chairperson at any meeting of the Board is to have a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, is to have a second or casting vote.
- (4) However, the person acting as chairperson does not have a second or casting vote where the vote relates to the retirement of the chairperson in accordance with clause 4 of Schedule 1.

4 Informality of election of director not to invalidate acts

Any act or decision of the Board is not to be called in to question merely because of any defects in the election or appointment of a director.

Schedule 3 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 22)

Part 1 Provisions consequent on enactment of this Act

1 Definition

In this Schedule:

the 1905 Act means the Royal New South Wales Institute for Deaf and Blind Children Act 1905.

2 Members, life members and life governors

A person who was a member, life member or life governor of the Institute immediately before the repeal of the 1905 Act continues (subject to the by-laws) to be a member, life member or life governor under this Act as if the person was admitted as a member, life member or life governor under this Act.

3 Board

- (1) A person holding office as President or Vice President of the Institute immediately before the repeal of the 1905 Act continues to hold office under this Act as if appointed under this Act.
- (2) A person holding office as treasurer, secretary or director of the Institute immediately before the repeal of the 1905 Act continues to hold office under this Act as if elected or appointed under this Act.

4 Members of staff

A person who, immediately before the repeal of the 1905 Act, was a member of staff of the Institute continues to be a member of staff of the Institute and retains any accrued entitlements.

5 By-laws

By-laws made under the 1905 Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act are, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with this Act, taken to be by-laws made under this Act.
