Driving Instructors Act 1992 No 3

New South Wales

An Act to provide for the licensing of instructors engaged for reward in teaching persons to drive motor vehicles; to repeal the Motor Vehicle Driving Instructors Act 1961; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Driving Instructors Act 1992.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Act:

application includes an application for the renewal of a licence.

authorised officer means a person authorised in writing by the Authority for the purposes of the provision of this Act in which the expression is used.

Authority means the Roads and Traffic Authority constituted under the Transport Administration Act 1988.

driver licence means a licence (other than a learner licence, a provisional licence, a restricted licence or a probationary licence) under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998, or a corresponding licence under the law for the time being in force in any other State, or in any Territory or country, to drive all classes of motor vehicles (or motor vehicles of the relevant class).

driving instructor is defined in section 4.

driving school is defined in section 5.

instructions includes advice, demonstrations and courses of training.

licence means a licence under this Act.

motor vehicle means a motor vehicle (including any trailer towed by the vehicle) within the meaning of the Road Transport \(General\) Act 1999.

road means a road within the meaning of the Road Transport \(General\) Act 1999 (other than a road that is the subject of a declaration made under section 9 (1) (b) of that Act relating to all of the provisions of that Act).

road related area means a road related area within the meaning of the Road Transport \(General\) Act 1999 (other than a road related area that is the subject of a declaration made under section 9 (1) (b) of that Act relating to all of the provisions of that Act).

- (2) In this Act, a reference to a relevant class of motor vehicles is a reference to a class of motor vehicles in respect of which the applicant for a licence has applied.

4 Meaning of “driving instructor”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a driving instructor is a person who, for any monetary or other reward, gives another person instructions for the purpose of teaching that other person to drive a motor vehicle.
- (2) It does not matter whether the driving instructor gives instructions on the instructor’s own account or in conjunction with any other person or as the agent or employee of any other person.
- (3) However, the regulations may provide that certain persons or classes of persons are not driving instructors for the purposes of this Act.

5 Meaning of “driving school”

For the purposes of this Act, a driving school is a business which provides persons with instructions for the purpose of teaching those persons to drive motor vehicles.

Part 2 Licences relating to driving instructors

6 Unlicensed driving instruction

A person must not act as a driving instructor unless the person is the holder of a licence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

7 Unlicensed person not to be employed as driving instructor

A person must not engage or permit another person to act, as the person’s employee or agent, as a driving instructor unless that other person is the holder of a licence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

8 Unauthorised promotions

- (1) A person who is not the holder of a licence must not advertise or state that the person acts or is willing to act as a driving instructor.
- (2) A person who is not the holder of a licence authorising the person to act as a driving instructor in respect of motor vehicles of a particular class must not advertise or state that the person acts or is willing to act as a driving instructor in respect of vehicles of that class.
- (3) A person must not advertise or state that the person is willing to procure another person to act as a driving instructor, or as a driving instructor in respect of motor vehicles of a particular class, unless that other person is the holder of a licence authorising the person to act as a driving instructor or as a driving instructor in respect of the class concerned.
- (4) A person who advertises, or makes a statement in writing, to the effect that the person acts or is willing to act as a driving instructor or as a driving instructor in respect of motor vehicles of a particular class must specify in the advertisement or statement:
 - (a) the class of motor vehicles in respect of which the person acts or is willing to act as a driving instructor, and
 - (b) the number of the person's licence.
- (5) A person who advertises, or makes a statement in writing, to the effect that the person is willing to procure another person to act as a driving instructor or as a driving instructor in respect of motor vehicles of a particular class must specify in the advertisement or statement:
 - (a) the class of motor vehicles in respect of which the person is willing to procure another person to act as a driving instructor, and
 - (b) the name and place of business of the driving school that will procure the person.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

9 Authority conferred by licence

A licence authorises its holder to act, in accordance with any conditions imposed on the licence, as a driving instructor.

10 Prerequisites for licence

A person is not eligible to be issued with a licence unless the person:

- (a) has reached the age of 21 years, and

- (b) is the holder of a driver licence, and
- (c) has, for a period of not less than 3 years during the period of 4 years before the date of the application, held a driver licence, and
- (d) has completed a course in driving instruction approved by the Authority and conducted by an organisation approved by the Authority.

11 Application for licence

- (1) An application for a licence is to be in a form approved by the Authority and is to be lodged with the Authority.
- (2) The application is to be accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations.

12 Referral of application to Commissioner of Police

- (1) The Authority must, as soon as practicable after receiving an application for a licence, notify the Commissioner of Police of the application.
- (2) The Authority is not obliged to notify the Commissioner of Police of an application for the renewal of a licence.

13 Investigation of applicant

As soon as practicable after being notified of an application, the Commissioner of Police must cause inquiries to be made as to the character of the applicant and must give a written report of the result of the inquiries to the Authority.

14 Consideration of information

- (1) In considering an application, the Authority must take into account any report of the Commissioner of Police and any other relevant information known to it.
- (2) It does not matter whether the other information (if any) was known or received before or after the report was made.

15 Testing of applicant

The Authority may require the applicant to submit to a test of any one or more of the following:

- (a) the applicant's competence as a driver of motor vehicles (or of motor vehicles of the relevant class),
- (b) the applicant's knowledge of the provisions of the road transport legislation within the meaning of the Road Transport \(General\) Act 1999 that relate to drivers of motor vehicles and the driving of motor vehicles,
- (c) the applicant's knowledge of the provisions of this Act and of the regulations made under it,

- (d) the applicant's ability to teach persons to drive motor vehicles (or motor vehicles of the relevant class),
- (e) such other matters as may be prescribed by the regulations.

16 Medical certificates

- (1) The Authority may require the applicant to obtain a certificate signed by a medical practitioner stating that the practitioner has personally examined the applicant and stating the medical practitioner's opinion as to whether, having regard to the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor (including the safety of the public), the applicant is medically a fit person to act as a driving instructor.
- (2) The Authority may require the applicant to obtain a certificate concerning the applicant's eyesight signed by a medical practitioner or a registered optometrist.
- (3) The Authority may require that any certificate under this section be obtained from a medical practitioner or optometrist specified by the Authority.

17 Determination of application

After considering an application, the Authority must:

- (a) issue a licence to the applicant, or
- (b) refuse the application and serve on the applicant a notice setting out its reasons for the refusal.

18 Grounds for refusal of application

- (1) The Authority must refuse an application if:
 - (a) the applicant is not eligible to be issued with a licence as referred to in section 10, or
 - (b) the Authority is not satisfied that the applicant is a person of good character, or
 - (c) the Authority is not satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, or
 - (d) the applicant refused to submit to, or did not pass, any test to which the applicant was required to submit under section 15, or
 - (e) the applicant, if required to do so, did not obtain the medical or other certificate referred to in section 16, or
 - (f) the Authority has reason to believe that the applicant has engaged in bribery or fraud relating to the testing of applicants for driver licences under the Road

Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 (or corresponding licences under the law in any other State, or in any Territory or country) or the issue of those licences, or

- (g) the Authority is of the opinion that it would not be in the public interest for the applicant to hold a licence having regard to the applicant's record of convictions (within the State or elsewhere) for offences involving motor vehicles.
- (2) The Authority may refuse an application if the applicant has, during the period of 10 years before the application, been found guilty of an offence in the State or elsewhere involving fraud or dishonesty and punishable on conviction by imprisonment for 3 months or more.
- (3) If an applicant is a person with a disability (within the meaning of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 of the Commonwealth), the Authority must not refuse an application on the ground that the person is, because of that disability, not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, unless the applicant because of that disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor.
- (4) The following are to be taken into account in determining whether an applicant would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor (as referred to in subsection (3)):
 - (a) the applicant's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the occupation of driving instructor,
 - (b) if the applicant is already acting as a driving instructor, the applicant's performance in that occupation,
 - (c) all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account.

19 Conditional licence

- (1) A licence may be issued subject to such conditions as the Authority may determine. The conditions may include, for example, a condition restricting the licensee to acting as a driving instructor in respect of motor vehicles of a specified class.
- (2) The conditions must be set out in writing in a document served on the licensee.
- (3) If a licence is issued subject to conditions, the Authority must, on the applicant's request, serve on the applicant a notice setting out the reasons for the Authority's decision to impose the conditions.
- (4) During the currency of a licence the Authority may, by notice served on the holder of the licence, do either or both of the following:
 - (a) revoke or vary any conditions imposed on the licence,

(b) impose new conditions on the licence.

(5) On the licensee's request, the Authority must serve on the licensee a notice setting out the reasons for the Authority's decision to vary the conditions imposed on the licence or to impose new conditions.

20 Contravention of conditions of licence

A licensee must not contravene any condition to which the licence is subject.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

21 Employer to require compliance with conditions of licence

A person must not permit a licensee who is the person's employee or agent to contravene any condition to which the licence is subject.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

22 Form of licence

A licence issued to a person may consist, wholly or in part, of:

- (a) an endorsement on the person's driver licence, or
- (b) a separate document.

23 Renewal of licence

- (1) The holder of a licence may, at any time during the currency of the licence or within 90 days after its expiry, apply to the Authority for a renewal of the licence.
- (2) The licence is renewed by the issue of a further licence:
 - (a) that takes effect from the expiry of the holder's current licence, if the application for renewal was made before that expiry, or
 - (b) that is taken to be effective from the date of application, if that application was made after the expiry.
- (3) Nothing in this section gives any force to a licence that has expired, or otherwise affects the operation of section 24.

24 When licence is in force

- (1) A licence is in force for the period specified in the licence unless it is suspended or cancelled.
- (2) Apart from any suspension or cancellation that may be effected under this Act, a licence is suspended or cancelled (as the case may be) while the holder's driver licence is suspended or cancelled.

- (3) A licence is also suspended during any other period while the licensee is not the holder of a driver licence.

25 Tests or certificates during currency of licence

- (1) The Authority may at any time during the currency of a licence require its holder to submit to any tests of the kind referred to in section 15 or to obtain any medical or other certificate referred to in section 16.
- (2) Requirements under this section are to be made only as often as the Authority considers necessary in the public interest.

26 Grounds for suspension or cancellation of licence

- (1) The Authority may suspend or cancel a licence on any of the following grounds:
- (a) the licence was issued erroneously or granted in consequence of any false or fraudulent document, statement or representation,
 - (b) any prescribed fee for the licence is due and unpaid,
 - (c) the holder of the licence is convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations,
 - (d) the holder of the licence has contravened a condition to which the licence is subject,
 - (e) the holder of the licence refuses to submit to, or does not pass, any of the tests the Authority requires the holder to submit to under section 25 or does not obtain a medical or other certificate referred to in that section,
 - (f) the holder of the licence has been found guilty of an offence (within the State or elsewhere) involving fraud or dishonesty and punishable on conviction by imprisonment for 3 months or more.
- (2) The Authority must cancel a licence if:
- (a) the Authority is satisfied that the holder of the licence is not a person of good character, or
 - (b) the Authority is satisfied that the holder of the licence is not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, or
 - (c) the Authority has reason to believe that the holder of the licence has engaged in bribery or fraud relating to the testing of applicants for driver licences under the Road Transport \(Driver Licensing\) Act 1998 (or corresponding licences under the law in any other State, or in any Territory or country) or the issue of those licences, or

- (d) the Authority is of the opinion that it would not be in the public interest for the holder of the licence to continue to hold a licence having regard to his or her record of convictions (within the State or elsewhere) for offences involving motor vehicles.
- (3) If the holder of a licence is a person with a disability (within the meaning of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 of the Commonwealth), the Authority must not cancel a licence on the ground that the holder is, because of that disability, not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, unless the holder because of that disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor.
- (4) The following are to be taken into account in determining whether a holder of a licence would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor (as referred to in subsection (3)):
 - (a) the holder's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to that occupation,
 - (b) if the holder is already acting as a driving instructor, the holder's performance in that occupation,
 - (c) all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account.

27 Notification of suspension or cancellation of licence

- (1) The Authority must serve on a driving instructor whose licence it has suspended or cancelled a notice:
 - (a) informing the instructor of the suspension or cancellation, and
 - (b) setting out the reasons for the Authority's decision to suspend or cancel the licence, and
 - (c) specifying the period within which the instructor must return the licence to the Authority.
- (2) The suspension or cancellation takes effect when the notice is served on the driving instructor concerned or on such later date as is specified in the notice.

28 Return of licence

- (1) A driving instructor served with a notice informing the instructor of the suspension or cancellation of the instructor's licence must, within the time specified in the notice, return the licence to the Authority.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (2) A person need not comply with subsection (1) if the suspension or cancellation is stayed by order of a Local Court under section 31.

- (3) A driving instructor whose licence expires must return the licence to the Authority not later than 3 days after the expiry.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (4) A driving instructor whose driver licence is suspended or cancelled must return the licence issued under this Act to the Authority not later than 3 days after the suspension or cancellation.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (5) A requirement in this section (and in section 29) that a licence be returned is a requirement that the licence itself, together with any document or notice setting out or varying conditions imposed on the licence and any photograph or other means of identifying the holder, be delivered to a place nominated by the Authority in writing to the holder so that the Authority may record the suspension, cancellation or change of address concerned.

29 Change of address

The holder of a licence whose address (as shown on the licence) changes must, within 7 days after the change, notify the Authority in writing of the change and return the licence to the Authority for amendment.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

30 Duplicate licence

- (1) The Authority may issue a duplicate licence to replace a licence that has been destroyed, lost, stolen or mutilated.

- (2) Before issuing a duplicate licence, the Authority may require:

(a) proof to its satisfaction that the licence has been destroyed, lost, stolen or mutilated, and

(b) payment of the prescribed fee, and

(c) lodgment with it of copies of a photograph of the licensee.

Part 3 Appeals relating to licences

31 Appeal against decision of Authority

- (1) A person may appeal to a Local Court against the refusal of the person's application for a licence, except if the application was refused on the ground that the applicant was not eligible to hold a licence as referred to in section 10.

- (2) A person may appeal to a Local Court against the imposition or variation of any condition on the person's licence.
- (3) A person may appeal to a Local Court against the suspension or cancellation of the person's licence.
- (4) Notice of an appeal is to be lodged:
 - (a) with the Clerk of the Local Court to which the appeal is being made, and
 - (b) with the Authority,within 21 days after the date on which the person was notified of the relevant decision of the Authority.
- (5) The notice of appeal must specify the grounds of appeal.
- (6) An appeal does not operate to stay the effect of the Authority's decision unless the Local Court otherwise orders.
- (7) If the effect of a decision is stayed under this section, it is stayed only for so long as any conditions imposed by the Local Court when ordering the stay are complied with.

32 Procedure on notice of appeal

- (1) The Clerk of the Local Court to which an appeal under this Part is made must give notice of the time and place of the hearing of the appeal to the Authority and to the appellant.
- (2) The hearing of an appeal may proceed regardless of any omission from or error in a notice given under this section or the failure to give the notice if the Local Court is satisfied that the appellant and the Authority knew of the time and place of the hearing and were not prejudiced by the omission, error or failure to give notice.

33 Procedure on appeal

- (1) An appeal under this Part is to be heard before a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone.
- (2) The Local Court is to hear and determine the appeal and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make any other order, as seems just to the Local Court.
- (3) The Local Court is not bound to observe the rules of law governing the admission of evidence but may inform itself of any matter in such manner as it sees fit.
- (4) The civil standard of proof applies in proceedings on an appeal.
- (5) Any material considered by the Authority in reaching the decision the subject of the appeal and copies of any notices, documents or letters served on the appellant by the Authority together with details of their service are admissible in the proceedings.

- (6) The authenticity of any such material, notices, documents, letters and service must be certified by an authorised officer.
- (7) The decision of the Local Court given in any appeal under this Part is final, is taken to be the decision of the Authority and is to be carried into effect accordingly.

Part 4 Certain persons prohibited from conducting etc driving schools

34 Definition

In this Part, prohibition order means an order made by a Local Court under this Part and for the time being in force which prohibits a person from conducting a driving school or engaging in the control, management or administration of a driving school.

35 Application for prohibition order

The Authority may apply to a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone for a prohibition order.

36 Grounds on which prohibition order may be made

A prohibition order may be made against a person only if the Local Court is satisfied that the person is conducting a driving school or engaging in the control, management or administration of a driving school and that the person:

- (a) has (whether in connection with the driving school or otherwise) engaged in bribery or fraud relating to the testing of applicants for driver licences under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 (or corresponding licences under the law in any other State, or in any Territory or country) or the issue of those licences, or
- (b) has been found guilty of an offence (within the State or elsewhere) involving fraud or dishonesty and punishable on conviction by imprisonment for 3 months or more.

37 Making of prohibition order

- (1) The Local Court may, on application by the Authority and on being satisfied that the order is warranted, order a person not to conduct a driving school or engage in the control, management or administration of a driving school:
 - (a) in any way, or
 - (b) in a way stated in the order, or
 - (c) otherwise than in a way stated in the order.
- (2) The Authority must serve a copy of the prohibition order on the person the subject of the order.

38 Application for variation or revocation of prohibition order

- (1) Application for variation or revocation of a prohibition order may be made to the Local Court by the person the subject of the order or by the Authority.
- (2) The Local Court may, on that application, vary or revoke the prohibition order or refuse to vary or revoke it.
- (3) If the Local Court varies the prohibition order, the Authority must serve a copy of the order varying the original order on the person the subject of the order.

39 Appeal against making or variation of prohibition order

- (1) An appeal lies to the Supreme Court against a decision of a Local Court to make or vary a prohibition order.
- (2) No appeal against such a decision may be made later than 21 days after the date of service of the copy of the order or of the order varying the order (as the case may be) on the person the subject of the order.

40 Determination of appeal

- (1) The Supreme Court is to hear and determine the appeal and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make any other order, as seems just to the Court.
- (2) The decision of the Supreme Court given in any appeal under this Part is final, is taken to be the decision of the Local Court and is to be carried into effect accordingly.

41 Court procedure

- (1) A Local Court determining an application, and the Supreme Court hearing an appeal, under this Part are not bound to observe the rules of law governing the admission of evidence but may inform themselves of any matter in such manner as they see fit.
- (2) The civil standard of proof applies in any such proceeding.

42 Costs

A Local Court determining an application, and the Supreme Court hearing an appeal, under this Part may make such orders as to costs as seem just to the Court concerned.

43 When order takes effect

- (1) A prohibition order or an order varying a prohibition order takes effect 21 days after the date of service of the copy of the order on the person the subject of the order, unless an appeal against the decision is lodged with the Supreme Court within that time.

- (2) If an appeal against a decision of the Local Court is lodged within 21 days after the date of service of the order, the relevant order does not take effect until the Supreme Court upholds the decision or the appeal is withdrawn.
- (3) An order revoking a prohibition order takes effect as soon as it is made.

44 Contravention of terms of order

- (1) A person the subject of a prohibition order must not contravene any of its terms.
- (2) A person must not permit another person to conduct a driving school or to engage in the control, management or administration of a driving school in contravention of a prohibition order if the person knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, that the other person is subject to the order.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Part 5 Records relating to driving instructors and driving schools

45 Authority to keep records

The Authority must keep records of:

- (a) licences and matters relating to licences, including particulars of the issue, refusal, suspension and cancellation of licences, conditions imposed on licences and the variation of such conditions, and
- (b) prohibition orders under Part 4 and matters relating to such orders, including particulars of their making, variation and revocation, and
- (c) particulars of the service of notices or documents under this Act.

46 Evidence as to Authority's records

- (1) A certificate purporting to be signed by an authorised officer and to certify that on any date or during any period specified in the certificate the particulars set out in the certificate as to any of the matters referred to in section 45 did or did not appear on or from the Authority's records is, in all courts and on all occasions, evidence of the particulars certified by the certificate.
- (2) In particular, a certificate purporting to be signed by an authorised officer and to certify that on any date or during any period specified in the certificate:
 - (a) a specified person was or was not the holder of a licence, or
 - (b) a licence held by a specified person was or was not subject to a specified condition, or

(c) a specified person was or was not subject to a specified prohibition order, or
(d) a specified notice or document was served under this Act on a specified person, is admissible in evidence in any legal proceedings and is evidence of the particulars certified by the certificate.

- (3) This section applies without the necessity for proof of the signature or of the official character of the person purporting to have signed the certificate and without the necessity for the production of any record or document on which the certificate is founded.

47 Driving schools to keep records

- (1) The proprietor of a driving school must keep or cause to be kept such records relating to the operation of the driving school as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) The Authority may, by notice in writing to the proprietor of a driving school, exempt that proprietor from the requirement to keep records, and may in the same way withdraw that exemption.

48 Driving instructors to keep records

The holder of a licence must keep such records relating to the giving of driving instruction as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

49 Production of records

- (1) A police officer or an authorised officer may, at any reasonable time, require the proprietor of a driving school or a driving instructor:

- (a) to produce for inspection by the officer any record required by this Act to be kept by the proprietor or by the instructor, as the case may be, and
- (b) to allow the officer to make copies of or take extracts from the record, and
- (c) to permit the officer to make an endorsement or notation on the record, and
- (d) to provide such information as may reasonably be required by the officer in connection with the record.

- (2) A proprietor of a driving school or a driving instructor must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement under this section.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (3) Any person who wilfully obstructs or hinders a police officer or an authorised officer in the exercise of any power conferred by this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

50 Act binds the Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales and, in so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

51 Identification of persons offering driving instruction

- (1) A police officer or an authorised officer who suspects on reasonable grounds that a motor vehicle is a vehicle used, or sometimes used, for the purpose of teaching any person to drive or for the purpose of advertising a driving school or advertising the fact that any person is willing to act as a driving instructor, may require:
- (a) the owner of the vehicle, or
 - (b) the person who has custody of the vehicle, or
 - (c) if the vehicle is registered under the Road Transport \(Vehicle Registration\) Act 1997 (or registered or licensed under the law of any other State, or of any Territory or country that corresponds to the requirements of that Act relating to the registration of motor vehicles)—the person in whose name the vehicle is registered, to give to the officer such information relevant to the provision of driving instruction in connection with the vehicle and the activities of the driving school and the identity of persons connected with it as it is within the power of the person to give.

- (2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement under this section.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

52 Production of licence

- (1) The holder of a licence must produce the licence for inspection when required to do so by:
- (a) a police officer or an authorised officer, or
 - (b) any person who wishes to receive or is receiving driving instruction from the licensee.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, licence includes any document setting out conditions imposed on the licence and any notice varying any such conditions or imposing new conditions.

53 Use of unsatisfactory vehicle

A person must not, while acting as a driving instructor, use on a road or road related area any motor vehicle which does not comply with the provisions of the road transport legislation within the meaning of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 relating to the construction and equipment of motor vehicles generally or of motor vehicles used for driving instruction purposes.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

54 Employer not to allow use of unsatisfactory vehicle

A person must not permit another person, while acting as a driving instructor as that person's employee or agent, to use on a road or road related area any motor vehicle which does not comply with the provisions of the road transport legislation within the meaning of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 relating to the construction and equipment of motor vehicles generally or of motor vehicles used for driving instruction purposes.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

55 False or misleading information

In complying with the provisions of this Act, a person must not:

- (a) make or keep a record, or
- (b) provide information, or
- (c) make a statement or representation, that the person knows to be false or misleading.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

56 Proceedings for offences

- (1) Proceedings for offences against this Act or the regulations are to be dealt with summarily before a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone.
- (2) Any court before which a person is convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations must cause particulars of the conviction to be forwarded to the Authority.

57 Forms

- (1) The Authority may determine that any application, notice, certificate or other thing

under this Act is to be made, lodged or served in a form approved by the Authority.

- (2) This Act is not complied with unless the application, notice, certificate or other thing is made, lodged or served in accordance with the approved form.

58 Service of documents

Any notice or document to be served on a person for the purposes of this Act:

- (a) may be served personally, or
- (b) may be left at or sent by post to the last-known residence or place of business of the person, or
- (c) may be left at or sent by post to the registered office of the person (if the person is a corporation), or
- (d) may be left at or sent by post to the address, if any, last notified by the person to the Authority.

59 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the payment of fees under this Act,
 - (b) the display, on or within any motor vehicle being used by a driving instructor for the purpose of giving instruction in the driving of the motor vehicle, of the licence held by the driving instructor and of any photograph of, or other means of identifying, the driving instructor,
 - (c) the provision of, and the manner of providing, to persons seeking instruction in the driving of motor vehicles information concerning fees and charges for such instruction,
 - (d) regulating advertisements, notices or claims relating to the driving of any motor vehicles or the giving of instruction in the driving of any motor vehicles by driving instructors and driving schools,
 - (e) the use of and the carriage of persons in any motor vehicles used for the purpose of giving instruction in the driving of motor vehicles,
 - (f) the provision and use of special equipment on any motor vehicle used by a driving instructor on any road or road related area for the purpose of giving instruction in the driving of the motor vehicle,

- (g) the production to the Authority by any applicant for a licence or by any holder of a licence of copies of a photograph of, or of other means of identifying, the applicant or holder,
- (h) the period for which records required by this Act to be kept are to be retained,
- (i) the granting of an exemption or conditional exemption from compliance with all or any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations.

(3) A regulation may create an offence punishable by a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units.

60 Repeals

- (1) The Motor Vehicle Driving Instructors Act 1961 is repealed.
- (2) The Motor Vehicle Driving Instructors Regulations 1962 are repealed.

61 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

62 (Repealed)

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 61)

Part 1 General

1 Definitions

In this Schedule, the 1961 Act means the Motor Vehicle Driving Instructors Act 1961.

2 Savings and transitional regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act and the Traffic Legislation Amendment Act 1997 (but only in relation to the amendments made to this Act).
- (2) A provision referred to in subclause (1) may, if the regulations so provide, take effect on the date of assent to the Act concerned or on a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which a provision referred to in subclause (1) takes effect on a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on the Driving Instructors Act 1992

3 Licences

A licence issued under the 1961 Act and in force immediately before the repeal of that Act is, on the commencement of section 17 of this Act, taken to be a licence issued under that section. Such a licence continues in force (subject to this Act) for the remainder of the term for which it was issued.

4 Applications

An application for a licence made under the 1961 Act which had not been determined before the repeal of that Act is, on the commencement of section 11 of this Act, taken to be an application made under that section.

5 Renewals

An application for the renewal of a licence issued under the 1961 Act which had not been determined before the repeal of that Act is, on the commencement of section 23 of this Act, taken to be an application made under that section.

6 Appeals

An appeal made under section 7 of the 1961 Act in respect of which a decision had not been given before the repeal of that Act is to be dealt with as if the 1961 Act were still in force.

7 Legal proceedings

A person convicted of an offence against the 1961 Act is (for the purposes of this Act) taken to have been convicted of an offence against this Act.

8 Training

Section 10 (d) of this Act does not preclude the issue or renewal of a licence to a person:

- (a) who is the holder of a licence to which clause 3 applies, or
- (b) who is the maker of an application to which clause 4 or 5 applies, until the third anniversary of the commencement of this clause.
