Part 2 Permanent identification of companion animals

5 Definition

In this Part:

authorised identifier means:

- (a) a person who is a veterinary surgeon, or
- (b) a person who is for the time being accredited under this Part as an authorised identifier of companion animals.

6 How companion animals are to be identified

- (1) The identification of a companion animal required by section 8 of the Act is to be by means of the implantation in the animal of a subcutaneous full duplex electronic radio transponder (a microchip) of a kind or specification approved by the Director-General by order published in the Gazette.
- (2) The implantation is to be subcutaneous in the dorsum between the scapulae in such a way that the microchip lies at an oblique angle to the plane of the skin. The microchip must function properly.
- (3) Microchips of different kinds or specifications may be approved from time to time. If approval of a particular kind or specification of microchip is withdrawn, a microchip of that kind or specification implanted before the approval was withdrawn remains acceptable for identification after the approval is withdrawn, but is not acceptable for implantation after the approval is withdrawn.
- (4) A companion animal in which a microchip was implanted in accordance with subclause (2) before the commencement of this Regulation is taken to be identified as required by section 8 of the Act.

7 Identification only by authorised persons

- (1) A person must not implant a microchip in a companion animal unless the person:
 - (a) is an authorised identifier, or
 - (b) does so under the supervision of an authorised identifier who is a veterinary surgeon.
- (2) A person must not advertise or otherwise represent himself or herself to be capable of identifying companion animals for the purposes of section 8 of the Act unless the person is an authorised identifier under this Regulation.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

8 Procedure for identification

- (1) The following procedures are to be followed by authorised identifiers when identifying companion animals for the purposes of section 8 of the Act:
 - (a) Before a microchip is implanted in an animal, the animal is to be scanned to ensure that the animal does not already have the identification required by section 8 of the Act (that is, it does not already have a functioning microchip properly implanted).
 - (b) The microchip to be implanted is, immediately before it is implanted, to be scanned to ensure that it is functioning properly and to check that its scanned number is as shown on the supporting documentation applicable to it as the unique identification number allocated to the microchip.
 - (c) Immediately after the implantation, the animal is to be scanned to confirm proper implantation and functioning of the microchip.
 - (d), (e) (Repealed)
- (2) The Director-General may:
 - (a) issue guidelines to authorised identifiers with respect to the procedures to be followed by them when identifying companion animals for the purposes of section 8 of the Act, and
 - (b) issue guidelines to authorised identifiers and councils with respect to the procedures to be followed by them when entering identification information on the Register for the purposes of section 70 (3) of the Act.

Authorised identifiers and councils must follow the procedures concerned if they are required to do so by those guidelines.

- (2) However, a person authorised by the Director-General under subclause (1) must not accredit another person as an authorised identifier of companion animals unless the person is satisfied, after making reasonable enquiries, that the other person:
 - (a) is qualified and competent to be an authorised identifier, and
 - (b) will comply with the requirements of this Regulation with respect to the identification of companion animals, and of any guidelines issued to authorised identifiers from time to time by the Director-General under clause 8.
- (2A) The Director-General may withdraw a person's authorisation given under subclause (1) if satisfied that the person has failed to make reasonable enquiries before accrediting a person as an authorised identifier of companion animals.
- (2B) Before withdrawing a person's authorisation under subclause (2A), the Director-General must:
 - (a) notify the person of the proposed withdrawal of the authorisation, and

- (5) The applicant is to be given written notice of the grant or refusal of the application within 28 days after the application is made.

11 Withdrawal of accreditation

- (1) The Director-General may withdraw the accreditation of a person as an authorised identifier of companion animals if the Director-General is satisfied that the person:

 - (b) has been negligent or incompetent in connection with the exercise of the person's functions as an authorised identifier, or
 - (c) has failed to comply with a requirement of this Regulation with respect to the identification of companion animals, or of any guidelines issued to authorised identifiers from time to time by the Director-General under clause 8.
- (2) The accreditation of a person is withdrawn when the Director-General gives the person notice in writing that accreditation has been withdrawn.

12 Withdrawal of veterinary surgeon's authorisation

- (1) The Director-General may give a direction to a person who is a veterinary surgeon to the effect that the person is not to identify companion animals for the purposes of the Act.

- (2) A companion animal that is less than 6 months of age is exempt from section 8 of the Act if a veterinary surgeon certified in writing, before the animal was 12 weeks of age, that identification of the animal as required by that section would constitute a serious health risk to the animal.
- (3) A companion animal is exempt from section 8 (2) of the Act in respect of its sale by a recognised breeder to a pet shop if, at the time of the sale, it is less than 12 weeks old.

Part 3 Registration of companion animals

- (3) The Director-General may issue to registration agents guidelines with respect to the procedures to be followed in exercising their functions. Registration agents must follow any such procedures if they are required to do so by those guidelines.

19 Registration fee exemption for assistance animals

- (1) There is an exemption from payment of a registration fee for the registration of an animal that is an assistance animal or is undergoing training to be an assistance animal.
- (2) The exemption ceases to apply if the animal ceases to be an assistance animal or ceases training without becoming an assistance animal.

- (3) If the exemption ceases, the registration fee that would otherwise have been payable for the animal's registration becomes payable and must be paid within 28 days after the exemption ceases. If the registration fee is not paid within that time, the council of the area in which the animal is ordinarily kept may cancel the registration of the animal by noting the cancellation on the Register.
- (4) Before cancelling the registration of an animal under subclause (3), the council must notify the owner of the animal in writing of the proposed cancellation and of any associated action proposed to be taken (including subsequent prosecution of the owner for being the owner of an unregistered animal).
- (5) A council that cancels the registration of an animal under this clause must notify the Director-General of the cancellation within 7 days.

20 Permanent identification a pre-condition to registration

A companion animal cannot be registered unless it is identified as required by section 8 of the Act.

21 Registration information

The following information is (to the extent that it is relevant and applicable to the animal concerned) the registration information for a companion animal:

- (a) the unique identification number allocated to the microchip implanted in the animal in connection with identification of the animal for the purposes of section 8 of the Act,
- (b) if known, the name of the authorised identifier who carried out the implantation of the microchip and any accreditation number allocated to the identifier in connection with his or her accreditation as an authorised identifier of companion animals,

- (p) the date of registration.

22 (Repealed)

23 Exemption applicable while registration application pending

- (1) While an application for registration of a companion animal (including an application required by clause 25 or 26) is pending, the animal is exempt from sections 9 and 10 of the Act.
- (2) An application is pending from the time the application is properly made to the Director-General or a registration agent and payment is tendered of any registration fee payable for registration of the animal until the animal is registered pursuant to the application.

24 Notification of changes and events

- (1) A notification for the purposes of section 11 of the Act may be given to the Director-General by being given to a registration agent.
- (2) Section 11 (1) of the Act, in so far as it requires notification of change of ownership of a registered companion animal, does not apply to a person to whom ownership of such an animal is transferred in relation to that transfer.

Note—

Section 11 (1) (a) of the Act imposes a joint obligation on the registered owner of a companion animal and the person to whom the registered owner transfers ownership of that animal, to notify the Director-General of the change in ownership. The effect of clause 24 (2) is to except the new owner (under section 96 (2) (a) of the Act) from having to comply with that obligation (although the new owner is not prevented from carrying out the obligation on behalf of the registered owner).

25 Dangerous and restricted dogs—special registration requirements

Note—

Clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act allows dogs that are registered under the 1966 Act to continue to be registered under that Act for a transition period of 3 years. The regulations can create exceptions to this. Section 10 of the 1998 Act allows the regulations to require the registration under the 1998 Act of companion animals that are not otherwise required to be registered under that Act.

- (1) A dog that on the commencement of this Regulation is a dangerous dog or a restricted dog and is registered under the 1966 Act must be registered under the 1998 Act by 1 October 1999. Accordingly, clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act ceases to apply to such a dog on 1 October 1999.
- (2) A dog that is registered under the 1966 Act and becomes a dangerous dog after the commencement of this Regulation must be registered under the 1998 Act within 7 days after the dog becomes a dangerous dog. Accordingly, clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act ceases to apply to such a dog 7 days after it becomes a dangerous dog.
- (3) A dog that on the commencement of this Regulation is a dangerous dog and not registered under the 1966 Act must (if it is not otherwise required to be registered under the 1998 Act) be registered under the 1998 Act by 8 July 1999.
- (4) A dog that becomes a dangerous dog after the commencement of this Regulation and is not registered under the 1966 Act must (if it is not otherwise required to be registered under the 1998 Act) be registered under the 1998 Act within 7 days after the dog becomes a dangerous dog.

Note—

Section 10 of the Act allows the regulations to require a particular class or description of companion animal (not otherwise required to be registered) to be registered, and makes the owner of such an animal guilty of an offence if it is not registered.

26 Requirement for registration of nuisance and other animals

- (1) If an order is issued in respect of an animal under section 21 (Nuisance dogs) or 31 (Nuisance cats) of the 1998 Act and the animal is not otherwise required to be registered under the 1998 Act, the council of the area in which the animal is ordinarily kept may by notice in writing given to the owner of the animal direct that the animal must be registered under the 1998 Act before a specified date (being a date not less than 7 days after the notice is given).
- (2) If a person is convicted of an offence under the 1998 Act or pays an amount under section 92 (Penalty notices) of the 1998 Act, the council of the area in which any companion animal currently owned by the person is kept may, by notice in writing given to the person, direct that any such animal that is not otherwise required to be registered under the 1998 Act must be registered under the 1998 Act before a specified date (being a date not less than 7 days after the notice is given).
- (3) An animal to which a notice under this clause applies must be registered under the 1998 Act before the date specified in the notice.

Note—

Section 10 of the Act allows the regulations to require a particular class or description of companion animal (not otherwise required to be registered) to be registered, and makes the owner of such an animal guilty of an offence if it is not registered.

- (4) This clause applies whether or not the animal is registered under the 1966 Act. If the animal is registered under the 1966 Act, clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act ceases to apply to the animal on the date specified in the notice.

27 Requirement for registration of lost and impounded animals

- (1) A companion animal not otherwise required to be registered under the 1998 Act that is taken into the custody of a council pound, the Animal Welfare League, the Cat Protection Society, the RSPCA or any organisation approved by the Director-General under clause 17 (c) must be registered under the 1998 Act before it is returned to its owner from that custody.
- (2) This clause applies whether or not the animal is registered under the 1966 Act. If the animal is registered under the 1966 Act, clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act ceases to apply to the animal.

Part 4 The Register

28 Authorised persons

- (1) In this Part, authorised person has the same meaning as in section 75 of the Act (and includes the persons referred to in subclause (2)).
- (2) Persons authorised in writing by the Director-General to have access to information contained on the Register are prescribed as authorised persons for the purposes of section 75 of the Act.
- (3) The Director-General may withdraw a person's authorisation given under subclause (2) at any time.
- (4) Before withdrawing a person's authorisation under subclause (3), the Director-General must:
 - (a) notify the person of the proposed withdrawal of the authorisation, and
 - (b) give the person a reasonable opportunity to make submissions to the Director-General in respect of the proposed withdrawal, and
 - (c) have due regard to any such submissions.
- (5) The Director-General must cause a person whose authorisation is withdrawn to be notified of the withdrawal in writing. Withdrawal of an authorisation takes effect of the day on which the notice is given, or from a later day specified in the notice.

29 Privacy of information on Register

- (1) Except as provided by this clause, a person must not:
 - (a) access or attempt to access information contained in the Register, or

- (b) intentionally allow a person to have access to information on the Register (for example, by disclosing to the person any access code, password or other individual identifier that enables access to that information), or
- (c) make, alter or delete any entry in the Register, or interfere with the Register in any other way, or
- (d) use information contained in the Register.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) For the purposes of this clause, use does not include the direct or indirect making of a record or disclosure of information contained in the Register.
- (3) It is not an offence under this clause for a person to do anything referred to in subclause (1) (a)-(d):
 - (a) in the exercise of functions under the Act, or
 - (b) for the purposes of or in connection with the exercise by another person of functions under the Act, or
 - (c) as authorised or required by or under section 75 (Access to the Register) of the Act, or

30 Confidentiality of information on Register

- (1) A person who acquires information from the Register (otherwise than in the exercise of functions under the Act) must not directly or indirectly make a record of the information or disclose it to any person.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

Note—

Section 89 of the Act provides for a duty of confidentiality in respect of persons who exercise functions under the Act.

- (2) It is not an offence under this clause for a person directly or indirectly to make a record of, or disclose, information:
 - (a) for the purposes of or in connection with the exercise by another person of functions under the Act, or
 - (b) as authorised or directed by the Director-General, or
 - (c) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates.
- (3) It is not an offence under this clause for a person to disclose information if the person is required to do so by law.

- (4) Subclause (1) does not apply to a disclosure of information to any of the following:
 - (a) the Independent Commission Against Corruption,
 - (b) the National Crime Authority,
 - (c) the New South Wales Crime Commission,
 - (d) the Ombudsman.
- (5) Subclause (1) does not apply to a disclosure of the name of the owner of a companion animal to a person who seeks that information for the purpose of bringing legal proceedings against the owner in respect of the animal's behaviour, but only if:
 - (a) the person has made a written request for that information, and
 - (b) the animal's behaviour concerned has been reported to the police or a council.
- (6) For the purposes of section 89 (4) of the Act, a person who seeks the name of the owner of a companion animal for the purpose of bringing legal proceedings against the owner in respect of the animal's behaviour is prescribed in relation to the divulging of the name of the owner of the animal, but only if:
 - (a) the person has made a written request for that information, and
 - (b) the animal's behaviour concerned has been reported to the police or a council.
- (7) In subclauses (5) and (6), person includes the person's legal representative.

30A Access may be limited to information relevant to functions

For the purposes of section 75 (4) of the Act, the Director-General may afford different degrees of access to the Register to different classes of authorised person, having regard to the different functions that they perform.

31 Request for confidentiality where safety concerns

- (1) The owner of a companion animal whose personal details are entered on the Register may request the Director-General to keep those details confidential.
- (2) If the Director-General is satisfied that the request is made because the person is concerned that disclosure of that information could jeopardise the safety of the person or of any member of the person's family, the right of access provided for by section 75 of the Act does not apply to that information except in relation to a person specially authorised by the Director-General to obtain that access.
