In addition to the other matters that a care application is required to specify, by or under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, a care application must be accompanied by an affidavit in support of the application that:

- (b) states whether or not the child or young person to whom the application relates is currently the subject of an order made by:
  - (i) the Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under the Children (Care and Protection) Act 1987 or the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, or
  - (ii) any other Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with respect to the custody or guardianship of children or parental responsibility for children.

22 Additional details to accompany certain urgent applications

23 Commencement of proceedings regarding care application

A Registrar with whom a care application is filed must cause the application (including any accompanying copy) to be endorsed with a notice of the time, date and place set down for a preliminary conference or the hearing of the application.

24 Attendance at preliminary conferences

A Children's Registrar may require the attendance of a party, or a party's legal representative, at a preliminary conference.

    - (ii) on the child's or young person's relationships with other persons, and
  - (f) any other matters that the Court considers appropriate.

Except in cases where the defendant wishes to make a special plea, the appropriate plea to a charge in criminal proceedings is "guilty" or "not guilty".

proceedings against a child or young person who is unaccompanied by a person with parental responsibility, or care responsibility, for the child or young person (within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998), so as to give such a person a reasonable opportunity to appear and address the Court on matters relating to the proceedings.
