 - (a) make an order imposing a sentence of imprisonment on the person, or

(b) make an order under section 33 (1) (g) of the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 in respect of the person, the court may, instead of making that order, make an order requiring the person to perform community service work.

(1A) An order under this section may recommend that the community service work to be performed by the person in respect of whom the order is made should include:

(a) the removal of graffiti from buildings, vehicles, vessels and places, and

(b) the consequences that may follow if the person fails to comply with the proposed order or any requirement made by or under this Act in respect of the proposed order, and

(c) that the proposed order may be amended or revoked.

7, 8 (Repealed)

9 Children's community service orders not to be made by court unless work is available

A court shall not exercise its powers under section 5 in respect of a person unless:

(a) the court has been notified by an officer, in person or by writing, that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the area in which the person resides or intends to reside to perform community service work under a children's community service order, and

- (b) the court is satisfied (after considering a report from an officer about the person and the person's circumstances and, if it thinks necessary, after hearing evidence from an officer) that:
 - (i) the person is a suitable person and is sufficiently mature to perform community service work under a children's community service order, and
 - (ii) if such an order is made, community service work can be provided for the person under the arrangements referred to in paragraph (a).

10 Children's community service orders may run concurrently

More than one children's community service order may be made by one or more courts in respect of the same person so as to be in force at the same time.

11 Conditions that may be attached to children's community service order

- (1) When a children's community service order is made, the court making the order may specify in the order conditions, not inconsistent with this Act or the regulations, to be complied with by the person in respect of whom the order is made while the order remains in force.
- (2) This section extends to children's community service orders made under the Fines Act 1996.

12 Preparation and service of copies of children's community service order

- (1) A court which makes a children's community service order shall, as soon as practicable after making the order, cause the order to be reduced to writing.
- (2) The court shall cause a copy of a children's community service order:
 - (a) to be served on the person in respect of whom the order is made before that person leaves the precincts of the court,
 - (b) to be sent to the Director-General, and
 - (c) in the case of a court other than the Children's Court—to be sent to a Registrar of the Children's Court together with such documents and information as it considers likely to be of assistance to the Children's Court.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) The failure of a court to cause a copy of a children's community service order to be served on or sent to a person in accordance with this section does not invalidate the order.

13 Number of hours of community service work

- (1) When a children's community service order is made, the court making the order shall specify in the order the number of hours of community service work to be performed by the person in respect of whom the order is made.
- (2) The number of hours of community service work to be performed by a person in respect of whom a children's community service order is made by a court is not to exceed:
 - (a) in respect of an offence committed by a person under the age of 16 years—100 hours, and
 - (b) in respect of an offence committed (whether before, on or after the commencement of this subsection) by a person of or above the age of 16 years:
 - (i) 100 hours, if the offence concerned is an offence for which the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law does not exceed 6 months, and
 - (ii) 200 hours, if the offence concerned is an offence for which the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law exceeds 6 months but does not exceed one year, and
 - (iii) 250 hours, if the offence concerned is an offence for which the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law exceeds one year.
- (2AA) The regulations may vary the number of hours specified in subsection (2) in respect of a class of offences, but not so as to exceed the number so specified.
- (2A), (2B) (Repealed)
- (3) The court may specify that the hours of community service work to be performed by a person in respect of whom a children's community service order is made shall be concurrent with, or additional to, those specified in any other such order made in respect of that person, but so that the sum of:
 - (a) the number of hours of work remaining to be performed, at any time, concurrently under the orders, and
 - (b) the number of hours of work remaining to be performed, at any time, otherwise than concurrently, under the orders,does not exceed 100 hours.
- (3A) Despite subsection (3), if:
 - (a) the person concerned is of or above the age of 16 years, and
 - (b) at least one of the orders was made in respect of an offence for which the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law exceeds 6 months, the sum of the numbers of hours referred to in subsection (3) (a) and (b) may exceed 100 hours, but must not exceed 250 hours. However, the number of hours of work remaining to be performed under orders made in respect of offences other than offences of the kind referred to in paragraph (b) must not, at any time, exceed 100 hours.

(4) (Repealed)

(5) If a court has not specified in respect of any children's community service order in force in respect of a person whether the hours of work under the order are to be served concurrently with or in addition to the hours under any other such order, the hours are to be served concurrently as long as the orders are both in force. The limits specified in this section apply in such a case as if the court had specified concurrent community service.

14 Place etc and time for presentation for work

(1) When a children's community service order is made, the court making the order shall specify in the order:

(a) a place at which or a person to whom the person shall present himself or herself for the purpose of enabling the administration of the order to be commenced, and

(1) On receipt of a copy of a children's community service order sent to the Director-General in accordance with section 12 (2) of this Act or section 85 (3) of the Fines Act 1996, the Director-General shall assign an officer, or, where the regulations so provide, a person other than an officer, in respect of the administration of the order.

(2) (Repealed)
