Part 2 Trustee for FTC schemes (FTC)

Introductory note—

This Part establishes the FSS Trustee Corporation and gives it the functions of the trustee for the FTC schemes. The schemes currently included are accumulation style schemes established under Acts and are still open to new members. Generally, the trustee will have functions (which include powers, authorities and duties) that are consistent with the requirements of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth. That Act regulates the functions of trustees of superannuation funds and the administration of superannuation schemes but does not apply directly to the FTC schemes. The new trustee will also be subject to provisions of the Trustee Act 1925. The new trustee will have (among other functions) the function of administering the schemes and investing and managing the superannuation funds concerned. However, it will be required to arrange for these services to be provided by service providers in accordance with this Act. This will not detract from the primary responsibility and power of the trustee in these matters.

Division 1 Establishment and principal functions of FTC

7 Establishment of FTC

- (1) There is constituted by this Act a body corporate with the corporate name of FSS Trustee Corporation. The body may also be called FTC, and the use of that name has the same effect for all purposes as the use of its corporate name.

8 FTC to be trustee for FTC schemes

- (1) FTC is the trustee for the FTC schemes and is to hold in trust for the persons who are or will be entitled to benefits under the FTC schemes all assets held by, and all contributions and other money paid or payable to, FTC under this Act and any Act under which an FTC scheme is constituted or established.
- (2) FTC is a trustee for the purposes of the Trustee Act 1925. Accordingly, subject to this Act, and unless this Act, the Trustee Act 1925 or any other Act otherwise provides, FTC has the obligations, rights and duties of a trustee under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Trustee Act 1925.

Note—

The effect of this is that FTC is subject to both the common law obligations, duties and rights of trustees and the obligations, duties and rights of trustees under the Trustee Act 1925. These are in addition to its obligations, duties and rights under this Act, unless the Trustee Act 1925 or this Act otherwise provides.

Part 3 Trustee for STC schemes (STC)

Introductory note—

This Part continues in existence the State Authorities Superannuation Board, renames it the SAS Trustee Corporation and gives it the functions of the trustee for the STC schemes. These schemes are primarily defined benefit schemes established under Acts and are closed to new members. Generally, the trustee will have functions (which include powers, authorities and duties) that are consistent with the requirements of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth. That Act regulates the functions of trustees of superannuation funds and the administration of superannuation schemes but does not apply directly to the STC schemes. The trustee will also be subject to provisions of the Trustee Act 1925. The trustee will have (among other functions) the function of administering the schemes and investing and managing the superannuation funds concerned. However, it will be required to arrange for these services to be provided by service providers in accordance with this Act. This will not detract from the primary responsibility and power of the trustee in these matters.

Division 1 Establishment and principal functions of STC

48 Continuation of STC (formerly the State Authorities Superannuation Board)

- (1) The corporation constituted by the Superannuation Administration Act 1987 with the corporate name of State Authorities Superannuation Board and continued by the Superannuation Administration Act 1991 is continued by this Act.
- (2) The continued corporation is to have the corporate name SAS Trustee Corporation. The body may also be called STC, and the use of that name has the same effect for all purposes as the use of its corporate name.

(3) STC is, for the purposes of any Act, a statutory body representing the Crown.

49 STC to be trustee for STC schemes

- (1) STC is the trustee for the STC schemes and is to hold in trust for the persons who are or will be entitled to benefits under the STC schemes all assets held by, and all contributions and other money paid or payable to, STC under this Act and any Act under which an STC scheme is constituted or established.
- (2) STC is a trustee for the purposes of the Trustee Act 1925. Accordingly, subject to this Act, and unless this Act, the Trustee Act 1925 or any other Act otherwise provides, STC has the obligations, rights and duties of a trustee under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Trustee Act 1925.

Note—

The effect of this is that STC is subject to both the common law obligations, duties and rights of trustees and the obligations, duties and rights of trustees under the Trustee Act 1925. These are in addition to its obligations, duties and rights under this Act, unless the Trustee Act 1925 or this Act otherwise provides.

50 Principal functions of STC

- (1) The principal functions of STC are:
 - (a) to administer the STC schemes, and
 - (b) to invest and manage the STC funds, and
 - (c) to provide for the custody of the assets and securities of the STC schemes, and
 - (d) to ensure that benefits payable to the persons entitled to receive benefits under the STC schemes are paid in accordance with the Acts under which the schemes are established or constituted, and
 - (e) to determine disputes under those Acts, and
 - (f) to exercise such other functions with respect to the STC schemes and STC funds as the Minister may from time to time approve by order in writing.
- (1A) The Minister may in an order for the purposes of subsection (1) (f), direct that a function specified in the approval may be exercised by STC directly or only by entering into a contract or arrangement under section 53 with SAC or (if the direction so provides) with a person of STC's choosing, under which SAC or that person undertakes to carry out the function on behalf of STC.
- (2) STC has such other functions as may be conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act.

Note—

The STC schemes include the State Authorities Superannuation Scheme, the Police Superannuation Scheme, the State Superannuation Scheme, the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Scheme and other public sector schemes. None of these schemes are currently open to new members, though public sector employees still contribute to some of them.

Other particular functions and obligations of STC are contained in the legislation establishing the STC schemes, including the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906, the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act 1927, the Superannuation Act 1916, the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987.

51 Duties relating to functions

(1) STC must:

- (a) act honestly in all matters relating to its functions relating to the STC schemes, and
- (b) exercise, in relation to all matters affecting the STC schemes, the same degree of care, skill and diligence as an ordinary prudent person would exercise in dealing with property of another for whom the person felt morally bound to provide, and
- (c) ensure that its functions relating to the STC schemes are exercised in the best interests of persons entitled to receive benefits under the STC schemes, and
- (d) not enter into any contract or arrangement, or do anything else, that would prevent STC from, or hinder STC in, properly exercising STC's functions as a trustee.

Note—

The duties contained in subsection (1) reflect the covenants required of superannuation scheme trustees under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth.

(2) In exercising its functions, STC must have regard to:

- (a) the interests of persons entitled to receive benefits under the STC schemes, and

- (d) any statement in writing of the policy of the Government on any matter that is relevant to the functions of STC given by the Minister to STC.

(3) Subsection (1) (d) does not prevent STC from entering into a contract or an arrangement under section 53.

Note—

Members of the STC Board have a duty to ensure that STC carries out its duties (see section 73).

 - (d) under which the person undertakes to carry out any other functions on behalf of STC under this or any other Act, or

- (2) The power of STC to enter into a contract or an arrangement does not extend to conferring on any other person the power of STC to appoint an actuary or actuaries to conduct an investigation into the state or sufficiency of an STC fund.
- (3) A person who enters into a contract or an arrangement with STC under this section has, while acting in accordance with the terms of the contract or arrangement, those functions of STC specified in the contract or arrangement.

- (4) STC may enter into a contract or an arrangement under this section only if STC is satisfied that the contract or arrangement is in the interests of the persons entitled to receive benefits under the STC schemes.
- (5) Any such contract or arrangement may deem the person with whom STC makes the contract or arrangement to be an agent of STC.
- (6) A contract or an arrangement entered into by STC under this section does not confer on the other party any of the principal functions and responsibilities of STC as trustee.

54 Minister's consent required

STC may not enter into a contract or an arrangement under section 53 (1) (a), (b) or (c) except with the Minister's consent.

55 STC to be subject to Minister's directions in certain circumstances

- (1) The Minister may give a direction to STC relating to the exercise by STC of any one or more of its functions if the Minister is of the opinion that an act or omission, or conduct, by STC has had or could reasonably be expected to have a significant adverse effect on the Consolidated Fund or the financial management of the State. A direction must not be inconsistent with this or any other Act.
- (2) STC must comply with any such direction.
