- (2) A suspect who is:
 - (a) a child, or
 - (b) an incapable person,must have a search friend and may also be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (3) If the applicant for the order believes on reasonable grounds that the suspect is an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander not covered by subsection (2), the suspect:
 - (a) must have a search friend, and
 - (b) may also be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (4) Subsection (3) (a) does not apply if the suspect expressly and voluntarily waives his or her right to have a search friend present.
- (5) Any other suspect (including a suspect covered by subsection (2)) may be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (6) The suspect or his or her representative:
 - (a) may cross-examine the applicant for the order, and
 - (b) may, with the leave of the eligible judicial officer, call or cross-examine any other witness, and
 - (c) may address the eligible judicial officer.

eligible judicial officer is of the opinion that there are substantial reasons why, in the interests of justice, the witness should be called or cross-examined.

- (8) Despite subsections (2) and (3), the suspect's search friend may be excluded from the hearing if the search friend unreasonably interferes with or obstructs the hearing of the application.

14 Orders for internal search

- (1) An eligible judicial officer may make an order:

 - (b) the detention of the suspect for a period not exceeding 24 hours for the purposes of the internal search being carried out.
- (2) An eligible judicial officer may make an order for the internal search of a suspect only if the eligible judicial officer is satisfied that:

 - (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the internal search is likely to produce evidence confirming that the person has committed or is committing an offence under the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 relating to the supply of a prohibited drug, and
 - (c) the making of the order is justified in all the circumstances.
- (3) An eligible judicial officer must not make an order for an internal search if for any reason an internal search cannot safely be carried out on the suspect (for example, because it would endanger the physical health of the suspect if such a search were carried out).
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), an eligible judicial officer must not make an order for an internal search of a child involving electromagnetic radiation or radiography if satisfied that such a procedure has been carried out on the child under this Act on 2 or more occasions in the previous 2 years unless the eligible judicial officer considers that exceptional circumstances exist that otherwise justify the making of the order.
- (5) If the eligible judicial officer does not make such an order, the eligible judicial officer must (unless the suspect is otherwise in custody) order that the suspect be released immediately.
- (6) If an eligible judicial officer makes an order under this section in respect of a suspect who the eligible judicial officer is satisfied is an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander, a child or an incapable person, the eligible judicial officer must appoint a person (not being a police officer) to represent the suspect's interests as a search friend in relation to this Act.

- (7) A person must not be appointed as a search friend if the applicant for the order under this section satisfies the eligible judicial officer that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the appointment of the person as a search friend could be prejudicial to the prevention, detection or investigation of, or dealing with, any contravention or possible contravention of the law.

Part 4 The internal search

15 Internal search

- (1) An internal search is to be carried out by a medical practitioner or an appropriately qualified person.

- (3) The search is to be carried out at:
- (a) a hospital, or
 - (b) the surgery or other practising rooms of a medical practitioner.

16 Conduct of internal search

A medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person may, in carrying out an internal search under this Act, use any medical procedure or apparatus that the medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person considers to be reasonably safe in the circumstances.

17 Medical practitioner may take action to preserve suspect's life

20 Suspect must be cautioned before internal search

Before anyone starts to carry out an internal search on a suspect, a police officer must caution the suspect that he or she does not have to say anything while the search is carried out but that anything the person does say may be used in evidence.

Note—

A failure to caution a suspect may result in evidence that is obtained being inadmissible—see section 138 of the Evidence Act 1995.

21 Internal searches not be carried out in cruel, inhuman or degrading manner

Nothing in this Act authorises the carrying out of an internal search in a cruel, inhuman or degrading manner but the carrying out of an internal search on a suspect in accordance with this Act is not of itself taken to be cruel, inhuman or degrading to the suspect.

- (1) As soon as practicable after completing an internal search under this Act, the medical practitioner or practitioners involved or the appropriately qualified person must give the Commissioner of Police a written report in the form approved by the Commissioner.

- (3) This section is not limited by any law relating to privilege or confidentiality.
- (4) In any proceedings under this Act, a report given to the Commissioner of Police under this section is proof (unless evidence is adduced to the contrary) of the facts stated in the report.

 - (b) protect the life and safety of any person.

24 Interpreters

- (1) If:
 - (a) a police officer proposes to take an action listed in subsection (2), and
 - (b) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the suspect is unable, because of inadequate knowledge of the English language or a physical disability, to communicate orally with reasonable fluency in the English language,the police officer must, before taking the proposed action:
 - (c) arrange for the presence of an interpreter to assist the suspect to communicate, and defer taking the proposed action until the interpreter is present, or

- (2) If recording the giving of the information and the suspect's responses (if any) by electronic means is not practicable, the police officer must ensure that a written record of the giving of the information and the suspect's responses (if any) is made, and that a copy of the record is made available to the suspect.

28 Obligation of police officers relating to recordings

 - (c) if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the suspect is an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander—a search friend of the suspect.
- (3) Subsection (2) (b) and (c) does not apply if the suspect expressly and voluntarily waived his or her right to have a search friend present.

29 Material required to be made available to suspect

Without limiting the way in which material that must be made available to a suspect under this Act may be made available, it:

- (a) may be sent to the suspect at his or her last known address (if any), or to the suspect's legal representative (if any) at his or her last known address, or

- (b) the burden is not discharged unless the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the person voluntarily waived that right, and did so with full knowledge and understanding of what he or she was doing.

35 Liability of medical practitioners and appropriately qualified persons

No civil or criminal liability is incurred by any medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person who carries out, or helps to carry out, an internal search under this Act in respect of anything properly and necessarily done or omitted to be done in good faith by the medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person in carrying out or helping to carry out the search if the medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person believed on reasonable grounds that:

- (a) consent had been given to the carrying out of the internal search, or

- (b) the carrying out of the internal search without consent had been duly ordered by an eligible judicial officer under this Act.

36 Medical practitioners and appropriately qualified persons not obliged to carry out internal searches

Nothing in this Act requires a medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person to carry out an internal search.

37 Relationship to Part 10A of the Crimes Act 1900

- (1) Nothing in this Act is intended to limit the rights and protections provided by Part 10A of the Crimes Act 1900 to the extent that the provisions of that Part can operate in circumstances covered by this Act.
- (2) The rights and protections conferred by this Act are in addition to those conferred by Part 10A of the Crimes Act 1900 but, to the extent (if any) that compliance with this Act results in compliance with that Part, the requirements of that Part are satisfied.
- (3) Except as provided by subsection (4), this Act does not authorise keeping a suspect in custody, in order to carry out an internal search, for more than 24 hours (or such longer period as may be extended by a detention order under section 38) after the suspect consents to, or an eligible judicial officer authorises, the carrying out of the internal search.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), a suspect may be kept in custody for up to 48 hours (or such longer period as may be extended by a detention order under section 38) after an internal search carried out on the suspect reveals the presence of matter that could be drugs in the suspect's body.
- (5) In working out any period of time for the purposes of subsection (3) or (4), time out is to be disregarded.
- (6) In working out whether the investigation period for the purposes of Part 10A of the Crimes Act 1900 has expired, any time that is reasonably required to carry out an internal search authorised by this Act is to be taken into account.

- (2) The eligible judicial officer may order that the maximum period be extended by a period (not exceeding 48 hours) specified in the order.
- (3) An eligible judicial officer must not extend the period unless satisfied that the further period is reasonably necessary to carry out an internal search or to confirm that matter present in the suspect's body that was revealed by an internal search is drugs.

- (4) The maximum period must not be extended a second time unless an eligible judicial officer is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the extension.
- (5) The maximum period cannot in any circumstances be extended more than twice.
