6 Postponement of fees in certain other cases

9 Transmission of trial papers to Director of Public Prosecutions

For the purposes of section 39 (4) of the Act, the appropriate officer must, as soon as practicable after receiving any document, transmit a copy of the document to the Director of Public Prosecutions by the most convenient method, having regard to the necessity to maintain the security of the document.

Part 4 Use of written statements

10 Notice specifying where exhibit may be inspected

For the purposes of section 48B (1) (a) (ii) of the Act, the notice to be served on the defendant may be in or to the effect of paragraph 3 of Form 1.

*You *have/*have not applied to me for a direction requiring *one/*some/*all/any of the persons who made those statements to appear in person to give evidence.

I have to decide whether to commit you for trial or sentence in a higher court or to discharge you. I will make that decision on the basis of all the evidence, whether contained in written statements or given from the witness box in person.

I will now consider any application you may wish to make for an adjournment to obtain legal advice. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment?

- (2) If the proceedings are to continue, the prescribed form of words is to include also the following words:

Do you consent to the written statements of witnesses being tendered as evidence or do you wish to apply for a direction requiring one or more witnesses to be called to give evidence in person?

and, after the defendant has been given an opportunity to respond to those words, the following words:

Do you wish to ask me any questions about this procedure?

13 Manner of identifying inadmissible statements

- (4) This clause does not prevent the disclosure of an address in a written statement if the statement does not identify it as a particular person's address, or it could not reasonably be inferred from the statement that it is a particular person's address.
- (5) An address or telephone number that must not be disclosed may, without reference to the person who made the written statement, be deleted from the statement, or rendered illegible, before the statement is served on the defendant.

This Form has been given to you because you are facing criminal charges at a committal hearing. The purpose of the committal hearing is to allow a Magistrate to decide whether or not you should be committed for trial or sentence in a higher court or whether you should be discharged. The Magistrate will make that decision after considering all the evidence at the committal hearing.

The written statements and other documents attached to this form contain material that the prosecution will try to put in evidence against you at the committal hearing.

You may apply to the Magistrate for a direction that one or more of the witnesses who have made written statements should attend court to give oral evidence at the committal hearing.

(a) If you do not apply for such a direction regarding a particular witness, that witness's evidence will be given at the hearing by the tendering of the written statement of that witness which is attached to this form. The witness will not be present.

(b) If you do apply to the Magistrate for such a direction, the Magistrate must consider your application. If the Magistrate directs a witness to attend to give oral evidence, you will be able to question that witness about what he or she says.

If the witness is the alleged victim of an offence involving violence, the Magistrate may only give the direction if he or she believes that there are special reasons why, in the interests of justice, the witness should attend. The term "offence involving violence" is defined in section 48E (9) of the Justices Act 1902.

In the case of any other witness, the Magistrate may only give the direction if he or she believes that there are substantial reasons why, in the interests of justice, the witness should attend.

If the Magistrate refuses to give the direction, the Magistrate must give reasons for the refusal.

If you do decide to apply for a direction for a witness or witnesses to attend, you must first deliver a notice to that effect to the prosecution. You may deliver the notice either in person or by post. The Magistrate will tell you the date by which the notice must be delivered. After the notice has been delivered, the Magistrate will decide whether your application should be granted.
