Board means the Anti-Discrimination Board constituted under this Act.

commission agent means an agent who is remunerated by commission.

contract worker means an employee who, under a contract of employment performs work for an employer who has undertaken to perform that work for another person.

corporation has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

council means a council or a county council within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993.

Department and Department Head have the same meanings as they have in the Public Sector Management Act 1988.

Director means the Director of Equal Opportunity in Public Employment.

disability means:

- (a) total or partial loss of a person's bodily or mental functions or of a part of a person's body, or
- (b) the presence in a person's body of organisms causing or capable of causing disease or illness, or
- (c) the malfunction, malformation or disfigurement of a part of a person's body, or
- (d) a disorder or malfunction that results in a person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction, or
- (e) a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person's thought processes, perception of reality, emotions or judgment or that results in disturbed behaviour.

educational authority means a person or body administering a school, college, university or other institution at which education or training is provided.

employment includes work under a contract for services.

employment agency means a person who, for profit or not, provides services for the purpose of finding work or employment for others or for supplying employers with workers or employees.

functions includes powers, authorities and duties.

homosexual means male or female homosexual.

Tribunal means the Administrative Decisions Tribunal established by the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997.

vehicle includes a ship, an aircraft and a hovercraft.

- (2) A reference in this Act to the exercise of a function includes, where that function is a duty, a reference to the performance of that duty.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the fact that a race may comprise two or more distinct races does not prevent it from being a race.
- (4) A reference in this Act to the conferring, renewing or extending of an authorisation or a qualification, in relation to an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation, includes a reference to the conferring, renewing, extending, granting, awarding, approving, issuing or accepting of a recognition, registration, enrolment, approval or certification by such an authority or such a body or to the admission of a person to membership of such an authority or such a body.
- (5)-(7) (Repealed)

4A Act done because of unlawful discrimination and for other reasons

If:

- (a) an act is done for 2 or more reasons, and
- (b) one of the reasons consists of unlawful discrimination under this Act against a person (whether or not it is the dominant or a substantial reason for doing the act), then, for the purposes of this Act, the act is taken to be done for that reason.

4B Interpretation of references to the employer of people in the Public Service, Police Service or Education Teaching Service

- (1) A reference in this Act to an employer:
  - (a) in relation to employment in a Department, is a reference to the relevant Department Head, and
  - (b) in relation to employment in the Police Service, is a reference to the Commissioner of Police, and
  - (c) in relation to employment in the Education Teaching Service, is a reference to the Director-General of the Department of School Education.
- (2) Anything determined or done with respect to any matter concerning any such employment by an officer or employee in any Department, in the Police Service or in the Education Teaching Service who is authorised to determine and do things in that respect is taken to have been determined or done by the Department Head, Commissioner of Police or Director-General of the Department of School Education, respectively.
- (3) Subsection (2) includes anything determined or done with respect to:
  - (a) any offer of employment, or
  - (b) the terms and conditions on which employment is offered, or
  - (c) the opportunity afforded for promotion, transfer, training or other benefits associated with employment, or
  - (d) dismissal from employment.

5 Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown not only in right of New South Wales but also, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

Part 2 Racial discrimination

Division 1 General

6 (Repealed)

7 What constitutes discrimination on the ground of race

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of race if, on the ground of the aggrieved person's race or the race of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, the perpetrator:

- (a) treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person of a different race or who has such a relative or associate of a different race, or
  - (b) segregates the aggrieved person from persons of a different race or from persons who have such a relative or associate of a different race, or
  - (c) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons not of that race, or who have such a relative or associate not of that race, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a) and (b), something is done on the ground of a person's race if it is done on the ground of the person's race, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that race or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that race.

Division 2 Discrimination in work

8 Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of race:
- (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment,
  - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of race:
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee,
  - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
  - (c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment for the purposes of a private household.

9 Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of race:

Part 3 Sex discrimination

Division 1 General

23 Definitions

In this Part:

man means a member of the male sex irrespective of his age.

woman means a member of the female sex irrespective of her age.

24 What constitutes discrimination on the ground of sex

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of sex if, on the ground of the aggrieved person's sex or the sex of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, the perpetrator:

- (a) treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person of the opposite sex or who does not have such a relative or associate of that sex, or
- (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons of the opposite sex, or who do not have such a relative or associate of that sex, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's sex if it is done on the ground of the person's sex, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that sex or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that sex.

(1B) For the purposes of this section, but without limiting the generality of this section, the fact that a woman is or may become pregnant is a characteristic that appertains generally to women.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances in which a person treats or would treat another person of the opposite sex are not materially different by reason of the fact that the persons between whom the discrimination occurs:

- (a) are a woman who is pregnant and a man, or
- (b) are not of the same marital status.

(3) (Repealed)

Division 2 Discrimination in work

25 Discrimination against applicants and employees

(1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:

- (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment,
- (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
- (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.

(1A) Nothing in subsection (1) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a woman on the ground of sex if, at the date on which the woman applied to the employer for employment or, where the employer interviewed the woman in relation to her application for employment, at the date of the interview, the woman is pregnant.

- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of sex:
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee,
  - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
  - (c) by dismissing the employee or subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (2A) Nothing in subsection (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a woman on the ground of sex in respect of the dismissal by an employer of a woman who is pregnant if, at the date on which the woman applied to the employer for employment or, where the employer interviewed the woman in relation to her application for employment, at the date of the interview, the woman was pregnant, unless, at that date, the woman did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known that she was pregnant.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment:
- (a) for the purposes of a private household,
  - (b) where the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5, or
  - (c) by a private educational authority.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation shall be regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

26 Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:
- (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent,
  - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of sex:

- (a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent,
- (b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
- (c) by terminating his or her engagement or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

27 Discrimination against contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of sex:

- (a) in the terms on which the principal allows the contract worker to work,
- (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work,
- (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
- (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

27A Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:
  - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as a partner in the firm,
  - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of sex:
  - (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm,
  - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
  - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

27B Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of sex.

28 Industrial organisations

(1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of sex:

- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

(2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of sex:

- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the industrial organisation,
- (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
- (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

29 Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification,
- (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
- (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.

30 Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services,
- (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services, or

(c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.

31 Exception—genuine occupational qualification

- (1) Nothing in this Division renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of the person's sex where being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for the job.
- (2) Being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for a job where any one or more of the following requirements is satisfied:
  - (a) the essential nature of the job calls for a person of that sex for reasons of physiognomy or physique, excluding physical strength or stamina, or, in dramatic performances or other entertainment, for reasons of authenticity, so that the essential nature of the job would be materially different if carried out by a person of the opposite sex, or
  - (b) the job needs to be held by a person of that sex to preserve decency or privacy because it involves the fitting of a person's clothing, or
  - (c) the job requires the holder of the job to enter a lavatory ordinarily used by persons of that sex while it is used by persons of that sex, or
  - (d) the job requires the holder of the job to search persons of that sex, or
  - (e) the job requires the holder of the job to enter areas ordinarily used by persons of that sex while in a state of undress or while bathing or showering, or
  - (f) the job requires the holder of the job to live in premises provided by the employer and:
    - (i) those premises are not equipped with separate sleeping accommodation for persons of the opposite sex and sanitary facilities which could be used by persons of the opposite sex in privacy from persons of that sex, and
    - (ii) it is not reasonable to expect the employer either to equip those premises with accommodation and facilities of that kind or to provide other premises for persons of the opposite sex, or
  - (g) the job requires the holder of the job to keep persons of that sex in custody in a prison or other institution or in part of a prison or other institution, or
  - (h) the holder of the job provides persons of that sex with personal services relating to their welfare or education, or similar personal services, and they or a substantial number of them might reasonably object to its being carried out by a person of the opposite sex, or
  - (i) the job is one of two to be held by a married couple.

- (3) Being a person of a particular sex is a genuine occupational qualification for a prescribed job or a job of a prescribed class or description.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (2) limits the Governor's power to make a regulation for the purposes of subsection (3).

Division 3 Discrimination in other areas

31A Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on the ground of sex:
  - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for admission as a student, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on the ground of sex:
  - (a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student's access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or
  - (b) by expelling the student or subjecting the student to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of:
  - (a) a private educational authority, or
  - (b) a refusal or failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student by an educational authority where the educational authority administers a school, college, university or other institution which is conducted solely for students of the opposite sex to the sex of the applicant.
- (4) The admission into any such school, college, university or other institution of a transgender person as referred to in Part 3A who identifies with the sex of persons for whom the school, college, university or other institution is conducted does not, for the purposes of subsection (3) (b), affect its status as a school, college, university or other institution conducted solely for students of the same sex.

32 (Repealed)

33 Provision of goods and services

- (1) It is unlawful for a person who provides, for payment or not, goods or services to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex:
  - (a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or

(b) in the terms on which he or she provides the person with those goods or services.

(2) Where a skill is commonly exercised in a different way in relation to men and women, a person does not contravene subsection (1) by exercising the skill in relation to men only, or women only, in accordance with the person's normal practice.

34 Accommodation

(1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex:

(a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation,

(b) in the terms on which he or she offers the person accommodation, or

(c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or according to the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.

(2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against another person on the ground of sex:

(a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or

(b) by evicting the person or subjecting the person to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if:

(a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, on those premises, and

(b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.

34A Registered clubs

(1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the registered club on the ground of sex:

(a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or

(b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

(2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is a member of a registered club on the ground of sex:

(a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the registered club,

- (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
  - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) renders unlawful discrimination by a registered club against a person on the ground of sex if membership of the registered club is available to persons of the opposite sex only.
- (3A) The admission into any such registered club of a transgender person as referred to in Part 3A who identifies with the sex of persons for whom membership of the registered club is available does not, for the purposes of subsection (3), affect its status as a registered club the membership of which is available to persons of the same sex only.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (paragraph (a) excepted) or subsection (2) renders unlawful discrimination by a registered club against a person on the ground of sex if the discrimination occurs in relation to the use or enjoyment of any benefit provided by the registered club where:
- (a) it is not practicable for the benefit to be used or enjoyed:
    - (i) simultaneously, or
    - (ii) to the same extent,by both men and women, and
  - (b) either:
    - (i) the same, or an equivalent, benefit is provided for the use of men and women separately from each other, or
    - (ii) men and women are each entitled to a fair and reasonable proportion of the use and enjoyment of the benefit.
- (5) In determining any matter relating to the application of subsection (4), regard shall be had to:
- (a) the purposes for which the registered club is established,
  - (b) the membership of the registered club, including any class or type of membership,
  - (c) the nature of the benefits provided by the registered club,
  - (d) the opportunities for the use and enjoyment of those benefits by men and women, and
  - (e) any other relevant circumstance.

Division 4 Exceptions to Part 3

35 Pregnancy or childbirth

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination by a person against a man on the ground of sex by reason only of the fact that that person grants to a woman rights or privileges in connection with pregnancy or childbirth.

36 Superannuation

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme, where:

- (a) the terms or conditions:
  - (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
  - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or
- (b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors, and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

37 Insurance etc

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex with respect to the terms on which an annuity, a life assurance policy, an accident or insurance policy or other policy of insurance is offered or may be obtained where:

- (a) the discrimination is:
  - (i) based upon actuarial or statistical data from a source on which it is reasonable to rely, and
  - (ii) reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, and
- (b) the source on which the actuarial or statistical data referred to in paragraph (a) (i) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

38 Sport

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful the exclusion of persons of the one sex from participation in any sporting activity not being the coaching of persons engaged in any sporting activity, the administration of any sporting activity or any prescribed sporting activity.

Part 3A Discrimination on transgender grounds

Division 1 General

38A Interpretation

A reference in this Part to a person being transgender or a transgender person is a reference to a person, whether or not the person is a recognised transgender person:

- (a) who identifies as a member of the opposite sex by living, or seeking to live, as a member of the opposite sex, or
- (b) who has identified as a member of the opposite sex by living as a member of the opposite sex, or
- (c) who, being of indeterminate sex, identifies as a member of a particular sex by living as a member of that sex, and includes a reference to the person being thought of as a transgender person, whether the person is, or was, in fact a transgender person.

38B What constitutes discrimination on transgender grounds

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on transgender grounds if, on the ground of the aggrieved person being transgender or a relative or associate of the aggrieved person being transgender, the perpetrator:
  - (a) treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances (or in circumstances which are not materially different) the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who he or she did not think was a transgender person or who does not have such a relative or associate who he or she did not think was a transgender person, or
  - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who are not transgender persons, or who do not have a relative or associate who is a transgender person, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply, or
  - (c) treats the aggrieved person, being a recognised transgender person, as being of the person's former sex or requires the aggrieved person, being a recognised transgender person, to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons of the person's former sex comply or are able to comply, being a requirement or condition which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person being transgender if it is done on the ground of the person being transgender, a characteristic that appertains generally to transgender persons or a characteristic that is generally imputed to transgender persons.

38C Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on transgender grounds:
- (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or

  - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

Division 4 Exception to Part 4

49 Superannuation

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of marital status in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme, where:

- (a) the terms or conditions:
  - (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
  - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or
- (b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors,

and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

Part 4A Discrimination on the ground of disability

Division 1 General

49A Disability includes past, future and presumed disability

A reference in this Part to a person's disability is a reference to a disability:

- (a) that a person has, or
- (b) that a person is thought to have (whether or not the person in fact has the disability), or
- (c) that a person had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (whether or not the person in fact had the disability), or
- (d) that a person will have in the future, or that it is thought a person will have in the future (whether or not the person in fact will have the disability).

49B What constitutes discrimination on the ground of disability

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of disability if, on the ground of the aggrieved person's disability or the disability of a relative or associate of the aggrieved person, the perpetrator:
  - (a) treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who does not have that disability or who does not have such a relative or associate who has that disability, or
  - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who do not have that disability, or who do not have such a relative or associate who has that disability, comply or are able to comply, being a requirement which is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's disability if it is done on the ground of the person's disability, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have that disability or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons who have that disability.
- (3) For the purposes of, but without limiting, this section, the fact that a person who has a disability of or relating to vision, hearing or mobility has, or may be accompanied by, a dog which assists the person in respect of that disability, is taken to be a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have that disability, but nothing in this Act affects the liability of any such person for any injury, loss or damage caused by the dog.
- (4) A reference in this section to persons who have a disability ("the particular disability") is a reference to persons who have the particular disability or who have a disability that is substantially the same as the particular disability.

49C What constitutes unjustifiable hardship

In determining what constitutes unjustifiable hardship for the purposes of this Part, all relevant circumstances of the particular case are to be taken into account including:

- (a) the nature of the benefit or detriment likely to accrue or be suffered by any persons concerned, and
- (b) the effect of the disability of a person concerned, and
- (c) the financial circumstances and the estimated amount of expenditure required to be made by the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

Division 2 Discrimination in work

49D Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or
  - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of disability:
  - (a) in the terms or conditions of employment which the employer affords the employee, or
  - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
  - (c) by dismissing the employee, or
  - (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment:
  - (a) for the purposes of a private household, or
  - (b) where the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5, or
  - (c) by a private educational authority.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular employment and, if the person is already employed by the employer, the person's performance as an employee, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability:
  - (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the particular employment, or
  - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the employer.

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation is taken to be the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

49E Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
- (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
  - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of disability:
- (a) in the terms or conditions which the principal affords him or her as a commission agent, or
  - (b) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
  - (c) by terminating his or her engagement, or
  - (d) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to engagement as a commission agent and, if the person is already engaged by the principal as a commission agent, the person's performance as a commission agent, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability:
- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a commission agent, or
  - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49F Discrimination against contract workers

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of disability:
  - (a) in the terms on which the principal allows him or her to work, or
  - (b) by not allowing him or her to work or continue to work, or
  - (c) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
  - (d) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a contract worker on the ground of the contract worker's disability if taking into account the contract worker's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to working as a contract worker and, if the person is already working for the principal as a contract worker, the contract worker's performance as a contract worker, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the contract worker because of his or her disability:
  - (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a contract worker, or
  - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49G Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
  - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm, or
  - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or

(c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a person against another person on the ground of the other person's disability if taking into account the other person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the proposed partnership or the partnership and, if the other person is already a partner, the other person's performance as a partner, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the other person because of his or her disability:

(a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a partner in the proposed partnership or the partnership, or

(b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require services or facilities that are not required by persons without that disability and the provision of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the partnership.

49H Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of disability.

49I Industrial organisations

(1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of disability:

(a) by refusing or failing to accept his or her application for membership, or

(b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit him or her to membership.

(2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of disability:

(a) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit provided by the industrial organisation, or

(b) by depriving him or her of membership or varying the terms of his or her membership, or

(c) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot be provided in that manner by the industrial organisation without unjustifiable hardship to it.

49J Qualifying bodies

- (1) It is unlawful for an authority or body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or
  - (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) (a) or (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an authority or body against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular profession, trade or occupation and, if the person is already a member of the profession, carrying on the trade or engaged in the occupation, the person's performance in the profession trade or occupation, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the profession, trade or occupation.

49K Employment agencies

- (1) It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by refusing to provide him or her with any of its services, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it offers to provide him or her with any of its services, or
  - (c) in the manner in which it provides him or her with any of its services.
- (2) Nothing in this section renders unlawful discrimination by an employment agency against a person on the ground of the person's disability if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the work sought, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the work sought.

Division 3 Discrimination in other areas

49L Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by refusing or failing to accept his or her application for admission as a student, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit him or her as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by denying him or her access, or limiting his or her access, to any benefit provided by the educational authority, or
  - (b) by expelling him or her, or
  - (c) by subjecting him or her to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of:
  - (a) a private educational authority, or
  - (b) a refusal or failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student by an educational authority where the educational authority administers a school, college, university or other institution which is conducted solely for students who have a disability which is not the same as that of the applicant.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (a) or (2) (b) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires services or facilities that are not required by students who do not have a disability and the provision of which would impose unjustifiable hardship on the educational authority.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the educational authority.

49LA (Repealed)

49M Provision of goods and services

- (1) It is unlawful for a person who provides, for payment or not, goods or services to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by refusing to provide the person with those goods or services, or

(b) in the terms on which he or she provides the person with those goods or services.

(2) Nothing in this section renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's disability if the provision of the goods or services would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person who provides the goods or services.

49N Accommodation

(1) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:

(a) by refusing the person's application for accommodation, or

(b) in the terms on which the person is offered accommodation, or

(c) by deferring the person's application for accommodation or according the person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.

(2) It is unlawful for a person, whether as principal or agent, to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability:

(a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the person, or

(b) by evicting the person, or

(c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if:

(a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, on those premises, and

(b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons.

(4) Nothing in this section applies to the provision of accommodation in premises where special services or facilities would be required by the person with a disability and the provision of such special services or facilities would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing or proposing to provide the accommodation whether as principal or agent.

(5) Nothing in this section applies to the provision of accommodation to persons who have a particular disability by a charitable body or other body that does not distribute its profits to members.

(6) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the person who provides the accommodation.

490 Registered clubs

- (1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the registered club on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person who is a member of the registered club on the ground of disability:
  - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the registered club, or
  - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
  - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) applies to or in respect of a registered club if the principal object of the registered club is to provide benefits only for persons who have a particular disability specified in the principal object.
- (4) In determining whether the principal object of a registered club is as referred to in subsection (3), regard is to be had to:
  - (a) the essential character of the registered club, and
  - (b) the extent to which the affairs of the registered club are so conducted that the persons primarily enjoying the benefits of membership are persons who have the particular disability specified in the principal object, and
  - (c) any other relevant circumstance.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of disability where, because of the person's disability, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot without unjustifiable hardship be so provided by the registered club.

Division 4 Exceptions to Part 4A

49P Public health

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability if the disability concerned is an infectious disease and the discrimination is reasonably necessary to protect public health.

49Q Superannuation, insurance

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme or with respect to the terms on which an annuity, a life assurance policy, an accident or insurance policy or other policy of insurance is offered or may be obtained, where:

(a) the terms or conditions:

- (i) are based upon actuarial or statistical data on which it is reasonable to rely, and
- (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, or

(b) in a case where no such actuarial or statistical data is available and cannot reasonably be obtained—the terms or conditions are reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors, and the source on which any data referred to in paragraph (a) is based is disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires, and any other relevant factors to which regard has been had as referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are disclosed to the Tribunal, where the Tribunal so requires.

49R Sport

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability, being discrimination consisting of the exclusion of the person from a sporting activity:

- (a) if the person is not reasonably capable of performing the actions reasonably required in relation to the sporting activity, or
- (b) if the persons who participate or are to participate in the sporting activity are selected by a method which is reasonable on the basis of their skills and abilities relevant to the sporting activity and relative to each other, or
- (c) if the sporting activity is conducted only for persons who have a particular disability and the person does not have that disability.

Part 4B Discrimination on the ground of a person's responsibilities as a carer

Division 1 General

49S Meaning of "responsibilities as a carer"

(1) A reference in this Part to a person's responsibilities as a carer is a reference to the person's responsibilities to care for or support:

- (a) any child or step-child of the person (whether or not under the age of 18 years) who is:
  - (i) wholly or substantially dependent on the person, or
  - (ii) in need of care or support, or
- (b) any child or adult who is in need of care or support and:
  - (i) of whom the person is guardian, or
  - (ii) for whom the person has parental responsibility under a law of the Commonwealth or this State, or
  - (iii) in relation to whom the person is an authorised carer within the meaning of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, or
- (c) any immediate family member of the person who is in need of care or support, being one of the following:
  - (i) a spouse or former spouse of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
  - (ii) a grandchild or step-grandchild of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
  - (iii) a parent or step-parent of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
  - (iv) a grandparent or step-grandparent of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person,
  - (v) a brother or sister, or step-brother or sister, of the person or of a spouse or former spouse of the person.

(2) A reference in this Part to a person's responsibilities is a reference to responsibilities:

- (a) that the person has, or
- (b) that the person is thought to have (whether or not the person in fact has the responsibilities), or
- (c) that the person had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (whether or not the person in fact had the responsibilities), or
- (d) that the person will have in the future, or that it is thought a person will have in the future (whether or not the person in fact will have the responsibilities).

(3) In this section:

de facto relationship has the same meaning as in the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

spouse of a person means:

- (a) the husband or wife of a person, or
- (b) the other party to a de facto relationship with a person.

step-child or step-grandchild of a person means:

- (a) a child or grandchild of the spouse or former spouse of the person, or
- (b) a step-child or step-grandchild of the spouse or former spouse of the person (being a child or grandchild of the spouse's former spouse).

(4) A reference in this section to a child, step-child, grandchild, step-grandchild, parent, step-parent, grandparent, step-grandparent, brother, sister, step-brother or step-sister of a person or of a spouse or former spouse of a person:

- (a) includes a reference to persons whose relationship arises because of adoption, guardianship or fostering or because of the allocation of parental responsibility under a law of the Commonwealth or this State, and
- (b) includes a reference to persons whose relationship arises because of the birth of a child whose parents are not married to each other and are not parties to a de facto relationship with each other, and
- (c) in relation a reference to a brother or sister, includes a reference to a half-brother or half-sister.

49T What constitutes discrimination on the ground of a person's responsibilities as a carer

- (1) A person (the perpetrator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of the aggrieved person's responsibilities as a carer if, on the ground of the aggrieved person having responsibilities as a carer, the perpetrator:
  - (a) treats the aggrieved person less favourably than in the same circumstances, or in circumstances which are not materially different, the perpetrator treats or would treat a person who does not have those responsibilities, or
  - (b) requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition with which a substantially higher proportion of persons who do not have such responsibilities comply or are able to comply, being a requirement that is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case and with which the aggrieved person does not or is not able to comply.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), something is done on the ground of a person's responsibilities as a carer if it is done on the ground of the person having responsibilities as a carer, a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have responsibilities as a carer or a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons who have responsibilities as a carer.

49U What constitutes unjustifiable hardship

In determining what constitutes unjustifiable hardship for the purposes of this Part, all relevant circumstances of the particular case are to be taken into account, including:

- (a) the nature of the benefit or detriment likely to accrue to or be suffered by any persons concerned, and
- (b) the effect of the relevant responsibilities as a carer of a person concerned, and
- (c) the financial circumstances of and the estimated amount of expenditure required to be made by the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

Division 2 Discrimination in work

49V Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer:
  - (a) in the arrangements the employer makes for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment, or
  - (b) in determining who should be offered employment, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the employer offers employment.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of the employee's responsibilities as a carer:
  - (a) in the terms or conditions of employment that the employer affords the employee, or
  - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment, or
  - (c) by dismissing the employee, or
  - (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to employment:
  - (a) for the purposes of a private household, or

- (b) if the number of persons employed by the employer, disregarding any persons employed within the employer's private household, does not exceed 5.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by an employer against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the particular employment and, if the person is already employed by the employer, the person's performance as an employee, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
  - (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the particular employment, or
  - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the employer.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a corporation is regarded as the employer of the employees of any other corporation which, with respect to the firstmentioned corporation, is a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

49W Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer:
  - (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
  - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the principal engages the person as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
  - (a) in the terms or conditions that the principal affords him or her as a commission agent, or
  - (b) by denying the commission agent access, or limiting the commission agent's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with his or her position as a commission agent, or
  - (c) by terminating the commission agent's engagement, or
  - (d) by subjecting the commission agent to any other detriment.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (c) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to engagement as a commission agent and, if the person is already engaged by the principal as a commission agent, the person's performance as a commission agent, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer:

- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a commission agent, or
- (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49X Discrimination against contract workers

(1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:

- (a) in the terms on which the principal allows the contract worker to work, or
- (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work, or
- (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting the contract worker's access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with his or her employer is made, or
- (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by a principal against a contract worker on the ground of the contract worker's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the contract worker's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to working as a contract worker and, if the contract worker is already working for the principal as a contract worker, the worker's performance as a contract worker, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the contract worker because of his or her responsibilities as a carer:

- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a contract worker, or
- (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the principal.

49Y Partnerships

(1) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners, or for any one or more of 6 or more persons proposing to form themselves into a partnership, to discriminate against a person on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:

- (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
  - (b) in determining who should be offered a position as partner in the firm, or
  - (c) in the terms on which the person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm consisting of 6 or more partners to discriminate against a partner on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
- (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from membership of the firm, or
  - (b) by expelling the partner from the firm, or
  - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) renders unlawful discrimination by one person against another person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer if taking into account the person's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the proposed partnership or the partnership and, if the other person is already a partner, the other person's performance as a partner, and all other relevant factors that it is reasonable to take into account, the other person because of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
- (a) would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of a partner in the proposed partnership or the partnership, or
  - (b) would, in order to carry out those requirements, require arrangements that are not required by persons without those responsibilities as a carer and the making of which would impose an unjustifiable hardship on the other partners.

49Z Discrimination by local government councillors

It is unlawful for any member or members of a council of a local government area when acting (whether alone or together) in the course of his, her or their official functions to discriminate against another member of the council on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer.

49ZA Industrial organisations

- (1) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
- (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership.

- (2) It is unlawful for an industrial organisation to discriminate against a person who is a member of the industrial organisation on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
- (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the organisation, or
  - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of the person's membership, or
  - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) (a) renders it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the ground of the person's responsibilities as a carer where, because of the person's responsibilities as a carer, the person requires the benefit to be provided in a special manner and the benefit cannot be provided in that manner by the industrial organisation without unjustifiable hardship to it.

49ZB Qualifying bodies

- (1) It is unlawful for an authority or a body which is empowered to confer, renew or extend an authorisation or a qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of his or her responsibilities as a carer:
- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification, or

  - (b) by denying or limiting access to any benefit associated with accommodation, or
  - (c) by evicting the person or subjecting the person to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in this section applies to or in respect of the provision of accommodation in premises if:
  - (a) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation or a near relative of that person resides, and intends to continue to reside, in those premises, and
  - (b) the accommodation provided in those premises is for no more than 6 persons, and
  - (c) the accommodation is provided with a concession provided in good faith to a person by reason of the person's age.

49ZYP Registered clubs

- (1) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a person (not being a person under the age of 18 years) on the ground of age:
  - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership of the club, or
  - (b) in the terms on which it is prepared to admit the person to membership of the club.
- (2) It is unlawful for a registered club to discriminate against a member of the registered club on the ground of age:

- (a) by denying or limiting access to any benefit provided by the club, or
  - (b) by depriving the member of membership of the club or varying the terms of that membership, or
  - (c) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) applies to or in respect of a registered club:
- (a) that has as its principal object the provision of benefits for persons who are of a particular age or age group, or
  - (b) so as to prevent the retention by the club of different categories of membership for members of different ages or age groups.
- (4) In determining whether the principal object of a registered club is as referred to in subsection (3) (a), regard is to be had to:
- (a) the essential character of the club, and
  - (b) the extent to which the affairs of the club are so conducted that the persons primarily enjoying the benefits of membership are of the relevant age or age group, and
  - (c) any other relevant circumstance.

Division 4 Exceptions to Part 4G

49ZYQ Legal capacity and welfare of children

Nothing in this Part:

- (a) affects the operation of a law that relates to the legal capacity or the legal entitlements, obligations or disqualifications of persons who are under 18 years of age, or
- (b) affects the operation of a law the object of which is to protect the welfare of those persons, including provisions of the criminal law that are designed to protect them.

49ZYR Special needs programs and activities

Nothing in this Part applies to or in respect of anything done to afford persons who are of a particular age or age group access to facilities, services or opportunities to meet their special needs or to promote equal or improved access for them to facilities, services and opportunities.

49ZYS Superannuation

- (1) Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of age in the terms or conditions appertaining to a superannuation or provident fund or scheme if, subject to subsection (2), one or more of the following apply:

- (a) the discrimination occurs because of the application of a standard in force under the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987, or a requirement under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, of the Commonwealth,
- (b) the discrimination is required in order to comply with, or obtain a benefit of, or avoid a penalty under, any other Act of the Commonwealth,
- (c) the discrimination is based on actuarial or statistical data from a source on which it is reasonable to rely,
- (d) if there is no data of a kind referred to in paragraph (c), the discrimination is based on such other data as may be available and on which it is reasonable to rely,
- (e) if none of the above apply, the discrimination is reasonable having regard to any other relevant factors,
- (f) the discrimination is based on an existing condition and relates to a person who became a member of the fund or scheme before the commencement of this section or not more than 12 months after that commencement, or happens not more than 12 months after that commencement.

(2) An exemption under subsection (1) (c)-(e) is available only if the sources on which the data are based and those relevant factors (if any) are disclosed to the Tribunal, if the Tribunal so requires.

(3) This section has effect despite section 54 (1) (d).

49ZYT Provision of insurance

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination on the ground of age the terms on which any annuity, life assurance policy or accident or insurance policy or any other kind of insurance is offered or may be obtained if:

- (a) those terms:
  - (i) are based on actuarial or statistical data from a source on which it is reasonable to rely or, if there are no such data, on such other data as may be available, and
  - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, and
- (b) the sources on which the data are based and those relevant factors (if any) are disclosed to the Tribunal, if the Tribunal so requires.

49ZYU Credit applications

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of age with respect to the criteria on which an application for credit is assessed or the terms on which credit is offered or may be obtained if:

- (a) those criteria or terms:
  - (i) are based on actuarial or statistical data from a source on which it is reasonable to rely or, if there are no such data, on such other data as may be available, and
  - (ii) are reasonable having regard to the data and any other relevant factors, and
- (b) the sources on which the data are based and those relevant factors (if any) are disclosed to the Tribunal, if the Tribunal so requires.

49ZYV Safety procedures

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of age with respect to:

- (a) the manner in which fitness to control a vehicle or a class of vehicle is assessed, or
- (b) the terms and conditions on which and the length of time during which a licence to drive or ride a vehicle is provided or made available, as the case requires, if that manner is, or those terms and conditions and length of time are, imposed in order to meet safety considerations that are reasonable in the circumstances.

49ZYW Sport

- (1) Nothing in this Part renders unlawful the exclusion of persons of particular ages from participation in any sporting activity.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply:
  - (a) to the coaching of persons engaged in any sporting activity, or
  - (b) to the administration of any sporting activity, or
  - (c) to any sporting activity prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

49ZYX Certain activities or matters may be prescribed to be lawful

Nothing in this Part renders unlawful any activity or matter declared to be lawful by regulation made for the purposes of this Part.

49ZYY Operation of Part 4E not affected

Nothing in this Part affects the operation of Part 4E.

Part 5 Other unlawful acts

50 Victimisation

- (1) It is unlawful for a person (the discriminator) to subject another person (the person victimised) to any detriment in any circumstances on the ground that the person victimised has:
  - (a) brought proceedings against the discriminator or any other person under this Act,
  - (b) given evidence or information in connection with proceedings brought by any person against the discriminator or any other person under this Act,
  - (c) alleged that the discriminator or any other person has committed an act which, whether or not the allegation so states, would amount to a contravention of this Act, or
  - (d) otherwise done anything under or by reference to this Act in relation to the discriminator or any other person,or by reason that the discriminator knows that the person victimised intends to do any of those things, or suspects that the person victimised has done, or intends to do, any of them.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the subjecting of a person to a detriment by reason of an allegation made by the person if the allegation was false and not made in good faith.

51 Advertisements

- (1) In this section:
  - (a) advertisement, without affecting the generality of the expression, includes any notice, sign, label, circular and any similar thing, and includes any matter that is not writing but which, by reason of the form or context in which it appears, conveys a message, and
  - (b) a reference to the publishing of an advertisement is a reference to the publishing of the advertisement by any means including the publishing thereof in a newspaper or periodical, by radio or television broadcast or in a film.
- (2) A person shall not publish or cause to be published an advertisement that indicates an intention to do an act that is unlawful under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 10 penalty units in any other case.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), but without limiting the generality of that subsection, the use of a word which, by reason of its gender, denotes a person or persons of a particular sex:

(a) as or as part of:

(i) the description of a job offered, or

(ii) the description of a class of persons to whom any offer or invitation is made, by an advertisement, or

(b) as or as part of a classification or heading under which an advertisement which makes any offer or invitation is published, shall be taken to indicate the intention that the offer of the job or other offer or invitation made by the advertisement is made only to persons of that sex, unless the contrary intention appears in the advertisement or in the classification or heading.

(4) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (2), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that he or she believed on reasonable grounds that the publication of the advertisement was not an offence under that subsection.

52 Aiding and abetting etc

It is unlawful for a person to cause, instruct, induce, aid or permit another person to do an act that is unlawful by reason of a provision of this Act.

53 Liability of principals and employers

- (1) An act done by a person as the agent or employee of the person's principal or employer which if done by the principal or employer would be a contravention of this Act is taken to have been done by the principal or employer also unless the principal or employer did not, either before or after the doing of the act, authorise the agent or employee, either expressly or by implication, to do the act.
- (2) If both the principal or employer and the agent or employee who did the act are subject to any liability arising under this Act in respect of the doing of the act, they are jointly and severally subject to that liability.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), a principal or an employer is not liable under that subsection if the principal or employer took all reasonable steps to prevent the agent or employee from contravening the Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the principal or employer of a volunteer or unpaid trainee who contravenes Part 2A is the person or body on whose behalf the volunteer or unpaid trainee provides services.

Part 6 General exceptions to this Act

54 Acts done under statutory authority

- (1) Nothing in this Act renders unlawful anything done by a person if it was necessary for the person to do it in order to comply with a requirement of:
  - (a) any other Act, whether passed before or after this Act,
  - (b) any regulation, ordinance, by-law, rule or other instrument made under any such other Act,
  - (c) an order of the Tribunal,
  - (d) an order of any court, not including an order or award of a court or tribunal having power to fix minimum wages and other terms and conditions of employment, or

- (a) if the member dies,
- (b) if, being the full-time President, the member engages in any paid employment outside the duties of the member's office,
- (c) if, being the President, the member absents himself or herself from duty for a period

exceeding 14 consecutive days except on leave granted by the Minister (which leave the Minister is hereby authorised to grant), unless the member's absence is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause,

- (d) if, being a member other than the President, the member is unavailable for duty for a period exceeding 28 days except on leave granted by the Minister (which leave the Minister is hereby authorised to grant) unless the member's unavailability is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause,
- (e) if the member is nominated for election as a member of the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly or a member of a House of Parliament of another State or of the Commonwealth,
- (f) if the member resigns the member's office by writing under the member's hand addressed to the Governor,
- (f1) if, being the President, the member is removed from office by the Governor pursuant to section 80 (4), or
- (g) if, being a member other than the President, the member is removed from office by the Governor pursuant to section 76.

76 Removal from office

The Governor may for any cause which to the Governor seems sufficient remove any member (other than the President) from office.

77 Filling casual vacancy

On the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of a member, otherwise than by the expiration of the term for which the member was appointed, the Governor may appoint a person to hold that office.

78 Member not subject to Public Sector Management Act 1988

The provisions of Part 2 of the Public Sector Management Act 1988 shall not apply to or in respect of the appointment of a member, and a member shall not be subject to the provisions of that Act during the member's term of office.

79 Remuneration of members other than the President

A member (other than the President) shall be entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.

80 President

- (1) The President may be appointed on a full-time or part-time basis.

- (2) A President appointed on a full-time basis shall devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of his or her office and shall be entitled to be paid:
  - (a) remuneration in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975, and
  - (b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3) A President appointed on a part-time basis is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3A) A person may hold office, and exercise functions, as President (whether full-time or part-time) even though the person also holds, and exercises the functions of, a judicial office or a statutory or other public office.
- (4) The Governor may remove the President from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.
- (5) (Repealed)

81 Acting President

- (1) The Minister may appoint an acting President to act during the absence of the President or during a vacancy in the President's office.
- (2) An acting President is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him or her.
- (3) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising an acting President to act as President.
- (4) A person appointed an acting President shall, while so acting, be deemed to be the President and shall have the immunities and functions of the President.
- (5) The Minister may, for any cause which to the Minister seems sufficient, remove an acting President from office.

82 Alternate members

- (1) The Minister may at any time appoint a person as an alternate member to act during the absence or illness of a member other than the President.
- (2) An alternate member shall have and may exercise, while acting as a member, the functions of the person for whom he or she is the alternate member.

84 Preservation of rights of President who was previously public servant

- (1) In this section, superannuation scheme means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) and to the terms of his or her appointment, where the President was, immediately before his or her appointment as the President:
  - (a) an officer of the Public Service, or
  - (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme,the President:
  - (c) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer or contributor,
  - (d) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which the President was a contributor immediately before his or her appointment as the President, and
  - (e) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,as if the President had continued to be such an officer or contributor during his or her service as the President, and:
  - (f) his or her service as the President shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which the President continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred, and
  - (g) the President shall be deemed to be an officer or employee, and the Board shall be deemed to be his or her employer, for the purpose of the superannuation scheme to which the President is entitled to contribute under this subsection.
- (3) A President who, but for this subsection, would be entitled under subsection (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under that scheme shall not be so entitled upon his or her becoming (whether upon his or her appointment as the President or at any later time while he or she holds office as the President) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subsection (2) (g) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her and the Board in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to such another superannuation scheme.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the payment to the President upon his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such an amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, by way of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of that scheme.

- (5) The President shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

85 Meetings of the Board

- (1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Act, be as determined by the Board.
- (2) The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he or she is present.
- (3) Three members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board and any duly convened meeting at which a quorum is present shall be competent to transact any business of the Board.
- (4) A decision of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be the decision of the Board.
- (5) The President or member presiding shall have a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, shall have a second or casting vote.

- (2) A person who is employed for the purposes of subsection (1) is, while he or she is so employed, an officer of the Board.

Part 9 The functions of the President, the Tribunal and the Board

Division 1 General

87 Definitions

In this Part:

complainant, in relation to a complaint, means the person or each of the persons by whom that complaint is lodged.

complaint means:

- (a) a complaint, not being a representative complaint, lodged under section 88, and
  - (b) a matter referred to the Tribunal for inquiry as a complaint pursuant to section 95,
- and includes a representative complaint.

Court means the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

representative body means a body (whether incorporated or unincorporated) which represents or purports to represent:

- (a) a group of people within New South Wales, or
- (b) a group of people within New South Wales on the basis of their homosexuality, (whether or not the body is authorised to do so by the group concerned) and which has as its primary object the promotion of the interests and welfare of the group.

representative complaint means a complaint lodged under section 88 by a person on behalf of himself or herself and other persons, or two or more persons on behalf of themselves and other persons, and which is treated by the Tribunal as a representative complaint.

respondent, in relation to a complaint, means the person or each of the persons against whom that complaint is lodged.

vilification complaint means a complaint in respect of a contravention of section 20C, 38S, 49ZT or 49ZXB.

Division 2 The functions of the President

88 Making of complaints

- (1) Except as provided by this section, a complaint in writing in respect of any contravention of this Act or the regulations which is alleged to have been committed by a person (other than a contravention in respect of which a specific penalty is imposed) may be lodged with the President by:
  - (a) a person on the person's own behalf, or
  - (b) a person on the person's own behalf and on behalf of another person or other persons, or
  - (c) 2 or more persons on their own behalf, or
  - (d) 2 or more persons on their own behalf and on behalf of another person or other persons.
- (1A) A complaint may be lodged under subsection (1) by a representative body on behalf of a named person or named persons, but only if the representative body has satisfied the President that:
  - (a) each person on whose behalf the complaint is lodged consents to the complaint being lodged by the body on his or her behalf, and

- (b) the body has a sufficient interest in the complaint.
- (1B) A representative body has a sufficient interest in a complaint only if the conduct that constitutes the alleged contravention concerned is a matter of genuine concern to the body because of the way conduct of that nature adversely affects or has the potential to adversely affect the interests of the body or the interests or welfare of the group of people it represents.
- (1C) The President may require a representative body which has lodged a complaint to nominate a person to appear for the representative body in conciliation proceedings concerning the complaint before the President.
- (1D) A vilification complaint cannot be lodged under this section unless each person on whose behalf the complaint is lodged:
- (a) has the characteristic that was the ground for the conduct that constitutes the alleged contravention concerned, or
  - (b) claims to have that characteristic and there is no sufficient reason to doubt that claim.
- (2) If a person is under the age of 18 years or has a disability, his or her complaint may be lodged on his or her behalf by another person, but only if:
- (a) the President is satisfied that the person on whose behalf the complaint is to be lodged consents to the complaint being lodged on his or her behalf by the other person, and
  - (b) in the case of a complaint to be lodged on behalf of a person (whether or not a person who has a disability) who is under the age of 18 years, the other person who is to lodge the complaint is, or does so with the consent of, the person's parent or guardian.
- (2A) When a complaint is lodged on behalf of another person (the complainant) pursuant to subsection (2):
- (a) the person who lodges the complaint is, for the purposes of this Division, taken to have the same rights, obligations and interests with respect to the investigation or referral of the complaint as the complainant, and
  - (b) the complaint is, for the purposes of this Part, taken to have been lodged by the complainant on his or her own behalf (except to the extent necessary to give effect to subsection (2)).
- (2B) Nothing in subsection (2) limits or restricts the discretion of the President under section 90 (1) to decline to entertain a complaint lodged in accordance with subsection (2):

(a) where it appears to the President that the person who lodged the complaint has subsequently lost the confidence or authority of the complainant, or

(b) for any other reason that, in the circumstances of the case, appears to the President sufficient.

(2C) A person who because of any disability is incapable of consenting to the making of a complaint on his or her behalf is taken to have consented to the making of the complaint on his or her behalf if that consent is given by the person's parent or guardian or by anyone else who the President is satisfied has a genuine concern for the person's welfare.

(3) A complaint shall be lodged within 6 months after the date on which the contravention of this Act or the regulations which is the subject of that complaint is alleged to have been committed.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the President, on good cause being shown, may accept a complaint which is lodged more than 6 months after the date referred to in that subsection.

(5) (Repealed)

88A Death of complainant does not terminate complaint

(1) If a complainant dies before his or her complaint is finally determined, the complaint survives and the estate of the complainant:

(a) may continue the carriage of the complaint, including any appeal, and

(b) is entitled to the benefit of any monetary sum ordered to be paid by the respondent in respect of the complaint.

(2) If a respondent dies before any complaint against him or her is finally determined, the complainant may continue to pursue the complaint (including any appeal) and any monetary sum ordered to be paid in respect of the complaint is payable from the estate of the respondent.

89 Investigation of complaints by the President

(1) The President shall investigate each complaint lodged with the President under section 88.

(2) If the complaint is a vilification complaint, or alleges an offence of serious vilification, the President may, by notice in writing, require any person to produce a copy of any broadcast the subject of the complaint at a specified place. A person must not fail to comply with the terms of such a notice.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate, or 10 penalty units in any other case.

89A Application for interim order under sec 112

The President, at any time after a complaint is lodged with the President under section 88 and before the President declines to entertain the complaint, resolves the complaint by conciliation or refers the complaint to the Tribunal under section 94 (1), as the case may be, may apply to the Tribunal for the making of an interim order under section 112 or for the variation or revocation of any such order.

89B Prosecution for serious vilification

(1) The President:

- (a) after investigating a vilification complaint, and
- (b) before endeavouring to resolve the complaint by conciliation, shall consider whether an offence may have been committed under section 20D, 38T, 49ZTA or 49ZXC in respect of the matter the subject of the complaint.

(2) If the President considers that an offence may have been committed under section 20D, 38T, 49ZTA or 49ZXC, the President shall refer the complaint to the Attorney General.

(3) The President may only make such a referral within 28 days after receipt of the complaint.

(4) On making the referral, the President shall, by notification in writing addressed to the complainant, advise the complainant of:

- (a) the making of the referral, and
- (b) the rights of the complainant under section 91 (1).

(5) Despite section 96, the Tribunal may stay an inquiry into the complaint until the conclusion of proceedings for the alleged offence under section 20D, 38T, 49ZTA or 49ZXC.

89C (Repealed)

90 President may decline to entertain complaint

(1) Where, at any stage of the President's investigation of a complaint, the President is satisfied that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, or that for any other reason the complaint should not be entertained, the President may, by notification in writing addressed to the complainant, decline to entertain the complaint.

- (2) The President shall, in a notification under subsection (1), advise the complainant of:
  - (a) the reason for declining to entertain the complaint, and
  - (b) where section 91 (1) applies to the notification—the rights of the complainant under that subsection.
- (3) If the President declines under subsection (1) to entertain a complaint for any reason other than that the complaint is vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, the complainant may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the President's decision.

90A Withdrawal of complaint

- (1) The President may decide not to proceed with a complaint if satisfied that the person or (in the case of a complaint made on behalf of more than one person) each person on whose behalf the complaint was made does not wish to proceed with the complaint, in which case no further action is required to be taken on the complaint.
- (2) The President may amend a complaint made on behalf of more than one person to remove a person as a person on whose behalf the complaint was made if the President is satisfied that the person does not wish to proceed with the complaint.
- (3) The President is to give notice in writing of any decision by the President under this section to the complainant and respondent under the complaint concerned and to each person on whose behalf the complaint was made.
- (4) The President is not required to give a respondent notice of the President's decision not to proceed with a complaint if the President had not notified the respondent that the complaint had been made.

91 Reference of complaint to Tribunal at requirement of complainant

- (1) Where the President has given a complainant a notification under section 89B (4) or 90 (1), the complainant may, within 21 days after the date on which that notification was given, by notice in writing served on the President, require the President to refer the complaint to the Tribunal.
  - (1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to a notification in which the President has given, as a reason for declining to entertain a complaint, that what has been alleged in the complaint does not disclose any contravention of this Act.
- (2) On receipt of a notice under subsection (1), the President shall refer the complaint to the Tribunal together with a report relating to any inquiries made by the President into the complaint.
- (3) If a notification under section 89B (4) or 90 (1) is given by post, the 21 day period referred to in subsection (1) is taken to run from, and includes, the fourth day after the notification was posted.

92 Resolution of complaint by conciliation

- (1) Where the President is of the opinion that a complaint, other than a complaint that the President has declined to entertain under section 90 (1), may be resolved by conciliation, the President shall endeavour to resolve the complaint by conciliation.
- (2) The President may, by notice in writing, require the complainant and the respondent, or either of them, to appear before the President, either separately or together, for the purpose of endeavouring to resolve the complaint by conciliation.
- (3) A person shall not fail to comply with the terms of a notice under subsection (2).

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 10 penalty units in any other case.

93 No right to representation

A complainant or respondent in conciliation proceedings before the President shall not be represented by any other person except by leave of the President.

94 Reference of complaints to the Tribunal

- (1) Where the President:
  - (a) is of the opinion that a complaint cannot be resolved by conciliation,
  - (b) has endeavoured to resolve a complaint by conciliation but has not been successful in his or her endeavours, or
  - (c) is of the opinion that the nature of a complaint is such that it should be referred to the Tribunal,the President shall refer the complaint to the Tribunal together with a report relating to any inquiries made by the President into the complaint.
- (2) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of conciliation proceedings under section 92 shall not be admissible in subsequent proceedings under this Part relating to the complaint.

94A Officers of the President

- (1) The President may, with the concurrence of the Minister, designate an officer of the Board for the purposes of this section.
- (2) The President may, by instrument in writing, delegate to an officer designated for the purposes of this section the exercise of such one or more of the President's functions under sections 88 (4), 89, 92 and 93 as may be specified in the instrument.
- (3) An officer who is a delegate of the President under this section is, while the delegation remains unrevoked, an officer of the President.

- (4) A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any of the functions delegated, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.
- (5) The President may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part a delegation under this section at any time, whether made by the President or not.
- (6) During a vacancy in the office of President, the Minister may, in like manner, revoke wholly or in part a delegation under this section.
- (7) A delegation under this section is not revoked by the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of President, except to the extent that the instrument of delegation so provides.
- (8) Notwithstanding any delegation under this section, the President may continue to exercise any or all of the functions delegated.
- (9) Any act or thing done or suffered by an officer of the President pursuant to a delegation under this section has the same force and effect as if done or suffered by the President.

Division 3 The functions of the Tribunal

95 Reference of matter to the Tribunal by the Minister

The Minister may refer any matter to the Tribunal for inquiry as a complaint under this Part.

95A Leave of Tribunal required for inquiry into certain matters

- (1) An issue that is the subject of proceedings before the Industrial Relations Commission may not be the subject of proceedings before the Tribunal without the leave of the Tribunal.
- (2) This section does not affect the operation of section 73 (Procedure of the Tribunal generally) of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 in relation to evidence given before, or findings made by, the Industrial Relations Commission.

96 Inquiries into complaints

The Tribunal shall hold an inquiry into each complaint or matter referred to it under section 91 (2), 94 (1) or 95.

97 Single inquiry in relation to several complaints

Where the Tribunal is of the opinion that two or more complaints arise out of the same or substantially the same circumstances or subject-matter, it may hold a single inquiry in relation to those complaints.

98 Joinder of parties by the Tribunal

- (1) Where, before the holding of an inquiry, or at any stage during the holding of an inquiry, the Tribunal is of the opinion that a person ought to be joined as a party to the inquiry, it may, by notice in writing given to that person, join that person as a party to the inquiry.
- (2) If a person is joined as a party to the inquiry as a complainant or respondent, the person is for the purposes of this Part taken to be a complainant or respondent (as appropriate) in relation to the complaint concerned.

100 Parties to an inquiry

The parties to an inquiry shall be the complainant, the respondent, any person joined by the Tribunal as a party to the inquiry and any person to whom the Tribunal grants leave to appear as a party to the inquiry.

101 Right of appearance and to representation

- (1) A party to an inquiry:
  - (a) is entitled to appear personally or where the party is a body corporate, by a director, the secretary or an agent of the body corporate, and
  - (b) may, by the leave of the Tribunal, be represented by a solicitor, by counsel or by an agent.
- (2) No person, other than a solicitor or counsel, is entitled to demand or receive any fee or reward for representing a party to an inquiry.

101A Officer assisting the Tribunal

- (1) The Tribunal may make arrangements with the Board for an officer of the Board to appear at an inquiry to assist the Tribunal.
- (2) An officer of the Board assisting the Tribunal at an inquiry pursuant to arrangements made under subsection (1) shall, in relation to that inquiry, be subject to the control and direction of the Tribunal.

101B (Repealed)

102 Determination of representative complaints

At an inquiry held in respect of a representative complaint, the Tribunal shall determine, as a preliminary matter, whether that complaint should be dealt with as a representative complaint.

103 Matters to be considered in determination of representative complaints

- (1) The Tribunal shall not permit a complaint to be dealt with as a representative complaint unless it is satisfied that the complaint is made bona fide and in good faith as a representative complaint.
- (2) In considering whether a complaint is made bona fide and in good faith as a representative complaint, the Tribunal shall satisfy itself:
  - (a) that:
    - (i) the complainant is a member of a class of persons, the members of which class have been affected, or may reasonably be likely to be affected, by the conduct of the respondent,
    - (ii) the complainant has in fact been affected by the conduct of the respondent,
    - (iii) the class is so numerous that joinder of all its members is impracticable,
    - (iv) there are questions of law or fact common to all members of the class,
    - (v) the claims of the complainant are typical of the claims of the class,
    - (vi) multiple complaints would be likely to produce varying determinations which could have incompatible or inconsistent results for the individual members of the class, and
    - (vii) the respondent has acted on grounds apparently applying to the class as a whole, thereby making relief appropriate for the class as a whole, or
  - (b) that notwithstanding that the requirements of paragraph (a) have not been satisfied, the justice of the case demands that the matter be dealt with and a remedy provided by means of a representative complaint.

104 Amendment of representative complaints

Where the Tribunal is satisfied:

- (a) that the complaint could be dealt with as a representative complaint if the class of persons on whose behalf that complaint is lodged is increased, reduced or otherwise altered, the Tribunal may amend the complaint so that the complaint can be dealt with as a representative complaint, or
- (b) that the complaint has been wrongly made as a representative complaint, the Tribunal may amend the complaint by removing the names of the persons or the class of persons on whose behalf that complaint was lodged so that the complaint can be dealt with as a complaint other than a representative complaint.

105 Ordinary complaints not precluded by representative complaints

Nothing in this Part shall prevent a person from lodging a complaint, other than a representative complaint, under section 88 (1) or (2), notwithstanding that the conduct in respect of which the complaint is lodged has also been the conduct in respect of which a representative complaint has been lodged.

106 Resolution of complaint by conciliation

The Tribunal:

- (a) may endeavour, by all such means as to it seem reasonable, to resolve a complaint the subject of an inquiry by conciliation, and
- (b) shall take all such steps as to it seem reasonable to effect an amicable settlement of a complaint the subject of an inquiry and for this purpose may adjourn an inquiry at any stage to enable the parties to negotiate with a view to settlement of the complaint by amicable arrangements.

109 Proof of exceptions

Where by any provision of this Act or the regulations, conduct is excepted from conduct that is unlawful under this Act or the regulations or that is a contravention of this Act or the regulations, the onus of proving the exception in any inquiry lies upon the respondent.

110, 110A (Repealed)

111 Tribunal may dismiss frivolous etc complaints

- (1) Where, at any stage of an inquiry, the Tribunal is satisfied that a complaint is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, or that for any other reason the complaint should not be entertained, it may dismiss the complaint.
- (1A) The Tribunal may dismiss a complaint if satisfied that the person or (in the case of a complaint made on behalf of more than one person) each person on whose behalf the complaint was made does not wish to proceed with the complaint.
- (1B) The Tribunal may amend a complaint made on behalf of more than one person to remove a person as a person on whose behalf the complaint was made if the Tribunal is satisfied that the person does not wish to proceed with the complaint.
- (2) Where the Tribunal dismisses a complaint under this section, it may order the complainant to pay the costs of the inquiry.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the generality of the powers conferred on the Tribunal by Chapter 6 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997.

112 Making of interim orders

- (1) The Tribunal or, where the senior judicial member of the Tribunal is of the opinion that it is expedient that a judicial member of the Tribunal sitting alone should exercise the functions of the Tribunal under this section, the senior judicial member or a judicial member selected by him or her may, on the application of the President under section 89A or on the application of a party to an inquiry at any time after the lodgment of the complaint into which that inquiry is held, make an interim order to preserve:
  - (a) the status quo between the parties to the complaint, or
  - (b) the rights of the parties to the complaint,pending determination of the matter the subject of the complaint.
- (2) (Repealed)

113 Order or other decision of the Tribunal

- (1) After holding an inquiry, the Tribunal may:
  - (a) dismiss the complaint the subject of that inquiry, or
  - (b) find the complaint substantiated and do any one or more of the following:
    - (i) except in respect of a representative complaint or a matter referred to the Tribunal for inquiry as a complaint pursuant to section 95, order the respondent to pay to the complainant damages not exceeding $40,000 by way of compensation for any loss or damage suffered by reason of the respondent's conduct,
    - (ii) make an order enjoining the respondent from continuing or repeating any conduct rendered unlawful by this Act or the regulations,
    - (iii) except in respect of a representative complaint or a matter referred to the Tribunal for inquiry as a complaint pursuant to section 95, order the respondent to perform any reasonable act or course of conduct to redress any loss or damage suffered by the complainant,
    - (iiia) in respect of a vilification complaint, order the respondent to publish an apology in respect of the matter the subject of the complaint or order the respondent to publish a retraction in respect of the matter (or order both) and, as part of the order, give directions concerning the time, form, extent and manner of publication of the apology or retraction (or both),
    - (iiib) in respect of a vilification complaint, order the respondent to develop and implement a program or policy aimed at eliminating unlawful discrimination,
    - (iv) make an order declaring void in whole or in part and either ab initio or from such other time as is specified in the order any contract or agreement made in contravention of this Act or the regulations, or

(v) decline to take any further action in the matter.

- (2) The power of the Tribunal to award damages to a complainant shall, in the case of a complaint lodged by a representative body, be taken to be a power to award damages to the person or persons on behalf of whom the complaint is lodged and not to include a power to award damages to the representative body.
- (3) In making an order for damages under this section concerning a complaint lodged on behalf of a person or persons, the Tribunal may make such order as it thinks fit as to the application of those damages for the benefit of the person or persons.
- (4) If 2 or more vilification complaints are made in respect of the same public act of the respondent and those complaints are found to be substantiated, the Tribunal must not make an order or orders for damages under this section that would cause the respondent to pay more than $40,000 in the aggregate in respect of that public act.

114 Costs

- (1) Except as provided by section 111 (2) and subsection (2) each party to an inquiry shall pay his or her own costs.
- (2) Where the Tribunal is of the opinion in a particular case that there are circumstances that justify it doing so, it may make such order as to costs and security for costs, whether by way of interim order or otherwise, as it thinks fit.

115 (Repealed)

116 Compliance with order of the Tribunal

A person shall not refuse, neglect or for any reason fail to obey or comply with an order referred to in section 113 (b) (ii), (iii), (iiia) or (iiib), or an interim order, of the Tribunal.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 10 penalty units in any other case.

117-117B (Repealed)

118 Appeals to Appeal Panel against decisions and orders of Tribunal

An order or other decision made by the Tribunal under this Act may be appealed to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal under Part 1 of Chapter 7 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 by a party to the proceedings in which the order or decision is made.

Division 4 The functions of the Board

119 General functions of the Board

For the purpose of eliminating discrimination and promoting equality and equal treatment of all human beings, the Board may, by resolution, determine to:

- (a) carry out investigations, research and inquiries relating to discrimination and in particular discrimination against a person or persons on the ground of:
  - (i) age,
  - (ii) a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of a particular age,
  - (iii) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of a particular age,
  - (iv) religious or political conviction,
  - (v) a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of a particular religious or political conviction,
  - (vi) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of a particular religious or political conviction,
  - (vii) mental disability,
  - (viii) a characteristic that appertains to persons having a mental disability or any particular mental disability,
  - (ix) a characteristic that is generally imputed to persons having a mental disability or any particular mental disability,
  - (x)-(xii) (Repealed)
  - (xiii) membership or non-membership of an industrial organisation, or
  - (xiv) a characteristic that appertains generally to membership or non-membership of an industrial organisation or a characteristic that is generally imputed to members or non-members of an industrial organisation,
- (b) acquire and disseminate knowledge on all matters relating to the elimination of discrimination and the achievement of equal rights,
- (c) arrange and co-ordinate consultations, discussions, seminars and conferences,
- (d) review, from time to time, the laws of the State,
- (e) consult with governmental, business, industrial and community groups and organisations in order to ascertain means of improving services and conditions affecting minority groups and other groups which are the subject of discrimination and inequality,

- (f) hold public inquiries, and
- (g) develop human rights programmes and policies.

120 Reference of certain matters to the Board by the Minister

- (1) The Minister may refer to the Board for report any matter relating to:
  - (a) a law or a proposed law, or
  - (b) a practice, an alleged practice or a proposed practice of any person or class of persons, which conflicts with or may give rise to conflict with this Act or the regulations.
- (2) The Board shall conduct an examination into any matter referred to it by the Minister under subsection (1) and report to the Minister its findings and conclusions.

121 Review of legislation etc

The Board shall, as soon as possible after the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2), undertake a review of:

- (a) the legislation of the State,
- (b) governmental policies and practices, and
- (c) the policies and practices of all superannuation funds and pension schemes whether governmental or otherwise, with a view to identifying circumstances where discrimination on a ground referred to in this Act occurs, in substance or effect, against any person or class of persons and shall furnish a report of its findings to the Minister within 12 months after that date.

121A Execution of functions of the Board

Resolutions of the Board relating to:

- (a) matters referred to in section 119, and
- (b) the conduct of an examination under section 120 (2), shall be implemented by the President.

122 Annual report

- (1) The Board shall, on or before the thirtieth day of September each year, prepare and present to the Minister a report on:
  - (a) the administration of this Act and the regulations during the period of 12 months ending on the preceding thirtieth day of June, and

(b) the research undertaken by the Board during that period and any recommendations that the Board considers appropriate for the elimination or modification of legislative provisions that discriminate on a ground referred to in this Act against any person or class of persons.

(1A) The report shall include an account by the President of the administration of Division 2 during that period of 12 months.

(2) The Minister shall lay the report, or cause it to be laid, before both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable after its receipt by the Minister.

Part 9A Equal Opportunity in Public Employment

Division 1 General

122A Definitions

In this Part:

authority means a person, group of persons or body specified in section 122B (1) (a), (b) or (c) or the subject of a proclamation pursuant to section 122B (1) (d).

reference means a matter which has been referred to the Board by the Director under section 122M.

122B Application of Part 9A—authorities

(1) This Part applies to and in respect of:

(a) each Department, and

(a1) the Education Teaching Service, and

(b) each declared authority within the meaning of the Public Sector Management Act 1988, and

(b1) each State owned corporation,

(c) the Police Service, and

(d) such persons, groups of persons or bodies as the Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare to be authorities to which this Part applies.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare that a proclamation made pursuant to subsection (1) (d) has ceased to have effect.

122C Objects

The objects of this Part are:

- (a) to eliminate and ensure the absence of discrimination in employment on the grounds of race, sex, marital status and physical impairment, and
- (b) to promote equal employment opportunity for women, members of racial minorities and physically handicapped persons, in the authorities to which this Part applies.

122D Exercise of functions of authorities under Part 9A

The functions of an authority to which this Part applies, being the functions conferred or imposed on the authority by or under this Part, shall be exercised:

- (a) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (a)—by the Department Head, or
  - (a1) in the case of the authority referred to in section 122B (1) (a1)—by the Director-General of the Department of School Education, or
- (b) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (b)—by the authority, or
  - (b1) in the case of a corporation referred to in section 122B (1) (b1)—by the corporation, or
- (c) in the case of the authority referred to in section 122B (1) (c)—by the Commissioner of Police, and
- (d) in the case of an authority the subject of a proclamation under section 122B (1) (d):
  - (i) except as provided by subparagraph (ii)—by the authority, or
  - (ii) where in the proclamation the Governor specifies a person as being the person by whom the functions conferred or imposed on the authority by or under this Part shall be exercised—by the person so specified.

Division 2 The Director of Equal Opportunity in Public Employment

122E The Director

There shall be a Director of Equal Opportunity in Public Employment.

122F Appointment of Director

- (1) The Director shall be appointed by the Governor, on the recommendation of the Minister.

- (2) The employment of the Director is subject to Part 2A of the Public Sector Management Act 1988, but is not subject to Part 2 of that Act.

122G-122HD (Repealed)

122HE Acting Director

- (1) The Minister may appoint an acting Director during the absence of the Director or during a vacancy in the Director's office.
- (2) An acting Director is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the acting Director.
- (3) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising an acting Director to act as Director.
- (4) A person appointed an acting Director shall, while so acting, be deemed to be the Director and shall have the immunities and functions of the Director.
- (5) The Minister may, for any cause which to the Minister seems sufficient, remove an acting Director from office.

122HF (Repealed)

122HG Staff

- (1) Such officers and employees as may be necessary to enable the Director to exercise the Director's functions may be appointed and employed under and subject to Part 2 of the Public Sector Management Act 1988.
- (2) A person who is employed for the purposes of subsection (1) is, while the person is so employed, an officer of the Director.

122I Functions

- (1) The functions of the Director are:
  - (a) to advise and assist authorities in relation to management plans,
  - (b) to evaluate the effectiveness of management plans in achieving the objects of this Part, and
  - (c) to make reports and recommendations, at least once in each year, to the Minister as to:
    - (i) the operation of management plans, and
    - (ii) such matters as the Director thinks appropriate relating to the objects of this Part.

- (2) The Director may exercise such other functions as are conferred or imposed on the Director by or under this Part.
- (3) The Director may, in the exercise of the Director's functions, consult, as the Director thinks fit, with persons or bodies, including the Community Relations Commission, who are concerned with the welfare of women, members of racial minorities or physically handicapped persons.
- (4) The Director may do all such supplemental, incidental and consequential acts as may be necessary or expedient for the exercise of the Director's functions.

Division 3 Equal employment opportunity management plans

122J Preparation and implementation of management plans

- (1) Each authority shall prepare and implement an equal employment opportunity management plan in order to achieve the objects of this Part.
- (2) The management plan of an authority shall include provisions relating to:
  - (a) the devising of policies and programmes by which the objects of this Part are to be achieved,
  - (b) the communication of those policies and programmes to persons within the authority,
  - (c) the collection and recording of appropriate information,
  - (d) the review of personnel practices within the authority (including recruitment techniques, selection criteria, training and staff development programmes, promotion and transfer policies and patterns, and conditions of service) with a view to the identification of any discriminatory practices,
  - (e) the setting of goals or targets, where these may reasonably be determined, against which the success of the management plan in achieving the objects of this Part may be assessed,
  - (f) the means, other than those referred to in paragraph (e), of evaluating the policies and programmes referred to in paragraph (a),
  - (g) the revision and amendment of the management plan, and
  - (h) the appointment of persons within the authority to implement the provisions referred to in paragraphs (a)-(g).
- (3) The management plan of an authority may include provisions, other than those referred to in subsection (2), which are not inconsistent with the objects of this Part.
- (4) The preparation of a management plan shall take place and the implementation of the management plan shall commence:

- (a) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (a)—on or before 1 September 1981,
- (b) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (b) or (c)—on or before 1 March 1982, and
- (c) in the case of an authority the subject of a proclamation under section 122B (1) (d)—on or before such date as is specified in the proclamation.

- (5) An authority may, from time to time, amend its management plan.
- (6) Each authority shall send a copy of its management plan or any amendment thereto to the Director as soon as practicable after the management plan or the amendment, as the case may be, has been prepared.

122JA (Repealed)

122K Inconsistencies

- (1) The provisions of a management plan shall, to the extent of any inconsistency between those provisions and the provisions of this Act, prevail.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in respect of the provisions of a management plan which are the subject of a reference.

122L Annual report to Director

- (1) Each authority shall report to the Director at least once in each year after the year in which the implementation of its management plan commenced.
- (2) A report under subsection (1) shall specify:
  - (a) the activities and programmes undertaken:
    - (i) to eliminate and ensure the absence of discrimination in employment on the grounds of race, sex, marital status and physical impairment, and
    - (ii) to promote equal employment opportunity for women, members of racial minorities and physically handicapped persons,during the period to which the report relates,
  - (b) the results achieved by the activities and programmes referred to in paragraph (a), including redistributive effects in the workforce, and
  - (c) the proposed activities and specific aims set for the year following the period to which the report relates.

- (3) A report under subsection (1) shall be made to the Director:
- (a) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (a)—on or before 1 October in each year,
  - (b) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (b) or (c)—on or before 1 July in each year, and
  - (c) in the case of an authority referred to in section 122B (1) (d)—on or before each anniversary of the date specified by proclamation in relation to that authority in accordance with section 122J (4) (c).

122M References

Where the Director is dissatisfied with any matter relating to the preparation, amendment or implementation of a management plan by an authority or any failure or omission of an authority with respect to the preparation, amendment or implementation of a management plan, the Director may refer the matter to the Board.

122N Investigation

- (1) The Board shall endeavour to determine a reference and may, for that purpose, hold an investigation into the reference.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided by this Part, an investigation shall be held in such manner as the Board determines.

122O Representation

The Director or an authority in respect of which a reference is made is not entitled to be represented by counsel or a solicitor during the holding of an investigation into the reference.

122P Powers of the Board on an investigation

- (1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Board may require the Director and an authority:
  - (a) to answer any question,
  - (b) to give it a statement of information,
  - (c) to produce to it any document or other thing, or
  - (d) to give to it a copy of any document.
- (2) A requirement under subsection (1):
  - (a) shall be in writing,

(b) shall specify or describe the information, document or thing required, and

(c) shall specify a time for compliance.

(3) The Director or an authority of whom a requirement under subsection (1) is made shall comply with the requirement notwithstanding:

(a) any rule of law which, in proceedings in a court of law, might justify an objection to compliance with a like requirement on grounds of public interest,

(b) any privilege of the Director or authority, or

(c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to the Director or authority.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Board shall set aside a requirement under subsection (1) if it appears to it that the Director or authority of whom the requirement is made has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the Director or authority, as the case may be, might resist a like requirement and it does not appear to the Board that the Director or authority, as the case may be, consents to compliance with the requirement.

122Q Incriminatory statements

(1) Where, under section 122P, a person is required to give a statement that tends to incriminate that person, neither the requirement nor the statement may be used in any proceedings against that person except proceedings under section 124.

(2) Subsection (1) applies whether the person required to give a statement objects to giving it or not.

122R Conclusion of investigation

At the conclusion of an investigation in relation to a reference, the Board may do either or both of the following:

(a) make recommendations to the Director or to the authority in respect of which the reference is made,

(b) furnish a report, with or without recommendations, to the Minister in relation to the reference.

122S Direction to amend management plan

(1) On receipt of a report from the Board under section 122R (b), the Minister may, by instrument in writing, direct an authority to amend its management plan in the manner specified in the instrument.

(2) An authority shall comply with a direction given to it by the Minister under subsection

Part 9B Inter-governmental arrangements

122T Definitions

(1) In this Part:

Commonwealth Minister means a Minister of the Crown of the Commonwealth.

human rights has the meaning ascribed thereto in section 3 (1) of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986 of the Commonwealth and includes any rights and freedoms prescribed to be human rights for the purposes of this definition.

Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission means the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission established under the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986 of the Commonwealth.

- (2) In this Part, a reference to an Act of the Commonwealth is a reference to the Act as amended from time to time and includes a reference to any Act made in substitution for that Act.
- (3) In this Part, a reference to an officer of the Board includes a reference to an officer of the Board designated for the purposes of section 94A.

122U Arrangements relating to human rights

- (1) The Minister may make an arrangement with a Commonwealth Minister for or in relation to the performance by the State, or by an authority of the State, on behalf of the Commonwealth of functions (including functions of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission) relating to the promotion of the observance of human rights.
- (2) An arrangement under this section may contain such incidental or supplementary provisions as the Minister and the Commonwealth Minister with whom the arrangement is made think necessary.
- (3) The Minister may arrange with the Commonwealth Minister with whom an arrangement is in force under this section for the variation or revocation of the arrangement.
- (4) An arrangement under this section, or the variation or revocation of such an arrangement, shall be in writing and a copy of each instrument by which an arrangement under this section has been made, varied or revoked shall be published in the Gazette.

122V Exercise of functions by State authorities pursuant to arrangement

Where an arrangement under section 122U is in force, the President, the Board or any officer of the Board may, subject to the terms of the arrangement and to any agreement made or authorisation given pursuant to the arrangement, exercise a function of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission or a function of a prescribed person within the meaning of section 3 (1) of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986 of the Commonwealth.

122W Exercise of functions by State authorities pursuant to delegation etc

The President, the Board or any officer of the Board may exercise a function delegated to or conferred (otherwise than pursuant to an arrangement under section 122U) on the President, the Board or any officer of the Board, as the case may be, pursuant to the provisions of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986 of the Commonwealth, the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 of the Commonwealth, the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 of the Commonwealth or the provisions of any other law which may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.

122X Exercise of certain functions by officers of the Board

- (1) Nothing in section 122V or 122W enables an officer of the Board to exercise a function referred to in either of those sections, being a function relating to the investigation and conciliation of complaints, without the approval of the President and the concurrence of the Minister.
- (2) An approval or concurrence referred to in subsection (1) may be given generally or in any particular case or class or description of cases.

Part 10 Miscellaneous

123 Effect of contravention of Act

- (1) A contravention of this Act shall attract no sanction or consequence, whether criminal or civil, except to the extent expressly provided by this Act.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents an action for defamation.

124 Obstruction

A person shall not, without lawful excuse, wilfully obstruct, hinder or resist:

- (a) the President, or an officer of the President, in the exercise of his or her functions under Division 2 of Part 9, or
- (b) a member of the Tribunal, the Registrar, a member of the Board, or the Director or an officer of the Director, in the exercise of his or her functions under this Act or the regulations.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 10 penalty units in any other case.

125 Proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations shall be dealt with summarily before a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone.

126 Granting of exemptions by Minister

- (1) The Minister on the recommendation of the Board, may, by order published in the Gazette, grant an exemption from this Act or the regulations or such parts of this Act or the regulations as are specified in the order in respect of:
  - (a) a person or class of persons,
  - (b) an activity or class of activity, or
  - (c) any other matter or circumstance specified in the order.
- (2) Such an exemption remains in force for the period specified in the order, which cannot be more than 10 years.
- (3) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board, renew any exemption, for no more than 10 years at a time, by making a new order in accordance with subsection (1).
- (4) The power to make an order conferred by this section includes power, exercisable in the same manner and subject to the same conditions, to vary or revoke any order so made.

126A Exemption for special needs programs and activities

- (1) Nothing in Parts 3–4C renders unlawful anything done by a person in good faith for the purposes of or in the course of any program or activity for which certification is in force under this section as a special needs program or activity.
- (2) The Minister may certify a program or activity to be a special needs program or activity if satisfied that its purpose or primary purpose is the promotion of access, for members of a group of persons affected by any form of unlawful discrimination to which this Act applies in an area of discrimination to which this Act applies, to facilities, services or opportunities to meet their special needs or the promotion of equal or improved access for them to facilities, services and opportunities.
- (3) (Repealed)
- (4) Certification for a program or activity remains in force for the period specified in the certification or (if no period is specified) until the certification is withdrawn.
- (5) Certification may be withdrawn by the Minister at any time by giving notice in writing to the person who appears to the Minister to be the person who is in charge of the program or who has responsibility for the activity concerned.

- (6) A person who is in charge of a program or activity may apply to the Tribunal for a review of a decision of the Minister under this section concerning the certification of the program or activity.

127 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Before making a recommendation to the Governor for the making of any regulation, the Minister shall take into consideration any recommendation of the Tribunal or the Board with respect to the subject-matter of the proposed regulation.
- (3) A regulation shall, unless disallowed by either House of Parliament, take effect upon:
- (a) the expiration of a period of 14 sitting days after the day or the later day written notice of its making is, pursuant to section 40 of the Interpretation Act 1987, laid before either such House, or
  - (b) a date specified in the regulation which is later than the period determined under paragraph (a).
- (4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Governor may make regulations for or with respect to:
- (a) the forms to be used for the purposes of this Act or the regulations,
  - (b) the fees to be paid in respect of the lodging of any complaint under Part 9,
  - (c) the manner of serving any notice or other document,
  - (d) (Repealed)
  - (e) exempting:
    - (i) any person or class of persons,
    - (ii) any activity or class of activity, or
    - (iii) any other matter or circumstance,specified in the regulations from this Act or such parts of this Act as may be so specified.
- (5) The regulations may impose a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units for an offence arising under the regulations.
- (6) Regulations may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as may be specified in the regulations.

128 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 128)

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may include provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994

Anti-Discrimination Amendment (Carers' Responsibilities) Act 2000

- (2) A provision referred to in subclause (1) may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or from a later date.
- (3) To the extent that a provision referred to in subclause (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of the person existing before the date of publication, or
  - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of publication.

Part 2 Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994

2 Definition

In this Part:

the amending Act means the Anti-Discrimination (Amendment) Act 1994.

3 Operation of amendments

Except as otherwise provided by this Part:

- (a) an amendment made by the amending Act does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment, and
- (b) this Act continues to apply to anything done or omitted before the commencement of such an amendment as if the amendment had not been made.

4 Complaints by representative bodies

The amendments made by the amending Act to sections 87 and 88 extend to apply in respect of an Act done before the commencement of the amendments.

5 Complaints not pursued

Section 90A (as inserted by the amending Act) and the amendments made by the amending Act to section 111 extend to complaints lodged before the commencement of that section and those amendments.

6 Joinder of parties

The amendments made by the amending Act to section 98 extend to notice of joinder given by the Tribunal before the commencement of the amendments.

7 Industrial awards and agreements

The amendments made by the amending Act to section 54 do not apply in respect of any order, award or agreement in force immediately before the commencement of those amendments until the first anniversary of the commencement of those amendments.

8 Superannuation

The amendments made by the amending Act to sections 36 and 49 (Superannuation), and section 49Q (Superannuation) as inserted by the amending Act, are not limited in their operation to superannuation or provident funds or schemes begun after the commencement of those amendments or that section and extend to apply in respect of such a fund or scheme begun before that commencement.

Part 3 Anti-Discrimination Amendment Act 1997

9 Definition

In this Part:

the amending Act means the Anti-Discrimination Amendment Act 1997.

10 (Repealed)

11 Complaints relating to sexual harassment
