- (3) A delegation under this section may be made subject to conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any of the functions delegated, or as to time or circumstances.
- (4) A delegation under this section must be made by instrument in writing.
- (5) An instrument of delegation must specify:
 - (a) the functions the exercise of which is delegated, and
 - (b) any conditions or limitations on the delegation.
- (6) The Ombudsman may revoke a delegation under this section at any time, whether made by the Ombudsman or not.
- (7) A delegation under this section is not revoked by the happening of a vacancy in the office of Ombudsman or by an absence or disability of the Ombudsman, except to the extent that the instrument of delegation so provides.

- (8) During a vacancy in the office of Ombudsman, if there is no acting Ombudsman, the Minister may revoke a delegation under this section.
- (9) Notwithstanding any delegation made under this section, the Ombudsman may continue to exercise all or any of the functions delegated.

10A Delegation to other Ombudsman

- (1) The Ombudsman may delegate the exercise of any functions of the Ombudsman under sections 13A, 18, 19 (1), 20 and 23 to a person who is empowered to exercise under a law of another State, the Commonwealth or a Territory of the Commonwealth functions similar to the functions exercised by the Ombudsman under this Act, where:
 - (a) the Ombudsman is of the opinion that an investigation authorised to be carried out by the Ombudsman under this Act may more effectively or more appropriately be carried out by the person to whom it is proposed the delegation be made, and
 - (b) the delegation is for the purpose of enabling that person to carry out that investigation.
- (2) A delegation under this section may be made subject to conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any of the functions delegated, or as to time or circumstances.
- (3) A delegation under this section must be made by instrument in writing.
- (4) An instrument of delegation must specify:
 - (a) the functions the exercise of which is delegated, and
 - (b) any conditions or limitations on the delegation.
- (5) The Ombudsman may revoke a delegation under this section at any time, whether made by that Ombudsman or not.
- (6) A delegation under this section is not revoked by the happening of a vacancy in the office of Ombudsman or by an absence or disability of the Ombudsman, except to the extent that the instrument of delegation so provides.
- (7) During a vacancy in the office of Ombudsman, if there is no acting Ombudsman, the Minister may revoke a delegation under this section.
- (8) Notwithstanding any delegation made under this section, the Ombudsman may continue to exercise all or any of the functions delegated.
- (9) Where the exercise of a function is delegated under this section, then, for the purpose of enabling a person to carry out an investigation, as referred to in subsection (1) (b), that investigation shall, for the purposes of:

- (a) the provisions of this Act which confer or impose the delegated function, and
- (b) the provisions of sections 21 and 24,

be an investigation under this Act, and references in those provisions to the Ombudsman shall be construed as including references to the delegate.

- (10) Where the exercise of a function is delegated under this section, the provisions of sections 34, 35 and 35A apply to and in respect of the delegate and officers of the delegate in the same way as those provisions apply to and in respect of the Ombudsman and officers of the Ombudsman.

10B Delegation from other jurisdictions

- (1) Where by or under the law of another State, the Commonwealth or a Territory of the Commonwealth any function is conferred on or delegated to the Ombudsman, the Ombudsman may:
- (a) exercise the function so conferred or may refuse to exercise the function, or
 - (b) accept the delegation and exercise the function so delegated or may refuse to accept the delegation.
- (2) Except where otherwise expressly provided, a function exercised by the Ombudsman in pursuance of subsection (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be exercised in the course of the Ombudsman's office or in the execution of this Act, as the case may require.

11 Effect of certain acts etc

Any act or thing done, suffered or omitted:

- (a) pursuant to this or any other Act by an acting Ombudsman or the Deputy Ombudsman, or
- (b) pursuant to a delegation under section 10 or 10A,

has the same force and effect as if done, suffered or omitted by the Ombudsman.

Part 3 Investigations and conciliations

12 Right to complain

- (1) Subject to this section, any person (including a public authority) may complain to the Ombudsman about the conduct of a public authority unless:
- (a) the conduct is of a class described in Schedule 1,
 - (b) the conduct took place more than twelve months before the date of assent to this Act,

- (c) the conduct took place during the period of twelve months that last preceded the date of assent to this Act and the complaint was made more than twelve months after the appointed day, or
 - (d) the conduct, being conduct of a local government authority, took place before the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2) of the Ombudsman (Amendment) Act 1976.
- (2) Where a person wishes to make a complaint under subsection (1), the complaint may, with the consent of that person, be made on his or her behalf by a member of Parliament.
- (3) Where a person is detained by, or in the custody of, a public authority and informs the public authority or another person having superintendence over him or her that he or she wishes to make a complaint to the Ombudsman, the public authority or other person so informed shall:
- (a) take all steps necessary to facilitate the making of the complaint, and
 - (b) send immediately to the Ombudsman, unopened, any written matter addressed to the Ombudsman.
- (4) A complaint under subsection (1), and a consent for the purposes of subsection (2), must be in writing.
- (4A) However, the Ombudsman:
- (a) may accept a complaint that is not in writing if the Ombudsman considers it appropriate to do so, and
 - (b) in that event, must reduce the complaint to writing as soon as practicable.
- (5) Where a member of Parliament acts for a person under subsection (2) the member does not, except for the purposes of sections 15, 16, 26 (4) and 29, thereby become the complainant.
- (6) Where a member of Parliament publishes to a person for whom the member acts under subsection (2) any matter, or a copy of any matter, published to the member by the Ombudsman, the publication has, for all purposes, the same effect as if it had been published to that person by the Ombudsman.

13 Decision for investigation

- (1) Where it appears to the Ombudsman that any conduct of a public authority about which a complaint may be made under section 12 may be conduct referred to in section 26, the Ombudsman may, whether or not any person has complained to the Ombudsman about the conduct, make the conduct the subject of an investigation under this Act.

- (2) Subsection (1) has effect notwithstanding anything in any Act passed before the passing of this Act.
- (3) The Ombudsman may discontinue an investigation under this Act.
- (4) Where any person has complained to the Ombudsman under section 12 about the conduct of a public authority, the Ombudsman, in deciding whether to make that conduct the subject of an investigation under this Act or whether to discontinue an investigation commenced by him or her under this Act:
 - (a) may have regard to such matters as he or she thinks fit, and
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), may have regard to whether, in his or her opinion:
 - (i) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or not in good faith,
 - (ii) the subject-matter of the complaint is trivial,
 - (iii) the subject-matter of the complaint relates to the discharge by a public authority of a function which is substantially a trading or commercial function,
 - (iv) the conduct complained of occurred at too remote a time to justify investigation,
 - (v) in relation to the conduct complained of there is or was available to the complainant an alternative and satisfactory means of redress, or
 - (vi) the complainant has no interest or an insufficient interest in the conduct complained of.
- (4A) In deciding whether to discontinue an investigation of police conduct, the Ombudsman shall have regard to the public interest.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Ombudsman shall not investigate the conduct of a public authority, being a local government authority, if that conduct is subject to a right of appeal or review conferred by or under an Act unless the Ombudsman is of the opinion that special circumstances make it unreasonable to expect that right to be or to have been exercised.

13AA Preliminary inquiries

- (1) The Ombudsman may make preliminary inquiries for the purpose of deciding whether to make particular conduct of a public authority the subject of an investigation under this Act.
- (2) The inquiries may be made whether or not any person has complained to the Ombudsman about the conduct under section 12.
- (3) If a complaint has been made under section 12 (whether in writing or otherwise), the

Ombudsman may, by way of a preliminary inquiry with respect to the complaint, require the complainant to provide further written particulars of the complaint within the time specified by the Ombudsman.

13A Dealing with complaint by conciliation

- (1) The Ombudsman may, at any time, decide to attempt to deal with a complaint by conciliation under this section.
- (2) The conciliator in any conciliation under this section is to be the Ombudsman or an officer of the Ombudsman. However, the conciliator may, with the agreement of the complainant, arrange for a mediator to assist in the conciliation.
- (3) Participation in the conciliation by the parties to a complaint is voluntary, and either party may withdraw at any time. The conciliator may also terminate the attempt at conciliation at any time.
- (4) Evidence of anything said or admitted during the conciliation (or attempted conciliation) and any document prepared for the purposes of any such conciliation are not admissible:
 - (a) in any subsequent investigation, under this Part, of the complaint concerned (unless the person who said or admitted the thing, or to whom the document relates, consents to its admission), or
 - (b) in any proceedings in a court or before a person or body authorised to hear and receive evidence.
- (5) If an attempt to deal with a complaint by conciliation under this section is unsuccessful, the complaint is to be treated under this Part as if the attempted conciliation had not taken place. However, the conciliator is excluded from participating as an investigating officer in any investigation of the complaint.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents a complaint from being dealt with otherwise than in accordance with this section.

14 Amendment of Schedule

- (1) The Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 1 so as to add to it, or to omit from it, any class of conduct of a public authority.
- (2) Where Schedule 1 is amended by adding to it any class of conduct of a public authority, and conduct the subject of an investigation or conciliation by the Ombudsman is or includes conduct of the added class, the Ombudsman shall discontinue the investigation or conciliation in so far as it relates to conduct of the added class and shall not make any report concerning conduct of the added class.
- (3) A proclamation under subsection (1):

- (a) takes effect from the date of the publication of the proclamation or a later date specified in the proclamation, and
 - (b) shall be laid before each House of Parliament within fourteen sitting days of that House after the date of proclamation.
- (4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution, of which notice has been given within fifteen sitting days of that House after a proclamation has been laid before it, disallowing the proclamation or any part thereof, the amendment of Schedule 1 made by the proclamation or part thereupon ceases to have effect.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4) sitting days shall be counted, whether or not they occur during the same session.
- (6) Where, by the operation of subsection (4), an amendment of Schedule 1 ceases to have effect, the Ombudsman may:
- (a) resume any investigation or conciliation that he or she discontinued under subsection (2) by reason of the amendment, and
 - (b) make a report concerning the conduct to which the resumed investigation relates.

15 Reasons for refusal to conciliate, investigate or continue investigation

- (1) Where:
- (a) a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman under section 12 about the conduct of a public authority, and
 - (b) the Ombudsman:
 - (i) refuses to investigate the conduct complained of or to deal with the complaint by conciliation, or
 - (ii) discontinues an investigation of that conduct,
- the Ombudsman shall inform the complainant in writing of his or her decision and the reasons for the decision.
- (2) Where the Ombudsman discontinues an investigation of police conduct, the Ombudsman shall inform the complainant and the Commissioner of Police in writing of the decision and the reasons for the decision.
- (3) Where the Ombudsman:
- (a) refuses to carry out any other investigation, or
 - (b) refuses to deal with any other complaint, disclosure or allegation by conciliation, or

(c) discontinues any other investigation,

the Ombudsman must inform the complainant, or the person who made the disclosure or allegation, in writing of the decision and the reasons for the decision.

16 Notice of investigation

(1) Upon the Ombudsman deciding to make the conduct or police conduct of a public authority the subject of an investigation under this Act, the Ombudsman shall give notice of the decision:

(a) where there is a complainant, to the complainant,

(b) to the head of the public authority and, if practicable, to the public authority, and

(c) as prescribed.

(2) A notice under this section must be in writing, must describe the conduct or police conduct the subject of the investigation and must, so far as practicable, identify the public authority.

17 Privacy

An investigation under this Act shall be made in the absence of the public.

18 Public authority to give information etc

(1) For the purposes of an investigation under this Act, the Ombudsman may require a public authority:

(a) to give the Ombudsman a statement of information,

(b) to produce to the Ombudsman any document or other thing, or

(c) to give the Ombudsman a copy of any document.

(2) A requirement under this section must be in writing, must specify or describe the information, document or thing required, and must fix a time and specify a place for compliance.

19 Inquiries

(1) In an investigation under this Act, the Ombudsman may make or hold inquiries.

(2) For the purposes of any inquiry under this section, the Ombudsman has the powers, authorities, protections and immunities conferred on a commissioner by Division 1 of Part 2 of the Royal Commissions Act 1923 and that Act (section 13 and Division 2 of Part 2 excepted) applies to any witness summoned by or appearing before the Ombudsman in the same way as it applies to a witness summoned by or appearing before a commissioner, but section 11 (2) of that Act shall have effect subject to section 21 of this Act.

- (3) A witness appearing before the Ombudsman is to be paid such amount as the Ombudsman determines, but not exceeding the amount that would be payable to such a witness if he or she were a Crown witness subpoenaed by the Crown to give evidence.

20 Entry on premises etc
